STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Historically, everywhere in the world where the "honkey" (white man) has gone, he has used the Indian, the Brown man, Asians, and Black people to further his own supremacy and maintain it in perpetuity.

In America, Black people have been brainwashed for 400 years and that many of the "brothers" are "messed up" in their thinking. It is his purpose and those in the movement to "unbrainwash" his brothers and educate them to identify themselves with Africans.

Educational institutions in this country are detrimental to the Black people and are maintained solely to serve the needs of the white community. Such institutions as Howard University, which is primarily a Black man's institution, simply imitate white institutions of learning. They do not teach African heritage and Black history. They fail in that they neither serve the needs nor the functions of the black community. He said Black people need to develop an African frame of reference, learn of its culture and skills for their own use. Black people must change their attitude and think only of what is good for "our" people.

Carmichael said that Black people are used to maintain the supremacy of the United States throughout the world. Black people must start acting in their own interest. This means they must begin to act against those who use them. If the Black man "just begins thinking for himself, he will know he has no business in Vietnam. He won't go."

Carmichael stated that the Vietnamese recognize that the Black man is being used. He illustrated how the French used Algerians in Vietnam. When captives were taken, the Vietnamese put the Algerians in separate cells from the French and reeducated them. This program resulted in the formation of the national liberation front in Algeria. As a result, Algeria became free.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Carmichael claimed his "brothers" must begin to rebuild a community feeling that has been broken down. "We" have to stop taking out our hatred on each other. "We are going to take this city, there ain't no ifs, ands or buts about that. When we get the city, we will have developed a feeling of community. So, whatever we use the city for, it will help the community, the masses of our people, not just a few people who are running for offices and are fighting each other." He stated that just getting to vote is not enough, that it is a white man's trick. He stated it is the white man's institutions they are fighting.

The white man realizes that "if the Black man gets together, there's going to be trouble." He stated, "The Black man cannot be concerned with America. He must be concerned with his people. To be concerned with Black people in this country is not to be concerned with America. It is to be the opposite of America. We are dealing with the institutions of America."

Carmichael praised Malcolm X and the Nation of Islam for being pioneers in teaching Black people self-respect and dignity. They were one of the first groups in "our time" to really organize "our" people.

Carmichael advanced the theory that the major duty of the Black community at this point is to end the oppression of the community and to resist that oppression.

Carmichael said he does not create rebellions. It is the system under which we live which creates riots. He stated he does not need any help from white people. All he needs he said is for the white man to "get up off our backs." He claimed it is hard to find a white man in the United States today who isn't a racist. "Why pass the Civil Rights Act if we were citizens?" "The time for talking is over, we got to move."

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Carmichael outlined the following program for Black people:

First, Black people are to be made to understand they are divided and must organize in all sections of the country to aid each other.

Secondly, Black people must move to take over institutions which they do not control. First should be the Police Departments, then Boards of Education, then Welfare Departments, in fact, all institutions which are manifestations of the white power structure.

Thirdly, Black people must take over the economics in their communities--the stores and businesses, both large and small.

Carmichael summed up by saying in part:

"We must get our people together to survive inside this hell hole. ...Individualism is a luxury Black people can no longer afford. Secondly, we must begin to recognize that in getting together, some of us will have to go. That is just a fact. We must be willing to shed our blood. Lastly, we have nothing to worry about. The Black man will survive. After all they have done to us, Black people will survive. We are winners."

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Radio station WOL, Washington, D.C., on a special recorded program, moderated by WOL News Director, Ron Pinkney, had as its special guests, Stokely Carmichael and Rufus "Catfish" Mayfield, former Chairman of Pride, Inc. The program was reportedly taped on January 17, 1968, at WOL Studios, 2000 P Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., and was broadcast from 7:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. on January 21, 1968.

Also appearing on the program were Robert Maynard of the "Washington Post," John Lewis, of "Afro-American," and Bernard Garnett of Johnson's Publications, which includes "Jet" and "Ebony" magazines, who acted as an interviewing panel of Carmichael and Mayfield.

Pinkney opened the program by introducing Carmichael and Mayfield. He stated Carmichael had previously appeared on WOL radio program "Speak Up" on January 14, 1968. He described Carmichael as former Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and as a graduate of Howard University. He stated Carmichael had recently returned from what had been called "unauthorized trips to Cuba, Hanoi, Sweden and France." Upon returning to Washington, D.C., he was described as having started an organization called Black United Front. Mayfield, former Chairman of Pride, Inc., was described as having catapulted into the limelight during the Summer of 1967.

When the questioning began, Carmichael was asked if he would outline some of his plans for the Black United Front and for SNCC, in Washington, D.C. Carmichael replied that he was unable to do that at this time. Carmichael continued, when asked, why he picked Washington, D.C., as a target city to begin organizing, that there were a number of reasons.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

He stated Washington represents the clearest contradictions of black and white in the country, because black people are in the majority and all institutions of power in the city are run by whites, controlled by whites and for the benefit of whites. Continuing, he stated Washington is the Nation's Capitol and it seems it must begin to represent clearly in the minds of people around the world precisely what the country is about, its relationship to their internal colonies, black people inside the country, so that "we can speak up and develop strength with our brothers in the third world." He added, "they will not be brainwashed by the United States." He stated, for example, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey just took a trip to Africa and his job was again to fool "our brothers in Africa and if the contradictions are hiding, my brothers in Africa will see through all that nonsense that the honkies are trying to put down."

He was asked if his Washington, D.C. activities were going to be a springboard for similar Black United Fronts in other United States cities. He replied no, that he thought there would be a coordinating effort around the country because today black people recognize the necessity for unity if they are going to survive, in what (Dr. Martin Luther King) called 'Babylon.'

Carmichael was asked if he saw a coinciding role for the organizing efforts with the proposed "camp-in" proposed for April, 1968, by Dr. King. Carmichael stated he had worked with King in the past and would continue to work with him because they are trying to find the solution "for our people to live a decent life as human beings."

In response to a question as to why he did not make public matters transpiring at his meetings being held, he stated because the means of communication are controlled by the whites and every movement "they had ever started, the honkies had always disrupted it and left them divided." He added it is important to note that "black people get together, white people begin to condemn their unity. Yet, white people can get together without any problems and nobody in the black community ever questions their right to do so." As for example, George Wallace can have a meeting with Lyndon Johnson; James O. Eastland can have a meeting and set up a coalition with some other "honkey" and nobody in the black community questions them. He then asked the question why does the "honkey" think he has the right to say something about Negroes when they try to get together. What right does he have to condemn? In order to prevent further division, the "honkey" must be isolated as to what is going on.

He was asked if he included the "black press" and he indicated that he did not regard this as a significantly wrong voice in the community. He added if the white press can be controlled for awhile, then a black press can be built that becomes a real voice for the community.

Carmichael was asked if he thought his task of bringing the black people together would be difficult, especially the so-called militants and the moderates. He stated alot of Negroes are now brainwashed by the white man, commonly called moderates in the white press and it will take time to bring them into "our community" so that they will begin working for the benefit of the black community and not the white man. He stated he thinks it will take time but "our people" slowly will begin to see the light.

Carmichael in addition commented in response to questions as follows:

Negro parents have to take over the schools and begin to teach "our children what we wish to teach them." The education they have been getting has hindered them.

He reiterated his group would never publicly attack or oppose Dr. Martin Luther King.

Black power is not Carmichael's image, but the image of fifteen million black people in the United States. It is all the assemblance of the creativity and skills that black people have put together to "make us live like human beings."

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

He goes to church because black people are in the churches. It is a collective place where "our people" are.

He thinks the creative skills of the middle class Negroes working for the Government, such as at the White House or on Capitol Hill are a part of black power, however, what they create goes to serve the white man and cannot be considered part of black power. There are a lot of black traders in our community.

The white community started "their petty anti-nonsensical poverty program which was aimed at precisely what it has done in the community, split it. Factions are fighting over crumbs and this is precisely what the whites wanted. The whites have no intention of uniting the black community and any one who thinks they do is absolutely absurd.

Regarding travel outside the United States, Carmichael stated as far as he is concerned, a man is born free and that he will travel anywhere he wants to at any time. He will see whom ever he decides to see and that the United States does not control him.

Carmichael, in his closing statements, commented that as long as he is living and there is breath in his body, he is going to work to "bring our people together."

Rufus "Catfish" Mayfield, who did not participate very actively in the program, when questioned, stated he had been talking with Carmichael about establishing a Black United Front in Washington, D.C., and thinks one is needed. He added Carmichael is going to be good one way or another, he will either wake somebody up or scare somebody to death.

Stokeley Carmichael spent almost a month in Dar es Salaam, October 28th to November 26th. One looks for any specific evidence of his visit and finds that precious little did take root, yet in some ways Dar may never be the same.

He was lionized by the militants; he totally alienated the Freedom Fighters with whom he should have identified more than with any other segment of the Dar scene. He leaves the "imperialist" Standard still awed by the bravura of his performance, but the poor Nationalist suffers from a diarrhoea of ill-digested revolutionary flotsam and jetsam. It would seem that the only element not touched by the magic of his personality is the white power structure. He was certainly the most vivid personality to hit this comparative backwater in a long time, and his heart would beat faster if he knew how frequently he is still talked of, at smart Oyster Bay cocktails, in student beerhalls, and perhaps even in village "pombe" shops.

Line-Up at the Start

b2 [redacted] early - and as it turned out correctly - suggested he be paid no attention whatsoever by the Embassy. A few journalists tried egging Embassy spokesmen into a public debate but to no avail. Eventually, this seemed to pique even Stokeley himself.

b7C His travel and per diem were probably covered by the Cuban Embassy, [redacted] accompanying him to almost all appearances. He stayed at the Palm Beach Hotel, a second-class hotel with active beer garden, where he met all comers willingly. While the [redacted] was in town, they were good drinking partners. For some time the Government took no public position and the Post thought he might be getting into such hot water that he would be asked to shut up or leave.

Then the President saw him, and the TANU Party openly served as organizer of his program.

Play-by-Play

The Post reconstructs the following loose sequence of events from press coverage or reliable gossip, to the best of its ability:

The day after his arrival, the Standard had a superbly characteristic front-page picture of him on a hotel bed, mouth very open, arms gesturing. The hair-raising stream-of-consciousness interview was the best coverage he got here. The British reporter, David Martin, still says it was the most fascinating interview he has ever conducted. And Stokeley apparently enjoyed it until told that the Standard is a tool of the imperialists. He never talked to the Standard again.

The Nationalist's interview was more humorless, conducted with the entire editorial staff in an awed circle around the prophet. This carried again Carmichael's slurs on the majority of African leaders who are pawns of the imperialists and his disdain for the "Freedom Fighter" who chases white broads down Dar's Independence Avenue. Uhuru and the other Swahili papers followed the Nationalist's line. As far as we know, Radio Tanzania covered Carmichael's moves but gave no time to airing of his controversial views.

The Standard gave a box to the front-page denunciation of Carmichael by the South African PAC. This release was also picked up by quite a few American papers, to judge by the clippings, but the denunciation alone gives no true picture of Carmichael in Dar.

The first public lecture was to a jammed lecture-hall at the University College, sponsored by the University Student's African Revolutionary Front, an organization born a few month earlier but with no apparent program until the saviour came along.

The second University appearance backfired. It was heralded as a memorial to Che Guevara. The faithful came in quantity. The Cuban diplomat went on first in Spanish. A deadly interpreter then read the same canned biography in English. Only when Carmichael took to his familiar soap-box at the close did the evening come to life.

His Kivukoni College talk is reported in detail as an enclosure, to give an example of his gospel. By this time, he had backed down a bit on the Liberation Front Organizations, suggesting he would have to study them further. Later, he had some praise for [redacted] and it is believed he was impressed by a private meeting with [redacted]

The Nationalist says Carmichael spent over two hours with President Nyerere. After it, Carmichael said they had had a very agreeable exchange of views. The President has said nothing.

Then came a series of talks to National Service Camps, the People's Defense Forces, and to organized TANU groups at Arnautoglu Hall, a Community Center on Dar's Central Park. It is not known if his English was understood.

About this time, he was interviewed by a Polish Radio/TV reporter who found a completely different Stokeley. For the Poles, there was no effort to identify with Africa, no castigation of the Freedom Fighters, no down with the white power structure. Instead Carmichael dwelt on U.S. Civil Rights Leaders' inability to align the Poles in the Northern suburbs. Even appeals to the clergy won no support. Here, Carmichael was an earnest, hurt, American Civil Rights activist, not a revolutionary.

By this time, Nationalist editorials and the Pressman's Commentary column were regurgitating chunks of Stokeley's dogma here and there, indicating some backwash.

He was gratified to learn that the CBS/TV coverage had by this time been used twice in the U.S., at good listening times.

Then Carmichael started talking of departure. He told one reporter he was homesick. In print, it sounded like a persecution complex. The Nationalist on the 25th said, "he was sure of being arrested by the white authorities in power in the United States when he goes home". To the many inquiries USIS received we replied that all we foresaw was a possible withdrawal of passport. No one believed us.

He spent a weekend in Zanzibar as guest of the Revolutionary Council, viewing the clove trees, harranguing one Afro-Shirazi Youth League rally. The Nationalist covered this but a Zanzibar Information Services press release sounded like just another lacklustre True Believer, admiring the economic and social progress.

Finally, the 27th's Nationalist banner-headlined across its back page "Carmichael Returnsto 'Hell'". Never was an actor more in need of a play. One can almost see the tears in the would-be martyr's eyes as he declaims while the curtain lowers, "Before I leave Tanzania, I wish to pass a special message to the people of this country -- particularly the youth -- and that is: THE REVOLUTION MUST CONTINUE."

No one knows just what revolution is to continue. He probably did have Nyerere on his list of colonial institutions to topple but parrots now interpret him as urging patriotic devotion to Nyerere's self-reliance. Nyerere has still said nothing, nor has Babu..

USIS was grateful for the State Department's release, a week later, confirming that only revocation of the passport faced him on his return. The Standard boxed this on its front page. Both papers followed him to the Russell trial, and to his vicissitudes in Paris. Only the Nationalist carried his triumphant return to Harlem, with fans shouting "Mau-Mau" (spelt Mao-Mao in one place.) The adjectival "Mau-Mau" could not be more distasteful to an East African.

But the melody lingers on. December 15th's Pressman's Commentary is muddier than usual but tries to achieve a ringing close, in exposing the machinations of the imperialist press by saying it "did everything to discredit him (Stokeley), thinking he would be asked to leave Tanzania. They must be regretting for their futile campaign which ended in sheer smoke"

Final Score

Carmichael did give a shot in the arm to the young militants of the TANU Youth League, the press and on the campus. Now they are daring to be more outlandish in their own pronouncements and play to the gallery. But the enthusiastic applause which follows is less an endorsement of the ideas than an endorsement of freedom of speech.

By an odd quirk, his cause is probably now being hurt by local white ultra-liberals jumping on his bandwagon. The founder of Black Power had made it abundantly clear that he scorned the phony white liberals.

Before Carmichael (B.C.?) we would not have had a Viet Nam Teach-In. Now it has taken place, with two of the three speakers being from this lunatic fringe of the American community. One beard started his speech, "My country is the worst threat to peace in the world today. As Stokeley Carmichael says....." and then he was drowned in waves of applause and amiable guffaws.

The intellectual then went on to muddy up Carmichael's thought picking out some flaws in the Maoist thinking, questioning some of his statistics.

One resident American Negro suggests there was a positive aspect: Carmichael epitomized the well-known American know-how applied to social evolution - pragmatic, direct, original, non-bureaucratic, refreshing in its simplicity. This thrilled the Tanzanians who already respect the U.S. for its know-how and gadgetry in other spheres.

Another theorist observes that only in America do they breed a race so strong, lungs so lusty, and thinking so free and unfettered.

Come to think of it, it was a smash hit and vastly superior to Peking's song and dance production of "The East is Red" which is now grinding to a halt in Tanzania. The Nationalist gave it a rave review but from the start, audiences departed midway through. No one noticed when the final two performances were cancelled. Stokeley was by all odds the better revolutionary. Long Live America!

USIS does admire him as a propagandist. He said, on parting, "I have learnt a great deal. I intend to use that which I have learnt to further help organize the 900 million Africans in the world today."

Assuming he learns more - and he has lots to learn about Africa - his views might conceivably soften to the point where he would make a good CAO.

STOKELEY CARMICHAEL TALK AT KIVUKONI COLLEGE

Place:

ALL FBI INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 12-09-2005 BY 60309 AUC TAM/MLT/JHF

Talk held in dining hall of Kivukoni, the TANU Party adult education college for potential leaders, across the bay from Dar es Salaam, afternoon of November 6, 1967.

Persons:

About 100 male and 8 female students of the College's "long" course of 9 months. There were about 10 whites in the audience, [redacted] [redacted] (American Harvard volunteers) of the teaching staff, and three visitors. [redacted] accompanied Carmichael but did not participate. One American Negro contributed a bit though seemed not to follow Carmichael down-the-line. Among the students were at least 3 Southwest African refugees, one South African and one Rwandan. It became evident that a number of Dar FLN boys had also come, armed with questions because of Carmichael's previous criticism of their efforts. The reporting Officer and USIS Press Assistant talked with a number of students who were friendly and remembered our having accompanied [redacted] on a similar occasion a few months earlier.

Discussion Summary:

Mr. Carmichael wore his blue jeans and a Tanzanian print sports shirt. He stood on a raised step, was relaxed throughout and frequently privately amused. To make points he ranged about, used his long arms and hands tellingly over the heads of the front row. The pat paragraphs came easily, without any cheap theatrics save an occasional shrug of the shoulders if a question were beneath answering. He overestimated the sophistication of the audience and some of his Americanisms were not understood, but then his erratic logic defies careful analysis anyway.

He had no difficulty dominating the hall whenever he chose, his cheekiness in stating obviously outlandish opinions winning the delighted support of all. They sobered in agreement at references to the traditional inferiority complexes of Africans or African-Americans. His blanket injunction to sweep out every white advisor and teacher in the country was received with gasps of admiration.

Carmichael divided the audience sharply when he attacked the local FLN groups, the non-Tanzanian Africans disgreeing with sophistication. The Tanzanians who were in the majority, were less experienced and articulate but obviously agreed with Carmichael. About halfway through the session, this division became an insoluble problem so Carmichael declined to be drawn out farther, stating modestly, for him, that he would have to study up a bit on the Freedom Fighters.

Transcribed Notes

(The following consolidate the notes of the two USIS spectators. The talk started on the theme of education but Carmichael quickly dropped that and opened it up for questions, most of which are not repeated since the answers reveal the nature of the questions.)

"Education" comes from the Latin ex and duco meaning to lead out. Education of us as Africans is supposed to lead us out of our problems, but in this sense, the imperialists' education in Africa is a failure. It does not unite us, the black men, We must throw out all Western concepts.

Our education and culture were disrupted by the imperialist white people. In turn, they imposed their education and culture on us with the sole purpose of demoralizing us and making us feel inferior. They want us to think and judge in terms of their standards. They want us to think everything Western is fine and good. You should forget all history written by white men. They wrote nothing but imperialistic praise of their achievements. We must study history and write it as it was. We must present the facts as they are.

You say Africa depends on Europe and America. You're crazy! They depend on Africa. They couldn't exist without the sweat and toil and the raw materials of us Africans.

There are 900,000,000 Africans, from Capetown to Nova Scotia. This is easy to figure; fifty million in the U.S., four hundred million in Africa; millions in Brazil; the West Indies have nothing but Africans; the majority in Nova Scotia are Africans.

Yeah, I know the whites say there are 22,000,000 African-Americans in the U.S. - or Negroes, as the white man puts it. This is obviously ridiculous when you look at the black population of Washington - 65% of the adults, 95% of school-age, and Harlem, Newark, Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago - all have more than 50% African. And all those big cities. And we know the South has more than a third Negro population. So it figures. We have the strength, and we're going to unite and use this strength to throw the white man out of our continent.

The U.S. can't live without Africa for one simple reason.

What's the dollar backed by? Gold! And the U.S. hasn't got one iota of gold! Here on our continent, there is always enough to eat. We have minerals, coal, copper, gold, manganese, diamonds and all those things that the U.S. needs for its industry. They look to Africa for exploitation so as to leave us poor. In other words, Europeans and Americans are dependent on Africa for their survival. Why, Britain has nothing on that stinking little island - not even enough to feed itself.

I'm an African-American. The man in the street like me back home describes himself as an African-American. I'm not an American because I can't benefit from those rights and privileges of an American, so how can I call myself one? But we'll see. If we are given our rights, we'll burn down the U.S. because that big nation was built by our sweat.

No, you don't get liberated through voting. It's all controlled by the whites. White domination in the U.S. hinders us from getting anywhere. All political, economic and social institutions are in the hands of the whites - even here in Africa. This is true of most of Africa today - the whites control the voting.

No, the African-American can't expect to get any support from the working classes in the U.K. or the U.S. because those workers have been bought by the crumbs the whites gave them from their plundering and raping of Africa and the rest of the Third World. The first job of the African-American in the U.S. is to destroy the white power structure from within. Africans can help Negroes destroy this white power structure. To do it, we need the help of the revolutionaries of the third world. If the third world cuts the U.S. tentacles which are spread around the globe, the U.S. economy will crumble. This is possible, if we are determined.

How much time will it take us to change the whole structure of the U.S.? Brother, I don't think in those terms. We'll give our lives. We may have to sacrifice a generation for the sake of the next generation. What is important is to start. We have started!

I don't believe in any organized front. Those who want to fight with me are in; those who don't are the enemy. Then when we've won, we'll fight those who don't agree with us ideologically. That's what Marx says. The foremost job is to get the Negroes to realize the political power that they have and it is out of this spirit that Negroes will be able to realize the importance of their unity. We've got to get all Afro-Americans unified for real political power. And if Negroes have arms, and training, and leadership - which makes them so admired in the Viet Nam thing - we can tear apart the inner core of the entire U.S. administration right now!

Those Civil Rights marches had no effect whatsoever. All those people going up to Mister White to beg for rights they already had! Those rights already belonged to them. Why did they have to go and ask to have them given to them?

I'm not after rights. I'm after power. Black Power. And as Mao says, power is won out of the end of a gun. Oh, those marches for integration! No Black Man should fight for integration! We've got to get rid of those white liberals. Everytime we start an organization, about five of them move in and the first thing you know, they've taken it over. For a white man to join us, he's got to feel like us. That means, he has to know exploitation, and poverty, and hopelessness. Then he'll want to tear down the whole structure and race won't mean a thing.

They say we're racists, or racialists. They're the ones who are racialists. When they want to join us, they're thinking race - them and us - so they're the racists, not us. The marches did contribute to a revolutionary education, but that's all ... Martin Luther King is all washed up. We've wiped him out of the Black Community so he's had to move in to the Peace thing. I won't talk Peace.

(Asked about his criticisms in the Standard of Southern Africa liberation movements:) I didn't know the Standard was an instrument of the imperialists. I thought this being in Tanzania, it was for Tanzania and for the African. There's no reason for its existence in Tanzania today.

A Zimbabwe person - I never say 'Rhodesian' because what's Cecil Rhodes doing with a country named after him in Black Africa? - must fight from the inside, just like the Vietnamese or the Afro-Americans. (Loud cheers) The majority of the leaders of the Liberation Fronts in Tanzania are just living it up. I've been deceived by them. I find they're not doing a thing - they're traitors. I've seen your leaders - leaders of freedom fighters - in Paris and London, living in luxurious hotels, mixing with white people. They claim they're freedom fighters but how can you fight from outside? How can you feel the hardship facing the people who do real fighting in the bush while you're enjoying all the luxury available? They are traitors to their people. They are thieves of their people's faith.

I don't know the conditions in those countries? Oh, that's a grievous mistake. I've seen the fighting, in the U.S., and in Viet Nam, where the Vietnamese are fighting World War III for the entire cowardly world! And I'll tell you. Everytime I kill a soldier, I take his gun. To kill an enemy, you gain a gun. OK. To kill three hundred, you get 300 guns. That's how you build your arsenal. It makes me laugh. I read today where some group claims 5,000 dead in three years. You know what that boils down to? A miserable three soldiers a day! So they should by now have 5,000 guns, yet they're only killing three soldiers a day!

Inside, those Zimbabweans can do a lot more for themselves, if only they are determined, just like the Vietnamese who can resist the whole weight of American armed forces, because they are determined!

Return to Africa? Okay, but before I come, we're going to burn the United States right down to the ground! It's a Big Power, you know that? And you think we'll just walk away and leave it? No, revenge is too sweet!

(In a very confused aside he rewrote the Civil War with the North losing and losing because of all those Blacks working and sweating and keeping the Confederacy on top until Lincoln had to issue that Emancipation Proclamation. But he didn't free the slaves - he said that's just white man's history.)

Yes (answering a white American's question), we have considered directed violence against institutions in the U S. which support South Africa. We've studied it. We've found the Chase Manhattan Bank is one of the biggest supporters of South Africa. Rockefeller is their Chairman. Then there's Firestone in Liberia and Ghana. Yes, we're considering directed violence against those institutions.

Q. Do you think the whites control Africa?

A. Yes, even in those so-called independent countries.

Q. You mean we should cut with the West entirely?

A. Yes.

Q. But what about those progressive countries that have practised true African socialism? Here, we've nationalized. Do you mean to say we've done nothing?

A. (Shrug)

Q. How do you define Black Power?

A. We want to control where we live, politically, socially, economically and militarily. You know what militarily means? The police! And you know where we live? The ghettos!

In the cities where we live, that's where the factories are. Well, the whites don't like it there, so they all move out to the suburbs. So we want to control the cities, and when we do, we'll raise the taxes sky-high and then we can at last begin to function!

And you know what technology is? It's just pushing buttons. It doesn't require any education. We can push those buttons just as well as they can.

- Q. Do you want the Power before changing the structure?
- A. (Obscure quote from Marx - something about pockets of socialism, seeds of communism) Sure, we're proud of those rebellions in Newark, Detroit, Cleveland. The only problem in Newark was that they starved us out by cutting off the food supplies, so it was over in five days. But that wasn't a problem in Detroit. It's just logistics. It'll be easy to work out next time.
- Q. Why do you say we have an inferiority complex?
- A. Look at you! You can't make a move without some white man around to tell you what to do! You've got to clean out all those whites. Why, there isn't an army in Africa that doesn't have some British, or Canadians or Americans running them.

Look at Ghana. It was a direct victim of white imperialism in the army. Dr. Nkrumah was a good socialist leader and he was working for total liberation of the whole of Africa. But unfortunately, he was still in the control of imperialists because his army was being advised by the imperialist experts.

Yes, you've got to get rid of all those advisors and technical consultants and teachers. They're the tentacles I was talking about, that America has all over the world.

- Q. Why are your people in Viet Nam?
- A. We aren't. African-Americans aren't volunteering. But you know that locked cycle of life in the US? They keep us poor and uneducated and lock us in the ghettos and then they come around with that crap about learn a trade and see the world and they get us in.

But the returnees, you know, even then they can't get any jobs. That's why Black Power is growing more and more. But there will always be some Tshombes in every society.

- Q. What's your opinion of the world Communist movement?
- A. Mao is correct. Fidel is correct. Ho is correct.

The U.S.S.R. has some claim to be on the right track, but Russia will become capitalist soon. It's on the revisionist road.

Way back in 1934 George Padmore went to Moscow, and he turned. And then W.E.B. DuBois toward the end, he turned. Moscow made three great failures - in Cuba, in Viet Nam, and in the Middle East. No, you can't depend on the Russians.

Q. So you prefer Communism?

A. (Shrug)

Q. Do you prefer Mao?

A. I like much of what I've read.

Q. What plans do you have to help liberate Africa?

A. We repeat, we're ready to fight any time, anywhere and to help you with the technological help you now get from the Whites.

Q. But how can we fight without the Europeans? What are the African weapons by tradition? Spears! And stones! We need the Europeans to teach us how to shoot. We want their know-how.

A. Yes, so did Dr. Nkrumah. And he paid dearly! (Respectful silence.)

Q. What do you think of intermarriage?

A. It's an individual decision. That's what I tell them. But they have to sleep with the person they marry. I do not! (guffaws)

Q. (From Miss Harris of U.K.) Look, we've both been exploited, but you're not being concrete enough. Why don't you.....

A. Look sister! You can climb out of your exploitation any old day you want, because you're white! I can't. We're faced with two things, exploitation and racism. That's all I know, and that's enough! You know, in the U.S. if you've got an ounce of Negro blood in you, brother, you're a nigger! Yes sir, that's a fact. There's a law on the books in the U.S. today, if you have one sixty-fourth Negro blood, you're a Negro! But we're all colors - every color of the rainbow, from all those nice whites sleeping with the slaves. But today, what I say is if you talk black, you cannot sleep white! (laughter)

Then came a long argument pro-and anti-Freedom Fighters. Carmichael let it run on, amused. One refugee held the floor for a quiet moment long enough to get on the record that everyone knew there were some good fighters in Dar es Salaam.

Carmichael mentioned specifically Portuguese Guinea.

Finally, the wispy-bearded German volunteer who had introduced Carmichael asked him to summarize. He did, saying again African education was no good. Black Power could do much in the U.S. But black people throughout the world are exploited wherever they are, in the U.S., Africa or the West Indies. The African-Americans were ready to help the Africans.

A student recited a prepared speech of thanks which jarred because he thanked Carmichael for the inspiration he had given the African freedom fighters.

Carmichael still looked fresh as a daisy, and bemused. He had appeared earlier at the Mozambique Institute. On the ferry back to Dar, he just studied the stars. [] took him on to an appearance at a packed amphitheatre at the University in honor of Che Guevara.

In April, 1967, CARMICHAEL stated in speech "To hell with the laws of the US", "We're going to tear the cities up". In April, 1967, in NYC CARMICHAEL denounced the draft and stated "Hell, No! We Won't Go". In June, 1967, CARMICHAEL told Alabama crowd "Any time they touch one of us they got to touch all of us. Don't you ever get scared of no hunky (white person) in your life. If a hunky puts his hand on you, you try your best to kill him." In June, 1967, CARMICHAEL stated to Boston crowd "If hunky gets his store bombed out every Friday or Saturday, he's going to have to sell it to us". He also said the only way to stop "racist aggression" by police "is by armed resistance". CARMICHAEL urging to secure rights of colored people in Great Britain reportedly stated "If the British did not adopt our principle, I will burn down their homes and factories." He added "It is time to let the whites know we are going to take over. If they don't like it, we will stamp them out - using violence and any other means necessary". While in Cuba in

in July, 1967, CARMICHAEL reportedly called on Negroes in Detroit and NY to wage a conflict like Vietnam. In August, 1967, while in Cuba, CARMICHAEL reportedly said that the American Negro was ready to destroy "Yankee imperialism" with urban guerrilla warfare in the US. At news conference he reportedly mentioned that President JOHNSON and Prime Minister WILSON might be assassinated to revenge the deaths of Negro leaders in the US race riots. "National Guardian" dated 8/12/67, reported that CARMICHAEL, visiting Cuba as a delegate to Organization of Latin-American Solidarity, declared on 8/2/67, that "it becomes more and more clear that we must develop revolutionary urban guerrilla warfare" to win black freedom. He told the delegates the black freedom movement has reached the stage where "we are ready to destroy from the inside as you are ready to destroy from the outside". The "National Guardian", 8/12/67, reported "Guns", CARMICHAEL told the press "are the only way...we are moving into open guerrilla warfare in the US. We have no alternative but to use aggressive violence in order to own the land, houses, and stores inside our own community and control the politics of those communities". He said in part "if they have 15 rebellions at the same time, they are unable to squash us...and if there are 50 Vietnams outside the US that equals the death of imperialism". "NY Times" dated 8/18/67, reported under Havana 8/17/67 dateline that CARMICHAEL called upon US Negroes today to take up arms for "total revolution". He urged the complete overthrow of the "imperialist, capitalist and racist structure of the US". In August, 1967, CARMICHAEL reportedly told a meeting in Hanoi, North Vietnam, "We are revolutionaries. We want to change the American regime. We will not be satisfied until we have accomplished this task". In September, 1967, while in Algiers, CARMICHAEL reportedly said "we don't only want to see the US stop bombing and put an end to its aggressive war, we want the Vietnamese to win the war and kick the US out". "National Guardian", 12/16/67, reported that while in Denmark

SYNOPSIS CONTINUED:

CARMICHAEL engaged in off-the-cuff dialogue and stated in part "People won't fight; they won't fight unless you push - so, you push. You create disturbances, you keep pushing the system. You keep drawing up the contradictions until they have to hit back; once your enemy hits back, then your revolution starts"... "I think that if there's going to be a real revolution in the US, there's got to be a two-pronged attack. In an industrialized country, the heart of production is in the cities, not in agriculture. So to bring the economy to a halt, you've got to disrupt that system. And that first stage is the fight of people against property"... "The main work is to try and crush the forces of production in the cities. The US has felt it from the rebellions... They've had to cut aid all around the world". In December, 1967, in Paris, France, CARMICHAEL proclaimed "We say in a voice loud and strong: We do not want peace in Vietnam, we want the Vietnamese to defeat the USA and to support our feeling, we say that our blood is not too high a price to pay for our comrade in arms in Vietnam. We will support them in any way we can. Our movement is to move to disrupt the structure of the US and our blood will pay for that, and we think it is not too high a price to pay for humanity". "The war in Vietnam must be brought to the USA. If HO CHI MINH cannot sleep, LYNDON JOHNSON shall not sleep. The babies in Vietnam are in threat of their lives and the people in the US must be in threat of their lives. If fire is raging in Vietnam, then fire must rage in the US. And as long as the US oppresses black people inside the US and oppresses the Vietnamese in Vietnam, we have a common bond against a common enemy and we will fight". CARMICHAEL returned to the US in December, 1967, and in January, 1968, called a meeting of more than two dozen civil rights leaders in Washington, D. C. This meeting was billed as a unity affair to bring closer cooperation among civil rights leaders and groups. ARMED AND DANGEROUS

II. ASSOCIATION WITH ELIJAH MUHAMMAD, LEADER OF THE NATION OF ISLAM (NOI) AND THE REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

A characterization of ELIJAH MUHAMMAD appears in the characterization of the NOI which is contained in the appendix.

A characterization of RAM appears in the appendix.

The "New York Times" newspaper, dated July 29, 1966, on page 13, contained an article entitled "Carmichael Plans Black Unity Talks With Muslims". Under an Evanston, Illinois, July 28 dateline, this article in part went on to state that STOKELY CARMICHAEL, National Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), said today that his organization would "join hands" with the Black Muslim leader, ELIJAH MUHAMMAD and with RAM. The purpose of the talks would be to define a common philosophy concerning the controversial phrase "black power". The article stated that RAM has been linked to the Castro Regime in Cuba. The young Negro leader said he had exchanged letters with Mr. MUHAMMAD and that they would meet later.

SNCC is a Militant Civil Rights Organization.

NY 100-153751

On August 7, 1966, [] advised that STOKELY CARMICHAEL met with ELIJAH MUHAMMAD at MUHAMMAD's residence in Chicago, Illinois, on August 7, 1966. They discussed the concept "black power", but nothing specific was agreed upon. MUHAMMAD predicated any cooperation between he and CARMICHAEL would depend upon CARMICHAEL's becoming a member of the NOI. CARMICHAEL refused to do this and nothing positive came from this meeting.

III. VARIOUS ACTIVITIES OF STOKELY CARMICHAEL IN THE UNITED STATES

The "New York Post" newspaper on page 40, dated April 5, 1967, contained an article entitled "Carmichael says to 'Hell With the Law'". Under a Birmingham, Alabama, April 5 deadline, this newspaper's article stated that CARMICHAEL said that Negroes are not bound to obey laws legislated by white people.

"To hell with the laws of the United States", he shouted during a talk at Miles College. He called for removal of the school's predominantly white faculty and criticized the students for not taking part in racial demonstrations.

"If you don't wake up man, your brothers in the ghettos are going to wake up with matches", he said.

A student asked what should be done when Negroes are mistreated.

"If a white man tries to walk over you, kill him" CARMICHAEL answered. "One match and you can retaliate. Burn, baby burn."

CARMICHAEL stated that as long as there is no peace for Negroes, SNCC will advocate peace for no one. "We're going to tear the cities up" he said.

NY 100-153751

The "New York Post" newspaper, page eight, dated April 11, 1967, under dateline Nashville, Tennessee, April 11, contained information to the effect that the long hot summer came early to this city as the nation's first major Negro riot of the year erupted here. Much of Nashville's white community is placing the blame on STOKELY CARMICHAEL.

CARMICHAEL had been in and out of Nashville for the past two weeks speaking at local colleges. His visits came to a climax Saturday afternoon when he spoke at Vanderbilt University.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] denounced the riot as "the design of STOKELY CARMICHAEL".

b7C

"It is my conviction STOKELY CARMICHAEL should stay out of here and our community will be better off", [REDACTED] said.

"CARMICHAEL didn't have to be present in town when this (the riots) started. His bully boys were here and they knew what he wanted and my opinion is that he wanted this to happen."

On Friday, CARMICHAEL, in a speech, unsanctioned by Tennessee A & I State University, spoke to almost 4,000 Negroes on the campus.

"You ought to organize and take over the city, but you don't do it because you don't want power. You want love. You want morality. You ought to have a Black Police Commissioner. You even ought to have a Black Mayor. Dig it? That's black power" he said to a wild applause.

NY 100-153751

Six hours before the outbreak of the riot on Saturday, CARMICHAEL stated in part to a predominantly white audience at Vanderbilt University:

"What we want is not to abolish the black community, but to abolish the colonial dependency on the white community. I am non-violent right now. If the white man tries to put his arm on me, I am going to break his arm. I am not now and never have been a pacifist. I will not bow my head and let someone beat me."

The April 18, 1967 edition of "The Worker" on pages one and seven and the April 23, 1967 edition of "The Worker" on page one contained information to the effect that the largest demonstration ever held in the United States surged like a river through midtown New York City Saturday afternoon as half a million people converged in New York City to demand an end to the Vietnam War. One of the speakers at this affair was STOKELY CARMICHAEL who denounced the draft. "Hell, No! We won't Go", CARMICHAEL cried out, and the marchers took up the cry.

"The Worker" is an East coast Communist newspaper.

The following information was furnished by [redacted] [redacted] of the Grand Rapids Michigan Police Department on May 17, 18, 1967.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL arrived at Kent County airport, Grand Rapids, Michigan, at 3:13 P.M. on May 17, 1967.

CARMICHAEL spoke at the Fountain Street Church in downtown Grand Rapids at 8 P.M., May 17, 1967, before an estimated crowd of 1,200 individuals of whom 60 per cent were Negro and 40 per cent white.

During his talk he mentioned that the only way the white man can stop us is to kill us and maybe we will take them with us. He said that only as a group could the black man succeed and that the black community should consider that if a "Hunky" (white man) touches one black man, he has touched the whole black community and an appropriate response should be made. He referred to President JOHNSON as a "buffoon" and criticized Vice-President HUMPHREY.

He commented that JESUS said "where there is injustice, there shall be no peace" and said in effect, if we do not get justice we will burn you down.

He praised the recent "rebellion" in Louisville, Kentucky, and at the Southern University of Texas. CARMICHAEL also indicated that his organization was sending a man to Michigan State University next year in order to organize the black people there.

The "New York Times" on page 31, dated June 14, 1967, contained an article entitled "Carmichael Quits Alabama Jail, Asks Black Power". This article reported that CARMICHAEL was released from jail in Prattville, Alabama, on June 13 and led Negroes in cries of "black power" as they marched to within a block of the white-domed State Capitol.

The march was held to protest what the demonstrators termed white mistreatment of Negroes in Prattville. After CARMICHAEL's arrest there Sunday on disorderly conduct charges, Negroes and police exchanged shots for about three hours.

CARMICHAEL told the crowd:

"Anytime they touch one of us they got to touch all of us. Don't you ever get scared of no hunky (white person) in your life. If a hunky puts his hand on you, you try your best to kill him."

heavily Negro Roxbury section yesterday and told Negroes they must take control of the land and stores in their area.

"If hunky gets his store bombed out every Friday or Saturday", CARMICHAEL said, "he's going to have to sell it to us."

He also told the crowd that the only way to stop "racist aggression" by police "is by armed resistance". He did not elaborate but said, "as long as injustice prevails, there will be no peace."

IV. ACTIVITIES, TRAVEL AND STATEMENTS MADE BY STOKELY
CARMICHAEL WHILE OUTSIDE THE
UNITED STATES

A. Great Britain

The "New York Post" newspaper on page two, dated July 24, 1967, under an article captioned "Stokely Rapped in Britain" contained information to the effect that there are grounds for prosecuting or deporting American black power advocate STOKELY CARMICHAEL from Great Britain.

An editorial in the "Daily Sketch" newspaper said that CARMICHAEL, in a speaking visit here, was urging violence to secure the rights of colored people in Great Britain. It went on to cite the British Race Relations Act, which says it is an offense to make public speeches likely to stir up racial hatred. Then it quoted CARMICHAEL as saying "If the British did not adopt our principle, I will burn down their homes and factories".

The "Sketch" also quoted CARMICHAEL as saying here that "it is time to let the whites know we are going to take over. If they don't like it, we will stamp them out - using violence and any other means necessary."

"Are these not sufficient grounds for prosecution or deportation?", the newspaper asked.

The "New York Daily News" page eight, dated July 25, 1967, contained information to the effect that CARMICHAEL left England on July 24, 1967, and flew to Czechoslovakia.

The "New York Times" newspaper on page ten, dated July 28, 1967, contained information to the effect that CARMICHAEL will not be permitted to enter Great Britain again. ROY JENKINS, the Home Secretary, stated he had decided that "his presence here is not conducive to the public good".

B. Cuba

The "New York Daily News" page 18, dated July 27, 1967, contained information to the effect that the United States State Department said on July 26, 1967, it would lift STOKELY CARMICHAEL's passport when the black power leader return from Cuba.

In Santiago, Cuba, in celebration of the July 26th Anniversary of his revolution, CASTRO hailed CARMICHAEL as one of the United States leading civil rights leaders and said the United States faces a "Negro rebellion". CARMICHAEL shared a place of honor with Communists from Latin America and Vietnam.

On November 7, 1967, [] advised that STOKELY CARMICHAEL was in Havana, Cuba, as a delegate to the Latin American Solidarity Organization (LASO) conference held during the summer of 1967. On the afternoon of July 26, 1967, [] observed FIDEL CASTRO, the Cuban leader, introduce CARMICHAEL to approximately one half million people who were gathered in Havana.

[] further advised that CARMICHAEL, while at a pavilion containing Cuban and French art, on July 30, 1967, in Havana, Cuba, made the following statements:

"We will crush the United States"

"We got a score to even"

NY 100-153751

"They will be sorry they ever came to Africa and bothered us"

"We will replace our people in the rightful place where they belong"

During the appearance at the pavilion of CARMICHAEL, a Cuban shouted "Venceremos", meaning "We will win" to CARMICHAEL. CARMICHAEL responded "We shall overthrow". CARMICHAEL also stated "Revolution" to the Cuban who replied "That's right", "Revolution".

CARMICHAEL stated "Cuba represents to us an inspiration to continue to fight, the United States is where I live, but Africa is our motherland."

"Like Che says, it is not going to be a street fight - it is going to be long and hard."

CARMICHAEL in talking to another Cuban stated, "Give us arms".

The "New York Times" newspaper page ten, dated July 28, 1967, contained an article entitled "Carmichael urges a Vietnam in the United States". Under a Havana, July 27 dateline, it was pointed out that STOKELY CARMICHAEL called on Negroes in Detroit and New York today to wage a conflict like that in Vietnam.

CARMICHAEL reportedly told the Havana evening newspaper "Juventud Rebelde", "We must internationalize our struggle and if we are going to turn into reality the words of Che to create two, three and more Vietnams, we must recognize that Detroit and New York are also Vietnam."

He further stated that he did not care what the United States State Department did to him for visiting Cuba without permission. He called for the coordination of the

NY 100-153751

Latin-American revolutionary struggle with the struggle of the American Negroes and stated that the way Premier CASTRO had stood up to the United States was "truly admirable".

He mentioned that Mr. CASTRO's expropriation of American land in Cuba at the beginning of the revolution had "impressed me extraordinarily".

The "New York Times" on page 19, dated August 3, 1967, contained an article entitled "Negroes Ready for War in the United States, Carmichael Says". Under a Havana, August 2 dateline, it was reported that STOKELY CARMICHAEL said today that the American Negro was ready to destroy "Yankee imperialism" with urban guerrilla warfare in the United States.

In a speech before the Organization of Latin American Solidarity, CARMICHAEL called for a revolution to make the whole western hemisphere one country.

CARMICHAEL was reported to have stated at a news conference yesterday that western leaders, including President JOHNSON and Prime Minister WILSON, might be assassinated to revenge the deaths of Negro leaders in the United States race riots.

The "New York Post" newspaper on page 31, dated August 3, 1967, contained a report "SNICK and Castro" by ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK. This article stated that the sudden appearance of STOKELY CARMICHAEL in Havana rubbing elbows with FIDEL CASTRO and the hemisphere's Communist guerrilla leaders is an inevitable development in the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee's long evolution. Covert links between "SNICK" and Havana stretched back to at least 1964. The flamboyant CARMICHAEL is merely the outward manifestation of the "SNICK" - Cuban alliance, not its cause. The principal responsibility for moving "SNICK" to the left must go to JAMES FORMAN and JACK MINNIS.

FORMAN, believed to be "SNICK's" most important internal force was an associate of Negro terrorist ROBERT WILLIAMS (who fled to Cuba to escape Federal prosecution). u.s.

JACK MINNIS, white intellectual radical, was a leader in Pro-CASTRO activities in the New Orleans area, the article stated. L

By the time of the Mississippi Summer Project in 1964, "SNICK's" admiration for Castroism was apparent. "SNICK" workers were distributing Castroite propaganda and material printed in Cuba by exile ROBERT WILLIAMS advocating guerrilla warfare by American Negroes and describing how Molotov cocktails could be used in American cities. The clearest revelation of "SNICK's" link with Havana did not come until 1966, when "SNICK" leader JULIAN BOND was barred from his seat in the Georgia legislature. His case was ably handled by white lawyer CHARLES MORGAN. Suddenly a new face appeared: VICTOR RABINOWITZ, a New York lawyer, long associated with far left causes and a leader in organizations specializing in defending Communists. RABINOWITZ served as Legal Counsel in the United States for the Castro Government and had intimate contacts in Havana. FORMAN insisted that RABINOWITZ supplant MORGAN as BOND's attorney. MORGAN stepped aside. NY

At about the same time, "SNICK's" treasury - empty since the disaffection of white liberal contributors, suddenly began to fill again. It is believed by many close to "SNICK" that the new money came from Cuba. Although there is no documentary evidence to support this suspicion, it makes good sense. At precisely this time in 1966, CASTRO declared he would support with arms and money any revolutionary movement, Communist or not. In the United States, "SNICK" would qualify for such help.

Nor has there been much doubt lately concerning "SNICK's" revolutionary nature. After this year's Negro riots at Jackson, Mississippi State College, "SNICK" leaders met secretly to discuss plans for more effective "guerrilla warfare" in the future.

A characterization of ROBERT WILLIAMS is contained in the characterization of RAM which is contained in the appendix.

The "National Guardian" on page one, dated August 12, 1967, contained an article entitled "Guns Are The Only Way". According to this article, the struggle for Black Liberation in the United States says STOKELY CARMICHAEL, will be violent. CARMICHAEL, visiting Cuba as an honorary delegate to the Organization of Latin American Solidarity declared on August 2, 1967, that "it becomes more and more clear that we must develop revolutionary urban guerrilla warfare" to win black freedom. He told the delegates from Latin America, the black freedom movement has reached the stage where "we are ready to destroy from the inside as you are ready to destroy from the outside".

At a press conference a day earlier, CARMICHAEL reportedly went further than ever in calling for a revolution in the United States. Most observers at the conference of Latin American revolutionaries and leftists expressed amazed gratitude at his words and concern for the future of the young black leader when he returns to the United States.

"Guns", CARMICHAEL told the press, "are the only way...We are moving into open guerrilla warfare in the United States. We have no alternative but to use aggressive violence in order to own the land, houses and stores inside our own communities and control the politics of those communities."

Asked how "urban guerrillas" could succeed in the United States CARMICHAEL replied, "The fighters of an imperialistic country are cowards. They cannot fight hand to hand. Inside the United States they have to fight hand to hand. They cannot use napalm and bombs. If we are fighting in Detroit alone they could bring the entire Army and squash us there. But if they have 15 rebellions at the same time they are unable to squash us...And if there are 50 Vietnams outside the United States, that equals the death of imperialism."

Asked if whites are welcomed in the struggle, he stated "We welcome those who are willing to take guns with us. Everything else is talk. When whites begin to struggle, we will struggle together."

A characterization of the "National Guardian" appears in the appendix attached hereto.

b7D On August 23, 1967, [] made available the August 13, 1967 issue of "Granma" published on a weekly basis in Havana, Cuba. Page two of this issue contained information that CARMICHAEL spoke over Radio Havana, Cuba, and sent a message to "our comrades in the armed struggle against imperialism and racism".

CARMICHAEL reportedly stated in part:

"We of the Black Liberation Movement of the United States want all of you to know wherever you are that we are your comrades. We are no longer going to allow our enemies to make us fight against you as they have done in the past. We will not fight in Vietnam, Santo Domingo or anywhere else in the world. Our fight will be inside the United States. While we are fighting to destroy imperialism from the inside, we know you will be fighting from the outside. We are dedicated with our very lives to destroy imperialism as you have proven time and time again that you have dedicated your lives. We look forward to the day, which will be very soon, when we will overthrow decadent Governments and will start the real revolution of building a society based on humanity rather than a society based on exploitation."

"We are moving toward urban guerrilla warfare within the United States since there is no other way to obtain our homes, our land and our rights. For 400 years the Negro population of the United States has tried to coexist, but to no avail. We have no other alternative but to take up arms in order to obtain liberation."

A reporter asked if United States whites who called themselves liberals had joined the present Negro movement.

CARMICHAEL stated in part:

"Whites who call themselves liberals are enemies of the Negro struggle since in general they are rich people who derive benefits from the system. And we are fighting to destroy that system that oppresses us and brings about tragedy."

"The only whites who may join us are those who are ready to take up arms and fight the regime."

A foreign correspondent asked:

"What do the Negro millionaires think of all of this."

CARMICHAEL laughed and replied, "What could they think? After all, they are millionaires. There are 67 Negro millionaires who want to continue making profits. They too must be destroyed."

Explaining that 40 per cent of the United States front line troops are Negroes he added:

"The United States has taught us to kill. Upon their return, our brothers will put this teaching to good use in the cities."

The masthead of "Granma" reflects that it is self-described as the official organ of the Central Committee of the Communist Party (CP) of Cuba.

NY 100-153751

The "New York Times" page 17, dated August 18, 1967, contained an article entitled "Carmichael Asks Revolution in the United States". Under a Havana, August 17 dateline, this article reflected that STOKELY CARMICHAEL called upon United States Negroes today to take up arms for "total revolution". He urged a complete overthrow of the "imperialist, capitalist and racist structure of the United States."

The black power advocates' message was broadcast over Havana radio on the 2nd Anniversary of the Watts riot in Los Angeles.

In the radio message, Mr. CARMICHAEL stated:

"Comrades of the third world of Asia, Africa and Latin America, I want you to know that Afro-North Americans within the United States are fighting for their liberation. It is a struggle of total revolution in which we propose to change the imperialist, capitalist and racist structure of the United States which oppresses you outside and us within."

"We have no other alternative but to take up arms and struggle for our total liberation and total revolution in the United States. We were kidnapped and robbed from Africa and therefore we cannot be part of the United States which violates the African continent."

C. Hanoi, North Vietnam

The "New York Daily News" on page seven, dated August 21, 1967, reported that H. RAP BROWN, Chairman of SNCC, announced that CARMICHAEL, who recently visited FIDEL CASTRO in Cuba, had arrived in Hanoi, North Vietnam, "to see for himself the savage aggression" by the United States.

The "New York Times" on page 18, dated September 1, 1967, contained an article entitled "Carmichael Vow To Alter United States Regime Cited In Hanoi". Under a Havana, August 31

dateline, it was reported that CARMICHAEL told a meeting here that he was a revolutionary who wanted to change the "American regime".

"We are not reformers, we are not proposing reforms", he was quoted as having said. "We do not wish to be a part of a Government of the United States of America or the American regime."

"We are revolutionaries. We want to change the American regime. We will not be satisfied until we have accomplished this task."

D. Algiers

The "New York Times" on page 36, dated September 6, 1967, reported that CARMICHAEL was expected to arrive in Algiers on September 7, 1967, as the official guest of Algeria's ruling political party. CARMICHAEL was then in North Vietnam.

The "National Guardian" newspaper, page eight, dated September 16, 1967, contained information to the effect that STOKELY CARMICHAEL arrived in Algiers after a visit to North Vietnam and Cuba. He was interviewed September 7, 1967, by a reporter for the Algerian Press Service (APS). A portion of that talk made available exclusively to the "National Guardian" in the United States is as follows:

(APS) What does your trip to Hanoi represent?

CARMICHAEL - "It signifies that the African-American will not only refuse to fight in the War in Vietnam but that he will move closer and join hands with his Vietnamese brothers. Unlike other Americans who are concerned about Vietnam, our opposition is that we don't only want to see the United States stop bombing and put an end to its aggressive war, we want the Vietnamese to win the war and kick the United States out."

E. Guinea

The "Muhammad Speaks" newspaper published weekly by MUHAMMAD's Mosque Number 2, Chicago, Illinois, Volume 7, Number 13, dated December 15, 1967, contained an article entitled "Stokely Carmichael in Paris Before Beginning Last Leg of Journey Home". This article reflected in part that CARMICHAEL had arrived in Paris on what was rumored to be the last leg of his trip.

In Guinea, the SNCC leader reportedly attended the Congress of the Guinean Democratic Party in Conakry. While there, he talked with African and World editor DOUGLAS ROGERS on the problems of black powerlessness in the white-controlled world.

In part he stated that Black Power was "the vanguard of the real revolutionary movement inside the United States. It means that we will fight to change the structure of the United States, to abolish the capitalist system inside the United States."

He added the warning that "it is in the interest of Africa and the entire third world to support that movement because a change in the structure of the United States will benefit all humanity."

"As I have said, we also fight to abolish capitalism and to bring about a socialist society. It is only under world socialism that humanity can exist in unity. When white people accept this, we shall be at peace with them."

"Muhammad Speaks" is the official newspaper of the NOI.

F. Scandanavian Countries

The "New York Times" page 22, dated November 30, 1967, contained information to the effect that CARMICHAEL arrived in Sweden November 27, 1967, and was scheduled to make a week's tour of Scandanavia before returning to the United States.

Denmark The "National Guardian" page one, dated December 16, 1967, contained information to the effect that STOKELY CARMICHAEL and CARL OGLESBY, former President of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) met in Copenhagen, Denmark, two weeks ago while attending sessions of the Russell International War Crimes Tribunal. CARMICHAEL, OGLESBY, USA JOHN RUFFETT, a special correspondent for the "Guardian", VERAA REGNA, correspondent for the Italian monthly Italy "Falcemartello", and some mutual friends met for several hours at Copenhagen's Baltic Hotel and engaged in a relaxed, off-the-cuff political dialogue.

In part, the discussion went as follows:

CARMICHAEL - "A simple example would be black power. People won't fight; they won't fight unless you push - so, you push. You create disturbances, you keep pushing the system. You keep drawing up the contradictions until they have to hit back; once your enemy hits back, then your revolution starts. If your enemy does not hit back, then you do not have a revolution. You never will, so you push the enemy and you keep pushing him with different people and you never let him know who all the people are that are pushing so when he hits, he has not only to strike out at the main people who are pushing, he's got to strike out at everybody else, us. That's what's happening in the United States. You create a rebellion. He doesn't know who started it. He blames the strike on the people who are out there talking about it, but in fact he's got to fight everybody in that community. Once he comes down and starts fighting everybody, you've got people on your side automatically."

PEGNA - "One of the boys who came here as a witness told me that one very useful thing he learned in Vietnam when he was there was some of the guerrilla methods. And in his view, these methods can be applied in the United States cities. What do you think about this?"

CARMICHAEL .. "I think that if there is going to be a real revolution in the United States, there's got to be a two-pronged attack. In an industrialized country, the heart of production is in the cities, not in agriculture. So to bring the economy to a halt, you've got to disrupt that system. And that first stage is the fight of people against property. That's what you have in rebellions: people against property, rather than people against people, because you have to disrupt that economy. And while this is being done on the inside, if you have people on the outside also disrupting that economy, then that gives you breathing space to begin to talk people verses people war."

"The main work is to try and crush the forces of production in the cities. The United States has felt it from the rebellions...They've had to cut aid all around the world."

A characterization of the SDS appears in the appendix.

G. Paris, France

The "New York Times" page two, dated December 7, 1967, contained information to the effect that STOKELY CARMICHAEL had been allowed to enter France on his arrival from Stockholm. Originally, he was halted as an undesirable at the custom's gate.

CARMICHAEL shouted to a cheering, stamping audience of more than 3,000 people at a six hour rally on December 6, 1967, "We don't want peace in Vietnam! We want the Vietnamese to defeat the United States of America."

NY 100-153751

"Our aim is to disrupt the United States of America and we think our blood is not too high a price to pay", he said referring to his followers in the black power movement in America.

A portion of the CBS evening news with WALTER CRONKITE, Thursday, December 7, 1967, 7 P.M., is as follows:

REASONER - "For three months STOKELY CARMICHAEL has been traveling the world, preaching a violently anti-American sermon to audiences from Havana to Hanoi. Last night, he spoke and held a news conference at an anti-Vietnam rally in Paris."

CARMICHAEL - "This evening, and we want to, finally then we make our position crystal clear. We say in a voice loud and strong: We do not want peace in Vietnam, we want the Vietnamese to defeat the United States of America and to support our feeling we say that our blood is not too high a price to pay for our comrade in arms in Vietnam. We will support them in any way we can. Our movement is to move to disrupt the structure of the United States and our blood will pay for that, and we think it is not too high a price to pay for humanity. Thank you."

Reporter - "Mr. CARMICHAEL, you said you would shed your blood for the Vietnam cause. Now how and where and when do you intend to do this?"

CARMICHAEL - "In the United States of America. The war in Vietnam must be brought to the United States of America. If HO CHI MINH cannot sleep, LYNDON JOHNSON shall not sleep. The babies in Vietnam are in threat of their lives, and the people in the United States must be in threat of their lives. If fire is raging in Vietnam, then fire must rage in the United States. And as long as the United States oppresses black people inside the United States and oppresses the Vietnamese in Vietnam, we have a common bond against a common enemy and we will fight."

REASONER - "STOKELY CARMICHAEL speaking in Paris last night."

V. SUBJECT'S RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES

The "New York Times" page 14, December 12, 1967, contained information to the effect that CARMICHAEL returned to the United States after a five month tour of four continents. He was met at John F. Kennedy Airport by scores of his followers and by United States Marshals who took away his passport for traveling in Communist countries without authorization. CARMICHAEL reportedly visited Tanzania, Egypt, Algiers, Sweden, Spain, Cuba, England, France, North Vietnam, Guinea and Czechoslovakia.

The "New York Post" newspaper page 26, January 9, 1968, contained an article entitled "Carmichael Making his D.C. Entrance". This article reflected in part that CARMICHAEL had called a meeting for tonight of more than two dozen civil rights leaders. Asked how long he would be in Washington, D.C., CARMICHAEL smiled and stated, "I'm here man, I'm here".

The meeting was billed as a "unity" affair designed to bring closer cooperation among civil rights leaders and groups.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS

On August 4, 1967, the "San Juan Star", an English language daily newspaper published in San Juan, Puerto Rico, carried an article captioned "Mari Bras, Carmichael Sign Pact".

NY 100-153751

"The American Negroes and the Puerto Ricans have a combative alliance against oppression", JUAN MARI BRAS, President of the Puerto Rican Independence Movement said. "We are victims of the same exploitive structure in the United States."

"The pact", BRAS stated, "will be developed during the coming months to carry on the struggle for liberation of both peoples."

"Mari Bras also said the Puerto Rican Independence Movement identifies itself with action looking toward the liberation of the continent (western hemisphere)."

JUAN MARI BRAS is Secretary
General of the Movimiento
Pro-Independencia de Puerto Rico (Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIPR).

A characterization of the MPIPR is contained in the appendix.

Other informants who are familiar with certain phases of activity in the racial field advised after viewing a photograph of the subject in January, 1967, that they could furnish no additional pertinent information concerning him.

MOVIMIENTO PRO-INDEPENDENCIA DE PUERTO RICO (PUERTO RICAN INDEPENDENCE MOVEMENT) (MPIPR)

The MPIPR was organized in November, 1959, at Ponce, Puerto Rico, to work for the independence of Puerto Rico. It has an estimated membership of between 1,000 and 1,300 people with missions throughout the island of Puerto Rico, and in New York, New York; Chicago, Illinois; and Buffalo, New York.

At the time the MPIPR was organized it was indicated that it did not advocate violence but would accept members who did. JUAN MARI BRAS, the founder and dominant leaders of this organization, in a speech during March, 1964, threatened violence comparable to that in Algeria if Puerto Rico became a state within the United States. A source reported in 1966 that a leader of the MPIPR indicated that "the Revolution would soon begin" and another source advised that another official of this organization had attempted to obtain a number of automatic pistols.

Articles praising FIDEL CASTRO and the Cuban Government regularly appear in MPIPR publications. In 1961, the MPIPR adopted a resolution expressing 100 per cent approval of and solidarity with the Cuban revolution. It sent a delegation to the Tri-Continental Conference of African, Asian, and Latin American People, held in Havana, Cuba, during January, 1966, and it maintains a permanent delegate to the Secretariat located in Havana.

The press of Puerto Rico has reported that the MPIPR has held numerous demonstrations protesting compulsory military service for Puerto Ricans and United States policy in Vietnam and the Dominican Republic.

In December, 1966, the Governor of Puerto Rico signed into law a bill calling for a plebiscite on July 23, 1967, to determine the future political status of Puerto Rico. The press reported that this plebiscite has been denounced vociferously by the MPIPR as "an act of Yankee imperialism to maintain the colonial status of Puerto Rico". JUAN MARI BRAS stated that the MPIPR had asked the Cuban Government for "militant solidarity with our struggle, in all international forums to which Red Cuba has access".

"NATIONAL GUARDIAN"

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the "National Guardian":

"National Guardian

- "1. 'established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a "progressive" weekly * * *. Although it denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party, it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia.' NATION OF ISLAM, FORMERLY REFERRED TO AS THE MUSLIM CULT OF ISLAM, ALSO KNOWN AS MUHAMMAD'S TEMPLES OF ISLAM

In January, 1967, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD he described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 5, 1967, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by ALLAH, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils", in the United States; and the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 2, 1966, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, in early July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled, "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto", the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963 by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, then residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto disclosed that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the crime of kidnaping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he published a monthly newsletter entitled, "The Crusader" from Havana. As of December, 1966, WILLIAMS was residing in Peking, China.

This source, in September, 1964, advised RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence, if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World", that is, the non-white races of the world rather than to any national entity, as such.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-Communist proviso was removed from the SDS Constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some Communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

SEDITIONRe Atlanta reports on subject dated 11/16/67 and

After CARMICHAEL's arrival in New York City in December, 1967, he traveled to Washington, D.C. Information concerning subject as reported in WFO LHM dated 1/10/68 reflects that when CARMICHAEL arrived in that City on 1/4/68 he established residence at Apartment 4, 2200 12th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. Fisur subsequently conducted in Washington reflects that CARMICHAEL uses this address as his residence.

Reference is also made to WFO LHM dated 1/19/68, captioned "BLACK UNITED FRONT" indicating that the subject is attempting to organize such an organization which in all probability will be based in Washington, it being noted that CARMICHAEL stated that by the fifteenth of January, 1968, every organization represented at a January 9, 1968, meeting that wanted to be included in the "Black United Front" must have mailed a prospectus and program about what it is doing to SNCC, 1234 U Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

Since CARMICHAEL's arrival in Washington, D.C., on 1/4/68, he has traveled to New York City on one occasion only, and that was for less than one day's duration.

Subject has not visited Atlanta since his return to the United States from his overseas trip, although an apparently important staff meeting of the Atlanta SNCC Office was held over the weekend of 1/20-22/68, obviously for the purpose of discussing the financial dilemma that SNCC finds itself in. It is believed if CARMICHAEL intended to continue to use Atlanta as his base of operations he would have shown an interest in the aforementioned meeting by having attended.

Inasmuch as CARMICHAEL has stated that he desires to bring together a coalition of the Negro organizations, most of which are based in or represented in the Washington area, it is felt that he will spend most of his time in that area.

In view of the above, the Bureau is requested to consider changing office of origin in this case from Atlanta to WFO.

W In order for the Bureau to fulfill its responsibility to keep interested agencies advised of current developments in the racial picture, it is necessary that information from the field be submitted in form suitable for dissemination. The information in referenced airtel should have been set forth in a letterhead memorandum. It is not necessary to wait for verification of information when your source had definite information that a meeting was scheduled. The conference alone is sufficient cause to submit a letterhead memorandum.

The caption, "Stokely Carmichael" is not pertinent in this case inasmuch as the entire communication relates to a conference known as "Citizens' Conference on Education in South Carolina." There was only one reference to the possibility of Stokely Carmichael attending the conference.

Submit a letterhead memorandum concerning the conference by return airtel. The letterhead memorandum should have a caption descriptive of the activity with a "Racial Matters" character.

The letter said parents, teachers, and students would participate in the conference and that although the AFSC is providing some assistance to those sponsoring the conference, the actual planning of the program and its execution is the role of the community leaders themselves.

The letter said in part that the conference would not involve the traditional Negro leaders who allegedly are interested in a wide range of issues but would involve only those local citizens who have a great concern about the quality of education in their communities. The primary concern of the conference which is to be known as "Citizens' Conference on Education in South Carolina" is the quality of the education Negro children are receiving in both segregated and desegregated schools, strategy for more desegregation and also likely to be discussed would be the Negro communities' despair, bitterness, hope, anguish, and frustration, regarding the education of Negro children. At the conference there will be invited guests "Observers" who are the kind of people who invariably dominate conferences but at this conference these "Observers" will clearly understand that it is not appropriate for them to make speeches, to dominate discussion groups, or to try to assert their personal philosophy on the group. It will be presentable for these "Observers" to talk to the participants at coffee breaks, meals, in the evening, and they might be asked to share their experience, knowledge, and observation in discussion groups or with the conference as a whole.

The letter further stated that this invitation was being extended to a select group of journalists.

b7C

[redacted] received a letter dated 1/12/68 from [redacted] which was directed to "Invited News Media to the 'Citizens' Conference on Education in South Carolina" in which the invitation was withdrawn. The reason for the withdrawal was a concern that the presence of some representatives of the news media would unduly inhibit the conference participants from giving their frank and honest views on matters of importance to the conference.

SEDITION

Radio Station WOL, Washington, D.C., on a special recorded program, moderated by WOL News Director, Ron Pinkney, had as its guests Stokely Carmichael and Rufus "Catfish" Mayfield, former Chairman of PRIDE, Inc. The program was reportedly taped on January 17, 1968, at WOL Studios, 2000 P Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., and was broadcasted from 7:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on January 21, 1968.

Also on the program were Robert Maynard of the "Washington Post", John Lewis of Afro-American and Bernard Garnett of Johnson's Publications, which includes "Jet" and "Ebony", magazines, who acted as interviewing panel of Carmichael and Mayfield.

The following is a verbatim transcript of the comments of Carmichael and response to questions by the interviewing panel:

OPENING BY PINKNEY - "Mr. Carmichael is making his second trip to WOL in about a week; he appeared here last Sunday on WOL's Speak-Up. Mr. Carmichael recently returned from what has been called, "unauthorized trips to Cuba, Hanoi, Sweden and France" and here in Washington, he has started an organization called the Black United Front. He is former chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and graduate of Howard University."

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

MR. MAYNARD (Q) - "Mr. Carmichael, would you be willing to outline some of your plans for the Black United Front and SNCC here in Washington?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "No sir, I am unable to do that at this time."

MR. LEWIS (Q) - "Mr. Carmichael, when I saw you last winter, you indicated that you were going to be organizing in one of the major cities in this country; you came here recently to begin organizing in Washington. What made you pick Washington as a target city?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Well, there are a number of reasons; seems to me that Washington represents the clearest contradictions of black and white in this country, maybe because black people are a majority in this city and all of the institutions of power in the city are run by whites, controlled by whites and for benefits of whites. Washington is the nation's capitol; it seems to me it must begin to represent clearly in the minds of people around the world, precisely what this country is about, its relationship to the internal colonies, black people inside the country, so that we can hook up and develop strength with our brothers in the third world. So that they will not be brainwashed by the United States, for example, Humphrey just took a trip to Africa, his job was once again to fool our brothers in Africa and if in Washington, D.C. the contradictions are hiding my brothers in Africa will see through all that nonsense that the Honky's are trying to put down."

GARNETT (Q) - "Yes, is Washington then supposed to be a springboard for maybe moving out in other cities eventually with similar Black United Fronts?"

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL (A) - "No I think there will be a coordinated effort around the country today because black people recognize more and more the necessity for unity if we are going to survive in what Rev. King calls Babalon."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Speaking of Rev. King, Mr. C., you might have noticed recently in the press the stories about his camp-in in Washington in the first week of April. Do you see a role in your organizing effort coinciding with his?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Dr. King is a black man, he is flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood. Dr. King is working for the betterment of the black man and anybody who is working for the betterment of the black man, our organization is more than happy to work with.....we have worked with brother King in the past and we will continue to work with brother King because we are all trying to find the solution for our people to live with a decent life as human beings."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Mr. C. as organizer of the Black United Front here in Washington, D.C., so far nothing has come up of your meeting to the public newspapers, reporters, radio and T.V. reporters have tried in vain to just find out what you are doing. Why is it that you don't want to display what is happening in these meetings to the public that you feel that the average citizen would like to know just what is going on, especially the black citizens in the city?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Mr. Pinkney it is a fact that the average black man needs to know precisely what is going on in the city as with the Black United Front, unfortunately for the black man, the way that

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "we communicate is controlled by the white man and he never represents truly what we are trying to do, every movement that we start the Honkies have always disrupted it. Let us go back for example, when Black Power first came up; when Black Power first came up, every Honkey and his momma was interpreting it telling people what it meant so that they could divide black people and keep them apart. Now fortunately for us the Black Power Slogan was strong enough to go over that, so that the Honky has to develop new tricks, but everytime we say something he takes it and tries to keep us divided. In an attempt to stop that division, we must find new ways of communicating directly to our people what we are doing. In order to do that, we must isolate the Honky on what is going on, and since they control the press media, it means they have to be isolated. While we develop some way of getting it to our people."

MR. GARNETT - "Mr. Carmichael, I go back....."

CARMICHAEL - "We are brothers, just call me Stokely, O.K.?"

MR. GARNETT (Q) - "Oh, O.K. I would like to go back, something you said a few minutes ago, about the reason about the present time that nothing the Black United Front does behind closed doors is being told to the press, you mentioned that you don't want to take the chance of giving the white press something to distort, how does this relate to the black press, which is black controlled? Do you feel that some kind of distortion on this interpretation?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "The only black control press we have in Washington is the Afro."

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

MR. GARNETT - "We have a () of another one."

CARMICHAEL - "Which is the Bureau in other words. . . .? Johnson's Publications."

MR. GARNETT (Q) - "Yes, these are two black controlled. . . . What qualms would you have, say talking to the.... even just to the Afro?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "If you can begin to isolate the white press and keep everybody isolated for a while, then you can move in with the solid black press, you can begin to build that black press inside our community where it becomes a real voice for the community. That is a fact that the only black controlled paper in this country that focuses through the masses of black people in this country is Mohammed Speaks. Whether one agrees or disagrees with the ideology is irrelevant it is the only newspaper where the masses of black people can read the type of ideology where they are not afraid to say what they have to say to the black man in this country. And until we can build up other press agencies which are willing to do precisely that. So even though there are some black controlled agencies, they do not speak to the black man the way that they have to speak to the black man, they know it, I know it and we all know it. And we have to build up a black press which are going to speak to the needs of the black people and tell it like it is."

MR. PINKNEY (Q) - "Do you think that these publisher and editors could be persuaded in one way or another by you or the reporter to bring it down here to the..?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "No, they have to be persuaded by the masses of our people and they will only be persuaded by the

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "by the masses of our people when the masses of our people begin to look for the stuff that should be said, when that stuff is not there, they stop buying those papers."

MR. PINKNEY (Q) - "Stokely, I would like to follow up that question about the black press. When you held the initial meeting of the Black United Front, as I understand it, you made arrangements to sell pictures to a daily paper at a high price. It was not that daily paper but another daily paper that broke the original story about the Black United Front, would serve to give the Black Unity meeting a kind of publicity that I understand that you do not want it to have. Why did you exclude the black media from the Black Unity meeting and then turn around and sell photographs to the white press?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "We are trying to do two things. We are trying number one to begin to control all of the press that comes out, all of the news media that comes out of our community. We are incapable of doing that at this point, for example, the leaks in those stories that were not really leaks you see because most of all of the leaks were incorrect, but that there were reporters who do what you call speculative reporting, what they think is going on they write down so that they can have something to say but they.... no, no, there were no leaks because all of the information was incorrect, for example, the Post ran a story about the fifteen member of the (steering)??? committee and a lot of them were incorrect completely incorrect, a lot of people who they said were on that fifteen were not even on the steering committee and they left out a lot of other people, people who are unknown to the public, but people who were powerful

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "within their own section of the Washington area. So that those stories were incorrect. Now what we want to do is to begin to play those press against the other. I mean that is what the Honkies have been doing to us and now we are just going to organize and do the same thing, play them against each other. We want again to exclude the black press at this time until we begin to build up a strong communication where we can also begin to dictate to the black press what should be said. I mean that it is a fact that in many cases the black press takes its stories from AP and UPI about the black community and AP and UPI are Honky controlled, Honky written and here is a black press who comes back and takes these stories as they appear on the Honkies press and put it in the black press without giving an interpretation to the black community of what all those things are about, and when we begin to build stronger and stronger we can begin to force those black newspapers to come around because they are being held down too. We have more control over the black press than we do over the white press."

MR. PINKNEY (Q) - "Of course, but what is the reason for denying black papers entrance into the meeting and then selling photographs to a white paper at a price a black paper could not afford?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "We would sell them to black papers, too. We contacted many of the publications in here and a lot of them said that they were not interested."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "I was at the beginning of the meeting when you made a short talk on you impressions of North Vietnam. I talked with some of the photographers there, I asked for photographs for my paper. Later I was told that these photographs were sold, were given at that point to a daily paper. A

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (Q) - "few days ago the same photographer as I understand it, that sold the photographs to the daily paper through of SNCC and the Black United Front called up and offered the same photographs, six days later, to the paper that I represent."

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Now that was a misunderstanding. He was not offering the same photographs, he was offering other photographs. However, if we made an error, I apologize to you brother John, and I promise you that from now on the black press will have priority on these pictures."

MR. PINKNEY (Q) - "Stokely, how do you feel, do you feel that you have a task ahead of you? You are trying to bring together Black Unity in the city, do you feel that you have a task ahead of you swaying the moderates to your side or having the moderates go to the militants side? How do you feel about this?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "My feeling is that we are a people wherever we are. We are a beautiful black people, now some of us are more black than others and there are a lot of us who are brainwashed, but all of us were brainwashed at one time, so that some of us who are no longer brainwashed must begin to help those who are brainwashed by the white man. Now they are brainwashed by the white man so our real enemy is not our brother, but the white man who has brainwashed our brother. So we are going to have to take time with our brothers who are what the white man call moderate and begin to bring them into our community so that they can begin to see and work for the benefit of our community and not for the white man. That means that it will be time but I think that slowly and slowly, our people will come along and begin to see the light."

: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Can you give us any idea why you are trying to get some sort of overhall organization that involves both the moderate and militants. I understand that this is caused a fair amount of difficulty for some of the so-called moderates and allegedly there are some (strains?) within the coalition. First of all, do you concede that there are such (strains?) and secondly, can you tell us something of the philosophy that went into the establishing of such a coalition here?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "There are no (strings?) at all. It is important to note that where the black people get together, white people begin to condemn that unity. Yet white people get together, George Wallace can have a meeting with Lyndon Johnson; James O. Eastland can have a meeting and set up some sort of coalition with any other "Honkey" and nobody in the black community ever questions their right to come together and sit with whom they will please. Johnson has a meeting with Grymoko (ph), nobody in the black community says you can have a meeting with Grymoko, because he is a Communist, but they have a meeting, they set for hours, they talk about setting up a direct flight from Moscow to New York. Black people can't say anything about it. Why in the hell does the Honkey think he has the right to say something wabout when we get together. Who is he? What right does he have to condemn us if we get together? All of the people in this community are the flesh and my flesh and blood and my blood. And we have to live in this community. This is ours. When that white man comes into this community he doesn't see a moderate, a revolutionary, a radical, a conservative, he sees a black man! That's all he sees! And because of that, we have to come together. That is the philosophy for the Black

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "United Front, unless we unite we are not going to be saved. They are meeting 100 police chiefs - are meeting in March in this country. I have never known a black man to condemn the fact that 100 police chiefs are going to meet together and decide how to wipe our race. Yet when we meet together, they scream for holy hell that we should meet together. The only reason they scream is because they do not want Black Unity. Because they recognize that Black Unity is going to mess up their entire system and allow black people to live like human beings."

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Do you plan to go in with Dr. Martin Luther King and his civil disobedience plan on the first of April? The first week in April?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "As we said before, Dr. King is flesh of our flesh and blood and blood. We have been talking and will continue to talk with Dr. King and we will work out all of these things when we get to that bridge we will cross it. I will say this we will never publicly attack or publicly oppose Dr. King. Never."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Well, Stokely, some of my observations, I have noticed that one reason that people, I am not talking about our people now, still don't go with these black power or anything, or any of its connotations, is that they sort of see it as some hairy animal. I would like to ask you on thisdo you think that such things as your being seen going to church in public a few days ago here, that if more of this was seen that people would not see black power as some black immoral hippy movement or whatever they...? What do you think you could do about the black power image, in other words?"

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL (A) - "I don't think that people could see black power in terms of my image because black power is not my image. Black power is the image of 15 million black people in this country. My image is totallyy irrelevant to the image of black power and so that is what the white person done. The Honkeys have tried to make black power my image, but it can not be done. I mean black power to me is a (wreath of Franklin?), Black Power is () of impressions () moving on up. Black Power is James Brown dancing on stage. Black power is Jimmy Brown running a hundred yards. Black power is Mohammed Ali in the ring. Black power is a beautiful black scientist developing things, like Dr. Reed. I mean black power is all the assemblance of the creativity and the skills that black people have put together to make us live like human beings. I...the press doesn't know when I go to church, it is none of their business if I go to church. That's totallyy irrelevant to the image of black power. Everywhere I organize I go to church because black people are in the churches. It happens to be the one collective place that our people are. If one is organizing one must be where ones people are. I go to church. I went to the Howard theatre last night. That's none of their business of the press. And I will go again, when Smokey and the Robinsons are coming because that's black power. That's part of our culture and that's where our people are. I don't think my image is important."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) -

"How about the middle class Negro working in the government? The middle class Negro in the White House or Capitol Hill? Do you consider that black power?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "I consider the creative skills of those black people a part of black power. I think of what

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "they produce, however, goes to serve as white society and therefore, cannot be considered part of black power."

MR. LEWIS (Q) - "Stokely, I would like to read something to you that appeared in the December 5th edition of the National Guardian. Now this was a conversation that you had in a hotel there with a representative of the Guardian and the representative of an Italian monthly newspaper. This is a quote from that article, "Before you create revolution you got to heighten contradictions. As long as there is hope, people are not going to fight. They won't fight unless you push. So push. You create disturbances. You keep pushing the system. You keep drawing off the contradictions until they have to get back." This is where I would like to ask you, Stokely, when you created the Black United Front, when you convene the conference, was part of your thinking to get the moderate leadership in this city to understand what happens when you keep pushing?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "I think it is pretty clever brother John.... That is very sharp.....very sharp. It is crystal clear as a matter of fact..... That maybe some of the people who represent us do not really see clearly the contradictions.... and if you can get them more and more involved with the matters of our people then they can see the contradictions clearer, then they must decide. You see there is no doubt there are some black traitors in our community. There are an awful lot of black traitors in our community. But I think there are a lot of people who say things that traitors would say, are really genuinely confused. They think that they are doing the right thing. For example, many people felt

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "integration was the best way to solve the problems of the black people several years ago. They genuinely thought this was the solution until they...many of them have found out that this not the solution. Some of them still have not found out.... So that those people may be genuinely confused. They believed they are doing something to benefit the black man but in fact they are not. So that our job is to slowly begin to bring those people together and heighten the contradictions so they can see clearly. I mean it can be done very easy in the District of Columbia. The official figures by the Honkeys say that 93% of this community is black in the elementary schools. That means, according to their figures, 7% are white. You can't talk about integration in Washington, D.C. unless you talk about getting your children up at 6:00 a.m. and sending them to Virginia or to Maryland... Which we know is not going to happen. What we must be concerned with is how we conduct schools. Schools which are going to teach our children what we wish to teach them. That simply means we have to take over the schools. Our parents have to take over the schools and begin to teach the things that are necessary to be taught to our children. The education that they have been getting has been hindering them. That's correct. Our community is loaded with pimps, hustlers, preachers, an gangsters, gangs, prostitutes and people who work in factories. If I go to high school, that high school must either teach me how to be a good pimp, good hustler, a good gangster, a good preacher, a good factory worker, a good maid or a good whatever that come out of my community. It is not going to teach me how to be one of those things then it must teach me how to change my community so that it becomes

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "better. Our high schools are not getting near that problem. They don't even teach kids how to be good hustlers. And they don't teach them how to change the community so that people don't have to live as hustlers. Therefore, we have to junk the entire education program and our parents must be ready to take them over so that our children can be taught how to change our community."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "How do you compare the school system here in the years that you have been here, to that of other cities? Do you see any difference or is it worse?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "It is the same for the black man. The question of community is not a question of geography. It is simply a question of color. Wherever you are, if you are black, you make up a community and therefore, you would suffer the same indignities no matter what part of the country you live in.... But for us, the question of community has never been geography, it has been a question of color. If you go to Africa today and you sit with black people, you feel at home. If you go to England or France and you see the white people there, you feel uncomfortable, but when you get and when you meet some other Africans you feel once again at home. Because for us the question of community has never been geography, it has always been the question of being with our people."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Stokely, the first time I saw you here was in 1966, you were conducting a rally at 10th and U. One of the things that impressed me, that I never had read this anywhere before you mentioned that

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

UNKNOWN

CONTINUED (Q) - "you advised the people who were there at the rally, along with the black power thing, at least along with the black power thing as it is recorded politically and economically, etc. To also clean their neighborhoods and quit, I think your phrase was quoted something like ah... quit cutting your brothers on Friday and Saturday night and let's get together. What do you think it is that the other side is reporting more than this side?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Well, it is clear that the white press is not going to talk or to give any advertisement that is going to help bring the black community together. I mean every one knows that...they started off their petty anti-nonsensical poverty program which was aimed at doing precisely what it has done in the community, split it. You have now factions fighting over factions, the crumbs and that is precisely what they meant to do. They have no intention of uniting the black community and everyone who thinks they do is absolutely absurd. It is clear that whenever a poverty program moves within the masses of our people that program is always cut off and as long as they can keep the community divided, they will continue to function and to send that money in. Now the United States works on what we call the three M's: the missionary, the money and the Marines. That's how they have worked everywhere around the world when they went to conquer people. Now they sent the missionaries into our communities. We have sent them out with all of those little white kids. Now they are sending the money in and they are beginning to draw that out. After the money, come the Marines."

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Mr. Carmichael, when you...your trip abroad... the white media reported that you are going to Cuba, Hanoi and a few other places that you are planning or getting information on how to go at black guerilla warfare. How true is this? Or is this false?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Well, the first thing let us say Brother () is that the United States tries to tell me, a man who is born free, where I can go and where I can not go, that is absolutely absurd, I will go wherever I want to go, I will see whomever I want to see and I will talk with whomever I want to talk. So this nonsense about you're banned from going to Hanoi, you're banned from going to Cuba, you're banned from going to Egypt, you're banned from going to Algeria, you're banned from going to Syria doesn't effect me. It effects people whom the white people control, they don't control me. I will go where I want to go, when I want to go and how I want to go. And I will say what I want to say, when I want to say and where I want to say it. So I pay no attention what so ever to anything they say."

UNKNOWN (Q) - "One final question, we got about a minute. Are you going to make Washington your permanent residence?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "It's going to be my home for a while, as long as they let me live. As long as I'm living and there's breath in my body, I'm going to work to bring our people together."

MR. PINKNEY

- "Stokely Carmichael we certainly want to thank you for being our guest on WOL. This has been a WOL Special presented by the News and Public Service Department, Stokely Carmichael in Washington."

"The preceding program was recorded Wednesday, January 17th at our studios."

On January 16, 1968, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that about forty Negroes, some representing Negro organizations and some individuals on their own, met in the YMCA hall, Roxbury, on the night of January 15, 1968.

[redacted] advised the group that when Stokely Carmichael was recently in Boston he had stated he was traveling to major cities to urge Negro organizations in these cities to meet together to form a United Front. When these are formed, each United Front should send representatives to meet together and form a National United Front. This would enable the Negroes to move in unity and act together with greater power.

MUHAMMAD'S MOSQUE OF ISLAM #11
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
ALSO REFERRED TO AS THE NATION OF ISLAM (NOI)

On March 18, 1954, a source stated that the Nation of Islam (NOI) had become active in Boston, Massachusetts, and knew it had held meetings as early as November of 1953.

On May 10, 1957, a second source stated that the Temple of Islam in Boston, Massachusetts, is known as Muhammad's Mosque of Islam #11 or Muhammad's Temple of Islam #11. It is located at 65 Intervale Street, in the Dorchester section of Boston, Massachusetts. It is the local branch of Muhammad's Temple of Islam, whose headquarters are in Chicago, Illinois.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as
THE MUSLIM CULT OF ISLAM, also known
as MUHAMMAD'S TEMPLES OF ISLAM

In January, 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 5, 1967, a second source advised Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 2, 1966, a third source advised Muhammad had, in early July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

A write-up on unwatermarked bond has been prepared for possible referral by the Crime Records Division to a mass media contact. Its purpose is to show that Stokely Carmichael has not moderated his views, as has been widely suggested in the local press, but is actually following the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) plan for a black nationalist revolution.

This SNCC blueprint for action is set out in the 1/7/68 issue of "The Worker," Communist Party newspaper, which features a speech by James Forman, SNCC International Director, at the Western Regional Black Youth Conference in Los Angeles on 11/23/67.

Forman emphasized that the Negro communities must be made to realize their struggle is basically against United States "colonialism," that they must align themselves with "other oppressed people throughout the world," must increase their reliance on resistance, must form independent political organizations, link all militants into a confederation for protection against the FBI and Congressional committees, establish "inner city" newspapers, and keep their plans secret.

The attached memorandum shows that Carmichael, since his arrival in Washington, D. C., is endeavoring to start a unity movement, insists on secrecy, urged the formation of a black press, and identified his movement as being against "colonialism," all evidence that he is following the SNCC blueprint.

Memorandum [redacted] to W. C. Sullivan
RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

As an example of exactly what Forman and Carmichael are talking about, the memorandum describes the Detroit "Inner City Voice" which Forman recommended as the model for other black nationalist newspapers. It is replete with calls for "rebellion," and includes specific information on the preparation of Molotov cocktails and other weapons for use by rioters.

A copy of the 1/7/68 issue of "The Worker" and the first four issues of "Inner City Voice" are being furnished separately to the Crime Records Division for its use.

It is believed that if this information is promptly and fully exploited by a news media contact it can do much to reduce the influence of Carmichael among moderate Negro leaders in Washington, D. C., and elsewhere, and could possibly do much to defeat his current efforts to organize a "Black United Front."

RECOMMENDATION:

If approved, this memorandum and attachment should be sent to the Crime Records Division for action in line with the above observations.

Since Stokely Carmichael's arrival in Washington, after a world-wide trip marked by constant vituperation against the United States and support of its enemies, his public statements, at least by comparison, have seemed moderate.

The press has made much of this ostensible change of heart since the date of his unity meeting with the leaders of the Washington Negro community.

Before the Negro community takes Stokely to its bosom it should be made aware of his over-all plans for action which it will be seen are simply those of the organization he represents (SNCC) and that his "soft sell" for unity is just one of the planks in its action platform for revolution. To understand this, a reading of the 1/7/68 issue of "The Worker," official organ of the Communist Party, is helpful.

James Forman, International Director of SNCC, addressed the Western Regional Black Youth Conference in Los Angeles on 11/23/67. His remarks are featured in "The Worker" issue mentioned above. Forman, speaking for SNCC, made the following points upon which he says the success of the black nationalist movement depends:

1. Marxian awareness that their struggle is against colonialism; that racism alone is not the heart of the problem.
2. Alliances with the "dispossessed" who are identified as people of African descent, Mexican-Americans and "many poor whites" as well as "other oppressed people throughout the world."
3. Increased reliance on resistance in the civil rights struggle.
4. Formation of independent political organizations to get mass participation by black people, without which the revolution cannot be accomplished.
5. Linking of all militants in some confederation for protection against the FBI, [] and Congressional investigation committees.
6. Establishment of new black nationalist "inner city" newspapers to carry the black nationalist message in view of the hostile attitude of the legitimate press.

ENCLOSURE 100-446080-1054

7. Keeping plans secret, stopping loose talk, and eliminating spies because "You don't make a rebellion and describe it until it's all over."

Stokely Carmichael is currently endeavoring to organize a unity movement, insists on secrecy, has urged the formation of a black press, and identified his movement as being against "colonialism," all certainly evidence that he is following the same guidelines enumerated by James Forman and set out in "The Worker."

Forman's speech is reminiscent of a Communist Party directive in that much of it is devoted to an insistence that black nationalists know the true basis for their struggle ("colonialism").

Of more practical interest is Forman's insistence that "inner city" newspapers be established. He cites a particular paper as a model, the Detroit "Inner City News." Four editions of this paper have been issued, the first on October 20, 1967. Its masthead identifies it as "The Voice of Revolution" and its contents show that this is an accurate description. It is replete with calls for continued "rebellion" (rioting) and includes specific information on the preparation of Molotov cocktails and other weapons for use in riots.

If moderate Negro leaders take note of Forman's blueprint, and the interest of the Communist Party in it, they will see that if they buy Carmichael's proposition they are buying the SNCC blueprint for revolution, not a program of moderation.

A copy of pertinent pages from "The Worker" issue of 1/7/68 and one copy each of the first four issues of "Inner City Voice" are attached.

Reference is made to your memorandum of December 13, 1967, enclosing a copy of an article purportedly written by Stokely Carmichael which appeared in the July-August issue of the Tri Continental magazine. You stated that if we felt that the article had evidentiary value in connection with the sedition investigation of Carmichael you would, upon request, attempt to locate a witness who could possibly introduce the document into evidence in any legal proceedings.

We do feel that some of the statements appearing in the last paragraph in the left-hand column on page 18 of the article have evidentiary value tending to show Carmichael's motive and intent in his attempts to obstruct the recruiting service of the United States. We would therefore appreciate it if you could furnish us with the identity of an individual who can testify of his own personal knowledge that Carmichael wrote the aforementioned article. We would also like to know all the details connected with such knowledge.

[redacted] You should continue to give close guidance and direction to this informant. Every effort should be made to develop additional informants [redacted]

Carmichael has a reputation of being an egotist. His arrival in Washington, D. C., has had a disruptive and divisive effect among the Negro leaders in the community. Such a situation presents potential for informant development, as well as counterintelligence activity. The screening of the mailing list of the Black United Front which you have already initiated should be productive in this regard.

Of prime importance is a need to develop the source of funds. Your monitoring of SNCC's account in Washington, D. C., should provide some of this information. SNCC has in the past opened numerous bank accounts. At one time they had nine accounts at Atlanta, Georgia. It is possible SNCC and/or

King, Stokely Join In Capital Camp-In Agreement Between Two Leaders

By ETHEL L. PAYNE

Sengstacke Publications Correspondent

Stokely Carmichael is ready to join Martin Luther King in his planned April "poor peoples camp-in" for Washington if certain conditions are met, the Daily Defender learned yesterday.

One of these is an agreement to go all the way and not let himself be co-opted by grand promises as the militants believe King was in Selma. Carmichael wants a guarantee to escalate from non-violence to whatever direct action may be necessary to make congress and administration meet the demands to be presented a guaranteed annual income, greater expenditures for slum dwellers and crash education and training programs are part of the package.

Details of the program may be unveiled when King and his associates meet in Washington Feb. 6-7 for a board meeting of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. While two leaders have not met for any formal discussions, of their mutual aims, Carmichael as the first step in wringing concessions from the power structure. The next move if it fails to act is more forceful methods, never stopping short of the ultimate goal.

On the other hand, Martin Luther King is totally dedicated to non-violence as a philosophy and a technique. His intention to employ civil disobedience in the spring campaign is about as radical as he will get; although it may well has let it be known that he is available and does not want to upstage King.

Nevertheless, the Black Power's most publicized activist is quietly and effectively, according to the best information, organizing Washington. This is a part of the three-year plan of SNCC and Washington is a special target because of the focus on the nation's capital.

There are many differences between SNCC and SCLC, but the basic argument, which split the two organizations during the Selma march is over tactics and philosophy. Carmichael and other SNCC leaders see non-violence as a technique, not a philosophy. Which should be used only invite some violent acts.

Stokely Carmichael is sincerely dedicated to Black Unity, or at least he projects this image. In an effort to win more grass roots support he has stopped his public rabble rousing and temporarily the sound of "honkey" and "uncle tom" has gone into the freezer.

In Washington, only his most trusted aides know of his complete movements. He changes his place of residence frequently; sometimes it's a hotel room or it may be friends or even the back of SNCC headquarters on You st., N.W. he never carries a suitcase in changing places - his clothing is brought to him later by separate courier. The coalition of moderates, conservatives and radicals which he tried to put together a few weeks ago has cracked some and there have been fall-outs; but the lines of communication have not been shut down. Carmichael is talking to Sterling Tucker of the Urban League and Rev. Walter Fauntroy, the vice chairman of the Washington City Council and a close friend of Martin Luther King.

King's hope is desperately to bring SNCC activists back under the umbrella of non-violence which he calls the ultimate way to reach the conscience of America. At his Atlanta headquarters last week, swarms of young SNCC workers moved in and out of the place and were very much involved in the planning for the April Washington campaign. Mrs. Martin Luther King was hospitalized for emergency surgery and her husband has to cancel appointments because there was no one to look after the four children.

The scale for the April Camp-in is nowhere nearly as massive as the march on Washington. King does not have the money and the resources that were available then. Bayard Rustin, the brilliant logician for the 1963 March has cautioned King against the spring campaign and the donors have trickled away; the worry here is that the militants may seize the King campaign and take over its direction. At nearby military bases, there are 7,000 troops who have been receiving special riot control training and the justice department is carefully monitoring the situation. Also very much concerned is the commission on civil disorders.

The military presence may be standing by, but the crowd will go forth to welcome the pilgrims with courtesy and to see that they are accorded all the hospitality the town can give.

The files of the Pittsburgh Office contain the following information concerning [redacted]

"The Pittsburgh Press," a daily newspaper dated 12/24/64, contained an article which indicated that the Friends of the Council of Federated Organizations was raising funds to send a station wagon to Philadelphia, Miss., to replace the one that was burned when three civil rights workers were slain there. The article indicated that SAMUEL CARCIONE, a mathematics instructor at Mt. Mercy College, Pittsburgh, was one of the individuals who would drive the station wagon to Mississippi.

The Erie, Pa., "Morning News," dated 5/12/65, contains an article captioned "67 Students Defy Injunction, Arrested After 'Mill' Protest." This article indicates that pickets protesting the planned expansion of Hammermill Paper Company in Selma, Ala., ended their demonstration at the Hammermill Company on 5/11/65, after defiance of an injunction, obtained by the company to prevent interference with anyone entering or leaving the plant, resulted in the arrest of more than 60 persons. This article indicated that SAM CARCIONE of Mt. Mercy was one of those named in the injunction obtained by the company.

The 6/8/65 issue of the "Pittsburgh Post Gazette," a daily newspaper, identified SAMUEL CARCIONE as one of the sit in group which staged a sit-in at the Allegheny County Court House, Pittsburgh, on 6/7/65, in protest of a county commissioner's refusal to apologize for his "young punk" remark. The 6/2/65 issue of the "Pittsburgh Post Gazette," contained an article reporting that one Reverend R. N. PRANGE, was a member of a delegation which confronted the Allegheny County Commissioners in Pittsburgh on 6/1/65. At this time PRANGE accused Commissioner WILLIAM D. MC CLELLAND of not having the Negro's interest at heart in the hiring of county employees. Commissioner MC CLELLAND reportedly stated to PRANGE, "I wish you didn't have that collar on. I'd tell you something. I heard young punks like you before."

The "Pittsburgh Press," of 8/12/65, identified CARCIONE as one of five pickets arrested on 8/11/65, in the Grant Building, Pittsburgh, at the offices of local 5, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, (IBEW), where they were protesting alleged hiring discrimination by the union against Negroes. They were arrested when they refused to leave the hallway after closing time outside the offices of the union. CARCIONE was fined $10 and costs.

The "Pittsburgh Press," of 8/16/65, identified SAMUEL CARCIONE, 1023 Jancey Street, Pittsburgh, as one of 15 demonstrators arrested on 8/16/65, for preventing cement trucks from entering and leaving the Chatham Center construction site, Pittsburgh. The demonstrators were charged with disorderly conduct and fined $10 and costs.

The 8/19/65 issue of the "Pittsburgh Press," contains an article titled "Eleven Pickets Arrested in Arena Rights Row." This article indicates that SAMUEL CARCIONE, 1023 Jancey Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., was one of eleven persons arrested on 8/18/65, by Pittsburgh Police on a charge of disorderly conduct during a demonstration at the Civic Arena, Pittsburgh. The article indicates the demonstration was held to protest policies of local 5, IBEW. The arrest came when the demonstrators tried to storm the gate used by persons attending a Civic Light Opera production at the Civic Arena.

The "Pittsburgh Press," dated 12/11/65 contained an article which identified SAMUEL CARCIONE as chairman of the United Negro Protest Committee (UNPC), Political Action Committee.

For the information of Washington Field the UNPC is a civil rights organization in Pittsburgh, which has conducted demonstrations protesting hiring policies and lack of employment opportunities concerning Negroes in the Pittsburgh area.

The "Pittsburgh Press," dated 3/23/66, contained an article concerning a trial in criminal court, Pittsburgh, of eight individuals charged with inciting to riot on 8/18/65 at the Civic Arena, Pittsburgh, one of the defendants being SAMUEL CARCIONE, age 25, of 1023 Jancey Street, Pittsburgh. The article indicates that Inspector JOHN P. KELLY, Pittsburgh Police Department, on 3/23/66, testified that CARCIONE talked to seven of the defendants on the evening of 8/18/65 and urged them to storm the Civic Arena. Until then, according to KELLY, the defendants had been quietly picketing the show as a protest against the hiring policies of local 5, IBEW. KELLY testified that after the urging the eight defendants stormed the arena gate. KELLY was injured and hospitalized in the course of the incident.

The "Pittsburgh Press," dated 3/25/66, contained an article which indicated that at the same trial referred to above, JAMES MC COY, JR., General Chairman, UNPC, testified on 3/25/66 that the demonstrators went to the Civic Arena, Pittsburgh, "for the purpose of having some of them arrested." They were supposed to go to the arena entrance and stage a sit-in, instead, he testified, CARCIONE had them rush the entrance.

The "Pittsburgh Press," dated 3/26/66, reported that the defendants in the above trial were found guilty, but sentencing was deferred when the defense attorney indicated he would file a motion for a new trial.

The "Pittsburgh Press," dated 4/27/66, contains an article which indicated that the Gimbel Brothers Department Store, Pittsburgh, had on 4/26/66, asked for a preliminary injunction to stop picketing at its downtown store. Among those named in the injunction, according to this article was SAMUEL F. CARCIONE, 1023 Jancey Street, Pittsburgh. The article indicates that the store had been picketed since 4/7/66, in an attempt to obtain more jobs for Negroes at the store.

On 7/21/66, [redacted] Pittsburgh Police Department, advised SA [redacted] that in the near future a Civilian Alert Patrol would be organized by the UNPC. The patrol will consist of a vehicle with a sign thereon "Civilian Alert Patrol," the vehicle to contain two, three or four persons with cameras, radios, and tape recorders. It is intended that the patrol will monitor police radio frequencies and will proceed to situations of possible civil rights interest. It is intended for "on the spot" use in matters involving civil rights.

The 7/21/66 issue of "The Pittsburgh Catholic," a weekly newspaper of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh, contained an article entitled, "Does 'Black Power' Mean What They Think?" written by SAM CARCIONE. It was indicated that CARCIONE had taken part in the recent MEREDITH, Mississippi, Freedom March when he joined the march at Batesville, Miss. In his explanation of the term "Black Power" CARCIONE said in this article that "Black Power" means simply that black Americans shall organize politically in order to be able to elect officials who will enforce those laws which are already on the books, but which have never been enforced.

The "Pittsburgh Press," dated 9/19/66, contained an article which indicated that SAMUEL CARCIONE was fined $250 and sentenced to three to 23 months in jail on charges of inciting to riot in connection with his arrest on 8/18/65, at the Civic Arena, Pittsburgh.

The "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette," dated 1/3/68, contains an article concerning the appeal to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court by SAMUEL CARCIONE of his conviction for rioting on 8/18/65 at the Civic Arena, Pittsburgh. This article indicates that CARCIONE is now a mathematics teacher at Howard University, Washington, D. C.

On 2/2/68, [redacted] U.S.
Department of State, telephonically advised [redacted] Domestic Intelligence Division, information had been received that Stokely Carmichael, former Chairman, Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), a militant civil rights organization is scheduled to be in Canada 2/3-4/68 to speak at a rally organized by Rassenblement pour Independance Nationale (RIN), a Quebec separatist political organization. The Cuban Consul in Montreal may also attend. According to Tully, Canadians are not going to bar Stokely Carmichael from entering Canada.

Information received from our sources 2/2/68 also indicates Carmichael may travel to Cincinnati, Ohio, 2/8/68, and to the San Francisco, California, area 2/16/68.

In addition to the above, WFO has advised that its coverage of Carmichael indicated that he attended, on 2/2/68, a meeting of the local SNCC at which discussions were held on the possible opening of a book store to sell Africa-type books, ways and means of uniting black people, the holding of a Negro history week in February, and ways to acquire funds.

The discussion in this conference began with the subject of financing the WSP. Also discussed were the merits of having Martin Luther King make a speech during the WSP. Stokely Carmichael stated that he is in favor of the goals and aims of the WSP and that he would support this project wholeheartedly. However, he insisted that his organization, SNCC, and any other organization which would take part in this project, would keep their own identity separate from SCLC. This was agreed to by the representatives of SCLC.

WASHINGTON SPRING PROJECT
RACIAL MATTER

This meeting was presided over by King who restated what he had said in the meeting mentioned earlier. In addition, he said there were people in the audience who did not agree with the planned WSP and asked that these people not hinder the project even though they were not in agreement.

King reminisced about past demonstrations and projects of the SCLC and their effect.

Doctor King advised they expected approximately 3,000 persons to come to WDC for the WSP. They plan to camp on the Washington Monument or the Lincoln Memorial grounds. They fully expect to be asked to move and when this is done it will draw desired attention to themselves and their cause. No mention of militancy or civil disobedience was made and King indicated they would move their camp when asked to do so.

King indicated there would be similar demonstrations in other cities during the same period of time as the WSP. He did not identify these cities.

An announcement was made of a mass meeting of the SCLC at the Vermont Avenue Baptist Church, 1630 Vermont Avenue, N. W., WDC, on February 7, 1968.

The meeting ended at approximately 11:00 p.m.

Memorandum

TO : The Director

DATE: FEB. 9, 1968

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages E635-E636. Senator Thurmond, (R) South Carolina, extended his remarks concerning the rising crime rate pointing out that the big reasons for this are lack of effective leadership and lack of decisive law enforcement. He stated "We have sufficient laws under which to prosecute members of our society who feel they are above the law such as Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown, but the Justice Department refuses to prosecute them." He placed in the Record a resolution adopted by the City Council of the Isle of Palms, South Carolina, urging the Justice Department to see that justice is done regarding the flagrant violations of our law by Carmichael.

WASHINGTON SPRING PROJECT (WSP)
RACIAL MATTER

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information:

During the latter part of January, 1968, source advised Washington Spring Project (WSP) is scheduled to begin in Washington, D.C. on or before April 5, 1968. This date has been given as a deadline to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) workers in the Chicago area, for recruiting the required 200 participants and for obtaining the necessary funds for their transportation to Washington, D.C. [REDACTED]

b7D

Martin Luther King is scheduled to be in Chicago on Friday, February 2, 1968, to make an undetermined number of speeches in order to solicit support for the WSP. One of these speeches will be before the West Side Organization (WSO) in Chicago.

Very little recruiting of persons to participate in the WSP has been conducted in Chicago to date. The SCLC staff members assigned to this project believe that the recruiting of the 200 persons to travel to Washington, D.C. would best be delayed until after King's speeches on February 2, 1968. It is anticipated that most of the 200 persons would consist of welfare recipients who have received assistance from, or are connected with the WSO in Chicago.

A conference in New York City, New York, has been set up during the period from January 31, 1968, to February 3, 1968, between the SCLC staff members, Stokely Carmichael, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] for the purpose of soliciting the cooperation and assistance of Carmichael [REDACTED] and the SNCC organization for the Washington Spring Project.

Levison commented that he agreed with Carmichael and disagreed with King on this point. He inquired as to why King was upset.

[] stated that King said the enemy was violence and began to preach on how violence begets violence.

Levison related that the key is that King states the enemy is violence which is not true. The enemy are the forces preventing them from getting rights and violence is one of the methods. He said that, therefore, they are trying to develop a counter technique to violence.

"The Worker", an East Coast Communist newspaper, in its issue dated February 11, 1968, page one, contains an article on the protest against United States involvement in the war in Vietnam in Washington, D.C. on February 5, 6, 1968, sponsored by the Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam. It states that King addressed the gathering of clergymen and laymen and told them that "it was imperative that the freedom and peace movements be joined. Describing the worsening economic conditions, he appealed to the religious leaders to join and support the demonstrations his organization has planned for Washington in April". The article also notes that King made it clear that the targets of the demonstrations would be the Vietnam war and Congress.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP,USA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in this position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism.

Re Miami letter to Director, 1/30/68, requesting Atlanta to advise whether the letter appearing in the 8/2/67 issue of "Granma" purportedly written by the subject had been subjected to examination for handwriting comparisons.

For the information of Miami, Atlanta furnished to the FBI Laboratory the photograph of Georgia operators license # 0-434616 for STOKELY CARMICHAEL and a pink folder bearing photograph and signature of STOKELY CARMICHAEL for comparisons with the signature appearing in the re 8/2/67 issued of "Granma."

On the date of 1/10/68, the Laboratory Report # D-552601, the Laboratory reported the results of the examination as follows:

"The CARMICHAEL signature in the letter reproduced in the issue of 'Granma' for 8/2/67, is not sufficiently legible for comparison purposes with specimen KCl. Furthermore, specimen KCl is not sufficient in quantity to show the normal variations in the signature of this individual."

Information has been included in a letter by Atlanta on STOKELY CARMICHAEL dated

It is noted that CARMICHAEL arrived in Boston under blizzard conditions and that at times visibility was less than 15 to 20 feet and travel was extremely difficult. The surveillance of CARMICHAEL was a joint effort of the Boston Police Department and the Boston Office. Due to the distinct possibility that Boston agents might not reach the airport in time to meet CARMICHAEL's plane due to the weather conditions, the cooperation of the intelligence division of the Boston Police was sought and Officer [redacted] of that division assisted in the surveillance.

The young Negress who met CARMICHAEL and who has been identified as [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] has not been previously known by Boston. Investigation is being instituted on [redacted]

The panel truck mentioned in LHM is believed to have been used as a defensive surveillance by persons responsible for CARMICHAEL's presence in Boston. This truck was observed on two occasions but wet snow covering its registration number prevented identification of the truck.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

On January 25, 1968, a source, which has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stokely Carmichael had departed the National Airport, Alexandria, Virginia, aboard Eastern Airlines flight 646 at 7:35 p.m., on January 25, 1968. He was traveling under the name of V. Welch and was en route to Boston, Massachusetts.

b7C Flight 646, Eastern Airlines, arrived at Logan International Airport on time at 7:03 p.m., on January 25, 1968, although blizzard conditions prevailed. Carmichael was met by an unidentified young Negress, whom he kissed. Both entered an ITOA cab driven by a young male Negro. The cab had Massachusetts Registration Number [redacted]

The cab traveled to the YMCA, 401 Warren Street, Roxbury, where it stopped outside the main entrance. The unidentified girl entered the "Y" and returned with two male Negroes who appeared to converse for a minute or two with the occupant of the cab. The two men returned to the "Y" and the cab drove off up Townsend Street, Roxbury. As it crossed Walnut Avenue, a panel truck pulled out of Walnut Avenue and stopped in the intersection, blocking traffic on Townsend Street. This appeared to be a deliberate attempt to prevent surveillance of the cab in question. The truck blocked traffic until the cab had disappeared and then drove off.

b7C On January 25, 1968, [redacted] Independent Taxi Owners Association (ITOA), 223 Albany Street, Boston, Massachusetts, advised that ITOA cab with Massachusetts Registration [redacted] was in service and on the air but did not respond to his call. He stated the cab was owned by one [redacted] address unknown.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

b7C On January 25, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a meeting was held at the YMCA, Warren Street, Roxbury, on that evening and was scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Due to the weather most everyone was late and people were still straggling in at 9:30 p.m. The meeting was the second of its kind and was sponsored [redacted] Representatives of Negro organizations had been invited to consider the idea of forming a United Front made up of representatives of Negro organizations for the purpose of consolidating the strength of individual organizations in one front, thus creating greater black power. The first meeting, held January 15, 1968, had ended without a decision being reached. The program had been placed before these groups as the suggestion of Stokely Carmichael.

At 10:00 p.m. Stokely Carmichael entered the meeting, was introduced and spoke for about ten minutes. He told the group that the plan would not cause any organization to lose its identity or purpose and he stressed the power which a United Front would give the black man.

Source advised that someone asked [redacted]

The ITOA cab, which brought Carmichael to the YMCA from the airport, was observed about 11:00 p.m., driving through Roxbury followed by what is believed to be the same panel truck used to block off Townsend Street earlier in the evening.

Dr. Eaton began the program with a brief interview of his guests, with emphasis on how they became acquainted with each other and how they became involved in the Civil Rights Movement. The questions and answers then began. The following is a verbatim transcript of the comments of Carmichael in response to questions asked him:

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

EATON: Listening audience the phone number is 462-8150. And tonight we're interviewing Mr. Stokely Carmichael, Mr. Lester McKinney and Mr. Cortland Cox. Let me throw this question to you, all of you have in common, being at Howard University and on this program we have had several of the Professors who have been kicked out of Howard and one of the student, student at law school. What was his name? Green I think and now he is at Yale. Let me ask you this question? What help if any, in formulating your opinions about life, what was some of your more positive impressions of Howard University? Or what is your critique, that's a better idea of Howard University. How would you answer that?

CARMICHAEL: Well, I think it is changing a little at Howard University, my biggest problem at Howard University is that it was trying too much imitate white society. I mean all of its criterion came all from white society. It was so caught up in imitating white society, it never took time to look at their own people, their own culture. I mean they just never really questioned things. They don't today, I mean they talk about education. It is crystal clear to me, education means being able to fit into your community. And Howard University is incapable of doing that, I mean the students who attend Howard University can't even mix who surround their very community. They got to have police dogs to fight what they call block boys, and that's just absurd to me, because that's the same people, same black people, flesh of the same flesh and blood of the same blood. And if Howard University couldn't prepare me to help live in that community or change that community, then that education was absolutely wasted. I think that more than anything else (garbled) with Howard, I mean I

I am not even going into the petty nonsense of the administration, they are trying to be so white and the petty nonsense of some faculty members. The whole institution just in its attempt to imitate lock-stock and barrel, white society and to make us white. I think what caused to rebel, cause were all first generation college, you know our parents didn't go to college, they didn't even finish high school. And if we didn't get scholarships, we wouldn't be able to go to college.

EATON: You got a good point, let me put it this way. You say, it is not only true of Howard, I don't think also, the whole educational system.

CARMICHAEL: Right.

EATON: But isn't it natural if the black man finds himself the minority, the largest minority in a seas of whiteness or the white majority. Is it not natural to have this type of imitation? What is your feeling about that?

CARMICHAEL: Man, I just want to pick up on that. I think that's a line the Honkies just use, you know telling us that we're not any relationship to Africa, man that's not true. First of all for black people the question of a community is not geography it is a question of color, that happens to be a fact, I mean you go in this country, wherever you go, if your black you're going to the same community, it doesn't make a difference where its located, if its in Washington, D. C., if its in Harlem, if its in Southside Chicago, if its in Watts in Los Angeles, wherever the brothers are thats naturally where you're going to be. And the same thing is true outside of the country, the same is true for example in the West Indies, the same thing is true in Africa. Well now the white folks got to say that nonsense because look what they've done to us. They have scattered us all over the Western society because they felt like it. They came to Africa they took us, they dropped some of us in the West Indies, they dropped some of us in Cuba, they dropped some of us in Brazil, they dropped some of us in Columbia, in Peru, in Panama, in Santa Domingo, in Puerto Rico, in the United States, and they just scattered us as their will, I mean we're 900 million strong in the world today and if the black man ever recognized that he was 900 million strong in the world today and recognized that we're flesh of the same flesh and blood of the same blood because we are...

EATON: He'd probably faint.

CARMICHAEL: No, he wouldn't faint, the Honkie would faint. If the black man recognized that the Honkie would faint.

EATON: Okay, lets take a few calls, the number is 462-8150, and we're having a informal discussion here tonight with Mr. Stokely Carmichael, Mr. Lester McKinnie and Mr. Courtland Cox. If you care to join it they are willing to answer any questions that you put to them other than those they rule out of bounds and we decided that when we went on the air. Lets take a couple of calls, gentlemen. WOL speak-up please.

CALLER: Alright, well may I just say you have such lovely participants on there I would love to hear them talk much more to the community, you know, rather than asking so many questions at first. And I agree with these gentlemen. I just wish they could give us a better education, black people, I'm not concerned about what white people think about us. I think if we could do one of these things to more educate the black people that they are black and what they are, I would appreciate any comment anybody has about that. We're going to waste our time trying to teach the white man that we're black and we're Africans we can forget it because its going to take too long.

EATON: OK. Thanks very much. Any of you care to react to that?

CARMICHAEL: Let me just pick up on that because I think a point that the lady I think the point that the sister made was very important. Because every time black people move in this country the first thing they decide is what is the white man going to say about this.

COX (?): You're right.

CARMICHAEL: Yeah. And we have to change our entire way of thinking. We must begin to say first our people, first our people, we are concerned with what is good for our people, and later for anybody else.

CALLER: Stokely at one of your meetings, you know, I was there and you said that ah...never knock your brother or never knock your brother's organization. There's another organization (around)....in the (), you know. But suppose your brother knocked you, you know, knowing its gonna hurt you, you know, what actions should he take behind that?

CARMICHAEL: OK, now understand this, we gotta understand this its very, very important. Look I'm gonna tell you something brother if we don't understand it all of us are gonna be wasted. Now dig, if a brother attacks another brother and the other brother's mind is messed up, his mind is messed up because the white man messed his mind up. Right?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CALLER: True.

CARMICHAEL: So that means our primary enemy is the white man who has messed up our brothers mind. Our job is to begin to be as humble as we can with our own people, to try and bring them along to the point where we have reached because look a lot of people talking black now but remember when brother Malcolm was talking about black just think where we were.

CALLER: Yeah.

CARMICHAEL: And all of us have to grow to that point. And if people are not willing to help the brothers and sisters who are behind we're going to get wasted because they'll be able to divide us. We have to give our brothers all the slack in the world, I mean cut them a whole lot of slack to bring them along slowly. Use any methods necessary to bring them along except force. We must begin to...begin to use as a law that we do not use force on our own people, as a matter of fact when they insult us we just go to them and take the insults and just keep going slowly. I mean wherever our people are that's where we go and that's how we try and move against them so that we begin to unite everybody in our community, I mean everybody in our community got to be united, from kids six years old all the way up to the old folk we people say minds cannot be changed but that's not true, we got to work..... with them because unless we have a totally united community (isn't ?) going to be able to get us. But if we take our time with our brothers and when they make the mistakes we just go on after them, you know, like we all grow up in the church, remember Jesus Christ went after the one lost lamb, and that's who we got to go after, we got to go after our lost brothers whose minds are not straight, who are fighting us every time we say the word black, who are getting upset every time they hear Black Power, and take time out to un-brainwash what the Honkie did to them. Now it offers a challenge for us because the challenge is can we ...are we better and are we smarter with our own people than the white man? If the white man brainwashed our people can we un-brainwash our people and bring them home? And I think we're bad enough to do it. And that's what we have to do. And that's why we have to take time and don't get upset, you know, when brothers say things that we know they don't really mean because they don't know what they're talking about, and cut them all the slack in the world to bring them home. We got to bring our people home and you got to remember that every Negro is a potential black man. I job is to make black man.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CALLER: Why can't Stokely Carmichael tell us his real name: And who is paying him?

EATON: (to CARMICHAEL) The question is why can't you tell us your real name? And who is paying you?

CARMICHAEL: My real name is Stokely Carmichael and I'm paid by the Student Non-violent Co-ordinating Committee when I get paid.

EATON: (to caller) Alright, thanks very much.

EATON: WOL, speak-up, please.

CALLER: So mighty glad to see that Mr. Carmichael come speaking to the community because I feel the community needs to be educated, especially or even our so called upper class. We are all nothing but Negroes.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Some of them there seems to be indifferent or (). What makes the white man mad is when we are united and solid unity and speaking the things that should be spoken. And I think this is a very good idea.

EATON: OK, thanks very much. There is one question that comes out of two or three of the listeners and I would like to throw open and also get the listeners reaction. Should the black man become involved, not only in the destiny of his own community but the destiny of America, and if so, why? (Cox answered - Carmichael continued the answer.)

CARMICHAEL: I mean you could carry it to the present date.

EATON: Mr. Carmichael.

CARMICHAEL: We do not want to get involved in a black united front but lets use that as an example. Now, we got together in D.C. We said, alright, we're living in a black community. We have different ideologies, you know, we have different organizations but we're all working for the benefit of the black man, why don't all of us get together, sit down and try and work out areas where we can work together and stop fighting each other. Now that seems to.....me to be what anybody would be happy to have done. But every white newspaper, every white television station, every white radio station in this city came out against such a move. They don't even want the black man to get together. Didn't any body say anything about what they're were going to do, all they said was we're calling a unity meeting, we discuss things by ourselves away from the press because we know what they do to everything we do, they always misinterpret and continue to mess up the minds of our people. And yet even something as simple as having a unity meeting among black people, and white people are trying to destroy it. The press is making all these stories about whats going on, who's fighting who and all that nonsense, and the reason they are doing this is because they don't want the black man to come together because they know if the black man comes together its all over for them.

EATON: OK. Lets take a few more calls. In other words what you are simple saying is that if the black man looks after his...own..best interests in becoming a better individual in terms of ownership of property, being responsible for the property he owns, developing businesses and sharing that this....by the very act of doing this will have meaningful consequences on the statue and the position of America.

CARMICHAEL:(?) Yeah, but not only that see....if the black man becomes....

EATON: In other words some basic changes will have to be made.

CARMICHAEL(?): Yeah, but look if the black man just began to think for himself then they couldn't control us anymore. For example if any serious black man started to think for himself he knows he has no business in Vietnam. He's not going to Vietnam, if the black man don't go to Vietnam then this country is messed up.

EATON: Right. Ok, lets take a few more calls and gear in on some of the areas that we've just discussed.

CALLER: I would like to ask my black brother, Carmichael, a couple of questions.

EATON: Ok, go ahead. He is listening.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CALLER: When he was over in North Vietnam what did the leader over there think about our black brothers, boys over there fighting, our black brothers whom they are fighting with. What did they think and what did they say about them?

EATON: I think the question is, When you visited North Vietnam what did some of the leaders think about the black men in America?

CALLER: Fighting over there?

CARMICHAEL: I think that they recognize the black man is being used in that war. I think they recognize it very clearly. They recognize it for a number of reasons. Now before the United States moved in against Vietnam, the Vietnamese were fighting the French used to take the Algerians, Algeria is in North Africa, and they used to make the Algerians fight in Viet Nam against the Vietnamese. Now what the Vietnamese would do, when they captured an Algerian prisoner, they would take him and put him in a separate cell from a French prisoner and they would begin to talk to the Algerian prisoner and they would say, now look brother, why are you fighting us? This man in France has got your country up tight, you can't move out of the country, you can't own anything in the country. He owns everything and he makes you come and fight me and I haven't done anything to you. I haven't tried to take your country. I don't rape your women. I don't make them....prostitutes. So why are you fighting me? And they would begin to work a re-educational program on the Algerians. So what happened was that all the Algerians when they got out of jail from Vietnam, they formed the inner Left, the National Liberation Front. And they are the ones who carried on the long guerrilla warfare in Algeria against France.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

EATON: Thanks very much for your call.

CALLER: Can I ask one more?

CALLER: This is very important, Dave.

EATON: Ok, go ahead.

CALLER: Actually, I want to ask him, did he read this statement when he was over there, he would like to see United States get defeated?

EATON: Let me tell you, one ground rule we have established at the beginning, we don't want to get in one of these type of controversies, so I am not going to allow any question did he say or didn't he say. We won't get too much accomplished then, OK?

CALLER: OK.

EATON: We are trying to share thoughts, trying to find out who these people are, these three individuals. OK? Thanks very much. WOL, speak up please.

CALLER: I would like to ask Stokely who helped finance his trip abroad?

EATON: Mr. Carmichael, who helped finance your trip abroad?

CARMICHAEL: Different peoples.

EATON: Mr. Carmichael's response, did you hear?

CALLER: Different peoples.

EATON: WOL, speak up please. Your on the air.

CALLER: I would like to ask Stokely Carmichael and the rest of the men who are there why aren't they doing anything about the right of Negroes to vote in Washington, D. C.? Because I am pretty sure that the reason is because the majority....of the people in Washington are Negroes and eighty percent of the home population would be Negroes, and thats the reason we are not allowed to vote. I mean I agree with all these other things that are going on, you know, and I know (garbled) Negroes (garbled) D. ? C. should have the right to vote. So why aren't (?) we doing anything about this?

CARMICHAEL(?): OK. I think that COX is going to take that question. (Cox answered-Carmichael continued.)

CARMICHAEL: Yeh, but there's another follow up to that brother. Number one, you just don't wanna get the vote, just like that, see. Cause you get the vote then the man mess you up with that vote, see.

CALLER: Yeh, I agree brother.

CARMICHAEL: Yeh, what we want to do is to begin to rebuild a community feeling in our community which has been broken down by all of the forces that work against us, that are put on us from white society. Like, for example, now you walk on down 7th and T or you walk on down 14th and U, you see us out there fighting each other, cutting each other, shooting each other. We have to begin to address ourselves to problems where black people stop taking out their hatred on each other, where we begin to build a feeling of community where we'll hustle on each other. So that when we get the vote, cause we gonna take the city, I mean there aint no if, ands or butts about that, but when we get the city we will have developed a feeling of community. So that whatever we use the city for it will help the community, the masses of our people, not just a few people who are running for offices and fighting each other. And that's more important for us than the vote. The vote is a trick bag the white man put out here brother.

CALLER: Will I (garbled) saying, if we had the vote and (unintelligible) elect our school board, I mean, don't you think we could start educating Negro children like, you know, show them the part that Negroes, black Americans, did play in this country.

CARMICHAEL OK, dig brother, See, if you go elect somebody to the school board, they gonna function the way the school board functions now. It's not gonna work. You got to talk about changing the whole education system in this country. Now I'll tell you why. An education, see, it's supposed to prepare you to live in your community, right.

CALLER: The white community.

CARMICHAEL: Yeh, that's what it's doing now. It's preparing us to live in the white community, cause it doesn't speak to the problems of our community. Let's look at our community. Our community is full of rats, roaches, prostitutes, dope addicts, preachers, gamblers; it's also full of maids, it's full of gangs, it's full of young fellas out on the street fighting each other. Now if I go to school, see, if that's the community I live in, that school should teach me to be a good prostitute or a good dope addict or a good preacher or a good whatever in my community. If it can't teach me that, then it's got to teach me how to change my community. And the schools aren't doing any of these things man. It's teaching.....

EATON(?): Not where it's not teaching you how to live and it's not teaching you how to change.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL: Right. It's not teaching you how to live in our community, it's not teaching you how to change our community. What's it teachin us to do is to perpetuate the system that we live under and that's why electin a black man to the board is not going to begin to solve our problems. We have to talk about our parents takin over the schools, takin over the school boards, and dictating to schools the type of education that our children get. Cause that's the only solution to the problem brother.

EATON: OK, thanks very much for you call, we're moving on.

CALLER: Radicate (ph) among us, you know, among, I call myself an American now, of course I'm not, but since I'm here it's been a benefit, and I'm definitely Negro (----?), I don't hesitate to say it. And it just burns we up when another Negro or soul brother or black man (looks it??). I have so much of Indian in me, you know, it's an instinction (??), you know, you really get mad.

CARMICHAEL: Look here sister.

CALLER: You have to club these people into.....

CARMICHAEL: Look here sister, that's true, what you say it true. It's just our job to begin to help them. There's not need to get.....They're our people. They're flesh of our flesh and they're blood of our blood and we've got to help them, no matter how long it takes, no matter how tired we get we've got to keep goin. I mean, let's just remember again brother Malcolm X when he first started about black everybody said, man shutup, we don't want to hear that nonsense. He kept pushing. He kept plugging. He kept pushing along and he kept pluggin till a lot of us began to open our eyes and we have to do the same thing with our brothers and sisters. And we cannot afford to get hostile with them because when we get mad with them they gonna run to the white man and that's another one we lost. We got to be....

CALLER: (Interrupts) That's a good point and it really takes a lot of patience. You see (unintelligible).

CARMICHAEL: (Interrupts) The black man is the most patient man in the world. We been patient for 400 years. We can take patience with our own people if we took all that patience from the white man. (Woman caller was trying to talk at same time Stokely was.)

CALLER: Yes, I'd like to ask Stokely your doing all this talk about black power has he stopped to think just where will be get, once he get this black power, how many of our people own (?) any shares in the utilities here in the District? Have you stopped to think about that yet?

CARMICHAEL: I'm sorry ...

EATON: We didn't quite understand the latter part of your statement, would you repeat it?

CALLER: Of all these utilities here in the District has he stopped to think how many people, how many Negroes, own shares in this? If we were to get the black power, where do we go from there?

EATON: Right, the word that we are missing is utopia something, what was that word?

CALLER: The utilities here.

EATON: Utilities, right?

CALLER: That's right, the water, the electricity, all of these. Where we going from there, once we get the black power? How're we going to maintain it? Now you doin all this kickin (?) about black power, now how is he going to maintain once he gets the black power?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL: See brother, you saying the white man is the only man who can maintain a water system and all that other utility stuff you talk about?

CALLER: No. (both talk) How you going to maintain it? How many Negroes in the District own any shares in anything?

CARMICHAEL: I don't think many of us own any shares in anything. Why don't we own it? That's a question you ought to ask yourself. Why don't we own shares in it?

CALLER: Why because we haven't (?) stopped (?) long (?) enough (?) to train this ignorant Negroes that really need the training. The only (Stokely interrupts).

CARMICHAEL: Brother, there are no ignorant black people, there are no ignorant black people.

CALLER: Have you stopped to think about all the black (?) of ourselves who haven't been (----?) that you really haven't....

EATON: (Interrupts) I think maybe that---let me interrupt and see if I can clarify this. Correct me if I'm wrong, but what you three gentlemen are talking about in terms of the black community and black people playing the major or proportionate share of the decision making process including in the black community. This is not negating, as I understand it, and association in terms of dialogue and communication with whites, I don't think we're talking, and correct me if I'm wrong, about some type of black enclave within America. Are we not talking about a type of real equality rather than the facade of equality in terms of communication and stature.

CARMICHAEL: I don't think that...

EATON: (Interrupts) I think that's what, you know, cause he assumes that white people won't be working and, you know.

CARMICHAEL: Yeh, but that is not the way we should go to the question. I mean, why is it that whenever we talk about our people we got to go back and talk about white people? Does it necessarily mean that, if you do things for black people, you have to step on white people? We're concerned with our people. We're not saying we don't step on white people. I mean but the...

(Someone says OK and Eaton said, that's what I wanted you to clarify)

Stokely continues with--No brother, no. See I don't waste my time talking about that. We're talkin about gettin black people together, organized, united, so we can have the power that was stolen from us by the white man. That's all we're talking about.

CALLER: What did you have stolen from ya?

CARMICHAEL: My life, he stole me from Africa, git to that.

CALLER: So you free to go back why don'tcha go back?

EATON: OK, rather than debate this one moot point, we're going to have to move on because we have five more minutes before the news break. OK,

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

thanks very much.

CALLER: Yes, I would like to direct this call to Mr. Carmichael.

EATON: Go right ahead, he's listening.

CALLER: All right, I was thinking, I been thinking this (?) ever (?) since (?) the program came on the woman from the West Indies more or less, you know, kinda brought it home. Don't you find that women as a whole are more hard to understand, you know the problems. I think women are...well I think that this is where the big problem comes in at.....

EATON: OK. While he's.....

CALLER: Probably but, you know men, they and...they have more foresight they can look further into the future and the women just wants to argue all the time. And another thing that I'd like to know, what can women who is really interested in going to, you know, get our people together.

CARMICHAEL: I'm not sure that's true because I think that the person who has carried the bulk of the black race in certainly the centuries before, has been the black women. I mean that I just don't think that's true. I mean that it was my black mother who had to carry me when my father couldn't get a job and carry the five of us, you know, all five of us, so I just don't think that's true. I think that our young men ought to be thankful for our black mothers that they were able to survive through all the crap that they had to take from the white folks. I'm thankful for black women, I think that they are the most beautiful women on the earth, because they were .....able to survive through what no other race of people would have been able to survive through. They not only took care of white people's children they took care of their own children. They fed their own and they breast fed white people, they clean their own houses and clean white people's houses, they cook supper for their children and cook supper for white people's children and they were still able to give us a feelin of humanity through all of that nonsense. Be thankful for the black woman sister.

EATON: OK, thank you very much.

EATON: The thing that is puzzling me, I'd like to get your reactions on this, and this is a genuine puzzle I had. I can't see, and I'm speaking ---I'm trying to speak objectively, I can't see why persons in America, I don't care whether they're black, white or green, can't see the value and real contribution to this country that can be made if the black man becomes more solid more united in his efforts. And I really can't understand why people can't understand this. Can you speak to that? In other words, I know that the white community has traditionally attempted to fragmentize the black community and has succeeded, but looking at it as objectively as possible, I can't understand why people don't realize that by the black community coming closer together, having more genuine communication, have more real understanding of each other how that cannot be a more positive contribution to America. Can you enlighten me?

CARMICHAEL: Well I think David that it's just a known fact, the white man recognizes that if the black man gets together there's going to be trouble because the whole system of this country is based upon keepin the black man where he is. So if he gets together he's, it means, automatically, he's gonna upset the applecart. Cause the way the country is fitted now, the black man is programmed in every area of his life.

EATON: OK

CARMICHAEL: And with the program goin.....

EATON: Now I want you to challenge me, as I know you will, but here's what I'm saying. My fervent feeling is that if America is to be saved then the black man has to save her. That's my feeling. If America is to be saved, the black man has to save her. Now, speaking purely in a humanitarian way and trying to be objective, if the value system in America can be changed by the black man, being concerned with his blackness and accepting it and loving it, then ostensibly, oh that's a big word, then this would have in a final form a positive input to the whole American system.

CARMICHAEL: I got to do it brother. You my (.....) boy, you know, but we got to go.

CARMICHAEL: The black man cannot be concerned with America. He must be concerned with his people. To be concerned with black people in this country is not to be concerned with America. It is to be the opposite of America.

CALLER: I'd like to ask Mr. Carmichael a question in regards to his connection with the Nation (ph) of Islam (ph). I have been listening to him tonight and I've been keeping up with him for some time. I'm a student of the black revolution here in America and I noticed that many of the things he is saying and teachin was taught in the Nation of Islam, I believe, even before Mr. Carmichael was born, so I was wondering what connection, if any, he has with the Nation of Islam and, if no connection, what are his thoughts and views on the Nation of Islam here in America.

EATON: Mr. Carmichael, you got that?

CARMICHAEL: Yes I did. Brother, I'm not a member of the Nation of Islam, but I have the highest respect and regard for the Nation of Islam because I think that they were one of the first organized groups in our period, our lifetime, to begin to really organize our people and begin to teach them self respect and a dignity and to begin to uplift our (?) system (?), face of the whole confrontation with white society that they have to face. I have nothing but a great deal of respect for the Nation of Islam.

EATON: OK, thanks very much.

CALLER: I'd like to know, can you tell me exactly what happened on (?) thata Rufus Mayfield and that meeting?

EATON: I'm sorry but I don't know anything about that, does any of you gentlemen know? What meeting, I don't know what she's referring....

CALLER: Unity meeting, with Rufus Mayfield, when he was there exactly what happened?

CARMICHAEL: That was a.....

EATON: That was a no comment, I think wouldn't it?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL: Yes, no comment.

CALLER: I can't tell you how happy I am that I heard the program this evening because now that I hear these gentlemen especially Carmichael, at first hand. I can see that the white community has nothing to fear, just nothing at all. They want much better housing, they want better education, they want this and that and who are they going to get it from,....from the white community. You know it is too bad that Carmichael instead of going over to North Vietnam and getting his information over there, he should have taken a walk over to Chinatown, to see first hand how a non-white community is able to educate themselves, make themselves prosperous and live with peace and harmony with everyone around them. Now would they like to comment about that?

EATON: On what, anybody want to comment? I don't think about an answer forth coming.

CALLER: Well why not?

EATON: I said no one seems to want to comment.

CALLER: They're three articulate gentlemen.....

EATON: Nobody cares to comment.

CALLER:(something?) in their own defense.

CARMICHAEL: There is no defense. I mean what you mean in my own defense, what defense? I'm not defensive about anything.

CALLER:You know you three people have been played up as () in the newspapers.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL: As what?

CALLER: You've been played up as (olgies??), actually the three of you have no power, the newspapers have built you up, you are what the Chinese would call a Paper Tiger. You can form your fronts from now until dooms day and you'll never get anywhere because this is a white man's country, the white man had the dream, built the industries and employed the Negro, and until you do something on your own, which I doubt you ever will do, you'll never get anywhere.

CARMICHAEL: OK, now dig this.

CALLER: (if you are....)

EATON: OK, let him react to your quarry.

CARMICHAEL: Alright now dig this, Honkie, I'm going to tell you how you Honkies built this country. You came to America....

EATON: Let's take it in order now, let Mr. Carmichael speak and if you want to come back then after we leave you can call in again.

CARMICHAEL: Be cool, if you listen you might learn something. Now dig this, you came to the United States of America, the Indians were here, you landed on Plymouth Rock, the man took you in he showed you how to grow corn, he showed you how to live in this country and after he showed you all that you wiped him out. You went to South America.....

CALLER: Now let me tell you this.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

EATON: Listen he's got to finish.....

CARMICHAEL: You went to South America, the Indians showed you their gold, the Aztecs showed you their gold, their silver, their copper, you stole it, you wiped them out. You went to Africa, our brothers, our sisters took you in, you came in there we showed you the happy life we had, you took us, you put us in chains, you brought us here. You went to China, the chinese took you in, they showed you what they had in Asia, you went you stole what they had and you enslaved them, and you talk about what you did. All you've ever done is rotten through and through, you have stole, you have cheated, you have killed, you have murdered, you have plundered, you have raped. And you have the dastardly courage to sit there and talk about what you have built. You built off of the sweat of other people, and baby what you sow, that you shall reap.

CALLER: My question is directed to Stokely Carmichael or either one of the others.

EATON: OK, go right ahead.

CALLER: I want to ask about how is his new coalition group, Black Leaders, going to co-ordinate with the coming of Martin Luther King in April?

CARMICHAEL: Dr. King is flesh of our flesh, blood of our blood, he's our brother and we're working with every brother who is out there.

CALLER: I would like to answer the white man's quarry to the three guest you have. Remember this now, everything this country has built up () Negro blood. Back in the 1800s even the 1700s this whole country's economy was built on cotton, who picked that cotton? Who had the stamina and the ability to go out there and pick that cotton, while they were in chains, while being beaten and driven by slave masters? The Negro has done something in this country and the white man is trying to, right now, is trying to hide it under stones and rocks. And any Negro who tries to bring this up to his black bosses that the black man has built this country, his blood is in France, his blood is in Germany, his blood is in Japan, its everywhere, its in Korea, its strung in the Hawaii Islands, and this white man has the audacity to call up and say the Negro can't do anything for himself. Look at the city, man, who laid out the water pipes, I've never seen a white man in a ditch in this city, he stands over the ditches in this city and he tells the Negro what to do, who has the know how? Who laid out this great city of Washington" A black man. I mean a black man laid this city out. And a white man's going to call in and ask your three () did they want to answer it. Why can't they answer this man?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

EATON: They did answer him, brother, but I think also that they preferred a man like you to call in and and talk to him. And thanks very much for calling.

CALLER: Thank you, brother.

CARMICHAEL: Keep on preaching, brother, we gonna get it up tight, we gonna get it because we gonna survive.

CALLER: I have a couple of statements I would like to make and I'd like to direct them at Mr. Carmichael. First of all I want to ask him if I'm correct in saying that it was a white man who got up off of the black man's neck, I know he bought us as slaves, but I want him to answer yes or no did the white man get up off the black man's neck or did he take his freedom?

EATON: The question is did the white man get off the black man's neck or did the black man take his freedom?

CARMICHAEL: The white man is still on his neck.

EATON: (to caller) Did you hear that response?

CALLER: No, I didn't hear it.

CARMICHAEL: The white man is still on our necks.

CALLER: OK, now I'm going to ask another question. Isn't it a fact that he can take a hundred dollars in his hand right now and go to Africa and buy his cousin from Africans right now?

CARMICHAEL: No that is not a fact.

CALLER: Well then why do the United Nations have twenty different countries on their agenda in trying to get them to consider...ah reconsider abolishing slavery in () right now.

CARMICHAEL: Oh, you see, you don't understand, the countries they are talking about are countries that are still controlled today by the white man. I mean, you have all of South Africa today, brother, where our brothers and sisters are enslaved by the white man, you've got Zimbabwe, you've got Angola, you've got Mozambique, you got South Africa, you've got South-west Africa, you got Portugese Guinea, all of those countries, brother, today are controlled by white men who walk around.....

CALLER: (Interrupting) I'm talking about the West Africa, in West Africa in fact...

CARMICHAEL: Like where?

CALLER: On the network here...whose that...one of the radio networks they had a documentary, a film documentary and you could write to the United Nations and get facts and figures, the fact is that in Africa the descendents, the children of the slaves who sold your mother, my mother, into slavery are still selling slaves, the white man do not have no control over them, its the understanding that the government, even the government of that particular part of Africa (has) been because of the fear of losing out (in some sort of an interest there).

EATON: (Interrupting) Alright let me ask you this question, this is Eaton, the moderator, since we are questing for truth here in all dimensions let me ask you this, do you know the countries in which you are talking about?

CALLER: I know its in West Africa. I can find out.

CALLER: I'd like to tell Mr. Carmichael how beautiful I think that his movement is. His actions are in this black movement in America, that I'm a young 21 year old Negro myself, follow and really believe in all his (band), and I have....I know all my friends feel the same way that I do when I....that if Mr. Carmichael wants this United States to be straight I think that by him being educated the way that he is that he know the proper way for us to do it and

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

I say that I follow him and back him up all the way.

EATON: Mr. Carmichael

CARMICHAEL: Brother thank you, but don't follow me and back me up all the way, you just come on along up here beside of me because we got to do it together.

CALLER: Don't you feel that in the way that the Negroes are trying to prove their peace by riots and all are hurting them?

EATON: Who would like to get to that?

CARMICHAEL: Let me get the Honkie.

EATON: Right, Mr. Carmichael wants to.....

CARMICHAEL: Look here Honkie, what are you doing in Vietnam?

CALLER: Well, we're trying to help the Vietnamese.....

CARMICHAEL: You are rioting, you are burning down their houses, you are shooting their babies, you're bombing their hospitals, you're killing their children. Why are you rioting in Vietnam?

CALLER: I beg your pardon.

CARMICHAEL: Why are you rioting in Vietnam?

CALLER: Well we really feel that the Vietnam war is helping the United States in any way.

CALLER: Good evening, I want to say....I want to compliment Mr. Carmichael because I really think that he is doing a good job and what he said to a certain extent, that slavery is not completely over because Negroes today, this minute, are being exploited in this city, and I'm a living proof of it. I have two young men here now, that two weeks ago went out to find a job, and honest young men and they got this job and they..... salesmen, and they were told that they would get a certain amount over what they sold. Two weeks of labor they used their own time and car fare and they still have not got a cent you see but all this () and it really burns me up just to hear other people who don't know the inside of what's actually happening and.....

EATON: Thanks very much for your comments, WOL speak up.

CALLER: I'd like to ask brother CARMICHAEL what does he think personally about the way Rap Brown had people doing in the summer burning down their homes.

CARMICHAEL: Brother I don't think that my good brother and my leader and the chairman, Rap Brown, had anybody burning down their houses.

CALLER: Well in his speeches he had the black man out here burning.....in these riots their own houses instead of going out and burning up the white man's houses that should have been burned down.

CARMICHAEL: I don't think that Brother Rap had anybody burning down anybody's houses.

CALLER: Well why did the black man burn down his own house then?

CARMICHAEL: I don't think the black man burned down his own house. He don't own no house.

CALLER: I'll put it this way, the houses that he lived in why did he burn them down that puts him out on the street.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL: OK, look here buddy, do you ever read the Bible?

CALLER: Yes, I do.

CARMICHAEL: Then if you read the Bible then you know that the Bible says that fire is a purifier, it cleanses, it cleans, that when things have become so crummed up so that the only thing you can do is just cleanse it and fire is a cleansing agent sometimes.

EATON: You're really taking that out context, brother Stokely, now you know if we're going to get in- to scripture here tonight I want to go into Bibli- cal criticism.....

EATON: (to caller) Thank you very much for your call.

CARMICHAEL: The Bible does say that doesn't it brother.

EATON: Right, WOL speak up please.

CALLER: Mr. Carmichael.

CALLER: I'm glad your here and I'd like to know something. Are you going to put some protection on yourself? Cause you know what happened to ---- you know, brother Malcolm(ph) ah Malcolm.

CARMICHAEL: Brother the Lord is with me at all times.

CALLER: Well I'm glad to hear that and I'm gonna keep fighting for my people all I can.

CARMICHAEL: You got to do it brother. Remember, our people are the most important thing to us. Our people first.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CALLER: Mr. Carmichael?

CARMICHAEL: Yes sir.

CALLER: Did you see the game today?

CARMICHAEL: We was together brother. I didn't.....I had to miss it because we had a meeting (?). It (?) was together.

CALLER: Did you see Bob (?) Adderly (PH)? What did he do to the honky?

EATON: Thanks very much for your call, sir.

CALLER: Hello, I'd like to address this question to Carmichael, please.

CALLER: The answer to his definition of a radical today. I hear, often hear, conflicting views about what a radical is. Could you define that term for me, please?

CARMICHAEL: I don't know brother, the only definition I can think of is the classical definition, radical comes from latin word which means root, that is to get to the root of the problem. But I'm not sure that a definition used today to describe a radical is really a radical.

CALLER: Yeh, but this is what I'm referring to, when you had the conference in New Jersey you said there were only two sides to the question, your either radical or your the Uncle Tom. Now you moved from the side of radical and by the definition in New Jersey you moved toward the Uncle Tom side.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL: I'm sorry brother, I wasn't.....

CALLER: Wait a minute, now hold it, hold it. I've read every manuscript that've been put out by you, I think you movin', I think the white man, as you know, is sort of usin' you now. Don't allow yourself to be used at this point, your doin' good my man, but keep it up. Don't be like Marion Barry he took Rufus Mayfield's job, which is very dirty lowdown, took his job from him.

EATON: OK, thanks very much for your comments. We gonna....

CALLER:I continue....

EATON: Right. We gonna try to move on, if you.....

CALLER: Wait a minute. You won't let me continue fact I'm tellin the truth.

CALLER: Let me rap (??) (or) rat (??). Let me rap (??).

EATON: Go ahead, rap (?).

CALLER: OK, I'll think of a very dirty--ah--what Marion Barry did. He took Rufus Mayfield's job. Just like in all revolutions middle class has already benefited from (?) the (?) lower class. Carmichael I hope you will keep these people in (?) line (?) and help the lower classes to progress, not the middle class.

EATON: Mr. Carmichael please respond to that one.

CARMICHAEL: Brother we got to understand what we're trying to do in this city. We're trying to organize everybody in our community from the man in the streets to the black bourgeoisie. That is the only way we're gonna survive as a people, when all of us are organized. Now we have to understand what we're working against. We're working against 400 years of brainwash, all of us suffer from brainwashin brother, all of us do. We're trying to help each other as we try to clear up our minds and get ourselves together. That means that as we go along there're gonna be people who're gonna make mistakes. I don't think, brother, that you should depend upon me to keep everybody in line. Your a black man, you should be out here with us fightin and tryin to strai...and keep it straight.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CALLER: I'm over here witcha, I'm witcha baby, all the way.

CARMICHAEL: Well, brother, if you with me, together we gonna do it.

CARMICHAEL(?): I know we gonna do it.

CALLER: If you keep people like, you happen to keep people like Marion Barry in their place and won't (?) try to use the lit.....I mean, exploit the little people like Rufus Mayfield. We shoulda joined on to the round up and marched to the Capitol and told Broyhill (??) to have seen that we gonna keep Rufus Mayfield and Marion Barry wasn't gonna git his job. I think it was a very low-down dirty thing we allowed him to do.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CALLER: I'd like to ask him why he goes into an area and incites (?) a riot and leaves and people that he leaves are the Negro that he ahh.....the people that he gets together, they are without jobs?

CARMICHAEL: Well, they have to show me where I incited to riot and where I ran away and caused all the problems you say I caused.

EATON: Do you know of any instances where Mr. Carmichael has done this?

CALLER: Well, he went into Nashville, Tennessee.

EATON: Did they have a riot in Nashville?

CALLER: Yes they had a riot at Fisk University and Tennessee State University.

CARMICHAEL: And who started the riot, as you call it, brother?

EATON: He started it.

CARMICHAEL: He who?

CALLER: Stokely started it.

CARMICHAEL: Well, that's whose talking.

CALLER: He instigated the students at Fisk University and Tennessee State University.

CARMICHAEL: I did?

CALLER: Some of them were kicked out of school. Some of them had to go home and what not. I just wanted his comment on that.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL: Let me give you the comment but let me include to you some facts which you don't know anything about concerning the Nashville incident. Number one, the people who incited that rebellion as has been the case of all the rebellions in the major cities are the policemen..The policemen are the ones who create rebellion.

CALLER: I see.

CARMICHAEL: Brother, I can't create a rebellion. If you lived in a good house and you know, you livin a good life and I came and talked to you about gettin together to take care of business, what would you do?

CALLER: Probably tell you come in an have a coke.

CARMICHAEL: Of course (?). I don't create rebellions. It is the system under which we live that creates....

CALLER: All right (?)

CALLER: I would like to direct my questions to Mr. Carmichael.

EATON: He's listening, go right ahead.

CALLER: I'd like to know (?), do he know anything about the black political party called Slant (ph) and another party called Us (ph).

CARMICHAEL: ^{LOS ANGELES} Yes, ~~Slant~~ (ph) is headed by my good brother, Tommy (ph) ~~Laket~~ (ph), and ~~Us~~ is headed by another good brother, Ron Ceringa (ph), out in Los Angeles.

CALLER: And...Is there any way of gettin in touch with these people?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL: Yes, I'm afraid I don't have the address with me but I'm fairly sure you could get it if you just call information and ask for it in Los Angeles, Us and Slant.

CALLER: I see, all right, thank you very much.

CARMICHAEL: OK, brother. It's good that you get in contact with them, we need to contact other brothers who, you know, doin other things around the country so we can begin to move to get a national organization going so we can take care of business.

CALLER: I see, thanks a lot.

EATON: WOL, speak up please.

CALLER: Yes, Stokely, don't you think that possibly a fear of mine (?) that the ninety percent of the white community is going to be against people who ah, incidents, really I should say, of burning and of violent speech and of your use, a couple of times, of the word honky. They don't like that and they're going to react to it. Probably they're numerically more, all because you say, they're more powerful. So just by (?) chance, I think that your taking a chance on ruining yourself when you (garbled) the black community as a rule (?).step up and refuse to harbor people who say honky, well that's not too bad, but people who really thought burning down houses and other things like that. Doesn't seem right to me. Your going to alienate all this white community, I don't think you want that. I think you need their help.

CARMICHAEL: Well, I don't need any help. The people who need help in this country are white people. The white people need help in straightenin out themselves for what they have done to us. That's who needs help. I don't need any help. All I need is the white man to get off of our backs and we will go ahead. Now you talk about the ninety percent gettin upset just because we say honky, don't you think we should get upset for what they have done to us for 400 years.

CALLER: Yeh, but none of those people are still alive, that's why they don't want to pay you. It's very hard to find a white man whose willing to admit in the first place and, in the second place, it's very hard to find a white man who is alive and who owned slaves for some time, see. That's why he doesn't feel he owes you a debt.

CARMICHAEL: Is it hard to find a white man today whose a racist in the United States?

CALLER: Well, I don't think it's too terribly easy, I doubt that most white people are racist. I don't think they are.

CARMICHAEL: You don't think they are. Do you think the institutions.....

CALLER: I think the white people who passed the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and 1965 aren't racists.

CARMICHAEL: Why did they need to pass a Civil Rights Act if we were citizens?

CALLER: Got (?) to one of their problems.

CARMICHAEL: Of course, their problem, not mine.

CALLER: I'd like to speak to Stokely Carmichael. Stokely, I was listening to you a few minutes ago when you mentioned that interpretation about the Bible. I think that Jesus stressed that more because I read the Bible a couple of time myself and the interpretation of the Bible is strickly under the white man's influence. This all...., I believe this to be a part of the reason for the New Testament coming about, you know, and I'd like to ask some kind of way that I can get into contact with you, you know face to face because there are a lot things that I's like to ask you about.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL: Well brother I'm usually right around the corner 1234 U Street at the SNCC office.

CALLER: 12 what?

CARMICHAEL: 1234 U Street, N.W.

CALLER: What time are you there usually?

CARMICHAEL: Well, I'm in and out because I'm doing a lot of work you know, but if you call the number is 387-7445, you know maybe we can get together but now in order for us to get together now you got to be doing something because we just can't.....

CALLER: I beg your pardon.

CARMICHAEL: 387-

CALLER: I'm talking about in order for us to get together.

CARMICHAEL: In order for us to get together you got to be doing something now because the time for talking is over. We got to move now in order to organize our people.

CALLER: Yes, well you see, I'm ready to make my move. I've been ready you know.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CARMICHAEL: Beautiful, beautiful, then we can get together.

CALLER: I'd like to direct my question to Carmichael.

EATON: Go right ahead he's listening.

CALLER: I'd like to know---enough of this philosophical dissertation, as a black woman I'd like to know what is his program specifically advocate that black people do now that all other efforts have failed. I'd like to know what he really would like for us to do. Just what does he advocate specifically for the black man to do?

CARMICHAEL: Well, in the first place I don't think that all efforts have failed, sister. Number one, I think that the first thing we have to do as a people is to begin to understand how we have been divided. That's first and foremost. And that we must begin to organize all sections of our community to come together, to aid each other, that's first. Once we begin to do that then secondly we can move to take over those institutions which are inside our community which we do not control. We should start first with the police force. We don't control the police force, that's why there's so much police brutality. If we controlled the police force, there would be no police brutality. We have to move to control the Board of Educations in our community. We do not control them, that's why the schools are in such conditions. We have to move to control the Welfare Department. We do not control them, that's why our mothers on welfare get the treatment they get. We have to move to control all of the institutions inside our community which are manifestations of the white power structure. We have to control and own them. Then we also have to move to take over the ownership of all of the economic industries inside our communities from the local five and ten cent store all the way up to the big industrial complexes in Watts.

CALLER: Hello Americans to you Africans (garbled) teaching (?) in America. A man came on this show and he said that average----the American Negroes live better than any other black people in the world and I want to tell him that it is completely false. We people in Africa are free, we want those here to be free too. But if those among the American Negroes down here (?), they do not kid (?) themselves that there's freedom somewhere, they'll never get freedom here because they are being destroyed by the whites and they still think that Africa is jungles and (-----garbled-----). I think Stokely Carmichael should go out and teach his people that Africa is free, it is not as bad as some people say. And I think that wherever those Negroes in United States want to be free they should fight for it. This is the time to fight for it. They should go out and fight. Just (?) don't (?) sit down and talk.

CARMICHAEL: And brother there's only one thing I'd like to say and that is don't call us American Negroes because we're flesh of the same flesh and blood of the same blood. You my brother and I'd die in the streets of Philadelphia or Washington, D. C., just as quick as I'd die in the streets of Angola (ph), Mosambique (ph) or South Africa.

CALLER: Well, we are all the same. I agree with you but the colored man in United States say he is different. He say he is more civilized than those in Africa and, therefore (?), that's why I said American Negroes. But they think they are different, but (?) we are all the same.

CARMICHAEL: Your right brother and that's the brainwashing that the white man has whipped on us. That's the game (?) that he put on us but today we are beginning to recognize that we are all the same and no matter how many trips Humphrey takes to Africa to try and clean up, it ain't goin to work because today black people are coming together around the world..

CALLER: Yeh, we all the same but lets go out and teach other peoples, the other blacks, that we are the same. They do not understand. They don't know what they are about.

CARMICHAEL: It's true brother, it's going to take a long time but a lot of us are out here fighting and I want you, since you're from Africa, cause when every time you walk the streets don't be runnin near those white folk. You come on into the community and you walk down the streets, you just grab a brother. You say I'm from Africa, I'm your flesh and I'm your blood and you just keep on talking to him and we goin to get it on.

EATON: OK gentlemen, thank you very much, we have about five more minutes and I'd like, if you wish, to have a closing statement or something that you would like to say. Mr. Carmichael.

CARMICHAEL: Well, I just got the address for the brother who called in earlier for ask(?) for Slant (ph). I just got a card with the address on it. The address is 1673 East 108th Street, Los Angeles, California 90002. In closing I just think that, well, we have to recognize there are a number of things. The first is that we lost brother Malcolm (ph). Now we lost brother Malcolm not because of what he was doing but because of what he was saying. If we are going to move on today, we cannot allow the honkies to waste us for what we're saying. We must be wasted today, if we are going to be wasted, for what we're doing and what we must be doing is getting our people together to survive inside this hell hole. That's what we have to be doing. That must be our major concentration today, getting our people together. All of our people beginning to teach love, beginning to teach respect for each other. The love and respect that has been broken down, that's been trampled upon in our community for 400 years. Our concern must always be our people first. First our people, first our people, then and only then me and you. We must begin to recognize that individualism is a luxury that black people can no longer afford. Secondly, we must begin to recognize that in coming together many of us are going to have to go. That's just a fact of life, but we must be willing to shed our blood for our people. That is the only way we're going to come together to survive in this country, and, lastly, we don't have anything to worry about for a black man has survived, the black man will survive. After all they've done to us we still here, we will be around. You don't have to worry, black people will survive America, black people will survive America. And like Curtis (ph) Mayfield say --- Our blessed day has come, we don't care where you come from we just go moving up because we are winners.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

APPENDIX

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

SERVICE HAS INFORMATION FROM FRENCH POLICE THAT CARMICHAEL EXHIBITED HIS PASSPORT TO BOTH AIRPORT POLICE AND AIRLINE PERSONNEL BEFORE BOARDING FLIGHT FROM PARIS TO US. JUSTICE HAS ASKED DEPARTMENT TO SUPPLY DETAILS AND CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING CARMICHAEL'S USE OF PASSPORT AT AIRPORT. SPECIFICALLY JUSTICE REQUESTS: NAMES OF INDIVIDUALS TO WHOM PASSPORT EXHIBITED; WHETHER EXHIBITION WAS AT REQUEST OF FRENCH OFFICIALS PURSUANT TO RULE REQUIRING EXHIBITION; WHETHER INDIVIDUALS WHO SAW CARMICHAEL'S PASSPORT REMEMBER INCIDENT AND WHETHER ANY WRITTEN NOTATION WAS MADE CONCERNING THIS MATTER. JUSTICE WOULD ALSO BE PARTICULARLY INTERESTED TO LEARN WHETHER CARMICHAEL USED HIS PASSPORT UPON HIS ENTRY INTO PARIS.

Re: Martin Luther King

Dear Mr. Hoover:

If our Communist infested government allows this power hungry, evil black devil, posing in a dirty black cloth of Christianity, to carry through his summer marches and sit-ins in Washington, D. C. then the President is the biggest jackass I've ever known.

This so-called minister is a bigot, rabble rouser, Communist bedfellow, and an anti-American screwball. He knows that the Negro must go to work and start at the bottom, just like I did. He knows that many Negroes are shifters and truly don't want to work. He knows that many Negroes are too unconcerned to stay in school and college. He knows that many Negroes are free-loaders and do not pay taxes, and that the Negro won't help his "soul" brothers and sisters. The Negro has done very little to help his neighbors or his country.

Guaranteed wages for Negroes is sickening. Did they help to pay the cost in taxes? Did they try to stay at a job? Did they look for or care to find a job? These free-loaders are only undermining our country and hurting those who truly need help and aid.

b7C

Martin Luther King, Stokely Carmichael, and [redacted] should be penalized before their plans of militant rebellion can overthrow our cherished Democracy. They are being financed, backed, and pushed by the Communist infiltrators from Russia and China.

I remain,

Very sincerely, 141 FEB 20 1968

Reference is made to my letter dated December 14, 1967, in which you were advised that wherever feasible attempts would be made to record any speeches that Carmichael might make following receipt of specific approval by you.

Information has been received that Carmichael is scheduled to speak February 17, 1968, at a rally sponsored by the Black Panther Party For Self-Defense, a militant black nationalist organization, at the Oakland Auditorium, Oakland, California. He is also scheduled to speak at a rally sponsored by the Peace Action Council, a clearinghouse for anti-Vietnam War and civil rights organizations, and the Black Congress, an organization representing the majority of black nationalist organizations, at the Los Angeles Sports Arena, Los Angeles, California, February 18, 1968.

The "Oakland Tribune," Oakland, California, newspaper will record the entire program at the Oakland Auditorium on February 17, 1968, and our San Francisco Office has been advised that this recording will be made available for evidentiary use. In view of this, the Bureau does not contemplate making a separate recording of the Oakland speech.

In connection with Carmichael's speech scheduled for February 18, 1968, at the Los Angeles Sports Arena, it has been ascertained that all functions at the Los Angeles Sports Arena are taped by Arena personnel. The management has advised that Special Agents of this Bureau may also mechanically tape with Bureau equipment Carmichael's speech on February 18, 1968, through the Arena microphones and lines.

These Special Agents will have lawful access to the Arena. The recording will be made from the Arena Recording Room and the speaker's platform is visible from this Room.

Authority is requested to record Carmichael's speech at the Los Angeles Sports Arena by Special Agents as set out above.

Since the rally at Los Angeles is scheduled for February 18, 1968, an expedite reply would be appreciated in order that plans for coverage may be formulated.

- 1 - The Deputy Attorney General
- 1 - Mr. J. Walter Yeagley
Assistant Attorney General

NOTE:

The Attorney General has previously requested that we attempt to mechanically record speeches by Carmichael wherever possible. We advised the Attorney General on 12/14/67 that attempts to do so would be made wherever feasible and in each instance we would specifically request clearance from the Attorney General.

In view of the extreme militancy of the Black Panther Party For Self-Defense and the possibility of violence, San Francisco does not recommend recording Carmichael's speech on 2/17/68 at Oakland Auditorium and as set out above arrangements have been made for the speech to be recorded by "Oakland Tribune."

Los Angeles Office advised they can effectively record Carmichael's speech on 2/18/68 with full security assured. Under these circumstances it is believed we should obtain a recording of Carmichael's speech.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : The Director

DATE: Feb. 5, 1968

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Page 2893. Senator Byrd, (D) West Virginia, placed in the Record an article from the Washington Post entitled "Carmichael Due To Meet King." The article advised that Stokely Carmichael and Martin Luther King would meet to consider combining forces for the civil disobedience pressure campaign on Congress planned for April. Mr. Byrd stated "I have felt all along, Mr. President, that the presence of Carmichael in Washington was an ill omen for the future. That King would consider joining forces with the man who advocates burning America down tells us something about the civil rights apostle of 'nonviolence,' too, I think."

BLACK UNITED FRONT

On February 14, 1968, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed that the Black United Front (BUF) held a press conference at the New School For Afro-American Thought, 2208 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. (WDC).

Attached is "MEMORANDUM NO. 8" of the BUF with attachments that were distributed at the above press conference.

The conference was opened at approximately 2:15 p.m., by Calvin Rolark who reviewed the organization of the BUF on the night of January 9, 1968. He said that on that night a seventeen member Board of Conveners (Steering Committee) was selected to draft the "Statement of Purpose" of the BUF that is set out in the attached memorandum. Rolark said that Stokely Carmichael was named Temporary Chairman of the Board of Conveners, and he listed the following as members of the Board:

Stokely Carmichael
Dr. Nathan Hare
Reverend David Eaton
Reverend Walter Fauntroy
Reverend Jefferson Rogers
Sterling Tucker
C. Sumner Stone
Marion Barry
Charles Jones
Herb Kelsey
Marshall Brown

Rolark then read the "Statement of Purpose", previously mentioned, without further comment on it. Reverend Channing Phillips then read the "Standards For Qualification" that is set out in the attached. Reverend Phillips did not comment further.

Reverend David Eaton then read the positions taken by the BUF on Dr. Martin Luther King and the Emergency Committee on the Transportation Crisis. These positions are set out in the attached.

Marion Barry stated that BUF further supports the "welfare mothers" in their opposition to Public Law 1492, and is setting up a committee to express their opposition to this recently enacted legislation. This committee will be headed by Etta Horne, a local welfare rights worker.

Calvin Rolark then pointed out that BUF is open to membership both as individuals and organizations, provided they qualify. He then read the "Procedure To Follow", as contained in the attached.

Rolark also pointed out that BUF will maintain a secretary at the New School For Afro-American Thought who will be available for anyone interested in joining. He said the next meeting of BUF would be held in mid-March, 1968, and concluded the press conference, 2:40 p.m. and opened a question and answer session.

Carmichael interrupted the first question directed to him with, "No comment", and, in fact, made no comment during the entire conference. Rolark explained that the conference had been called by BUF, but that Carmichael had not been selected as a speaker.

BLACK UNITED FRONT

A question was asked as to how BUF planned to actively participate in Dr. King's campaign. Rolark would only say that members of BUF would support him financially and morally, would provide housing, and would support him in any possible way.

In answer to a question as to whether BUF would be violent or non-violent several members responded saying in essence that no policy in this regard had been established, but noted that BUF supports Dr. King, an individual who has long advocated non-violence.

It was stated that Dr. King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) was not a member of BUF, but it was pointed out that key members of SCLC such as Reverends Rogers and Fauntroy were members.

One of the ministers said the BUF was born out of the death of the Negro. Rolark commented that we are living in a new era, on the eve of National Negro History Week, and the Negroes ultimate goal is self-determination.

It was stated that approximately 75 organizations are presently affiliated with BUF, and that requests have been received from 37 cities for information on how to organize BUFs in their own communities.

In answer to a question as to whether BUF would be active in politics, Rolark concluded the press conference by stating that BUF would become active in all aspects of community life.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The Black United Front is hereby established for the purpose of expanding the lines of communication between, and effecting togetherness among, all the Black people in the District of Columbia in order to obtain a rightful and proportionate share in the decision making councils of the District, and rightful and proportionate control of the economic institutions in the Black Community.

STANDARDS FOR QUALIFICATION

1. Any Black individual who has concern and interest in the Black community.
2. Any organization whose primary involvement is for the benefit of Black people, as outlined in the "Statement of Purpose", provided it has at least a 50% Black constituency and its representative in the Front is Black.

PROCEDURE TO FOLLOW

Any organization wishing to join the Black United Front must first petition the Board of Conveners. The Board will then make an assessment of the organization and recommend to the Body of the Front that it be accepted or rejected. If the Conveners recommend to the Body that the organization be accepted, by a majority vote the organization is admitted. Should the Conveners, however, recommend that the organization not be accepted, the organization can then petition directly to the Body of the Black United Front and be accepted by a 2/3 vote.

~~RECEIVED~~

February 13, 1968

The Black United Front takes a position on the following issues:

1. The Black United Front supports the issues that Dr. Martin Luther King speaks to in his campaign to better the condition of Black people.
2. The Black United Front supports the Emergency Committee on the Transportation Crisis in its efforts to stop the acquisition of land and property of people in the District of Columbia and supports their efforts to join citizens of other communities who are attempting to do likewise.

Nine termed disguised Marxists, expulsion from RIN is demanded

by RONALD LEBEL

Globe and Mail Reporter

MONTREAL — Internecine quarrels in Quebec's separatist movement broke wide open yesterday, with one leader accusing nine of his colleagues of being disguised Marxists.

Reginald Chartrand, a director of the Rassemblement pour l'indépendance Nationale, publicly called for the expulsion of the RIN vice-president, Mrs. Andree Ferretti, and eight of her alleged "ultra-leftist" followers.

The former boxer charged in a statement that the nine leftists control the RIN national council and that they are sabotaging secret merger talks with Rene Levesque's new sovereignty movement.

At the same time, RIN leader Pierre Bourgault criticized Mr. Levesque's tactic of minimizing the economic risks inherent in pulling Quebec out of Confederation. He said these risks should be explained fully to French Canadians to overcome their fear of separatism.

About 15 RIN riding associations have come out recently for the expulsion of Mrs. Ferretti and for an early RIN alliance with the Levesque movement, which is growing much faster.

A showdown between the left-wing and pro-merger factions could come at a meeting of the RIN council here Saturday. Mr. Bourgault has threatened to call an emergency convention if the party executive refuses to grant him full authority to negotiate with Mr. Levesque.

Mrs. Ferretti has sent a circular letter to all RIN members saying the separatist movement should fight above all for a workers' revolution to crush the capitalist system in Quebec. She accuses Mr.

Levesque of abandoning socialist principles out of electoral opportunism.

Mr. Chartrand replied in his statement yesterday that Mrs. Ferretti and her eight followers in the RIN hierarchy should "go back to the Socialist Parey or the Communist Party."

He accused them of systematically blocking attempts of the past year to unite all separatist groups and of using the RIN to advocate an "international ideology" of social revolution.

The RIN was founded eight years ago and collected 128,000 ballots in the 1966 provincial election, or 5 per cent of the popular vote, without electing a single member.

But in recent months, the RIN has been eclipsed by the more moderate Levesque movement, which now claims 3,000 card-carrying members and plans to found an independence party at a convention here April 20-21. The movement favors an economic union with Canada and British-style socialism.

Mr. Levesque's book, Option Quebec, has sold 60,000 copies since it was launched a month ago, setting a record as the fastest-selling book in Canadian history. An English translation and a Paris edition will be published this spring.

Mr. Levesque has been drawing crowds of 2,000 and 3,000 in recent weeks, while Mr. Bourgault recently cancelled several rallies and press conferences in Montreal. He drew 30 supporters at the RIN annual meeting in Bourassa riding this week.

RIN leaders in the Richelieu district east of Montreal have accused Mrs. Ferretti of turning the party into a vehicle for Marxist tendencies.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS;
SEDITION

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on February 1, 1968 that Stokely Carmichael had called a meeting of office staff members of the Washington Office of the Student Nonviolent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC) to be held [redacted]

[redacted] Carmichael announced the meeting was being held to discuss primarily SNCC fund raising programs and to set policy as to what part SNCC will play in the forthcoming Washington Spring Project of Reverend Martin Luther King.

The meeting was held at Carmichael's apartment, 2200 12th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. from approximately 11:00 a.m. until 1:45 p.m. [redacted]

Source learned the following persons were in attendance during the meeting:

Stokely Carmichael

[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

Source advised that the meeting mentioned above was informal in nature and more or less was a discussion of various things affecting the Washington Office of SNCC.

ENCLOSURE

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Regarding raising funds for SNCC, source advised that they talked about the feasibility of opening a SNCC bookstore to sell SNCC literature and "African type" books. Discussion was also held as to profits expected, location of store, hours of operation and who would staff the store as sales people. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] No decision was raised about establishing the bookstore at this time according to the source.

The group also discussed ways of raising funds in connection with "Negro History Week" by selling literature of SNCC. They stressed efforts should be made to sell the recently published book of Stokely Carmichael, as well as a book about Malcolm X.

In addition to the above, the group noted that Stokely Carmichael had agreed to take part in a function being held on February 10, 1968 in honor of Otis Redding, being sponsored [REDACTED] at the New School for Afro-American Thought to raise funds. Discussion was also held that since Carmichael is appearing at the function and this fact is being widely advertised to draw a crowd, half of the profits should go to the Washington Office of SNCC. However, they noted that [REDACTED] was reportedly going to use the funds raised to establish a better location for the New School for Afro-American Thought and was adamant in not sharing the funds with SNCC.

Regarding the above mentioned event to take place, "The Washington Post", a Washington, D. C. daily newspaper, in an article dated February 1, 1968 reported a tribute would be paid on February 10, 1968 to the late composer, rhythm and blues singer, Otis Redding, who died recently in a plane crash. The article reported the program was being sponsored by the New School for Afro-American Thought and would be held from 4:00 to 9:00 p.m. at Pitt's Motor Hotel, 1451 Belmont Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. The article reported among the participants of the program would be Stokely Carmichael, who would read a eulogy.

A discussion was held about the possibility of employing a full time female office worker in the local Washington Office of SNCC. They agreed that this would be a very worthwhile undertaking, but that they did not have the money available at the present time to pay for such an employee.

Regarding the matter of raising funds, the source learned that SNCC does not apparently have a lot of money or a big bank account. The source stated the SNCC Office in Washington is three months behind in paying its rent on the office premises located at 1234 U Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. On February 1, 1968, the SNCC Office received a notice to vacate the premises within eight days. However, this did not appear to disturb Carmichael to any extent. Source noted that Carmichael seems to have some money always available to him. However, source does not know how much money he has or the source of his funds. Source stated SNCC members usually do not appear to have much money, if any, but that on the contrary Carmichael seems to always have some money, even if a small amount.

During the meeting, source reported that Carmichael spoke about uniting the "black people" in the community. He stated that this must be done to relieve them of their economic oppression. He commented about the necessity of Negro people spending their money within the Negro community. He stated that further efforts should be made in behalf of the Black United Front to organize the Negro community. He did not mention, however, any specific future plans for the Black United Front or how any previously discussed plans of the Front would be implemented.

Carmichael also spoke of maintaining the security of information available to SNCC members and particularly the security of the Washington SNCC Office. He emphasized employees should be aware of people who visit the SNCC Office and should also be wary of each other.

Carmichael mentioned regarding Reverend Martin Luther King's forthcoming Washington Spring Project, that SNCC will not openly support King's program. He noted a radio news program had carried a news story that date that when King began his project Carmichael and SNCC would work for King. According to the source, this news item disturbed Carmichael and SNCC members. [redacted] of the Washington Office of SNCC, soon after the broadcast telephoned the radio station involved with a denial that SNCC would work for King. Source learned that the group also held a discussion about having a SNCC sponsored news conference to counteract the statement about SNCC working for King and to promote publicity for the Black United Front. However, these plans apparently never materialized and as far as the source knows no such press conference was held.

Source continued that Carmichael later discussed how a person affiliated with SNCC can become a "staff member" of the organization. He stated an interested SNCC member in order to qualify as a staff member must have been in the organization for at least six months and have attended at least one national staff meeting, usually held in Atlanta. Carmichael stated persons now in the Washington, D. C. area affiliated with SNCC who qualified as staff members are as follows:

Stokely Carmichael

[redacted]

Carmichael stated the names of the SNCC Washington Office staff members are being reported to the National Office of SNCC in Atlanta, Georgia for information.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as
The Muslim Cult of Islam, also known
as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 5, 1967, a second source advised Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam".

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils", in the United States; and the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as
The Muslim Cult of Islam, also known
as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

On May 2, 1966, a third source advised Muhammad had, in early July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

b7D A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported on February 14, 1968, that a [redacted] meeting of the Black United Front (BUF) was held on the night of [redacted] at the New School for Afro-American Thought, 2208 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. (WDC).

Invitations were extended to most of the individuals who were invited to attend the first meeting of the BUF on January 9, 1968. Approximately one hundred individuals were present, and all were checked at the door upon entering the building.

b7C b7D Stokely Carmichael called the meeting to order at approximately 8 p.m., [redacted] and introduced [redacted] to read the "Memorandum of Purpose" of the BUF that was prepared as a result of the January 14, 1968, meeting of the BUF Steering Committee. According to the source, the "Memorandum of Purpose" stated that the BUF was formed to expand the lines of communication between Black people, to obtain a proportionate share of representation in the government of the District of Columbia, and to obtain a proportionate share of economic control within the Black community.

According to the source, the memorandum sets out the standards for qualification for membership in the BUF, and the procedures to follow in making application for membership. It states that only all Black organizations working for the benefit of the Black community in general are eligible for membership. Those eligible must furnish in writing the name of the organization, its officers, and a statement regarding the purpose and program of the organization. This application will then be referred to the Steering Committee, and will be voted upon by that group. This memorandum also points out that members of the BUF will conduct themselves in such a manner as to bring unity in the Black community.

The source advised that following the reading of the memorandum, [redacted] conducted a question and answer session regarding its contents. According to the source, reaction to the memorandum appeared to be favorable,

b7C

Stokely Carmichael then opened the meeting to discussion of future activities of the BUF, and the position to be taken by the BUF on community problems. The four topics for discussion were Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., welfare, re-zoning and freeways, and urban transportation. Following discussion of Dr. King's demonstration scheduled for April, 1968, in WDC, the group voted to extend their support to his efforts. The nature and degree of that support is to be decided by the Steering Committee at a later date.

According to the source, welfare was the most discussed topic of the evening. A Welfare Committee was established, [redacted]

b7C

b7D

[redacted] This committee will work on plans to express opposition to recently enacted legislation that will require mothers on welfare to take job training and to work, if at all possible, or lose their welfare payments. It was decided to hold a public protest against the bill which is scheduled to be signed by President Johnson in early April, 1968, but no decision was reached on the date or the nature of this protest. Representatives of all organizations present at the meeting on the night of February 13, 1968, were urged to go back to their own organizations and to seek support for opposition to this legislation.

Discussion regarding re-zoning, freeways and urban transportation centered on the theme that Negro homes and businesses are scheduled to be destroyed to make room for freeways without Negroes having a voice in the location of those freeways. The BUF will work to obtain a stronger voice for the Negro in zoning and urban transportation matters.

Near the end of the meeting Carmichael announced that the next meeting of the BUF would be held on March 19, 1968. According to the source, the press was barred from this meeting, and Carmichael advised those present to have no comment to any inquiries regarding the meeting.

Carmichael also announced that a press conference would be held on February 14, 1968, and that a statement would be made regarding some of the items discussed during this meeting.

The general session adjourned at approximately 11:10 p.m. Brief meetings of the Steering Committee and the Welfare Committee were held following the general session.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

The following pertinent activities of Stokely Carmichael for the period February 4, 1968-February 13, 1968, were as follows: ~~(U)~~

On Sunday, February 4, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised Stokely Carmichael, during the afternoon of that date, attended a fund raising meeting of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) held at a SNCC member's apartment in Washington, D. C. In the evening, he was at his residence, 2200 12th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. ~~(U)~~

On Monday, February 5, 1968, Carmichael spent the early morning at his residence. He later went to the Washington office of SNCC, 1234 U Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., where he spent part of the afternoon and evening. Later in the evening he returned to his residence. ~~(U)~~

On Tuesday, February 6, 1968, Carmichael, after spending the early morning hours at his residence, went to SNCC headquarters where he remained into the afternoon and early evening. Later in the evening he went to the Church of the Redeemer, 15th and Girard Streets, N. E., Washington, D. C. ~~(U)~~

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The confidential source, mentioned previously, advised a meeting was held at the above church on the evening of February 6, 1968, in order that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and Stokely Carmichael of the Black United Front (BUF) could discuss matters of mutual interest and the Washington Spring Project (WSP) being planned for April, 1968, by Dr. King and the SCLC. According to the source, various representatives of the SCLC and the BUF as well as SNCC participated in discussions about the Washington Spring Project during the evening. King reportedly gave a talk about the purpose of the Project and urged those in attendance to support it. King commented he knew some present did not approve of the Project and would not actively support it. However, he requested that at least they not hinder the success of the Project. Source stated no announcement was made that Carmichael, SNCC, or the BUF would actively support the Washington Spring Project. Carmichael did not make any type of formal speech or statement during the meeting. (U)

On Wednesday, February 7, 1968, Carmichael spent the morning at his residence and at the headquarters of SNCC. [redacted] arrived at the Washington Headquarters of the organization from New York City at about 1:40 p. m. [redacted] and Carmichael met at the Washington Office of the SNCC and later visited a nearby restaurant. Subsequently, they returned to the SNCC Office where they remained the rest of the afternoon. In the early evening [redacted] and Carmichael met with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., at the Pitt's Motor Hotel, 1451 Belmont Road, N. W., Washington, D. C. (U)

The confidential source mentioned previously advised that during their meeting with King, [redacted] and Carmichael informed King that the SNCC and the BUF would not actively support the Washington Spring Project being sponsored by the SCLC. They informed him, however, that they nor their organizations would attempt to interfere with the Project in any way. (U)

After having attended the above meeting with King and [redacted] Carmichael returned to his residence where he was met by [redacted] another SNCC member. Carmichael and [redacted] went to National Airport, Washington, D. C., where they

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

departed at 9:30 p. m., on Trans-World Airlines, Flight Number 442, bound for Dayton, Ohio. In purchasing his ticket for travel to Dayton, Carmichael used the name "Mr. Webster." (U)

[redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Carmichael and [redacted] arrived in Dayton, Ohio, about 11:30 p. m., on February 7, 1968, and went to the residence of [redacted] where a meeting about the racial situation in Dayton was in progress. Carmichael and [redacted] joined in the meeting upon arrival. During the course of the meeting, Carmichael, [redacted] another SNCC member, discussed a "new policy" of SNCC. They stated that SNCC is presently taking a softer line on "black power" in order to bring all Negroes into their fold. Carmichael stated that the new approach would include a decline of speeches and conferences on the part of SNCC. Instead SNCC members are now being assigned to go out and work directly with the people. Carmichael reportedly stated during the meeting that "the rebellion" is already in its final phases all over the world and the only people not ready are the Negroes in the United States. He stated that Vietnam and Korea already have rebellions under way as well as other Asian countries. In addition, Africa and South America are preparing for rebellions. (U)

Carmichael also stated that an analysis of all the riots in the United States during the past few years would reveal they were unorganized and had no real leadership. (U)

On Thursday, February 8, 1968, during the early morning hours, Carmichael and [redacted] accompanied by [redacted] traveled from Dayton to Cincinnati, Ohio. They checked into the Sheraton Gibson Hotel about 4:00 a. m., where they remained during the day. In the early part of the evening on that date, Carmichael and [redacted] along with several other SNCC members from the Cincinnati area, attended a speech by James Farmer, former Director of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) held at the Wesley Methodist Chapel, Cincinnati, Ohio. Later the same evening Carmichael reportedly spoke before a group of clerics attending the Conference of Negro Methodist Ministers in convention at Cincinnati. (U)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

On Friday, February 9, 1968, Carmichael and [redacted] left Cincinnati via American Airlines Flight Number 476, at 12:50 p. m., for Washington, D. C. In returning to Washington, D. C., Carmichael traveled under name V. Welcher. Carmichael and [redacted] arrived at National Airport, Washington, D. C., at 2:00 p. m., on that date. (U)

Carmichael went to the Washington Headquarters of SNCC and later to his residence. (U)

On Saturday, February 10, 1968, Carmichael spent the morning at his residence and in the afternoon at SNCC Headquarters. In the evening he attended a party held at Pitt's Motor Hotel, 1451 Belmont Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., sponsored by the New School for Afro-American Thought in tribute to the late Otis Redding, Negro composer and blues singer, who died recently in an airplane accident. During the course of the evening Carmichael read an eulogy to Redding which had been prepared by [redacted] of the New School for Afro-American Thought. (U)

On Sunday, February 11, 1968, Carmichael spent the morning and early afternoon at his residence. Later he went to SNCC Headquarters where he remained for several hours. In the evening he returned to his residence. (U)

On Monday, February 12, 1968, Carmichael went to SNCC Headquarters in the morning and was there into the afternoon. In the evening he returned to his residence. (U)

On Tuesday, February 13, 1968, Carmichael spent the morning at his residence. In the afternoon, he went to Roosevelt High School, 13th and Upshur Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C., where he appeared before a student group. (U)

The "Washington Post," a Washington, D. C., daily newspaper, in an article dated February 14, 1968, stated Carmichael has discussed "Negro problems" with 600 students at Roosevelt High School the previous day. Carmichael had been invited to appear at the school by the Student Council, according to the article.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

The article reported Carmichael got off to a "rough start" with the students when he pronounced the name of their school incorrectly and they "razzed" him about it. Some students attempted to engage Carmichael in debate while others laughed and cheered. The article stated he tried to continue the discussion while students murmured among themselves and others put on their coats to leave. Carmichael asked, "Does the white student or the black student get the better education in Washington?" "You get the education you want to get," one youth snapped. Other students vied among themselves to ask questions while others giggled and Carmichael's voice was drown out in clatter. He raised his hands "beseechingly" and said, "We have got to get serious, because our people are at stake." The students moved restlessly in their seats and the murmuring resumed. At the end Carmichael said it had been, "a bad session with too many voices trying to get the floor at the same time."

6. [] has a great admiration for Stokely Carmichael, and it appears he also admires her.

b7C

[] advised that Carmichael was originally scheduled to travel directly to Cincinnati from Washington, D.C., to speak before the National Negro Methodist Convention at the Sheraton Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio, on February 8, 1968. However, it appears Carmichael decided to travel to Dayton, Ohio, to lend prestige to [] extended visit in Dayton and to visit [] (particularly [] who are his friends.

b2
b7D

[] a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Carmichael, [] generally discussed SNCC's new policy which is to attain unity among all Negro groups with the ultimate goal of Black Power. They indicated that SNCC is presently taking a soft line on Black Power in order to bring all Negroes into the fold. In Washington, D.C., this is called "Unified Black Front". They stated even "Uncle Toms" will be taken in and attempts will be made to convert them into SNCC followers. If they do not convert they will be treated and handled like traitors.

b2
b7C
b7D

Carmichael stated that on February 7, 1968, he was with [] of SNCC, and others in Washington, D.C., organizing the various groups.

b7C
b7D

[] advised that in each area, in order to unify the community they will organize and set up programs around the needed goals of that particular community. For example, the programs in Washington, D.C., are centered around community organizations, civil rights groups, and the unifying of all Negro organizations. In New York City the organizing is centered around the schools, PTA, Teachers Guild, and parents.

b2

[] advised that Carmichael stated the voter registration drives in the South were not the way to make changes since the Negroes feel they do not have any power.

b2
b7D

[] stated that included in this new approach is that conferences and speeches are being decreased and instead these SNCC workers are going out and working directly with the people. Also, SNCC is no longer going to issue press releases.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

In connection with the above, it is noted that the "Dayton Daily News", a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Dayton, Ohio area, carried an article titled, "Carmichael Visits SNCC Here", on page two of the February 8, 1968, edition.

b7C

b7D [redacted] advised that Carmichael mentioned they could not make meaningful changes without destroying the system of Government in the United States. Carmichael stated, "To attain equality in the system is not possible without destroying the system."

Carmichael stated, "True liberation cannot be accomplished without violence", and mentioned that the Negro must develop an army to win the revolution. Carmichael stated, "No matter what happens, we (Negroes) will survive."

b7D [redacted] stated that Carmichael mentioned that the Negro people all over the United States are ready to fight, including Washington, D.C. He stated, "The black people do not cause the incident to spark the trouble, but are ready to fight if necessary."

Carmichael stated that they (presumably meaning SNCC) analyzed all the riots in the United States during the past few years, and determined that they were unorganized and had no real leadership. According to Carmichael, one group would be in meetings attempting reconciliation, with the power structure, while the other groups would be in the streets rioting. He said that in the future the disturbances would be better organized.

b7D [redacted] advised that Carmichael stated that the revolution is ready in its final phases all over the world, and the only ones holding it up are the "niggers" in the United States. Vietnam and Korea already have their rebellions, and other Asian countries, Africa, and South America are also preparing for their rebellions. Eventually, this situation will lead to war between the white and black people.

[] advised that Carmichael mentioned that [] is presently in Atlanta and will be going to Cuba in the near future. Carmichael did not elaborate any further concerning [] travel to Cuba.

Carmichael stated that the person who designed Washington, D.C., constructed it so as to be built in a circle of defense. He stated that they have "looked over" the armored vehicles in Washington, D.C. which will be utilized by the Police Department, and they determined that if oil was poured on asphalt streets the vehicles would slide and become immobile. He also mentioned that in the event of a riot in Washington, trenches could be dug in the Negro areas which would prevent the armored vehicles from flushing the rioters. He mentioned that Washington is solid with Black people and increasingly the people are becoming organized.

Carmichael also mentioned that they understood that in the event of a riot in Washington the United States Government could move 35,000 troops in immediately.

Carmichael stated that they were doing research on the approaches to and control of riots conducted by law enforcement, both local and Federal. The purpose of this is that during a riot this knowledge would be invaluable in order that appropriate action could be taken to combat action by law enforcement authorities.

[] a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that [] generally discussed guerrilla warfare. [] stated that maintaining secrecy among a militant group is extremely important and referred to the Algerian Rebellion and the fact that even the leaders knew only a few of their followers. He further stated that the RAM (Revolutionary Action Movement) always appears to get into trouble since they discuss their strategy and plans in open meetings.

b7C
b7D

A characterization of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) is contained in the appendix attached hereto.

[] stated that if a police officer does something to your group (for example, a policeman assaults or kills a Black man), you should have a meeting with members of the community who will hold a trial and sentence this officer. If the officer is found guilty, a local militant group would carry out the sentence of eliminating the officer.

b7C
b7D

[] mentioned that the militants should carry a gun with a silencer and that it is better to shoot a police officer than be charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

b7C
b7D

On September 24, 1963, [redacted]
[redacted] at the Bronx High School [redacted] Bronx, New York, advised that there were some individuals at the high school, who in recent years seemed to be unusually devoted to "left wing" activities. Included in this group was Stokely Carmichael, a graduate of the Class of 1960. These teachers also advised that Carmichael was a close friend of [redacted] [redacted] the CP, USA.

b7C

Carmichael's Immigration and Naturalization Service record in Washington, D.C. reveals that he was born June 29, 1941, in Trinidad, British West Indies, and entered the United States at New York City on June 15, 1952. His father became a citizen of the United States on April 27, 1953, and Certificate of Citizenship Number A338082 was issued to Stokely Carmichael on April 17, 1958, setting forth that he became a citizen of the United States on April 27, 1953.

A letter issued by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC), dated June, 1966, identifies Carmichael as having been elected to the national Council of that committee.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, documents the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee as follows:

"To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire, these fronts offer a bulwark of protection."

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled, "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto," the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963 by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of [] then residing in [] and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto disclosed that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism; that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding [] it should be noted that []

[] Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, [] fled the United States to Cuba, where he published a monthly newsletter entitled "The Crusader" from Havana. As of December, 1966, []

This source, in September, 1964, advised RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States by violence, if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World," that is, the non-white races of the world rather than to any national entity, as such.

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization began in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of [] described as []

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 2/22/68

Stokely Carmichael, former Chairman of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, has been in California since 2/17/68 where he has made several speeches at rallies before predominantly black nationalist groups to obtain funds for the defense of Huey Newton. Newton has been indicted and is presently incarcerated for the murder of a policeman in the Oakland, California area. He is a leader of the Black Panther Party for Self-Defense, the most militant black nationalist party on the West coast.

Attached reports a speech by Carmichael at Merrit College in Oakland, during which he called for Negroes to take up guns.

Information in the attached was furnished to the Inter-Division Information Unit of the Department and to the Attorney General. Pertinent portions of this teletype will also be furnished to the White House, the military and appropriate agencies by memorandum.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as
The Muslim Cult of Islam, also known
as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 5, 1967, a second source advised Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam".

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils", in the United States; and the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as
The Muslim Cult of Islam, also known
as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

On May 2, 1966, a third source advised Muhammad had, in early July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

and volunteered the information set forth in the LHM. He stated that he is most concerned about the activities of some of the Black Nationalist individuals and organizations in the United States and would furnish the FBI any information in his possession relating to such activities. He said it was his concern about STOKELY CARMICHAEL that caused him to become affiliated with [redacted] [redacted] since he realizes the only way he can keep abreast of their activities is to at least purport to show he is a "militant" and interested in the movement. [redacted] said he wanted it clearly understood that even though he classifies himself as a militant, he does not subscribe to any activity wherein a single innocent individual might be injured and his only wish for the Negro is to improve his lot in society through economic and political endeavors.

[redacted] was high in his praise of the FBI, particularly with reference to its penetration of the activities of the Communist Party and stated he wished the FBI could be as equally successful in penetrating the Black Nationalist movement. He realized this is a most difficult undertaking and must be handled with complete discretion. He further advised he would advise WFO just as soon as he has determined the exact date of the Board of Conveners' meeting as well as the exact date and place of the BUF general meeting scheduled for March 19, 1968. He said he will be happy to make information about these two meetings available to the FBI but suggested that he not be contacted immediately after the meetings are completed due to the fact some of the people linger after the meetings and it might cause him embarrassment.

[] said that at the present time he is completely accepted and trusted by members of BUF and he wants it to remain this way until he decides to cease his association with the organization. BLACK UNITED FRONT
(BUF)

A source, with whom there has been insufficient contact to assess his reliability, on February 19, 1968 furnished Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation the following information regarding the BUF in the Washington, D. C. (WDC), area:

The BUF was formed in WDC on the evening of January 9, 1968 at the New School of Afro-American Thought (New School), 2208 14th Street, N. W., WDC. This meeting was called by Stokely Carmichael and was attended by some 100 persons. At the outset of this meeting Carmichael explained how BUF could attain its goals and in so doing compared such an organization in the United States with the accomplishments [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Source thought it highly unusual he would use these two men as examples in a meeting of this nature knowing both to represent communist ideologies. So far as the source was able to ascertain, this example went unnoticed by others attending the meeting and in view of this, the source thought it best that he not challenge Carmichael on his statements.

-b7C

This meeting resulted in the naming of 17 individuals to serve on a Steering Committee, which was later to be referred to as the Board of Conveners. The purpose of this body was to draw up a statement of purpose of the BUF as well as the achievements it was to attempt to accomplish.

on behalf of the Black people in the WDC area. Carmichael was named to serve as a termprary Chairman and as a member of the Board of Conveners, but with no more power or authority to act for the BUF than any other member.

The Board of Conveners held their first meeting at 2840 Knox Terrace, S. E., Washington, D. C., on January 14, 1968. During this meeting there was considerable discussion with regard to the program and policies of the BUF as it related to improving the lot of the Black man in the United States. While this discussion was in progress, a program was drafted called "Memorandum No. 8," which outlined the (1) Statement of Purpose, (2) Standards for Qualification, (for membership) and (3) Procedure to Follow (for membership). In addition, it outlined the BUF position with regard to Dr. Martin Luther King's Washington Spring Project and the Emergency Committee on the Transportation Crisis. These positions are that the BUF supports the issues that Dr. King speaks of in his campaign to better the conditions of Black people and of the Emergency Committee on the Transportation Crises to stop the acquisition of land and property in WDC. The issue of supporting "welfare mothers" in their opposition to Public Law 1492 was verbally agreed upon but was not made a part of the memorandum.

When these matters were agreed upon, some of those present wanted to draw up a press release with regard to the above. It was suggested a formal press conference would be more appropriate in order to obtain more coverage by the news media. When this was agreed upon, a discussion ensued as to who would be the spokesman to release the information in the memorandum. This developed into quite a controversy because several persons wanted to speak. During this controversy, Carmichael suggested that since people have a tendency to refer to the organization as the Stokely Carmichael BUF, he would prefer not to speak at the press conference. The group informed Carmichael this was his decision to make, but it was pointed out to him that if he should respond to a question by a reporter, it could involve a controversial discussion between himself and the press, so the stand that he takes in the beginning is the stand he must follow throughout the press conference. Carmichael decided he would sit at the speaker's table, but would make no comment and would not answer any of the reporters' questions.

The BUF called a press conference in the New School for 2 PM on February 14, 1968. During this press conference, portions of the memorandum were read by several persons, after which there was a question and answer period. Carmichael was true to his word and refused to make any comment or answer any questions.

The source, in commenting upon the activities of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), said he is of the opinion Carmichael is not communicating his thoughts or plans to anyone, [redacted]

Source believes the SNCC followers are the most militant of any of the organizations affiliated with the BUF and this is due to Carmichael's influence in SNCC. Source pointed out that [redacted] is a moderate in his views and still believes in integration, which is not the case for most SNCC followers who believe in a Black community for the Black man. Source is not personally acquainted with most of the SNCC members in the NYC area and his only association with them is when they accompany Carmichael to the BUF meetings or when he bumps into them on the street.

BLACK UNITED FRONT (BUF)

With regard to Carmichael's trip abroad, source stated he is at a loss to understand how Carmichael could have made some of the comments he did about the United States, especially if he had observed some of the horrible conditions in the Socialist countries he visited. The source is of the opinion Carmichael only saw what the leaders of these countries wanted him to see. On one occasion the source observed Carmichael on television while he was abroad and got the definite impression Carmichael was not acting like himself and could have been under the influence of some drug.

Source conjectured that Carmichael's present sources of income are from royalties of his speeches which have been released and are being sold in Europe; his books; and his speaking engagements in the United States. In the latter instance, his expenses are paid for by the organization sponsoring his appearance which is the customary method of handling these matters. Source added Carmichael may be getting a few dollars from SECC, but if so it does not amount to much since the organization is practically bankrupt.

Source said Carmichael is now visiting the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, and will not return to the Washington, D. C., area until the "last of the month." He will return, however, in time for a BUF Board of Conveners meeting scheduled for the evening of either March 4 or 5, 1968. The next general meeting of the BUF is tentatively scheduled for March 19, 1968, but will not be confirmed until the Board of Conveners' meeting.

In evaluating the BUF, the source stated that up to this point it has taken a moderate view on most of the issues. He believes that they would be against any form of racial violence and desire to accomplish their aims through the election of Black candidates to public office and economic betterment. The latter is to be obtained through ownership of business establishments and better jobs, particularly in the Black community. Source said he has consistently taken the position at BUF meetings that it is absurd to think of the Black man completely taking over a police or fire department in a large, metropolitan area because there just are not enough qualified Negroes at this time to do this. The same principle applies to the colleges and universities, due to the fact there are not enough qualified black professors in the scientific and technical fields.

The following references pertain to investigations and/or hearings by Congressional Committees. Information set out in exhibit form revealed that Stokely Carmichael had pledged his support to the Fort Hood Three who had been arrested on 7/7/66 for refusing to fight in Vietnam. The exhibits appeared to be leaflets issued by the August 6-9 Committee. During testimony on 3/7/67, [REDACTED] stated that two recent trips by Carmichael to Puerto Rico were sponsored by two communist and Castro-allied organizations and the possibility existed that Carmichael was receiving funds directly from Havana.

On 4/10/67, [REDACTED] Milford, Conn., Police Department, advised that approximately eighty New England Committee For Non-Violent Action (100-426761) peace marchers arrived in Milford on 4/9/67. The literature distributed by the group included a pamphlet entitled "National Mass Mobilization To End The War In Vietnam Now!" which invited the reader to participate in a mass march and rally at UN Headquarters in New York and the UN birthplace in San Francisco, Cal., on 4/15/67. Stokely Carmichael was listed as a sponsor of this proposed demonstration.

The following references in the file captioned "November 8 Mobilization Committee" set forth the results of the National Leadership Conference held at Cleveland, Ohio, on 9/10-11/66, at which proposals were made to include Stokely Carmichael as a member of the National Steering Committee of the November 8 Ad Hoc Committee and to support him in his courageous stand in his beliefs. Further results of the Conference included plans to organize a nationwide protest against the war in Vietnam to take place on 11/5-8/66.

In March, 1967, the "Spring Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam" organized a demonstration to be held on 4/15/67, the conclusion of Vietnam Week, at NYC. Stokely Carmichael was listed as a sponsor of the affair and planned to lead a march from Central Park to the United Nations Plaza where a rally would be held. On 4/15/67, the march was held as scheduled and principal speakers were Carmichael, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and Dr. Benjamin Spock, noted child specialist. It was noted that the CP and other subversive elements gave full support to the demonstrations.

In connection with another investigation,

by Agents of our Washington Field Office (WFO). During the interview,  stated he is most concerned about the activities of some of the black nationalist individuals and organizations in the United States and is willing to furnish the FBI any information in his possession relating to such activities. He said it was his concern about Stokely Carmichael that caused him to become affiliated with the Black United Front (BUF), recently formed by Carmichael in Washington, D. C. He stated he believes the only way he can keep abreast of their activities is to at least purport to show that he is a "militant" and interested in the BUF. However,  said he wanted it clearly understood that even though he classified himself as a militant, he does not subscribe to any activities wherein a single innocent individual might be injured and his only wish for the Negro is to improve his lot in society through economic and political endeavors.

 was high in his praise of the FBI, particularly with reference to its penetration of the activities of the Communist Party and stated he wished the FBI could be as equally successful in penetrating the black nationalist movement. He realized this is a most difficult undertaking and must be handled with complete discretion. He was not in a position to suggest anyone in this area who might be in a position to furnish information about such activities and did not feel persons closely associated with Carmichael could be trusted to an approach by the FBI.

RE: []

b7C

b7C
b7D
Concerning Stokely Carmichael, [] conjectured that Carmichael's present sources of income are from royalties of his speeches which have been released and are being sold in Europe, his books and his speaking engagements in the United States. In the latter instance, his expenses are paid by the organization sponsoring his appearance which is the customary method of handling these matters. [] added Carmichael may be getting a few dollars from SNCC but, if so, it does not amount to much since the organization is practically bankrupt.

b7C
b7D
In evaluating the BUF, [] stated that up to this point, it has taken a moderate view on most of the issues. He believes that they would be against any form of racial violence and desire to accomplish their aims through the election of black candidates to public office and economic betterment.

b7C
b7D
[] also commented that he had been in correspondence with Adam Clayton Powell who is endeavoring to arrange a speaking engagement at Howard University on some weekday during the last week of March or first week of April, 1968. [] will notify WFO what day Powell expects to be in Washington, D. C., upon receipt of this information. [] stated that although Powell makes some militant statements at times there has never been an incidence where he can be accused of fomenting violence. He added, "There has never been any trouble anywhere immediately after Adam has spoken."

b7C
b7D
WFO will continue to contact [] in an effort to ascertain information relating to the activities of the BUF.

On February 8, 1968, [] a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stokely Carmichael, accompanied by [] checked in at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio, at about 4:00 A.M. on February 8, 1968. [] identified [] for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). [] stated that Carmichael, [] were residing in Room [] with []

[] said that Carmichael was in Cincinnati, Ohio, for the sole purpose of speaking before the National Conference of Negro Methodists, who were holding a three-day conference at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel in Cincinnati.

[] said that Carmichael remained in the hotel all day on February 8, 1968, attending various workshops of the National Conference of the Negro Methodists. []

[] related that in the early evening of February 8, 1968, Carmichael, accompanied by [] and several local SNCC members, went to the Wesley Methodist Chapel in Cincinnati, Ohio, to hear a speech by James Farmer, former Director of the Congress Of Racial Equality (CORE), and now a Professor at an Eastern college. Carmichael did not speak at the chapel, but remained there for several hours listening to other speakers and returned to the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel at about 10:30. From approximately 11:00 A.M. to 12:00 midnight, Carmichael spoke to approximately 250 Methodist Ministers who were attending the conference, as well as with local SNCC members. All of the ministers at the conference did not attend this speech, but only those that were interested. [] related that this was a closed speech in that no White persons were permitted to be present. After speaking for approximately one hour, Carmichael remained for about one-half hour or 45 minutes answering questions put to him by the ministers in [] attendance. The speech was held at the Roof Garden at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel. After the speech, Carmichael returned to his suite for a private party.

[] stated that in attendance at this party were approximately four Negro ministers from the conference, as well as local SNCC members, the number of which was estimated at about 15. He said that there were several other people there whom he was not acquainted with, but [] stated there were about 35 persons in attendance. [] said that Carmichael's speech to the ministers was relatively tame and on a much higher plane than some of his previous talks. He said, in essence, that the Negro ministers should attempt to bring all Negroes together as a unit, and should concentrate more on the poor than on the middle class. In some of his discussions at the party, Carmichael related that when he got back to Washington, D. C., he and

b2
b7D

[] would try to organize and take over the school system there with the help of school officials, schoolteachers, and anyone else they can get to assist him, including pimps and prostitutes. Carmichael implied that this meeting with some school officials was going to be closed and/or secret, and it was hoped that through the cooperation of the Negro peoples in Washington, D. C., they could take over the schools and "run them their way."

b2

[] said that the party terminated at approximately 3:00 A.M.

On February 8, 1968, [] Sheraton-Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio, advised that his records failed to disclose any registration under the names of Stokely Carmichael, []

He said Room [] is one room of a three-room suite, referred to by the hotel as the Presidential Suite. He said this room contains two bedrooms with twin beds in each and a living or sitting room. He said this room is registered to [] one of the Negro attending the National Negro Methodist Conference.

He said that the Presidential Suite consists of Rooms [] and it was furnished to the conference on a complimentary basis. The information by [] was furnished to a Special Agent of the FBI.

The February 8, 1968 edition of the "Cincinnati Enquirer," a daily newspaper in general circulation in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area, contained an article captioned, "Negro Methodists Told To Stand Fast." This article indicated, in part, that some 300 Negro Methodist Ministers and laymen were here in Cincinnati for a three-day meeting to plan their role in the United Methodist Church.

The February 9, 1968 edition of the "Cincinnati Enquirer" contained an article captioned, "Carmichael Here At Church Meeting." This article reads as follows:

"Stokely Carmichael, militant Black Power advocate who ran into State Department troubles for tours behind the Iron Curtain, was in Cincinnati Thursday to speak to the National Conference of Negro Methodists at the Hotel Sheraton-Gibson. The public was not invited to the session.

"Carmichael was accompanied by George Ware, his principal aide, who was freed of sedition charges in Nashville, Tenn. last August. Ware visited Communist Cuba with Carmichael last fall."

The February 8, 1968 edition of the "Cincinnati Post and Times Star," a daily newspaper in general circulation in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area, contained an article captioned, "Carmichael Here For Talk." This article states as follows:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"Stokely Carmichael, former national president of SNCC and militant black power advocate, is in Cincinnati to speak at a workshop at the National Conference of Negro Methodists, now meeting at the Sheraton-Gibson.

"The Rev. James ~~Lawson~~, Memphis, Tenn., conference chairman, confirmed that Carmichael is in town, but would not say where he is staying.

"He says Carmichael will speak at a workshop entitled 'Black Churchmen-Black Revolution' tonight, but it will be closed to the press as are all other workshops of the conference.

"Rev. Mr. Lawson says Carmichael was brought here because the churchmen 'want to hear what he can tell them' and not for the publicity his appearance might arouse."

The February 9, 1968, Seven Star Final, edition of the "Cincinnati Post and Times Star" contained an article captioned, "Black Power Unanimously Approved." This article indicated that in a speech by James Farmer, former National Director of CORE, at the Wesley Chapel, before a group attending the National Conference of Negro Methodists, Farmer stated that the Negro "has got to stop being ashamed of being black and develop ethnic pride and identity." Farmer, according to this article, once considered a radical militant but now regarded as almost an elder statesman in the civil rights movement, is Director of Social Welfare at Lincoln University in Pennsylvania. The article states that during Farmer's speech, the "slight, stooped figure of Stokely Carmichael, former National President of SNCC, tiptoed quietly up to the front of the church and sat down. Carmichael, who coined the slogan 'Black Power' was not introduced. He refused to talk to newsmen after the meeting, but rode with friends back to the Sheraton-Gibson where he conducted a seminar for the church delegates on 'Black Churchmen-Black Revolution.'"

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The February 9, 1968 edition of the "Dayton Daily News," a daily newspaper in general circulation in Dayton, Ohio, contained an article by Emil Dansker, Daily News Staff Writer, captioned, "'Turn World Upside Down' --- Stokely." This article, which is datelined Cincinnati, refers to the talk made by Carmichael before the National Conference of Negro Methodists, on Thursday evening, February 8, 1968. This article reads as follows:

"A Bible-quoting Stokely Carmichael urged black Methodist ministers to 'turn the world upside down' in their efforts to help the poor in a talk before the National Conference of Negro Methodists Thursday night.

"Taking his text from Acts 17:6, Carmichael recalled for his audience of about 250 persons, the words, 'And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying these that have turned the world upside down are come hither also.'

"And citing also Jeremiah 1:10 --- 'See, I have this day set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out and to pull down, and to destroy, and throw down, to build, and to plant' --- he told the clerics they are as chosen people in their mission to work among the poor as did Jesus.

"Black ministers basically should be dealing with poor people, Carmichael said, and should try to get away from the middle-class Negroes and quit appealing to him.

"'Your job,' he said, 'is to turn the world upside down.'

"To nearly every question following the hour-long talk, Carmichael replied, in effect, that if Jesus could direct his message work among the poor so can the church today.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"How, asked one questioner, can the Methodist church combine the two factions represented on the one hand by the poor and on the other hand by a middle class reluctant to be directly involved in the civil right movement?

"Carmichael, a Methodist said, 'Jesus did it.'

"The former chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating committee received several rounds of applause, including a standing ovation, in a low-key talk scheduled as part of a new separatist movement between black and white Methodists.

"The talk officially was open only to registered delegates to the conference, but about 20 SNCC members attended as observers. They had been told not to participate in the question-and-answer session on grounds it might hinder a realistic exchange between Carmichael and regular delegates

"Carmichael and his aide, George Ware, were in Dayton earlier in the week. They refused to be interviewed by reporters, asserting conference officials had asked them not to seek publicity.

"'I don't have much to say,' said Ware, who declined comment as to when he expects to return to Dayton to set up activity on the city's West side. 'As a matter of fact, I don't have anything to say.'

"One source said the Dayton activity will include a combined effort with Negro Methodists."

The February 11, 1968 edition of the "Cincinnati Enquirer" contained an article captioned, "Go Help The Poor, Stokely Tells Pastors." This is another article concerning the speech made by Stokely Carmichael before the Negro Methodist Conference at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel. This article reads as follows:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"Stokely Carmichael, black power advocate, told a group of Negro Methodist Ministers to go into the streets and help the poor.

"Carmichael made the statement to about 250 delegates last week in a closed session of the National Negro Methodist Conference at the Hotel Sheraton-Gibson. He told the ministers that the church should not be geared toward the middle class, but that its job was helping the poor.

"'You should do as Jesus did, go into the community, seek out the poor, preach to them, administer to them and bring them together as a unit. If the Negro minister fails to bring the poor Negroes together as a unit, then he is nothing more than a hustler in the community,' Carmichael said.

"The former Student Non-violent Co-ordinating Committee national chairman who has a Methodist background, said the church was the only agent within the Negro community which could bring about cohesiveness among the Negro people.

"He pointed out that the church can do this because dating back to slavery and after the slaves were freed, the Negro church was the one free agent in the Negro community controlled by them.

"Speaking to a quiet but tense audience, Carmichael began to generate emotions from the gathering as he told them that the church was the place where Negro culture was preserved.

"He said, 'When the black man was supposedly freed in this country, his culture began and was developed in the church. The rhythmic music forms which are so prevalent today in many other types of music other than spirituals, had their beginning in pews of the black churches. Ray Charles sings gospels. Aretha Franklin sings gospels, the late Sam Cooke sang gospels and brother James Brown had his beginning in the black church.'

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"Carmichael pointed out that evidence of this free expression is prevalent in the Negro churches today.

"The black man, today, sings, acts and talks like a black man when he is in his own church. We sing. We shout and we utter such common black man expressions as, amen, preach on, brother; uhun and yes, Lord," Carmichael said.

"The black power advocates said the white Methodist churches use hymns written by white song writers, such as John Wesley, 'But our black people want to hear 'Ezekel Saw the Wheel,' he said.

"Carmichael called for the Negro Methodist ministers to define black power. He told them not to accept the white man's definition of black power. 'Define it for yourself, see what it means to you and move on with it,' he said.

"He also said the black churches should take another look at Christianity and see if it really works for Negroes. He said Christianity was a white's man's religion and might not work for Negroes.

"This white man's religion shows Jesus Christ as a white man and this to a poor poverty-stricken black man represents an oppressor. How then can a black man really be taught to worship an oppressor?"

"Carmichael received a standing ovation as he closed by telling the ministers, 'Preach to them about black consciousness, instill pride in them, tell them black is beautiful and it's so beautiful to be black.'"

The February 10, 1968 edition of the "Cincinnati Post and Times Star" contained an article by James Adams captioned, "Leaders Fear Voice of Change Unheard by Society." This article contains comments, in part, of Reverend James Lawson, who chaired the National Conference of Negro Methodists meeting in Cincinnati. According to this article, Mr. Lawson had the following comment to make concerning Stokely Carmichael:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"Mr. Lawson says he has known Stokely Carmichael since 1960. Stokely is a Methodist.

"'Stokely has the basic compassion that is called for in the Christian faith' --- noticing my puzzled expression, he quickly added --- 'I know white America can't grasp that. _

"'Stokely doesn't really know where he is going himself. He is trying a means to revolutionize society.' Carmichael was brought to the conference here at the request of some of the more militant ministers. Others objected and threatened to leave in protest.

"'I feel we ought to listen to what he has to say --- even if we didn't agree,' Mr. Lawson says."

The February 9, 1968 edition of the "Cincinnati Post and Times Star" contained an article captioned, "Tense Peace Prevails in S. C. After 3 Students Die in Riot." This article, which was datelined Orangeburg, South Carolina, indicated that the South Carolina State College had suspended classes and urged students to stay in their dormitories today in the wake of a bloody battle between Highway Patrolmen and Negro students that claimed three lives and injured 36 persons. According to this article, among the injured, of whom two were listed as critical, was one Cleveland Sellers, an official of SNCC, who was arrested on a number of charges at a hospital emergency room and jail. This article quotes Sellers as stating, "Stokely (Carmichael) will probably come down if they incarcerate me." Sellers, according to this article, had told newsmen earlier that he had been in touch by telephone with Carmichael and H. Rap Brown, Head of SNCC. Sellers, who had been organizing a "Black Awareness Committee," on the campus, was charged with inciting to riot, destruction of property, arson, and assault and battery with intent to kill.

b7D [] a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 13, 1968, that Carmichael, on the evening of February 8, 1968, spoke before a group of approximately 200 Methodist ministers and friends at a closed session at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel. The ministers were a part of a group of Negro Methodist ministers attending a National Negro Methodist Conference there. He said Carmichael spoke from a prepared speech and it was directed more or less to the Negro ministers attending the conference. He said, in part, that the Negro should go into the streets and help the poor, and that the church should not associate itself with the middle class. During his talk, he made several references to sections of the Bible to illustrate his comments. He made no comment about the Negro Methodist separating from the White Methodist Church, and mentioned the difficulty the Negro ministers were having in getting into the policy-making process within the framework of the entire Methodist Church.

[redacted] a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stokely Carmichael, who was accompanied by [redacted]

[redacted] was at the Wesley Methodist Church to hear a speech by James Farmer the evening of February 8, 1968. He said ministers from the National Negro Methodist Conference were in attendance, as well as approximately 15 local SNCC members, to hear Farmer's talk. [redacted] further advised that Farmer's speech, although scholarly, did not create the same enthusiasm as the speech made by Stokely Carmichael at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel later that evening.

[redacted] stated that he was in attendance at Carmichael's speech, which was directed primarily to the ministers present, and was relatively tame in comparison to some of his other speeches. He said there was a question and answer period which followed Carmichael's speech, but no questions were put to him about his travels in Communist countries, but most of them pertained to the subject matter of Carmichael's speech.

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE (ECLC)

The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] In 1956, [REDACTED] was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the Party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

b7C

Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists.

Agents of the Dayton RA had the package under surveillance during this time, and we were able to put CARMICHAEL in the Gibson, Room 518-522, at which time FBI Agents, Cincinnati Headquarters, took over the surveillance and established vantage points. (S) (U)

From the conference, [REDACTED] obtained very valuable and vital information which the Cincinnati Office believes is a new look with respect to CARMICHAEL, his activities, and SNCC. We say this because it appears now from the informant that CARMICHAEL has been somewhat subdued, did not want any publicity in Cincinnati or Dayton, and, as a matter of fact, sought secrecy in all of his operations. Some of his own people did not even know he was coming, and they were surprised when he arrived at the meeting. (S) (U)

SNCC's new policy was discussed as follows:

To attain unity among all Negro groups, with the ultimate goal of black power. (See Cincinnati teletype 2/9/68.) SNCC is presently taking a soft line on black power in order to bring all Negroes into their fold. According to source, CARMICHAEL said a new approach would be that conferences and speeches would be decreased, and instead they are going out and work directly with the Negro people. CARMICHAEL said the rebellion is ready in its final phases all over the world, and the only ones not ready are the Negroes in the United States. Vietnam and Korea already have their rebellions, and other Asian countries, Africa, and South America are preparing for same. CARMICHAEL said an analysis of all the riots in the United States during the past few years indicated they were unorganized and had no real leadership. (S) (U)

BLACK CONGRESS SPONSORED RALLY

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA
FEBRUARY 18, 1968

Huey P. Newton was publically known as the Minister of Defense for the Black Panther Party for Self Defense (BPPSD), in Oakland, California. The BPPSD was described as a political organization to combat "police brutality", to unite militant black youths in order to determine the destiny of the black community, and to educate black people in African history. Newton is confined presently in City Jail for shooting a policeman.

On February 18, 1968, [] advised that Stokely Carmichael, [] and James Forman, executive members of the Student Non Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), a black nationalist organization and several black nationalist leaders from Oakland, California are presently en route to Los Angeles, California, on United Airlines Flight 511, which departed San Francisco, California, at 11:45 a.m. and will arrive Los Angeles at 12:40 p.m.

On February 18, 1968, a Special Agent of the FBI was present and observed the activities held at the captioned rally at the Los Angeles Sports Arena, where approximately 3,300 people were in attendance with 12% of them being Caucasian. Prior to the start of the rally, which was scheduled for 3:00 p.m., Stokely Carmichael refused to participate in the program unless all police were removed from the premises. A compromise was reached between the management of the arena and Carmichael, who permitted only Negro police officers to remain in the arena while all white officers were instructed to remain outside.

Upon entering the arena, it was noted that all persons attempting to enter were frisked by Negro males, wearing black berets, who served as Security guards. At 4:22 p.m. Master of Ceremonies for the mass rally, Walter Bremond, Chairman of the Black Congress, made the opening remarks, welcoming everyone to this mass rally for the defense of Huey P. Newton which is being sponsored by the Black Congress and featuring Stokely Carmichael, H. Rap Brown, and other Negro leaders.

The first speaker was James Forman, a representative of SNCC who spoke from 4:30 p.m. to 4:46 p.m. warning the white power structure, if Newton was found guilty, retribution would be made against them. He indicated that H. Rap Brown had recently been appointed Minister of Justice for the BPPSD in that SNCC and the BPPSD had recently consolidated. He encouraged all Negroes to arm themselves due to the eventual revolution of the black people.

The second speaker was introduced as Thomas Kilgore, West Coast representative of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), a civil rights organization, headed by the Reverend Martin Luther King. He voiced his disapproval of the war in Vietnam and was shocked to see the majority of servicemen killed in Vietnam were Negroes. At the conclusion of his five minute presentation, he requested that a petition be initiated and sent to President Johnson to end the war in Vietnam.

The next speaker was Bobby George Seale, Chairman of the BPPSD, who spoke from 4:45 p.m. to 5:19 p.m. He urged all Negro families to obtain shotguns and to keep them in their homes and have them handy to "shoot pig cops" when they come to your door. He defined black power as guns and force, which will eventually be utilized in the next American civil war. He likened black power to the force seen in Detroit when Negroes with guns, determination and unity drove out the United States paratroopers. Guns and rifles are necessary to stop white oppression and police brutality. He eulogized Huey Newton because he did this in Oakland, California, when he shot a "pig cop".

The fourth speaker was Cristobal Tijerina, brother of Reies Lopez Tijerina, leader of the Alianza Federal De Mercedes (AFDM), which is publically known as an organization representing local grant interest in the State of New Mexico to decendants of original owners. He indicated that it was mandatory that brown and black people unite to fight the white oppressors who have taken away their rights and their lands.

At 5:26 p.m. for approximately 30 minutes, the audience was entertained by several dancers and singers from "US", a militant black nationalist organization based in Los Angeles, California.

At 5:56 p.m., Reies Lopez Tijerina related that the only enemy of all mankind is the white man in that he is evil and a liar and does not know justice. He insisted that the next time that a police officer attempts to arrest him, "He'll shoot them like dogs." He urged brown and black men to unite and organize together to achieve their rights. His philosophy in essence was the end justifies the means and any amount of force necessary to attain his goals is justified.

At 6:12 p.m., Tijerina was followed by Ronie McKinley Everett, more commonly known as Ron Karenga, Chairman of "US", who related that all white men are corrupt, but President Johnson is the most corrupt. He claimed that all blacks are "niggers" in the eyes of the whites. The whites are the black man's enemy and they must be overcome if black men are to survive. Negroes should align themselves with organizations or any group that will assist Negroes to attain their goals. He was greatly encouraged to see that the true Vietnamese were slowly pushing "whitey" out of Vietnam. He related that the Black Congress of Los Angeles represents all black nationalists. He concluded his presentation at 6:23 p.m. by stating that all black men should remember that the white man is a "paper tiger".

At 6:25 p.m. a collection was taken for Huey Newton's defense fund when young Negro males dressed in black berets and black leather jackets passed buckets through the audience.

H. Rap Brown identified himself as the new Minister of Justice for the BPPSD spoke from 6:32 p.m. to 6:49 p.m. He began his presentation by saying that Negroes should remember that Detroit is now called "Destroyt". He related that whites believe everything black is bad and everything white is good. All people are born free and "we must exercise this right", even if it means going against the white power structure. He said power comes from the barrels of shotguns and Negroes must obtain more guns in order to obtain more power. He said that "Lyndon Johnson is a two-gun outlaw from Texas." He predicted a Negro revolution in the United States and that "it would not be a political revolution." Negroes built this country up and the Negroes will burn it down." He predicted that there would be a battle in the United States between whites and blacks and it will be similar to a civil war which will occur within the next few years.

The last and featured speaker of the rally was Stokely Carmichael, who was received with more enthusiasm than the other Negro leaders. He introduced a Negro female, one Ethel Minor, who he indicated was with the Atlantic Office of SNCC prior to his opening remarks. He spoke from 6:55 p.m. to 7:40 p.m. concerning his remarks to the fact that blacks have to learn to hate the white man, because whites hate blacks more than blacks hate whites. The black man's major enemy is the white man. He related "that no honkies will tell me where or when I can or cannot go" and if he desired to go to Vietnam, China, Cuba or any place else he'll go. The whites have committed genocide against the Indians, Orientals, and Negroes. The whites alienated the Indians after they taught them to survive in their country, and they put the Orientals-Japanese in concentration camps and are attempting to do the same to the Negroes. At one point in the meeting when the audience became enthusiastic over his remarks, he stated, "Don't get excited now, we're going to get them." "The black man does not care about this country or any other group, but just our people because we are black Africans not Americans." American policy is based on the three M's: missionaries first, then money second, and then U. S. Marines. The poverty program of the Federal Government is a give-away program to stop the Negro rebellion. The government is just paying us to not start a revolution but it won't work. If we don't get our rights, we'll burn this country down.

He related that if Huey Newton is convicted, the Negroes will retaliate throughout this country. All Negroes must unite socially, economically, and militarily in order to avoid extermination at the hands of the whites. He demanded the blacks who furnish information concerning Negroes or Negro organizations to the white power structure be killed.

The article related that Stokely Carmichael, H. Rap Brown, and James Forman were featured speakers and called for unity among blacks to prevent what they termed "genocide by whites." It stated that Carmichael urged his audience of 3000 "to ignore Federal anti-poverty programs, because they were intended to stop revolution." Carmichael also urged blacks to learn to hate whites. (BUDED 3-15-68)

According to a UPI press release dated February 20, 1968, Stokely Carmichael is now conducting a secret school for black militants in Washington, D. C. It is reported in the release that, according to reliable informants, Carmichael is operating in Washington a school for black militants from about a dozen cities. The location of the school and its curriculum are secret but it is not anything so sensational as a "school for sabotage."

It is also reported that Carmichael is said to be teaching some 50 militants how to organize the black community in each ghetto to obtain key positions of leadership so they can call signals if and when there is a riot or other incident. The militants are then to go home and conduct similar schools in their own communities.

You should immediately institute an extensive, vigorous investigation to determine whether or not there is any validity to the above press release. Submit preliminary results of your investigation in a form suitable for dissemination by 3-15-68.

NOTE:

Information has been received that Stokely Carmichael and members of SNCC have been gathering information concerning efforts by law enforcement to prevent riots in the U. S. and particularly in WDC. It is also known that Carmichael has formed a Black United Front which is a coalition of moderate and liberal Negroes in the community. He is also endeavoring to establish similar fronts in other cities, however, no information has been previously received concerning Carmichael holding a school for black militants in WDC.

2ND OF FOUR

THE ANGRY MEN IN THE GHETTO

BY JACK V. FOX

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

THE KINGPIN OF VIOLENT NEGROES IN AMERICA IS STOKELY
CARMICHAEL. HE IS NOW CONDUCTING A SECRET SCHOOL FOR BLACK MILITANTS IN WASHINGTON.

CARMICHAEL TOLD NEWSMEN IN PARIS LAST AUTUMN HE HOPED FOR A U.S. DEFEAT IN VIETNAM. NOT WITHDRAWAL. DEFEAT.

CARMICHAEL WAS ON HIS WAY BACK FROM VISITS TO CUBA AND NORTH VIETNAM.

HE HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE AT THE "LATIN AMERICAN SOLIDARITY CONFERENCE" AT THE HAVANA LIBRE HOTEL (THE OLD HAVANA HILTON).
AT CARMICHAEL'S REQUEST, AMERICAN NEWSMEN WERE BARRED BUT THE ALGERIAN PRESS AGENCY REPORTED HIS COMMENT ON THE RACIAL PICTURE IN THE UNITED STATES.

"ONLY THE GUN CAN PULL US OUT OF THIS SITUATION," CARMICHAEL SAID.

"UP TO LAST YEAR WE WERE ORGANIZED ONLY TO DEFEND OURSELVES, SINCE THE WHITE MAN HAD CONVINCED US THAT VIOLENCE WAS BAD FOR OUR STRUGGLE EVEN THOUGH HE WAS USING IT FREELY OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES.

"NOW OUR PEOPLE EMPLOY PASSIVE VIOLENCE. HOWEVER, THE LINE BETWEEN DEFENSIVE AND OFFENSIVE VIOLENCE IS A SLIGHT ONE.
ONCE AN INDIVIDUAL HAS FIRED A GUN TO DEFEND HIMSELF, HE IS CAPABLE OF USING IT TO ATTACK. WE ARE ADVANCING TOWARD GUERRILLA VIOLENCE IN THE AMERICAN URBAN CENTER."

BARRY GOLDWATER SAYS CARMICHAEL SHOULD BE TRIED FOR TREASON.
IF FOUND GUILTY, HE SHOULD BE SENTENCED AS A TRAITOR.

ACCORDING TO RELIABLE INFORMANTS, CARMICHAEL IS OPERATING IN WASHINGTON A SCHOOL FOR BLACK MILITANTS FROM ABOUT A DOZEN CITIES. THE LOCATION OF THE SCHOOL AND ITS CURRICULUM ARE SECRET BUT IT IS NOT ANYTHING SO SENSATIONAL AS A "SCHOOL FOR SABOTAGE."

100-446080-195

ENCLOSURE

WASHINGTON CAPITAL NEWS SERVICE

CARMICHAEL IS SAID TO BE TEACHING SOME 50 MILITANTS HOW TO ORGANIZE THE BLACK COMMUNITY IN EACH GHETTO. TO OBTAIN KEY POSITIONS OF LEADERSHIP SO THEY CAN CALL SIGNALS IF AND WHEN THERE IS A RIOT OR OTHER INCIDENT. THE MILITANTS ARE THEN TO GO HOME AND CONDUCT SIMILAR SCHOOLS IN THEIR OWN COMMUNITIES.

THIS MONTH, CARMICHAEL HELD TWO PRIVATE MEETINGS WITH DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING. CARMICHAEL IS REPORTED TO HAVE PROMISED KING NOT TO TRY TO TAKE OVER, OR INJECT VIOLENCE INTO, KING'S "MOBILIZATION OF POOR PEOPLE" WHICH IS SUPPOSED TO BEGIN IN THE CAPITAL IN EARLY APRIL.

WHY DOESN'T THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE PROSECUTE CARMICHAEL?

"WE FEEL WE DO NOT HAVE ENOUGH EVIDENCE TO WARRANT PROSECUTION OF MR. CARMICHAEL ON ANY FEDERAL CHARGE," A SPOKESMAN TOLD UPI. "WE WILL TRY TO MATCH PROSECUTIONS WITH ANY VIOLATIONS WE DO FIND. BUT THE DEPARTMENT WILL NOT INSTITUTE A PROSECUTION UNLESS IT HAS CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE."

HIGH ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS FEAR PROSECUTION WHICH FAILED TO PRODUCE IRONCLAD EVIDENCE AND SECURE A CONVICTION WOULD MAKE A MARTYR OF CARMICHAEL AND FIRE UP THE BLACK COMMUNITY WORSE THAN EVER. LEGAL OFFICIALS POINT OUT THAT COURTS TRADITIONALLY HAVE BEEN LOATHE TO CONVICT ANY MAN OF SEDITION JUST FOR SHOOTING OFF HIS MOUTH.

MILITANTS 2/20 NX

1ST ADD MILITANTS (ADV FOR AMS TUES FEB 27 OR THEREAFTER) 302A XXX
 HIS MOUTH.

CARMICHAEL IS A NATIVE OF TRINIDAD, A HANDSOME WEST INDIAN WHO CAN BE CHARMING OF MANNER. NOW 27, HE CAME TO NEW YORK IN 1952 AND BECAME AN OUTSTANDING STUDENT AMONG 50 NEGROES AT THE BRONX HIGH SCHOOL OF SCIENCE, MIXING AMIABLY WITH WHITES. HE WENT ON TO GRADUATE FROM HOWARD UNIVERSITY WITH A DEGREE IN PHILOSOPHY.

HE PARTICIPATED IN A SIT-IN IN VIRGINIA IN 1960 AND QUICKLY BECAME INVOLVED IN THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT. BY 1966, HE HAD BECOME CHAIRMAN OF THE STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE. ORIGINATED IN 1960 AT THE URGING OF KING, SNCC HAD SWUNG FAR FROM THE TEACHINGS OF ITS PATRON.

AFTER THE KILLING OF MALCOLM X, THE BLACK MUSLIM WHOSE AUTOBIOGRAPHY IS VIRTUALLY A BIBLE TO MILITANTS, CARMICHAEL REPLACED HIM AS SOMETHING OF A NATIONAL FIGURE FOR EXTREMISTS. HE HAS BEEN JAILED, BRIEFLY AND ON VARIOUS LOCAL CHARGES, 27 TIMES. TODAY HE IS THE IDOL AND IS QUOTED BY MANY OF THE ANGRY MEN IN THE GHETTOS.

ONE OF THOSE HE ATTRACTED WAS H. RAP BROWN. A SIX-FOOT, THREE-INCH NATIVE OF BATON ROUGE, LA. AT SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY WHERE HE MAJORED IN SOCIOLOGY HE WAS HUBERT GEROLD BROWN. HE WAS DROPPED FROM THE SCHOOL IN HIS SENIOR YEAR FOR FAILURE TO ATTEND CLASSES.

LAST MAY HE SUCCEEDED CARMICHAEL AS CHAIRMAN OF SNCC. CARMICHAEL SAID AT THE TIME: "PEOPLE WILL BE GLAD TO HAVE ME BACK WHEN THEY HEAR HIM--HE'S A BAD MAN."

BROWN FULFILLED HIS BUILDUP. AT HIS FIRST PRESS CONFERENCE HE ATTACKED LYNDON JOHNSON AS A "MAD DOG." "VIOLENCE IS AS AMERICAN AS CHERRY PIE," HE SAID.

100-476080-1195

ENCLOSURE

A FEW NIGHTS LATER AT A GATHERING OF 1,000 NEGROES IN A WASHINGTON CHURCH, BROWN SAID:

"GET YOU SOME GUNS AND BURN THIS TOWN DOWN IF IT DOESN'T COME AROUND. DON'T LOVE THE WHITE MAN TO DEATH. SHOOT HIM TO DEATH."

"THE AMERICAN CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT IS DEAD. IT IS GOING TO BE REPLACED WITH SOMETHING ELSE. THE PEOPLE OF AMERICA WILL HAVE TO WAIT AND SEE."

A FEW MONTHS LATER HE WAS CHARGED WITH INCITING TO RIOT AND ARSON IN CAMBRIDGE, MD. THE TRIAL IS PENDING. IN AUGUST HE WAS RELEASED ON $15,000 BAIL IN NEW YORK AFTER BEING CHARGED WITH CARRYING A LOADED .30-CALIBER CARBINE ON A PLANE TO NEW ORLEANS AND BACK. IN JANUARY HE GRAPPLED WITH A NEW YORK POLICEMAN OUTSIDE THE CUBAN UNITED NATIONS MISSION AND FACES TRIAL FOR INTERFERING WITH AN OFFICER'S PERFORMANCE OF DUTY.

LAST TUESDAY, HE WAS ARRESTED AGAIN--THIS TIME FOR MAKING AN UNAUTHORIZED TRIP TO CALIFORNIA WHILE UNDER COURT ORDER TO STAY IN NEW YORK. HE HAD GONE TO LOS ANGELES TO APPEAR AT A BLACK POWER RALLY WITH CARMICHAEL.

THERE ARE MANY RESPONSIBLE PEOPLE WHO FEEL THE CARMICHAELS AND BROWNS HAVE BEEN BUILT INTO BOGEYMEN, ALARMING AND INFLAMING BOTH THE NEGRO AND WHITE COMMUNITIES, BY THE MASS MEDIA REPORTING OF THEIR ACTIONS AND PARTICULARLY THEIR WORDS.

IF IT WERE ONLY A HANDFUL, IT MIGHT BE WELL TO LET THEM SHRIVEL IN OBSCURITY. BUT THERE ARE DOZENS LIKE THEM, AS BAD OR WORSE, SPOUTING OFF IN THE NEGRO NEIGHBORHOODS OF MOST BIG CITIES.

IN CHICAGO, THE ANGRIEST MAN IN THE BLACK SLUMS IS RUSSELL MEEK, 34, CHAIRMAN OF THE AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY COMMITTEE AND THE BLACK IMPEACHMENT COMMITTEE. MEEK HAS A GOATEE AND MUSTACHE, USUALLY DRESSES IN AFRO-STYLED GARB WITH BEADS AND BRACELETS. HE PARTICIPATED IN THE OPEN HOUSING MARCH INTO THE WHITE SUBURB OF CICERO IN SEPTEMBER, 1966, IN WHICH SIX PERSONS WERE SERIOUSLY INJURED AND MORE THAN 30 ARRESTED.

MEEK BUYS ONE HOUR OF RADIO TIME FROM A CHICAGO FM STATION AND BROADCASTS FROM HIS LIVING ROOM SUNDAY NIGHTS AT 10 P.M.

"I TEACH BLACKS TO LOVE BLACKS AND TO HATE INJUSTICE, OPPRESSION AND THE PEOPLE WHO CREATE THIS--WHITE PEOPLE, OF COURSE," HE SAYS.

HE WARNS WHITES: "THE DIE IS CAST, YOU SHALL PAY FOR THE PAST."

"NO MORE NEGRO GENERATIONS WILL GROW UP UNDER THE SAME CONDITIONS AS THIS ONE HAS, THIS I SWEAR," MEEK DECLARES. "I DON'T ADVOCATE RIOTS. I ADVOCATE REVOLUTION."

HIS TYPE OF REVOLUTION CALLS FOR ISOLATION OF NEGRO NEIGHBORHOODS--ANYPLACE WHERE NEGROES ARE IN A MAJORITY--FROM WHITE COMMUNITIES. ONCE IN CONTROL, THE BLACKS SHOULD LIVE IN COOPERATIVES AND SHARE RESPONSIBILITIES AND INCOME.

"INTEGRATION IS IMPOSSIBLE," HE SAYS:

IN LOS ANGELES, THERE IS RON KARENGA, 25, WITH A MASTER'S DEGREE IN POLITICAL SCIENCE (AFRICAN STUDIES) FROM UCLA. HE IS FOUNDER OF AN ORGANIZATION KNOWN SIMPLY AS US, A GROUP WHICH STRESSES THE AFRICAN HERITAGE OF THE AMERICAN NEGRO. ITS MEMBERS WEAR AFRICAN DRESS, HAVE THEIR OWN HOLIDAYS, CONDUCT MARRIAGE CEREMONIES AND OBSERVE "UHURU DAY" ON AUG. 11 TO COMMEMORATE THE WATTS RIOT.

"BECAUSE WE ARE REVOLUTIONARIES, WE ARE CONCERNED WITH WHAT IS EXPEDIENT, NOT WITH WHAT IS MORAL. WE ARE A PEACEFUL PEOPLE HISTORICALLY. BUT WHAT WE ARE CONCERNED WITH IS OUR OPPOSITION AND THE QUESTION IS HOW WE RESPOND AND HOW WE DEFEND OURSELVES.

"THE OLD CIVIL RIGHTS LEADERS TALKED ABOUT MORALITY. WE TALK ABOUT POWER. THIS FRIGHTENS WHITE PEOPLE BECAUSE IT HAS NEVER BEEN DISCUSSED BEFORE."

SOURCE STATED THE DISCUSSION CENTERED AROUND THREE MAIN ISSUES: ONE, MEMBERSHIP, TWO, ORGANIZATIONAL PROCEDURE AND, THREE, MEETING PLACES. REGARDING MEMBERSHIP, THE DISCUSSION PRIMARILY CONCERNED WHETHER A MEMBERSHIP FEE SHOULD BE CHARGED. IT WAS DECIDED OVER CARMICHAEL'S OBJECTION THAT AN ORGANIZATION SHOULD PAY TEN DOLLARS AND ONE OR TWO DOLLARS FEE FOR INDIVIDUALS. CARMICHAEL FELT AN ORGANIZATION SHOULD NOT HAVE TO PAY A FEE. NOTHING WAS SETTLED REGARDING ORGANIZATIONAL PROCEDURE. THE DISCUSSION REGARDING THIS CONCERNED WHETHER THE BUF IS ACTUALLY AN ORGANIZATION TYPE OF A GROUP OR WHETHER IT IS A MASS MOVEMENT. THE MEETING THEN DECIDED THEY NEEDED LARGER SPACE FOR FUTURE ORGANIZATIONAL MEETINGS. IT WAS AGREED THE NEXT BUF MEETING ON MARCH NINETEENTH NEXT WOULD BE HELD AT THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL TEMPLE.

ACCORDING TO THE SOURCE A SNCC MEETING WAS HELD IN ANOTHER PORTION OF THE SAME TEMPLE FOLLOWING THE BUF MEETING. [REDACTED]

JAMES FOREMAN:

(applause). What goes before us lies the open grave. Like men will face the cowardly _____. We're fighting back. (applause)

Brothers and sisters, our role here today is to welcome all our guests to the platform; come on up brother, come on up, all of them. Here's Bro. CARMICHAEL, Bro. RAP BROWN, come on baby, come on, come on, come on (applause). We got Bro. BOBBY SEALE, the chairman of the Black Panther Party, give him a hand, Bro. RAP BROWN, all right, all right, give them all a hand (applause). Bro. BROWN, Bro. SEALE, Bro. CARMICHAEL, let's give them a big hand again. (applause) All right, one more round of applause before we sit down.

Now, yesterday, February 17th, was HUEY NEWTON's birthday and there was a gigantic celebration up in Oakland, California. Bro. BOBBY SEALE, the chairman of the Black Panther Party, has a new way of saying happy birthday to HUEY which he probably will ask you to do when he comes; he's coming up to speak to us next. In addition to that tremendous information titulated by Bro. STOKELY CARMICHAEL who has been around through all capitals of the world, revolutionary capitals, that is, let's give him a hand. (applause) He has come back to tell us about

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

many of the observations that he's made spirited in the philosophy and the dynamism which is driving him in the new phase of black liberation in 1968. In addition to that Bro. RAP BROWN is here; you know he's been a representative of us in Manhattan and nine boroughs of New York. He's out here on some legal consultation but he's _____. Let's give Bro. BROWN a hand. (applause)

Last night was the first time that Bro. BROWN left outside of the confines of Manhattan and these nine counties in some months. But he still has the same old fire and he's going to talk to us today, Bro. RAP BROWN, (applause) all right.

Now we should certainly understand that celebrating HUEY's birthday must not be stopped on February 17th, but must begin on February the 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, and on and on and on, because Bro. NEWTON is in jail and he's in jail for us. He's not in jail for himself, he's in jail for us. (applause) And he's in jail for us because he believes that there should be no more occupation of the black community by a foreign racist gestapo cops and that's why he's in jail, do you understand? (applause) We must never forget that message. We must never forget the message that Bro. NEWTON has tried to articulate and for which he is in jail and for which he will not die and for which he will be set free; he will be set free. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Now, there are several things which I could go ahead on and try to rap to you but that would be beyond the scope of my ability, my intelligence, when we have all the star-studded program here. What I want to do, brothers and sisters, is just to say something that I've been saying around the country because it's important, because you see the reason that this meeting is late and we must understand that people in this audience must understand the reason that this meeting was late. We contracted for this auditorium, you'll remember it was less than one week ago and less than a week and a half ago and there were a whole lot of delays. One of the delays was that we had to put up say $4,000 instead of the ordinary $1,500. In addition to that they say we have to put up $10,000 security bond because the niggers who come here won't know how to act and we going to tear up the place, you dig it, see, that's what they say. (applause) All right. So now we said now listen, we said Bro. CARMICHAEL's been around and were going to have this rally not only to let him say this but also to support Bro. TIJERINA who's in jail in Mexico, but the main thing we want to get the message over in Southern California about what was happening to Bro. HUEY so we said OK man we will put up the $10,000, I know you didn't think we could dig it, but we had it so here's your $10,000. (applause) Now, after we got the $10,000 and the $4,000, then they pulled a whole

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

new trick today, they called out the Army and the Army ain't but six blocks away from here and you got to understand that so be careful going home (laughter) I'm telling you what I know. Four blocks from here is the National Guard. Inside the arena they wanted to have cops walking all around so that the brothers could get mad with them and somebody would start something and then they would bring in the National Guard and bring in the Army and we would all be sitting up here you see in a little isolated van and they'd try to mow us down, and don't believe it baby, this is as good an extermination camp as any of them right in here, you understand? (applause) All right. So we say we ain't going to make the Los Angeles Sports Arena on February 18, concentration camp number 2, where we all peacefully walk to the gas chambers, you understand. So we've been up there, we told the police we didn't want any police walking on the inside of these arenas inside the audience, that the brothers here could protect us, the Black Panther Party and the brothers from _____ could provide all the security that we needed, and we didn't need them inside here. (applause) So that's the reason the brothers were late we said now all right look here, this is the finest example of young black leadership that we have, BOBBY SEALE, HUEY NEWTON, not brother HUEY NEWTON, RAP BROWN, STOKELY CARMICHAEL, you all stay out there til we get

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

this down straight, cause we don't want them pig cops coming in here and mowing down our folks on February the 18th, you dig it? So now after we got that straight then the brothers came on in so let's give them another great big applause for coming in. (applause)

Now that leads up to the message brothers, that we've been talking around this country cause it's very important that we say it time and time and time again, cause one of the ways the man tries to destroy the liberation movement is to say we will pluck off some leaders, if we pluck off some leaders, assassinate some leaders then folks will get confused they will be stray, but we know by your presence that the mass of the black people will never go astray, will never go astray, and will always carry forth with the struggle, (applause) but, and I'm saying this and I understand the National Guard is six blocks away and the Army is four, whatever it is, vice versa, and they got them cops out there, here's what we have to do, baby, we have to say that if you keep on, not this, you know Bro. CARMICHAEL's gotten a lot of threats, Bro. BROWN's gotten a lot of threats, I know about that, Bro. SEALE's gotten a lot of threats, Bro. NEWTON is already in jail, Bro. KARENGA gets a lot of threats, he's going to be here, I hope he's here now, if he's going to come on in. Well, anyway, he's coming on in, and he's gotten a

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

lot of threats, I know about Bro. JOE, so what we have decided is that we have a grand strategy in 1968, we ain't going to reveal all of it, but we're going to reveal one aspect of the new strategy. We admit that 1967 was a year of high tide of resistance, so we say that the way that we are going, one of the ways, not the only way, is to say publicly and publicly, and publicly and publicly that we have a mutual defense pact and if you assassinate any of these black leaders you must be prepared for instant and protractive retribution. (applause) Now it is not enough just to say instant and protractive retribution because some brother may be picking up a wine bottle and cutting somebody, is that the kind of retribution, that ain't the retribution we are talking about. We are talking about selective, directive, protractive retribution on police stations, on fire stations, on power plants, on war factories, you dig it baby? That's what we are talking about, all over this country, all over this country. (applause) Now, in addition to that we are talking about protractive and instant retribution on some of these Southern governors, especially on these brothers have been struggling with all their lives on some of these mass, some of them out here in the far West, you dig it? Some of them out here, out in Watts I know, all right, we talking about protractive retribution especially on these white gestapo cops that occupy

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

our community, that's what we are talking about. (applause)

So that being the case, that being the case you understand that we've been giving out figures and what have you in terms of individuals but we won't do that today. That being the case let me just introduce the next speaker by telling you something that has also happened which is a part of the strategy. You may have heard, say, of the merge of SNCC and the Black Panther Party for Self Defense; well, the merge is not the correct word because neither organization has given up its name, but what we have established and what we are working to establish throughout the West Coast and throughout the country is two new concepts: operational unity that will lead to a brotherhood of black people, you dig it? That's what we are talking about. (applause) Now we feel that this operational unity is important because baby the man has all of these little things which your brothers are going to run down to you. Riot tanks, _____ guns, all the stuff that's every night on television, so we got to have a new form of strategy and one of those new forms of strategy is to try to consolidate groups that are moving in the same direction with the same political perspective, etc. Now the Black Panther Party for Self Defense is an organization that has recruited and has trained and disciplined many of the brothers whom we call the "field niggers", us, all of us, the "field niggers" now come on,

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

come on, I know, come on, get with it (applause) get with it. There ain't no claps. What do we mean when we say the "field niggers?" We talking about the niggers that got out of jail, niggers that are winos and junkies and _____ got a new lease on life, we going to fight the main enemy, baby, the U. S. Government and all its _____, you dig it? So the brothers have done that. This is not a middle class movement, the cats have got a whole lot of brothers off the streets and they are moving together and those are the cats that's going to lead this revolution and don't let nobody fool you baby; it will not be those of us who are half way between the house and the field. You dig it? No, not us. It will be the field niggers baby and so therefore we feel that we and SNCC who have been trying to develop this around the country Black National Party with the Panthers assembled must unite with these brothers. So its an operational unity that will help to save many people, will help us to forward the greatest struggle, you will hear more about that; last nite they drafted me as the minister of foreign affairs in addition to my other duties; another new title, more work, dig it? They also drafted Bro. RAP BROWN as minister of justice, an appropriate title, how about that, minister of justice. (applause)

All right brother, I'm going to let you speak, brother. And now, brother say I'm talking too long, going to take up the

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

whole program, I don't mean to do that, but all I am here to say brothers is that it is absolutely essential that we have a gut reaction that only can come from brotherhood, gut reaction to brothers like CLEVELAND SELLARS who is down in Orangeberg, gut reaction to Bro. MAX STANFORD who is still in jail in Queens, you dig it, gut reaction to many other brothers across this country that are in jail and I think that today we are showing these kinds of reactions and emotions toward each other and we will be able to not only unite say SNCC, the Black Panther Party for Self Defense, but we will be able to get a whole lot of other groups across this country to form this operational unity, keep their own identity but establish a brotherhood of black people and that's what we want. So lets give all these brothers a big hand for being out here. (applause) All right, Bro. WALTER BREMOND, come on brother, where are you, what's happening now, where's Bro. WALTER? I give to you now the chairman and M.C. of the meeting, Bro. WALTER BREMOND. Thank you very much. (applause)

WALTER BREMOND: _____ black people so lets give Bro. JAMES a hand. (applause)

It's indeed my pleasure to introduce the next speaker to you. Here's a cat thats got a lot of sun, he's got a lot of heart and he's committed to the liberation of men. Some folks say

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

he ain't a militant, but we know where he is. When the Black Youth Conference was looking for a place, you know, with _____, we went to a cat by the name of Rev. TOM KILGORE, so I would like to introduce to you Rev. TOM KILGORE, pastor of Second Baptist Church, let's give him a hand. (applause)

REV. TOM KILGORE: Ladies and gentlemen, in the halls of this arena there are peace petitions. In Vietnam thousands of people are dying uselessly and all too many of them are black people from the United States of America. (applause) who are dying for a country in which they are not free. (applause) I come to you as a representative of the church - that militant phase of the church that has never compromised and that has believed in peace and freedom for all people. I know there are grave doubts, I know many of you have written the church off, but I am one in the church that hasn't written anybody off that's still willing to work for freedom and especially to see that black people in America live with dignity and honor. (applause) I pastor a church that's considered a prestigious church, but I know that my job as a prophet is to stand on the firing line and to help and work where the basic things of life are at stake and I come this evening to bring my greetings and especially to say let every one of us sign this peace petition. Let every one of us say and keep saying that we ought to be out of Vietnam and back

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

here clearing up conditions in the United States of America.
(applause) I greet you and I want to tell you, maybe some of you haven't been close to the church for a long time but there are a whole lot of us in the church who are sensitive and who are fighting and giving their lives for the same valid principles for which you are fighting and giving yours and I come as a representative of the church without any equivocation or any shame to say that we as we carry on from day to day are conscious of the vast struggle and I know the irrelevance of the church in so many areas but I have not written it off and I stay there because I believe in it and I believe that it has a message. Neither have I written you off because I believe that you, as I said to our congregation this morning, men like STOKELY CARMICHAEL have a message to tell this country in a time like this.
(applause) And I hope America will listen for I want to see America an America where all people can live together in peace and in freedom. This is what I have been preaching for all these years and there are segments of the oldest black institution we have, the black church, that's still preaching that. Thank you and God bless you. (applause)

WALTER BREMOND: That cat is talking about some righteous stuff because we got 37% of our black brothers dying over there in that racist oppressive war in Vietnam and they need

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

to be right here, not tomorrow but they need to be right here right now. (applause) That's what I call the black soul but I got to tell you all about one thing like that man that's got all kinds of people here and everytime you stand up it makes it pretty tough for security, so just feel it and pat your foot when you want to stand, all right.

Brother FOREMAN has already talked about our next speaker, he's a cat who is doing it, like I mean he's righteously doing it and he's right down there with the brothers in the street. Close friend of Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON, a brother of Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON, a brother who is willing to give his life for Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON. I like to introduce to you at this time Bro. BOBBY SEALE, chairman of Black Panther Party for Self Defense. (applause)

BOBBY SEALE: Thank you brothers and sisters. I'm going to explain something. I'm going to try to give you some insight as to who our black brother HUEY P. NEWTON is. You notice I didn't say "was". You've already had MALCOLM X, no "was", "is". Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON is now chained in jail in Oakland, California. He's charged with murder of a pig cop. (applause) He's charged with the wounding of another and has another couple of more charges of so called kidnaping and an ex-felon with a gun. The brother has soul, wait a minute, his soul is for black people to survive within the confines of racist, decadent America. This is the brother's soul. Watch; the brother with this perspective of the situation, the oppressive situation the black people are subjected to within the confines of this racist system, this perspective on how to deal with the situation is in fact what you might call really a new level. The brother teaches that politics is war without bloodshed and that war is politics with bloodshed. The brother understands that the white power structure makes many political decisions upon our heads that we disagree with. The brother understands or teaches and gives what we call a functional definition for black power, starts out with a functional definition of power. That power is the ability to define phenomenon and make it act in a desired manner. Now wait a minute. Let's go back to that word phenomenon. Black Power, black people, social phenomenon, 400 years of oppression by the racist power structure, the racist dogs and pigs in this country. We must understand and define this first and get some power, develop and organize in a fashion where after we define the situation we can make it act in a desired manner. Black people situation is political. Now, we look at the power structure and how it uses power, wait, let's say what the real power is. We must understand that it's not green power because this is a bunch of baloney. The brother shows you, if you get a chance to get it run down and I'm going to run it down, that a very good example

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

in the Civil War when the North and the South were fighting against each other, the North had some green power, Yankee money and the South had some green power, Confederate money. Both of them had forces and guns. The North out maneuvered the South had all the guns and force and defined the South's money as not really being money any more. They burned it up in the streets. Where was the real power at? the guns and the force. Can we check that out? (applause)

Black people, the period of reconstruction, were promised 40 acres and two mules, 40 acres and two mules, but we didn't get this 40 acres and two mules, we got the butt of a gun, the lynching rope, etc. But we'd have had that 40 acres and two mules to every black man. Black people would have had some ownership of land. Black people would have had a chance to have constructed within the confines of this setup their own institution to control their own communities and control their own lives and have the power to determine the destiny of their lives in their communities, or wherever they might live, if we had had this 40 acres and two mules. Because by owning this 40 acres and two mules at that time we, this country was predominately agricultural at the time, we could have wheeled and dealed and operated in such a fashion that the power structure would have had to answer our basic political desires and needs. Also, if we had been promised the 40 acres and two mules, the 40 acres, we might have had a chance then to compete against General Motors, Standard Oil and the major industries now who are over 100 years old. Maybe you didn't know that Standard Oil started off in 1860 and ten years later they were refining some 80 million barrels of oil. Now, these big industries, these white businessmen are the ones who robbed us of this 40 acres and two mules, they got it right now. (applause) What I'm trying to hip you to brothers is that in 1869 the man had the land because he bought Alaska in 1869 right in the period of Reconstruction. That's when we were supposed to receive the 40 acres and two mules. That's when we would have had the power. That's when we would have had the land to live on and survive, to organize amongst ourselves. That's one form of power I've been talking about, is ownership of land. The other form of power is ownership and the control of the industry by the peoples in the community by whatever system you design to do it. But there's a third form of power that we must understand that exists; it definitely exists. It's commonly referred to as a military power which the Black Panther Party for Self Defense calls a self defense power. Guns, organized in the black communities is a form of power. Everytime the power structure makes a political decision on a group of peoples _____ and the people disagree with it the power structure sends in guns and force upon the peoples to try and make them submit to those political decisions that do not serve them. (applause) We

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

are going to have to understand what power really is. The Vietnamese in Vietnam understand what power is. They understand, they are using guns and force to defend themselves, (applause) in an organized fashion. Only in the relation to their terrain. We have another terrain. I'm not talking about you going up in no hills nowhere. I'm talking about right where you are at your home. Right there in Detroit. Did you see it in Detroit? You remember that? Some more organizing. The brothers was dealing in righteous power. In a 200 square block area in Detroit these cats drove out United States paratroopers for four hours. (applause) The brothers is up tight. Every black man here must have a shotgun in his home to defend himself and his family against the racist gestapo police who occupy our community like a foreign troop. (applause) Now maybe you saying that, is this the limit of HUEY's perspective? On the contrary. If you ever have a chance to read the platform and the program of the Black Panther Party for Self Defense the point I just finished talking on was only one point, point #7, and point #7 of the platform of the Black Panther Party says that we want an immediate end to police brutality and murder of black people. That's only one point. (applause) Point #1 says we want freedom, we want power to determine the destiny of our own black communities. Point #2 says we want an end by the white racist businessman who

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

robs us in our black communities. Point #3 says we want full employment for our people. Point #4 says we want decent housing fit for shelter of human beings. Point #5 deals with education and us being educated with the true decadence of this racist American society and our place in society and who we are in _____. Point #8 deals with the fact that we want all of the black brothers who are in city prisons, that Solodad, Folsom, that's Quentin, that's Chino, all the joints we want them free because they haven't had a fair trial, they've all been tried by white juries and none of them are their peers.(applause)

Now, out of this platform and program HUEY said we must start working somewhere on a practical level. So, in the San Francisco, Oakland Bay area, in October, November of 1966, cops begin to get patrolled. We didn't go out there with just a camera and a tape recorder. We went out there with a shotgun, just like his, lots of shotguns and when the cop look at the shotguns he say, "yeah that boy'll kill me if I get to jive him, and he knows it." (applause) That was dealing in a form of power organized. The brothers just wouldn't throw the gun in their hand. The brothers were trained safety with those guns because they realize and was taught, they were taught to realize that it was necessary that this gun is political and is here to defend black people in the black communities against the racist police brutality. When we patrol cops up there we come out of the cars five strong, call up

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

another car, another car come up five strong, that's when a cop stops some brother on the corner and we line up, stand ten feet away, they got some little jive law saying every citizen got a right to observe a cop carrying out his duty, we observed him, but we observed him with our eyes, he got a 12 gauge shotgun, we have one. We got 3.57's, we got .45's, everything just like he got. (applause)

This was the practical program that was instituted. It's instituted to another level. The black people in their homes. Put a shotgun in your home. The cops is in your community. He's not off in a white community brutalizing white people, he's down in the black community brutalizing black people so you can patrol him from your window. (applause) Joe, John, and Jim, who all live in the same block, and Harry and Edward and Baboo and the rest of them are supposed to be up tight together to know that two or three _____ when they are home and around that they checking out up and down the block, that if they see some pig I say get ready to shoot, or brutalize some brother, that they are going to come to the aid of that brother with four or five shotguns quickly. (applause) That is a practical program of dealing in black power. (applause) Organizing from block to block in every black community across this nation. That we will defend ourselves against the racists attacks by the racists period on Point #7 we

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

started. Reason we really started on Point #7 is because if you wanted to hold a meeting or hold a demonstration concerning employment, housing, decent education, etc. the man or red stripes will send down the pigs to intimidate you with his pistols. So if we are going to hold a red stripe we are going to hold a red stripe with brothers there with arms, etc. to make sure that the black people be defended and not let those cops brutalize them just because the people want to redress their grievances as it says by the man's own jive law. (applause) So, I want to bring the point to this level, that HUEY P. NEWTON is a political prisoner. The lawyers told us that if it didn't have political racial overtones HUEY P. NEWTON, they haven't got enough evidence to convict HUEY, that he could get him out tomorrow. The man wants to railroad HUEY and drop a pill on him. Black people have to support HUEY P. NEWTON. (applause) Black Power, black people in this room. Black people have to stand up behind HUEY P. NEWTON. HUEY P. NEWTON was standing up for black people. (applause) I think it's necessary to go a little farther in getting you to understand the line of demarcation between us and the enemy and who the real enemy is. We say the pig cops. That's true. We say the racists, the clan, the Birchites, the Minutemen, etc., that's true. But that power structure allows and organizes and maintains the racism that goes on in this country as a whole; that power structure, it's very, very important and that pig cop is the real power of the power structure. Don't let anybody take that out of your mind because that's where the real power starts. Before Watts there was only 1,300 cops. There are 6,000 cops in Los Angeles now patrolling black people, and 3½ years ago there were only 350 cops in Oakland, there are over 1,000 cops there now patrolling black people. San Francisco doubled its force from 550. All across this nation in every major metropolis they are doubling and tripling and quadtripling these police forces. We cannot sit aside, you must organize. All these black people in the world like brother CARMICHAEL talks about, the man they got us outnumbered, he got us out organized. That's where we got to get up to. (applause) This is what Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON was doing. Organized force to defend ourselves within our community. Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON was the type of a brother even when he saw a brother was causing his situation to be such in a way that if he just had a chance to say a word or to _____ ran he used to doing that, that's just a hangup, even when he knew the brother was kind of wrong, Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON would go out there and go down with the brother first, regardless of whether the brother was wrong or not. (applause) This is what I'm trying to get over. Brothers soul is his desire to free his people; is his desire to see his people organized in a fashion politically to deal with the racist white power structure.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

To deal with the man on a political level. To deal with the man in defining our situation. And when we talk about power being the ability to define phenomenon and make him act in a desired manner. We define the situation. We have to have this power to make those cops act in a desired manner; that they must withdraw from our communities, that we want our own police forces, our own courts, our own institutions. This is what's happening when you start talking about power and we must deal with it in this fashion. In the confines of every institution that exists we must try to control it. We must control them. Our people have to be educated. Our people have to understand how in fact we will get the land and the bread. We can't keep going on with long dissertations and outlines and a bunch of esoteric stuff because when you walk down the block and try to talk to one of these brothers here, talk about, you know the basic socio-economic structure, brother, and the adverse conditions that we're subjected to within the confines of our community, brother say man, later, man, I got no time for that stuff now. (applause) But when you get ready to organize brothers, when you get ready to -- brothers they say man, you know that pig out there, I say yes, he say man we going to organize with some guns, with some force, when these dudes start getting down wrong, man, we are going to defend ourselves. They say, I can dig it, baby, I can

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

dig it. (applause) He becomes educated in the process. And we don't run him away because he got a process on his head. The first thing we are wondering is this here -- what kind of soul does he got and is he ready to defend his people, that's first, not whether he got a natural or not, cause a whole lot of brothers out there been fighting them pigs with processes on their head for years and years, that's very important. I don't give a damn whether you got a process or a natural, a cop's club going to hit the head because you black. (applause) In the process of organizing the brother he will decide whether he wants the natural or not. I'm not going to write the revolutionary song for the brother, he can write his own revolutionary song, that's what you've done yourselves. Before Watts, all down in Los Angeles, I lived in Los Angeles for 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ years, all the time we didn't have nothing but processes but after awhile all of a sudden brothers popped out you see with naturals, you wrote your own revolutionary song, I didn't have to write it for you. (applause) You want to save yourselves. You want to be self and when you involve yourself on a practical level and at the real level in a situation this is where you become more educated besides the book. The book is very, very good to learn by, very good to learn by, but there's another way to learn too by doing. And we found that a lot of times along with

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

the book, learning by doing is even better at that. This is very important. These brothers here have done. These brothers have dealt with it on the streets, on the block in Sacramento, California, all over the place. They've dealt with it. These brothers are organized and many more who are still up there. They know how to deal with the man in a fashion that's for real. There's no jive out there. There's none of this stuff about man he could be caught, I think I got to go take a leak now; we don't have that. (laughter) All right. I want to ask you, I want to say to you, want to explain to you the need for having our Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON set free. Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON, as far as I'm concerned, information I got, the man tried to murder Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON. The man kind of set Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON up. But the man lost on that game because he was dealing with the real brothers. Now Bro. HUEY is going to be set free. You are going to set him free. I want every black man in this house to stand up and we're all going to say "free HUEY, free HUEY or else, free HUEY or else, free HUEY or else." Wooooo - look at that organization. (applause) Brothers, I want to thank you. Black Power on a for real level. Thank you. (applause)

WALTER BREMOND: That's out of sight. Going to be moving rather rapidly at this point. This is not just a black rally today. It's a black-brown rally and Bro. REIES TIJERINA

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

is also going to be here. (long applause) As I understand he's en route now from Delano with Bro. CESAR CHAVEZ and let's pray that they make it. (applause) But before he arrives I think we should have an opportunity to meet his brother who is sitting up here on the stage with us. I'm not going to introduce him. I think that one of his brown brothers should do that. And I would like to call upon the stage Bro. MONTEZUMA SPADA from the Brown Beret. (applause)

MONTEZUMA SPADA: Bro. SEALE said a little while ago that the black man has been facing a war of oppression from the Gavacho, that is what we call "whitey", (applause) for the last 400 years. For the Gavacho has been in the Southwest for over 100 years and we have been facing a war of extermination for that time. (applause) Right now there is a war, a war in the streets, a war in the hills of Northern New Mexico and right here today is one of the men that are carrying on that war against the Gavacho, because he is doing us all in and he will do us all in if we don't fight him. (applause) For we have got to fight him. (applause) And we have got to fight. (wild applause) On (Spanish phrase) ----- (applause).

Ladies and gentlemen, I'm glad to be here with you and I bring greetings from all the people from New Mexico. (applause) I'm very sorry that REIES couldn't make it here this evening, I

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

think he missed his plane or something, so I'm going to tell you a few words, that I'm very happy to be here and it's an honor for me to be here and most of all that the brown people and the black people are getting together united, (applause) to fight one enemy in the U.S. and the same enemy that is trying to suppress the whole world. (applause) _____ signed the treaty with the black people and that's one of the things that gave us more courage to go ahead and to go ahead a little stronger and go all the way and we want the support from the black people and I think that the black people would like to have our support and fight _____ together. (applause) I think that it's a shame that the first class citizen is treated like third class, fourth class, is treated like if we were stepsons to this country. Anything that we try to do to protect our rights is a violation of the law. We can do nothing to please the gestapo. (applause) I think they worn out the locks on the penitentiary doors and I'm getting tired of going in and out. (applause) Everytime they hear the name of Terrinas they start jumping. It is not because we are a big mass or a strong people but they know that the Terrinas are trying to lead the people on the right direction and trying to petition and discipline the people to learn how to defend their rights, even if we're going to have to spill some blood. That doesn't mean nothing to me. (applause) I served in the World

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

War II war, I made it back, but if I was of draft age I think that I would rather serve five years in the penitentiary or hard labor than go to Vietnam. (applause) Well I think that's about all and I think that REIES' finally made it, so I guess he'll _____ you can hear it from him. So thank you very much. (applause)

WALTER BREMOND: Viva to TIJERINA, viva to TIJERINA. (applause) All right. Like we are going to be a little late and you all warming up and what I just hear brother REIES TIJERINA just walked in. Where is he? (applause) All right, while he's getting ready _____ I am going to tell you all, like the brother ain't talking he's making revolution in the hills of New Mexico. (applause) And he just don't talk about brownness he also talks about blackness, but he also talk about redness too and that's the Indian cause it's a struggle, baby. Here he comes - REIES TIJERINA, viva REIES. (applause) You all just sit down now. I knew you all was going to warm up before the evening was over. Just go ahead and sit down. You all let me tell you something. _____ another brother and he's from the hills of Colorado and this is Bro. ~~CORRY~~ GONZALES. (applause) The man's in trouble. They really don't know it, he's in trouble. And I really don't care if we are going to be a little late with our program. I'm going to take my time now. Is that all right? (applause) Bro.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

REIES will speak in a few moments, but we've heard some very, very, very provocative talk, nitty gritty black talk thus far, so let's give Bro. BOBBY SEALE another hand. (applause) And I'll bet you some of you even forgot that black militant minister up here by the name of Rev. TOM KILGORE who was talking about that peace petition. (applause) So I'm going to ask the brothers to move back because at this point we are going to have a little entertainment and it's out of sight. A dance from South Africa _____, so let's give them a hand. (applause)

REIES TIJERINA: I will be fighting against time.

I'm not used to speaking ten minutes, but you people are looking so brilliant, so pretty and I feel a communication between your faces and my heart and it's going to be hard to get rid of this place or have them move me out of this place. Ladies and gentlemen, I'm speaking in English. As you know Anglo in the land of the free told me not to speak my language, therefore I must agree. I must please him. My computer computes in Spanish. My soul is Spanish, but --- or rather Indio is Spanish, Indio is Spanish, my mother was an Indian and my father was a Spaniard. The Spaniard was kicked out of the continent by the Anglo and the Indian was put in a reservation and I was left alone as an orphan.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

So I stand here as an orphan against the greatest power ever built by tax payers, the United States Government. (applause)

Ladies and gentlemen, allow me to speak out of the bottom of my heart. The enemy of justice, the enemy of mankind, the ruler of _____, the white man, he is always poisoning the minds of the public and saying the Terrina is a violent man, the Terrina is advocating revolution. The Terrina is breeding poison, hatred among racists. Of course he doesn't recall that he wrote the black legend against Spain, against Communism, against Russia, against China, against DE GAULE, but he doesn't want us to criticize him. But I will because I see nothing good in him. (applause) The white man proud to say that he still recalls and remembers when one of his said "give me freedom--- give me liberty or give me death." I say that we have more right, more cultural right, more blood right, more legal right, more special right, more human right to say "give me freedom" - not _____. (applause) In all this so-called state welfare assistance and the war on poverty and all that stuff that this Roman Empire is now using to postpone time to win time, to, he's fighting against time because he's running out of time and out of friends. He no longer has any friends and tonight in these few minutes I like to tell the white man, the good one I mean, to repent and join the black, the Indian and the Spaniard or the Mexican. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

You know, that Indian called Crazy Horse one time said to his warriors, to his braves, he says "Today is a beautiful day to die," when he was going to fight that white yellow hair, what was his name? CUSTARD? (laughter) The white man, the white man has forgotten that the soul of an oppressed people, the soul of a humble people who is thirsty for justice and freedom, also feels quickness in his soul when we think about dying for our rights. There is sick feeling and _____ in our souls (applause) when we say _____. (applause) I have a very short minute so don't interrupt my minutes because there are very few. He comes around with his foolishness and lies saying "Oh! We're fighting in Vietnam for our _____ to arrive and for the free world. I have never heard that bigger, bigger, low-down rotten liar, never. Ladies and gentlemen that is the reason why we from New Mexico has chosen, has chosen the path of death rather than keep on eating and drinking that powdered milk, even dogs die when they use that dirty, low-down powdered milk and synthetic cheese. It is not the _____, it is not the bombs, it is not _____, ladies and gentlemen that wins the victory and brings peace and brings victory and brings justice to Earth. It is that peculiar, that mystic, that miraculous power of nature vested in creatures. It is _____ creatures when they have no little ones, they run from here and there, but the she dog, she will run, but after she have little

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

puppies she will not run from nobody. She will not run from nobody, and let me tell you one thing, we in New Mexico have little puppies and we will not run from nobody. (applause) Ladies and gentlemen, we cannot invest our life in the lives of the Anglo, of the enemy of mankind, no, he's too big of a liar, he's bringing destruction to the world, he's _____ everything for himself, and he's no good. So, I can no longer trust him. Of course he gets mad because I don't want to talk to him, but that's my business and until he can prove that he believes in God, then I will believe in him. But he thinks he believes in God but he's following the devil. (applause) I'm not joking, I'm not joking. I'm not joking. We have a very serious enemy and a very big and powerful enemy. We are fortunate though to have the colors on our side, to have this the land, many times on our side. I'm learning and am planning to believe that the international events and the _____ all things to be decided on color, on the basis of colors. (applause) The whole future of the United States will be decided on color, that which he hates, that which he hates. Read your Bibles if you are Christians, you will find it in Isaiah, Chapter 14, Verse 13, that the last war on this Earth will be decided on color and race. (applause) That is the reason why the great religious leaders and organizations are no longer _____ about their religion, are no longer back-biting against themselves, ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ they're trying to unite because there is no longer any difference between religions, but in colors, yes, there is difference. (applause) Brothers and sisters, hear my words.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

I speak for half a million Mexican-Americans which I call Indio-Spaniards, because we really are a new breed and as you know a new child is clear of sin as long as he's innocent. And those new breeds are always innocent. The new breeds are trusted by God, but the old races who have accumulated hatred and rath, power, lies, those develop _____ old races can no longer be trusted by God because they know they do not know how to handle or how to honor justice. So we feel that we are _____ Mexico, that's why we are looking _____ groups, those people that are crying out loud for justice. And even though we don't see your faces, but you're crying for justice. Those across the country we feel it through the radio, through the press and through the television. But-can all drive hard to keep your cry from reaching heaven and Earth and hell, but in unity a man like this, so-called rabble rousers and Communists _____ RAP BROWN have heard our cry across the country _____.
(applause) Oh, I don't hate the white man. No, of course not.
I'm not going to be violent against him. All I'm going to do if I'm sleeping and he breaks down my door, I'm going to shoot him between the eyes and I'm going to keep on sleeping. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Oh, he wants to make you believe that I'll go after them, ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ no-no-no. I trap them like a spider. Come over her. I told Governor CARGO of New Mexico, I told him next time four police goes to my room to arrest me without a warrant of arrest I'm going to shoot them as dogs because they have no right. (applause)
So the Governor immediately called the Chief of Police, the State Chief of Police _____ and told him "watch out, that man means what he says, so tell your men to make sure and carry some papers when they go and arrest _____. " Brothers and sisters now the world will all hear about us. Now our enemy our government knows about us because we have _____ the right to cross the country _____ through these well selected men.
There's no gold in the world that we could even exchange for man, _____ of men like CARMICHAEL, RAP BROWN, CESAR CHAVEZ, CORKY GONZALES and your servant of New Mexico. What we did was to arrest two United States Forest Rangers Officers that were not in the custom of having New Mexicans arrest them. That's _____ and boy you should see the whole Pentagon. Everybody got angry.
In the courthouse of New Mexico there was nothing done all these pig cops State Police ran like coyotes, even though they had good shotguns in their hands they ran. Some day I will have not ten minutes but probably half an hour or more, I will speak until your fire goes out. Thank you very much and don't forget that

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

we have been selected by the destiny and the forces of nature especially in this continent to march and militate together, fight together, stick together and if we die we die with honor. God bless you. (applause)

WALTER BREMOND: Ladies and gentlemen now I want a round for KARENGA, chairman of US. (applause)

KARENGA: This has to be short and sweet, all praises due to the black man. (applause) I like to start out talking very quickly about power because everybody's concerned about power today and unless we stop being interested in making the reference rather than the reality we'll still be nowhere, still holding rallies, still making speeches and the white man will still be marching outside. So now what we want to say to black people is understand there are basically four areas in which you can get power. The first is political office, second is community organization, third is coalition and alliance and the fourth is disruption. We will discuss that more at length (laughter) In terms of political office we must understand that any politician that wants to be a politician has to meet certain criteria that black people put down, they cannot just take office and say that is sufficient in itself. That's why we can't give HATCHER any credit; that's why we can't give STOKES any credit, because they must be given time to prove themselves and there are five things

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

that you have to ask them about themselves if they are going to call themselves black power politicians; first accountability, who are they accountable to. Are they accountable to us or are they accountable to the people that pay their campaign. Second, do they expose the system as corrupt and unworkable, and the white man as a liar a thief or a dog or a murderer and someone we can never work with, only work against. Can they say that? And can they mean that, or do they see this great office holding has something that all Americans should belong to? Do they see this as an end in itself? Do they see this as a great honor for Negroes finally to become Americans when everybody else is finally becoming human. (applause) The next thing they must do is play the power of disruption and bring up controversy issues like the war in Vietnam, like WALTER JENKINS in the bathroom with JOHNSON and like all them other things they're doing. These things have to be brought up to undermine the white man as a very corrupt and vile thing and unless it is done they cannot claim to be anything except puppets.

Finally, they have to ask the questions do they support black nationalism. This is the only legitimate thing and this is a very beautiful day because this day shows after so long the triumph of black nationalism that is the love of black people and the defense of those black people and that's what we are supposed

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

to be here for today to talk about the defense of black people personified in the defense of Bro. HUEY NEWTON. (applause)

The second area of political power is community organization. How can we organize black people? The first thing we've got to do is accept the concepts of operational unity. That is to say we've got to stop putting labels on people, talking about bourgeoisie this and grass root that, a nigger's a nigger in front of white people, does not matter. (applause) So some niggers get killed faster, some niggers have _____ money and some niggers get killed in court while others get killed in the street; it's the same thing and black people got to realize that. We are very happy to say that we have been promoting operational unity since 1966 when we had the first black power rally out at Will Rodgers Park. We have said then that black people must form a united front for black people and that front should be for everybody whether it's Uncle Tom preacher, Uncle Tom mailman or a nigger at random they should all sit down and talk about their future. (applause) So then at that time we organized what was called the Black Congress and more black people should have come and should keep coming to Black Congress. And the next Congress for some of you all don't know about it NAACP come, the Urban League come, Black Nationalists come, everybody comes and has something to say and

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

should say something because I always like to talk, this is a forum for them. But we must do more than that because the white man got his thing together and he knows the name of the game and it's kill, that's what he's doing to us. (laughter) So then we talk about getting the Black United Front and Black Congresses all over the country and unless black people get in order where they can all talk and stop being scared of each other, stop making scare phrases, we got to kill as many, don't be in no troop baby, if you going to kill somebody find out how much it costs. Find out how it can be done and then set about the work of the Lord. (applause) But everybody has to be organized. Can't just be anything, that's why we throw out classes. Ain't but one class, the class of the dispossessed, the class of _____ and we have got to remember that and get rid of those bourgeois grass root terminology. You got to talk about black people cause that's what we all are regardless of how much money we make sometime. We are all black. The third and I'm being brief on that is the area of coalitions and alliance. With whom can we make coalitions and whom can we make alliances. Let's talk about coalitions as a temporary arrangement. We can make a coalition with anybody including the white boy and the same _____ that he got in it something that he wants to get out of it and we do too. Just like for example this question of peace and war. Let the white people run out there and stop blood

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

and stop niggers from going overseas. Let the white man set out there and picket around Century Plaza and let them get beat so they will start moving against the police. We'll send ourselves out there, let us organize our own black ghettos and make a coalition with white people so that white people can add some more internal contradictions in this society and tear it apart. Let them tear it apart as well as us. (applause) And don't get so _____ that everytime you see a black man in a relationship with a white man you think he's being used cause you ain't got no sense. You think that everybody can use you and if a Jew walking down the street and he see a Jew talking to a nigger he say "oooh, another child." That's what a Jew would say. Brother walking down the street and a Jew comes in there and he says "wow man, that man being used." That's from different points of view but if we got our _____ together nobody can use us--- nobody can use us. (applause) Let's talk about how to get white people fighting each other, that's what we got to talk about. Let them shoot each other, let them march and picket and confront each other and after it's all finished we will have a better world. (applause) That's what TIJERINA called a coalition of permanent relation, is called an alliance. That alliance with brothers like TIJERINA and the Brown Beret and all people of color that are doing something. Let us support all people of color everywhere, let the white man call them Communists, let the

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

white man call them anything they want, but let's talk about them as people of color. (applause) You can't talk about how beautiful this thing is and how some people never thought it would come about, but brothers from Mexicans could come up here and support us. How could we ever do that before, but this is a new day and I am glad I lived to see it. (applause) Understand that also we must be glad when the Vietnamese go into their thing. Can you see how beautiful it was last week and all this week when they, check this out, wait a minute, wait a minute. How this man marched in talking about he so bad and this is a lesson to these niggers that are scared of white people. Here's a man that got an embassy in Vietnam, can you dig this _____ got an embassy in Vietnam and the Vietnamese walked in there, sat at the Ambassador's desk, sent a memo to WESTMORELAND and told him to get out and the _____ couldn't do a thing. (applause) So let us make alliances with all the people of color. Ain't no Communists. _____ told us that the question of the 20th Century is a question of the color line. There ain't no way out big interest. All people that have money got white faces. The people that own corporations have white faces, the people that control China _____ have white faces and the people that are killing off got white faces.

Finally, the last power, is the power of disruption. That's in terms of riots if you want it, be scared enough to call it that, revolts or revolutions, whatever you feel like calling it. But understand you got to learn if you going to be political how to be deceptive. So one thing, say 50 other things, and still don't do what you said you were going to do. (laughter) That's why you never hear us, even though you might feel it, you never hear us say, "We going to get this man, we going to get 'em, bla bla bla bla, like this." We always say, "Yeah, we're against violence, right, uh huh, right," but after sundown anything might happen. (laughter) And learn how to stop making statements and start building troops. Learn how to get people organized and disciplined like the brother you see around here. Don't just sit around and make scare phrases. You're a paper tiger like the white man is. The white man's a paper tiger, he burns and he's a scare crow and you can put a match to him if you care, but, he got a thing going and unless you get a thing that's more organized than his, you'll still be holding rallies 20 years from now and you won't have done anything. (applause)

So, in conclusion I'd like to say thanks everybody for coming and supporting Bro. HUEY P. NEWTON because as we know he is a symbolic figure. What happened to him will happen to all black people and don't you forget that and don't you feel that you are escaping from anything. And I'd like to end with a poem we always have by LEROY JONES and it's: "After we've just done our thing and got this man off our back, _____ off our back, his slimy hands out of our pocket and his rope from around our neck, we've won. Can you dig it? Niggers coming out in the street and we doing what we always did, dance in the street and _____, but we call everybody to get serious and then the microphone comes out and says this -- Walk through life beautiful more than anything, stand in sunlight. Walk through life, love all the things that make you strong. Be anything for all the people of Earth. You have brothers you love each other. Change up and look at the world now man as ours. Take it slow you got a long time and a long way to go, but then we have each other and the world. Don't be sorry. Walk on out through sunlight _____ and know. Can you dig it? We on the go for love." (applause)

WALTER BREMOND: I like to bring up on the stage again just for a very few moments but not for entertainment, something very serious, Bro. OSCAR BROWN.

OSCAR BROWN: I warn Bro. WALTER I been up here so much he'll get sick of me, but they figure I have a gift for gab and they wanted me to raise the collection. The collection is to go to the defense of HUEY P. NEWTON. HUEY P. NEWTON is a political prisoner. A prisoner of a war that has, that has been launched against black people. In order that he be defended a sacrifice must be made. It's not enough just to cheer and applaud the militant statement. You have to dig down at this point and come up with the _____ to wage a defense. Come up with a _____ to publicize this case throughout the world in order that the maximum number of people will be able to come to the defense of HUEY NEWTON. The ushers are going to pass among you now with buckets. We want you to make a sacrifice to give not just what it is easy to give but that which is a sacrifice because there are great ---- there _____ a great sacrifice ahead of us and we might as well get into the motion. There are brothers here who have spoken of self defense and it is around that issue that we defend HUEY P. NEWTON. There's also the issue of self expression that many of the brothers have touched on. Expressing ourselves politically. Nothing is possible unless it is politically possible. Politics is the art of persuasion. In order to get to masses of people that you may persuade them in your spirit, you must find ways and means of communicating with them. And that costs money. In order to confront the legal trickery that is going to be raised against you, you need the best legal advice and that costs money.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

X The brother asked me to say something, I'm a little _____ that might inspire you to give a little more. I don't think you need that kind of inspiration. But perhaps it would inspire you if you read in the press over the weekend that President JOHNSON says that he expects a long hot summer. He expects a bad summer. In fact he says he expects several bad

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

summers. He didn't say he was doing anything at all to prevent them. Instead he sent CYRUS VANCE about to advise us all that they are expanding the police departments of every major city in the United States and opening up more jails. But it is -- President JOHNSON seems intent on doing. He's using the black revolution. He's using our demonstrations, our efforts to be free, as an excuse to develop a police state that will silence all opposition to racism. (applause) Don't applaud. Will you please put your hands in your pockets or your purse until you've made a bigger contribution than what you planned on when you came in. When LYNDON JOHNSON wants to process the war in Vietnam he, he knows damn well how to do it. He goes on television, he goes into the newspapers, he goes into the magazines and every possible article is written. Every possible story is told in order to try to justify in the minds of the people the war in Vietnam. If the administration is serious about fighting a war on poverty they would do it the same way but they don't because they're not serious. We are involved in fighting a war on racism. We got to do it the way it's done in other sections of the world. We have got to make our war against racism politically possible. That means we've got to be able to reach the brother who is not here and tell our story to the brother who is not here. We have got to be able to unite our people. In order to unite our people we've got to talk to them. Racism among us has us feeling ashamed of ourselves and

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

afraid of each other. _____ we have got to eradicate that fear. We have to make our freedom politically possible. We have to free our own minds and hearts of the shackles in which they have been held through these many years. And that requires communication. We hope therefore that you have given generously, that you are giving generously in order that the story of HUEY P. NEWTON may be told, maybe put in perspective. Then there's the same people say well all I know is what I read in the papers. If all that the mass of white people know about black people is what they read in the paper they are indeed ignorant. (applause) We must demand, we must find ways and means of communicating with each other. JAMES BROWN just bought a radio station. That brother knows what's happening. Brother JAMES BROWN believes in taking care of business and he knows he has to communicate in order to get the masses with his program. And that's what we must do if we want to get it with our program. If our program is freedom then we must process freedom politically. So that the next time we have this rally every corner of this Sports Arena is filled. (applause)

I think that the collection now is over, I want to thank you very much for this opportunity to unite with you. I want to be a part of the growing unity that is going to unite all colored people everywhere in this war against racism. Thank you very much. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WALTER BREMOND: Next man on the program, like the other brothers, really doesn't need an introduction. _____ that brother JAMES FOREMAN talked about. It's my pleasure to introduce to you the minister of justice for the Black Panther Party for Self Defense, the chairman of SNCC, Bro. RAP BROWN. (applause)

RAP BROWN: Solid brother. They tell me that we running overtime but I figure if they can give the Los Angeles Lakers overtime, and the Los Angeles Lakers ain't never burned nothing but cigarettes, they can give us overtime, we burned Watts. (applause)

I want to raise the question with black people here tonight. A question that's relevant to all black people and oppressed people across the world. The question is what happens when there is no redress of grievance. See, black people in America have never had a machinery that spoke adequately for the redress of grievances and to the lack of redress of grievances in this country. In other words justice has never been a reality for black people in this country. You've got to begin to look at America and its oppressor's nature and then you begin to understand the revolutionary struggle that oppressed people are engaged in throughout the world. The revolution that this country is facing will be a revolution of dispossessed people. That means

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mexican-Americans, Puerto Ricans, blacks, American-Indians and any dispossessed class in this country. (applause) Our _____ brother once eulogized Detroit. Perhaps it would be the eulogy for America. He says there was a town called _____ town, now it ain't no town. He said they used to call it Detroit, now they call it "destroyed." (laughter) America will fit in this same situation if she doesn't begin to address herself to the problems of black people in this country. (applause) Black people must begin to understand that if you don't control, everything that you don't control becomes a weapon against you. The educational system today is a weapon against black people. It expounds and teaches white nationalism. (applause) An example of white nationalism that's taught in the educational system of America which perputates this society is that COLUMBUS discovered America, a continent full of people. How can you discover a continent full of people. It tells you further that anything white in this country, anything white across the world is good. Everything black is bad. Black cows don't give good milk, black hens don't lay eggs. You wear black to funerals and white to weddings. Angel food cake is white, devils food cake is black. Even band-aid plastic strips flesh color are pink. (applause) But we go for it. We go for it because we're chumps. We're chumps of the highest order. HUEY P. NEWTON is now confined in jail because of our lack of action. We accuse ourselves of being revolutionaries.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

How many white cops have died since HUEY P. NEWTON has been ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ in jail? One. He killed the last hunkie that died from a bullet from a black gun. (applause) The only thing that HUEY NEWTON is guilty of, perhaps, is that he didn't tell me he was going down on the hunkies that day. That's the only thing, (laughter) that's the only thing. But HUEY P. NEWTON's freedom depends upon what black people do. Nobody else. You see freedom is not a _____ commodity, you are born free. You must exercise your right to be free. The man cannot give you freedom. He can't pass it out. You can't run around _____ talking about we waiting to be free. You must begin to become free. Begin to exercise that right. There is no such thing as a second class citizen. You are either free or you are slave. Freedom is absolute. There is no in between. You have to stop thinking along those lines. (applause) To tell me that you are a second class citizen is like telling me that you will never get pregnant. You can't be a little bit pregnant. You're either pregnant or you're not. You're either lying or you're telling the truth. These are absolutes. Freedom is an absolutism. Black people if they're going to be free must begin to seize power. _____ says power comes from the barrel of a gun. (applause) You better get your gun brother. I don't care if it ain't nothing but a bebe gun with poisoned babes. (laughter) America has shown us that she does not respect anything but counter force. Plainfield,

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

New Jersey, one of the most successful examples of a rebellion this year was successful because the brothers had only recently stole some 46 automatic weapons, each one that would shoot 2000 times and throw bricks for a half hour. And the police refused to go down there and warned them shoot up Plainfield so they signed an armistice with the brothers and they say, well gee, you let us go look for the weapons so we can look good on the news. The brothers say "groovy" cause they hid the weapons. The National Guard went down there and begin to kick down doors and destroy property and the word went out "you kick down one more door we going to shoot your leg off." (laughter) They left playing field, that's counter force, the brothers were armed. America does not love China, she respects China. (applause) Force. America runs the game on _____ and tells you that you are being violent. This is the most violent country that has ever been conceived. LYNDON JOHNSON is a two-gun outlaw from Texas. (applause) He believes in the showdown concept. That's what's going on in Vietnam. That's what's going on in this country today. That's why white folks are arming themselves. JOHNSON has told them "You got to be the fastest draw." But my advice and my news for the Minutemen is if you can't fight but a minute, don't come to my community. (laughter) You've got to arm yourself. That's the basic right. You can't talk about

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

revolution if you don't have anything to fight with. You're caught up in a revolution era whether you approve of it or not. Black people for years have equated progress with concessions. We have made no progress from slavery. We are still slaves in this country. They took the chains off our feet and put it on our minds. (applause) There is no political structure in this country that's relevant to black people. The only politics we can be concerned with is the politics of revolution. (applause) There is no difference between the Democratic and Republican parties. What's the difference between GOLDWATER and JOHNSON? Yet black people run around the country talking about their Democrats and the Democrats have them thoroughly fooled because they tell them "We for the good of colored folks, but it ain't our fault it's the Dixiecrats;" there is no such animal as a Dixiecrat. The only difference between GEORGE WALLACE and President JOHNSON is that one of them's wife has got cancer. Nothing else. (laughter and applause) Two of the most potentially dangerous Negroes in this country are Democrats, HATCHER and STOKES. Now understand this. Their allegiance is not to the black community. It's to the Democratic Party whether by "lynch em" JOHNSON or racist, red neck, _____ honky from Texas. (applause) This is the same game that was run on the Jews in Germany. It was not the Germans who began to move Jews, it was

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

other Jews. When JOHNSON tells STOKES to move out the agitators and the trouble makers, what you think he going to do? He's going to move them. When he tells STOKES to move out the trouble makers, he's going to move them. This is why black people must quit dividing themselves and talking about classes. We can ill afford the luxury of class structures in our community. There is no such thing as a black middle class. You don't believe it go to Detroit and ask the brothers who thought they were in the middle class. The cops whip middle class here with middle class sticks. No difference. (applause) If you think that you can divide yourselves into classes then you are lost already, because first of all they got to remove the troublemakers. Then they going to remove the athletes because they talking about boycotting the Olympics. And the entertainers going to sit back say "Well it ain't us", but ERTHA KITT got them so far in even they ain't going to get out of it, (applause) and it becomes a matter of time before they eliminate everybody. The resistance is weakened. Everytime they take off a different stratification of black people we cannot afford for HUEY NEWTON to sit in jail. We cannot afford for any black person to be political prisoners _____ in this country. This is our country. It was built on our backs by our labor. We've built the country up, we'll burn it down if they don't hurry up and come around. (applause) People are running around here scared of black power.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

What you going to do when you need black power. That's the thing you got to be talking about. That's what's going to defend you. We cannot run around and let the white man dictate and tell you who you should follow. The movement at this point seems to be a leaderless movement. We must begin to expouse an ideology that covers everybody in their black community. The brothers know that they are fighting, they have expressed the will to fight, but they only know they are supposed to fight the policeman. You see I saw a sign once that said "I wonder what happened to LEE HARVEY OSWALD now that we really need him?" (laughter) See, you're chumps. You believe the sign. ROCKEFELLER probably put that sign up. (laughter) You see, it's not only JOHNSON. It's not only those people in Washington. ROCKEFELLER has investments in S. Africa. These are the enemies. (applause) You must begin to broaden your concepts. You got to get beyond the racist pig cop, you see, because he is a tool of the man who really controls this system. We not only talking about destroying a power structure, we talking about ruination of a system. (applause) Black people cannot afford to become Capitalists. The military industrial complex that old _____ EISENHOWER even had sense enough to know about is real. It's very real. The military industrial complex means that over 70% of the people employed in this country has some dealings

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

to do with the military. In other words war is profitable in this country. We must fight war to keep the economy up. This is why we are in the war in Vietnam. It's not because we're trying to stop Communist aggression, that's the biggest lie ever told. If we was so interested in stopping Communist aggression why has America never moved to stop Communist aggression in white community countries with the use of napalm? They always use Radio Free Europe _____. (applause) Black people in this country face extermination. That's it, brother. You face extermination daily. We are facing genocide on about four different levels. The war is active genocide. It's no accident that 45% of the casualties in Vietnam are black. That's no accident. The courts of America, any black man who faces a court in America can expect a maximum sentence and a maximum fine.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RAPP BROWN: Well then you said we were making progress.
Very good MARSHALL is a nigger and JAMES EASTLAND told him he was a nigger. (applause) Herefore good MARSHALL supposedly go on before the high extension of the country, was subjected to a type of hustling by a cracker whose old man was a lynchman of black people. In other words, what EASTLAND was telling IRVIN MARSHALL is that you the top nigger in the country but you still a nigger to me. (applause)

That's not progress. (applause)

They gave you an astronaut. I said they were going to lose the nigger in space, but they didn't let him get that high. (applause)

What you say we makin' progress. That's not progress.
Progress is determined by the amount of power you possess in wheels.

See brothers, we must begin to prepare ourselves mentally and physically, for the battle is yet to come -- the battle is not descended down upon black people like it will in the next few years.

The concentration camps are real, and if you don't believe America is capable of sending niggers to concentration camps, or people of color to concentration camps, ask the Japanese American, ask the Indians. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

They don't need you any more. You are commodity in this country. A surplus. America got a surplus of niggers. (applause)

RAMSEY CLARK, Attorney General, got on T. V. a few months ago and said within the next 20 years, the entire population of this country will be a leisure class, with the exception of 20 percent of that population because of automation and sovereignization. And then you examine to see who they're training for automated and sovereignated jobs. They ain't training you, double ol' soul. (appluase) They're training white people.

We were brought here to do work. There is no more work to do. They will exterminate you. Our history proves she is capable of extermination of people of color. She dropped the bomb on Hiroshima and not in Germany and not because she didn't have the bombs, but because the Japanese were yella'. (applause)

You must begin to understand that your fight is a fight of survival. People of color must be concerned. We must become allies. These are our allies: Mexican Americans. Puerto Ricans. American Indians. These are the people who we align with. (applause)

Yes brother, America has given us an ultimatum. She say you live or die. We say freedom or death. Fuck it. Black power, brother. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The Prime Minister for the Black Panther Party of Self-Defense..... I really don't need to call his name.... Brother STOKELY CARMICHAEL. Black power. (applause)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL: Brothers and sisters. Good evening. They tell us they gonna' put us out at seven o'clock, but I'm a talk pass seven o'clock tonight. (applause) I'm a do had 'cause we have to talk to each other. Got to do that, huh. Before we do, I just want to introduce some people....uh,... Atlanta Communications Director Miss ETHEL MINER. (applause) A bad brother from Boston who was arrested for inciting to riot, when the little thing went down in Roxbury, just returned from across the waters, and incidentally, we are always gonna go where we wanna go, talk to whom we wanna talk to, go to what country we want to talk to....no honkie gonna tell us where to go, KEYTOE EDWARDS. (applause) As far as we're concerned, we born free. We go to China, we go to Cuba, we go to Africa. We'll go wherever we want to go and if the honkie don't like it, he can go to hell. He can go to hell. He can go to hell. (applause) Can't nobody tell you where to go, who to see, and who you talk to. You got to know so you can understand what this honkie is puttin' down. We have got to go across the waters to talk to our brothers. (applause) To our brothers. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Now then today we want to talk about one thing-- survival. That's all. How is this beautiful race of people, black people, gonna survive Babylon. That's all we have to talk about. Survival transcends economics. It transcends politics. It transcends the poverty program. We are talking about survival. About our people. Black people all over the world. That's all we are talking about. Survival. Survival. Now you have to understand survival because I have to repeat some of the things Brother RAP said.

Is it possible for the honkies to commit genocide against black people. Now if you don't think it's possible, check out the history of this country. In order for this country to be born, they committed genocide against the red man. They can and will do it. They can and will do it. Not only have they committed genocide against the Indian, but what they have done is they romanticize that genocide. That's what they do when they put that cowboy and Indian junk on television for you to flap. That is nothing but romanticizing the genocide of a race of people. They are so unaware of their superiority complex, they do not know what they are doing. The fight is gonna be a fight of color. Nothing else. Nothing else. (applause) It is going to be a fight of color because wherever the horkie goes, he rules. Whether the majority or the minority, he rules wherever he goes.

He came to this country. The Indians showed him how to prepare corn. The Indians showed em how to hunt. After the Indian showed em that, after the first Thanksgiving, he wiped them out. (applause)

He went to Mexico. He went to South America. He found the Aztec Indians. They said to him this is our silver. This is our gold. We are relig-- we are a religious people. We build symbols, monuments. We make little jewelry. He took the jewelry and he wiped them out. He wiped them out. (applause)

He went to Africa. He saw the greatest people in the world alive. They thought he was a human being. They said come. This is our gold. This is our way of life. We dance, we sing, we get high. They showed him the gold. He took the gold. He enslaved us and he rules Africa today. Today. (applause) Today. Go get em.

No need to get excited today, baby, we gonna get em. We gonna get em. No need to get excited. We gonna get em. As sure as I'm standing here, black people gonna survive this country. We ain't got to worry. We just organize.

He went to China. The Chinese had gun powder. They said we use this for fire works. For our festivities. He took it. Make it a gun and enslaved the Chinese. Where has he gone that he has not enslaved people. Where has he gone. I ask you tell me one place that honkie has gone where he has acted as a human being. Not one place on this earth. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

So that today when we talk about our survival, we do not talk about this country. Which is America. Which is white people. We talk about our people. Nothing else. Our people. That's all we care about. Our poeple. If this country burns down to the ground, we rejoice and we dance. We care about our people. Our people. (applause) Nothing else. Our people. Our people. (applause)

In organizing our concept this year, there are three. There are three slogans that we need to take with us. Number one is that we must develop consciously an undying love for our people. Undying love for our people. That means that our slogan becomes first. Our people. Then and only then, me and you. Our people come first. First. You must understand the concept of love for one's people because we're talking about HUEY P. NEWTON, who personifies love for his people. (applause)

Our second slogan--every Negro is a potential black man. Let's work with our people and bring them home. Bring them home. (applause) Bring them home. (continuing applause) Why do we say every Negro is a potential black man. Because 400 years ago, when that honkie stole us and brought us here, we were African or black people. Today we are Negroes. It took us 400 years to make us Negroes and we've been black for four thousand years. Four thousand years. Four thousand years.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

To be a Negro means that you begin with your history 400 years ago and your history is defined by the honkie to be an African or a black man is to be a man who rules in his own land. We are black Africans. Black Africans. (applause) We must understand that concept fully. A lot of our peoples' minds are messed up. We will not fight with our people. We will sit down. We will talk. We will take time. We will use love and brotherhood and bring them home. Our major enemy is the honkie. That's where our energies go. Go. Go. Go. (applause)

You cannot fight inside the black communey and fight them at the same time. Also. If every Negro is a potential ally, you never alienate your ally. Everybody in our community comes organized from the bourgeoisie to the man in the street. Everybody is gonna be organized because they are black. Black. (applause) If you understand that concept, it means that when you sit down with one of your brothers, and their minds have been messed up by the honkies. And they start arguing when you say the word black. Don't get excited. If you do, the honkie has won. Don't get excited. Sit down. Take time with your brother. Use the example if I have got a brother and a white man came into my family and turned that brother against me, if I didn't have enough strenth to bring my brother home, the honkie was stronger than I am. They are not stronger than we

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

are. We will dominate our people. Bring them home. Bring them home. Bring them home. Bring them home. (applause) That means that when we move against our people, we do not use force. We do not use force against our people. We use love, brotherhood, unity, and patience, and we take time. (applause) And we take time. (continuing applause)

The third concept that we talk about is that for black people, the question of community is not a question of geography, it is simply a question of color. Understand that? That means that if you live in Watts. If you live in Detroit, Southside Chicago, Washington, D. C. You are the same people belonging to the same community cause you are black. You are of African descent. You are an African people. Wherever you are. Wherever you are. (applause) We must begin to understand that concept. Because if we understand that concept, we break down the geographical barriers and we become part of black people in Africa, in Cuba, in Brazil, in Guatemala, in Santa Domingo, in the West Indies, in the United States, in Nova Scotia. We are one people nine hundred million strong. That's us. That's us. (applause) That's us.

Those are the three concepts we have to move with. Let me repeat them. One. Undying love for our people. First our people. Then and only then, you and me. Everything goes to our people. Everything including our life goes to our people. Our people. Our people. (applause) You've got to understand that that does not mean this country. Because this country has been and always will be against our people. So to help this country is to be against yourself. We must be for our people. Our people.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Secondly. Every Negro is a potential black man. Let's work with our people and bring them home. Understand that.

We need the people who we call the bourgeoisie. They have technical skills that we can use. Their minds are messed up. They're giving those technical skills to the honkies. Let's bring them home and let them give it to us. We must open up the channels for that. Let's bring our people home. (applause) Let's bring our people home. (continuing applause)

Thirdly. The question of community for black people is not a question of geography. It is a question of color. We do the same dances that people in Watts do yo do in New York. The Boogaloo gets transplanted so fast that without television, without radio, without any of their communications' systems, we do the same dances. Not only here, but in Africa. But in Africa. (applause)

Now then we want to talk about survival in a practical context. The United States works in the three M's. First the missionaries. Then the money. Then the Marines. That's its pattern all over the world. We have sent the missionaries out of our community. The money is going out because our brothers in Viet Nam is taking it and the Koreans gettin' ready to get it on again. So the money's going. Next comes the Marines. If we are going to survive as a people and we must survive if for no other reason than for what our ancestors has been through with this honkie. We have got to organize. Got to organize. That means that the question of the vote for black people be conked as a relevent issue unless to use it as a vehicle for organizing black people. Nothing else. Nothing else.

It is foolish to assume that the vote is gonna do anything for black people. It is always been irrelevant to our lives. We have survived without it. We survived in the deep south without the vote. In-- two years ago when JULIAN BOND was elected in Georgia, they took him out for two years. His people are still surviving. ADAM CLAYTON POWELL is outside of Harlem. Our people are still surviving. The vote is irrelevant. It's a trick-back the honkies put down on us. It don't mean a thing to black people. We can survive without it. We can survive without it. (applause)

That means that if we go into the vote, we use it only as a political vehicle for bringing more of our people together. That is all. We do not depend upon the vote. Do not depend upon the vote.

Secondly. The Poverty Program. We have to understand the concept of the Poverty Program and what it has done. The Poverty Program has been for one purpose and one purpose only.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Stop the rebellion. Stop the rebellion. And they stopped the rebellion by dividing the black community. That is been their tactic and it has worked. It has worked.

Take a look at Watts. It was the first community be swamped with the Poverty Program and today we are fighting each other over the crumbs that we cannot even get together. They have succeeded in dividing us. And how have they done that.

The most instinctive revolutionary cadre of people in any race, except theirs today, is the youth. The youth will fight at the drop of a hat in any race. (applause) In any race. In any race. (continuing applause) The youth have always been the warriors. Except for their race where they becomin' hippies. But thas' good. We will develop the warriors. Let them develop the hippies. We'll get em. We'll get em. (applause)

They have given money to the youth to keep them quiet. And while they have done that, they have split the family which they talk about so much. How would you feel if you were a father, couldn't get a job and you son was coming home with $120.00 a week in his pocket for doing nothing. For doing nothing. What do you think they have done to our families but divide em on that simple concept of the Poverty Program. If they were concerned about us, they would see to it that our fathers got the job because they are the bread winners of the family. (applause) They are the bread winners

or the family. (continuing applause)

We knock out the vote. We knock out the Poverty Program. Only as an organizing vehicle for our people can it be used. It does not, will not, and cannot solve our problems. We use it only as an organizing vehicle.

Thirdly. The question of education. Now Brother RAP ran it down very nicely. I'll just add to it. Education don't help us in this country. It cripples us. That is a fact. In our communities. Our communities are filled with hustlers, pimps, dope addicts, prostitutes, number men, racketeers, preachers, teachers, maids, porters, and some factory workers. Not one black school in the country has a curriculum here to teach us how to be a good pimp, good hustler, good preacher, good teacher, good anything. (applause) Not one. (applause) Not one. (continuing applause)

If the education is to teach us how to live in our community, then it must do one of two things: Prepare us to live in that community by teaching us how to be good prostitutes, good maids, good preachers, or by teaching us how to change our community so we can live like human beings. (applause)

Our school system does neither. And when our young people who are very intelligent drop out of school cause they recognize the game the honkie is running on em, they have us

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

fighting them saying get back in school, get back to work.
White nationalism?

If we want our children to go, we have to educate them. (applause) We have to educate them. We have to educated them. (continuing applause) Nobody else.

There is no race in history that gives their young to another race to educate. No race at all. No race at all. We are the only race that allow our enemy to educate our youth against us. We must educate our people. We must educate our people. In order to educate our people, it means that we must take over the schools. Nothing less. Take them over. By any means necessary. But we start by organizing our people. We start by organizing our students into black student unions. We break up the Parent Teachers Association because they're dominated by the teachers and by the union and those teacher unions don't speak to us. We form Parent Associations with parents alone and with African American teachers. We form African American Teachers Association. We bring the three groups together and we take the school by any means necessary. (applause) And we must understand that concept means that we have to get out and organize our people. We must organize our people. Now let us talk a little about the concept of a black united us. It is crystal clear that no matter what happens in the coming summer of this country, it is going to be black against white. If I go out today and I throw a brick, when they come down, anybody who's black is in trouble. Is in trouble. Not only that, the very fact that they give us money depends upon us being black. The brothers in the middle class may yell when Brother RAP BROWN yells burn the country down. But every time RAP yells burn the country down, they get five million dollars in Poverty Program. That is a fact. That is a fact. (applause) They need RAP BROWN and we need them. We are one people. An African people. We must get rid of these divisions in our community. We must come together for the survival of the greatest race on earth. African people. African people. African people. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Now we want to go into talking about alliances and coalition and why it is that the only people we can, in fact, ally ourselves with are the Mexican American the red man and the Puerto Ricans. We're gonna go into it now.

I do not deny the fact that there are poor people in this country who incidentally happen to be white. I do not deny that fact. There are a lot of poor white people in this country. But you are not just fighting money for----well--- let me do it another way.

There are two types of oppression. There is exploitation and there is colonization. Exploitation deals with when you explight somebody from your own race.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Colonization is when you exploit somebody from another race and colonization is more brutal than exploitation because when white people exploit other poor white people they do not dehumanize them. But when white people colonize people of other races, they dehumanize them. They strip them of their culture, their language, their history, their society, their values, (applause) There's a big difference (applause) There is a big difference. (applause) A big difference (continuing applause) There is a big difference between exploitation and colonization. Poor white people in this country who are exploited can always hope to reach the top. People who are colonized can never hope to reach the top until they overthrow their oppressor. (applause) Their oppressor. (continuing applause)

There is another reason. White people who are poor have the same values as LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON. The same institution and the same culture. We are a different people with different languages, different cultures, different history, different way of life. That is a fact.

We gonna keep on talkin'. They can't get us off. (applause) If everybody would just keep their seats we can get it together. We can get it together. We don't react to him. Let's carry on our program. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Now then we have to understand the concept of exploitation verses colonization because what is happened is that people of color around the world have been colonized and we also have been colonized inside this country. So our natural aliences is with people who have been colonized. Brother TIJERINA is colonized cause he can't say, "eldeberde todo revolucionario es hacer de revelucion." (applause) Yeah, Yeah, Yeah. (continuing applause)

His language has been taken from him. His culture has been striped from him. And it has been done consciously as it has been to us. But our people have always resisted. That's what we never understand. You can find a honkie from France, from Italy, from Poland, from Scandinavia. They come over here. In two generations they speak English perfectly. Our people refuse to speak it perfectly. We know it's not our language. We have resisted. (applause) We have resisted. (applause)

We must begin to understand the form of resistance in our community so we can grapple for the ideology we need for our survival. That means all other ideologies is irrelevant.

Now let us speak about dehumanizing, then Communism, and Socialism. We have been so dehumanized that we cannot even hate our enemy. That is to say that if we were sitting in a room. A honkie kicked in the door. Whipped our wife. Raped our daughter. Beat us up. Walked out. We would sit there and say we don't hate you. Just like a dog. If a man kicks em, spits on em, don't feed em, starves em, put em out in the rain. When he snaps his finger the dog comes running back. We are not dogs. We are human beings with emotions. (applause) With emotions. With emotions. (continuing applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

And, therefore, everything in dis world there is an opposite. For hot there is cold. For joy there is sadness. For love there is hate. If you don't have hate, you don't know when you were in love. You move from one pole to the other and we are afraid to say, "Yes, God dammit! We hate you for what you did to our people. To our people. To our people." (applause)

We are afraid to express hatred. Yet, in this country is a fact that white people hate us more than we hate them. And we haven't done a damn thing to um. A damn thing to um. (applause)

We have been so dehumanized we cannot recognize our humanity and that's what this fight is all about. It is not a question of poor housing, poor jobs, unemployment, an all that junk they run down. It is a question of our humanity. They're whole lot of poor white people in this country. They ain't rebelled yet. We are rebelling. It is a question of humanity. We are fighting for our humanity. Our humanity. That's what we're fighting for. And we are fighting against the destroyer of humanity in the world today. White western countries. They have destroyed humanity wherever they have gone. We are fighting for our humanity. Not for money. Not for jobs. Our humanity. That's very, very important. Very important.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Now let us talk about Communism and Socialism.
You ready for me brother? Communism and Socialism is not an ideology suited for black people. I'm a tell you why.
Communism and Socialism deals with the question of exploitation of people in the same race. We are dealing with the problem of racism which transcends exploitation. We need an ideology to talks to racism. Communism does not. It does not.
Communism does not because for us if you rich, if you poor, you still black. You still black. Even if I were exploiting every black man in here today, thru' imperialistic structure. When I walked outside to face the honkie cops, he hit me up side the head cause I'm black. We need an ideology for us that deals with the problem of racism which is above exploitation.

I-Secondly--We donot have that many class structures in the society among us. Communism and Socialism speaks to classes. We are talking about races of people. There is a difference. That means to say that we read Chi-minh and MAO Tse-sung. We can read Chi-minh and MAO Tse-sung. Because he has a lot of good things to say. Chi-minh and MAO Tse-sung is a great Chinese leader. The greatest Chinese leader there is. But we need African leaders. That's who we must follow. African leaders. We are Africans. We are Africans. We are not Chinese. The Chinese don't go around and bow down to an African. They bow down to someone in their own image. We have to find people in our own image who we will bow down to. African leaders. African ideology. Straight down the middle. Straight down the middle. We're comin straight from a black thing. No right, left, -- none of that junk, straight up black. That's where we're comin from.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Now let us move on. It is a fact see a lot a people might of got upset when Brother TIJERINA said that the man 'daddy' is the devil but the man's got to be the devil. Read your Bible. You see what they're doing. The honkies are stealing our hearts in South Africa to put it into their hearts and that's not enough. When they finish do that, they bring that honkie witch doctor and put him on television across the nation so we should bow down to him after he's taken the heart of our brother. The Bible says 'beware, the devil will come to you and way to you that he can restore life after death.'

We must begin to understand our concept. We are bounded to people of color wherever they are. We have been strewn across the western hemisphere by the white man. Look at us. We don't know who we are. Where we came from. Are we Goosa (phonetic), are we Zoolu (phonetic), are we Malicali (phonetic), are we Baila (phonetic), are we Zuboo (phonetic), where have our ancestors come from. Where have our ancestors come from. Where have they come from. It is a question of fighting to regain our humanity, our culture, our history, and our particular way of life which is different from theirs. We are talking about humanity. Not money. Not dream power. That's their game. Money has never been something that interested us. We survive with or without it. With or without it.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Now then it is important to understand how the honkie are moving to organize. When they brought that honkie from South Africa, they tried to give South Africa a respectable image. So respectable an image that the United States voted to let South Africa come into the Olympics. And if any black athlete from this country goes to that Olympic, that nigger ought to stay there. Stay there. (applause) Stay there. Stay there. Stay there. Stay there. (continuing applause)

It is no longer a question of how we are treated in this country. It is a question of our flesh is our flesh, and blood of our blood is treated in South Africa, in Mosambee (phonetic), in Zimbwadee (phonetic), in Portuguese Guinea, Everywhere on this earth they control us. We are like

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

a race of dogs. We can't go anywhere without asking um,
'Master, can we move?' We are a mighty race of people.
We have got to get up and devise. We have got to get up and devise. Our fathers were warriors. Our fathers ruled the world. Our ancestors are great people. We have to pay them the respect. We must get up. We must get up. (applause)
We must get up. We must get up. We must get up. We must get up. (continuing applause)

Now then we have to understand that as we tied into the concept of Brother HUEY P. NEWTON. He is flesh of our flesh. And blood of our blood. We cannot hold any mock trials unless we are the executioners. We must become the executioners inside our community. That says very clearly if you off Brother HUEY, we off 15 hunkie cops. Fifteen.(applause) Right out. Right out. (continuing applause) And we off them and if anybody in the black community says anything about it, we off him too. (applause) We off him too. We off him too.
(continuing applause)

And we off him because as MAO Tse-sung says, "To condemn ones people, is to take the stand of the enemy."
(applause) Of the enemy. (continuing applause) You cannot condemn your people. You cannot condemn your people. Undying love for our people.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

As we understand that, then our mind moves internationally to the most important issue that gonna affect this country. The question of the Middle East. And we have to make it clear. We can have no relations with any Jewish group that support what they call Isreal. Which is occupied Palestine.

And I will tell you why we cannot support what they call Isreal. They got that state in 1917. The British was ruling Palestine. The British gave it to them. They didn't consult the Arabs. They didn't say to our brothers, "You know, do you want to sell it?" They just took it. And the scientists went to Isreal and started to use terrorist bombs to run our brothers out. And when we talk about being brothers with the Arabs, they say, "Well, don't you forget the Arabs told you sell them. We sold their momma's and let it go at that." The Arabs are our brothers. Our brothers. We have to understand that because they have developed the concept of love for a state developed in 1948 and they're moving into Egypt. Egypt is in Africa. Africa is in our mother land. We owned it for four thousand years. (applause) For four thousand years. (applause) And here we are who should have a love for our mother land for four thousand years gonna let some simple scientists run a game down on us. Send his young children to Isreal which he sold and made Isreal in 1948.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

They're willing to die for it. And we sit 'chere while they invade Egypt. Egypt, the country that gave civilization to mankind. Our country. Our ancestors. Our mother land.

We are opposed to the creation of the state called Isreal.

The Arabs are our brothers. We stand united. Let's run it down. Run it down. (applause)

Let us not get afraid to tell them outright, "Yes, we want the Vietamese to win in Viet Nam." (applause) Yes, we do. (continuing applause)

So get caught up in the honkie's silly games. He gets up and says, "Well, Well. We're wrong but we have commitments and before we get out, we have to save face." And while that honkie is saving face, he's killing millions of yellow people who are our brothers. Don't worry about his face. Wipe his face out. Let the Vietamese take their country. Let em take their country. (applause)

We don't have to be afraid of them any more. Our time is coming brothers and sisters. We winners and we movin' on up. (applause) We movin' on up. We movin' on up. (continuing applause)

Now then. The concept of becoming executions is one we have to talk about because if we are going to move to build and understand we're not moving against the honkies. We don't give a damn about em. We're moving to build a concept of

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

peoplehood to move to a concept of nationhood inside this country that attack and talks to the nine hundred million Africans in the world today. If that honkie tries to stop us, we off him. (applause) We off him. (continuing applause)

We're not talking about destroying their system. We're talking about building our system. Regaining our humanity. If they don't mess wid us we won't mess with them. But God knows, if they mess wid us, then everyone of us going to the streets. Going to the streets. (applause)

We are concerned with building a concept of peoplehood where we will have undying love for our people. Where we will be willing and happy and glad to die for our people. (applause) For our people. And in building that concept, we must organize groups which will when they come down against us have the maximum damage against them and the minimum risk to us. That means we organize little groups. When they off us, that group offs a number of them. If they get caught, it's a small group. The community keeps moving. They must be consciously willing to do that for their people. Everybody else has done it. Everybody else has done it. To talk about rebellions today without being organized is to give them the chance to come down. They have tanks. They have sonar rifles. They have machine guns. They have got one armed shotguns. They got everything they wanna get but they forget

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

one thing. A war is never decided by technology. It is decided by the will of the people to fight for what belongs to them. (applause) What belongs to them.

A war is not just decided by numbers. It is decided by the determination, the dedication, the love of the people who are fighting. The Vietnamese show us that every day. They're whippin' um to death. (applause) Their whippin' um to death. (continuing applause)

But if we move the concept of a community as to wherever people are, we outnumber them. General MAO Tse-sung says seven hundred and fifty million Chinese. We have nine hundred million Africans in the world today. (applause) In the world today. (continuing applause) And we have all been colonized and we have been colonized by the same man. The honkie. The honkie has colonized us all. Our major enemy is the honkie. We move to build in our community. Our people have to survive. We have to survive. Our ancestors went through too much not to survive. Not to survive. Not to survive. (applause)

If we did not survive we should bury ourselves alive after what our parents went through in slavery. After what they went through the reconstruction. After what they went through in World War I. What they went through through the depression. What they went through World War II, the Korean War, and the Vietnamese War. We have a responsibility to our people to

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

survive. (applause) To survive. (continuing applause)

We are the most beautiful people in this country.
We are. (applause)

We are not a war-like people. We have warriors but we are not a war-like people. We are a peace-loving people. But there comes a time in order to insure your peace you must pick up your spear and fight. (applause) And fight. (continuing applause) If we do not do that, brothers and sisters, we will be exterminated. Not only for our ancestors do we have to wage a battle but for our beautiful young children coming up today who are digging what it is to be black. We have a responsibility to them to survive. (applause) To them to survive. (applause)

When Brother HUEY gets messed around, if they try it. There will be some retaliation. (applause) There has to be a retaliation for many reasons. Brother HUEY represents progress in our race. They wasted our saint Brother MALCOM X for what he was saying. For what he was saying. (applause) For what he was saying. (continuing applause) Understand Brother MALCOM X did not do anything. He was just talking. And they wasted him cause he was waking us up they wasted him. Now they got Brother HUEY in jail at least for getting two of them. That's progress. That's progress. We've moved from talking to doing. Now we have the responsibility to Brother HUEY NEWTON. Cause

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

when Brother MALCOLM got ace--- wasted, we was so confused, we didn't retaliate but we got to retaliate if they get Brother HUEY NEWTON. Got to retaliate. (applause)

We have got to retaliate because we are the only people where they wipe out our leaders and we do nothing. In the last five years we have lost the BUCA (phonetic) from South Africa. We have lost BATRICE LA MUMBA (phonetic) from the Congo, and we have lost MALCOM X. And now we gonna lose HUEY NEWTON.

We must protect the people who care about us. We have got to retaliate brothers and sisters. Got to retaliate brothers and sisters. (applause)

We must cut down the in-fighting in our group. These brothers are the Evondon (phonetic). They're already to carry on a struggle. Whether or not we agree or disagree with their ideology. They think they're doing a educational job for the black community to teach them how to organize. We have to recognize that. We have to appreciate that. Because they have not been too many black people who have been willing to fight for their people. We have them now. We have a generation of warriors now. (applause) We have a generation of warriors now. (applause) We have a generation of warriors now. (continuing applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Our people have resisted. Our ancestors have resisted for this generation to wait the final struggle so our people can regain their humanity. We must organize our people. We must organize our people. We must organize our people. We must organize our people. If we do not, we will perish. We must organize our people and when groups are organizing in our community, you see nothing, you hear nothing, you know nothing. (applause)

Because on this new level of organization there are no Uncle Tom's because we're bringing people together. There are just traitors. And you off traitors. (applause) Off traitors. (continuing applause)

You just off traitors. Every black man in this country. Every black man around the world is flesh of my flesh, and blood of my blood. But if he gets in the way of my people. I'm gonna off him sure as I'm sittin' here. Sure as I'm sittin' here. (applause)

We have people today who are willing to off. We do not want to off our own people. Because all of them are potential allies. But if any black man talks to any honkie about what we do in our community. We are gonna kill him. (applause)

Now then brothers and sisters, we have to go. The three concepts. First. Our people. Then and only then me

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

me and you. Undying love for our people. Every Negro must become a potential black man. Do not discourage our people. Let's work with them. Bring them home. For black people, the question of community is not one of geography but one of color. That means that the brothers of color all --- will everyone please stay seated. Because of security. I'm told. Just please stay seated. We'll be off in two minutes.---- The brothers of color around the world are our comrades in arms.

When the students in Santa Domingo rebel. You jump up and yell, "Hallelujah. They gettin' in one more place." They gettin' in one more place. (applause)

When the brothers in Viet Nam take the embassies, you holler, "Hallelujah. They gettin' em good. They gettin' em good. They gettin' em good." (applause)

And when our brothers in Africa take em in Portuguese New Guinea, take em in Zambezi (phonetic), take em in Mozambique, take em in South Africa, you holler, "Hold it, baby! I am comin to help you too." (applause) I'm comin to help you too. I'm comin to help you too. (continuing applause)

We are a beautiful race of people. Our forefathers would rather fight the sun than bow down to anyone. But look at us. Just look at us. We are like dogs living in this place. Our people are drinking wine. They taking dope.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

They're fighting each other. They're cutting each other.
We must be concerned with our people. The hell with this God damn country. Let's be concerned with our people.
(applause) Our people. Our people. Our people. We must be concerned wid our people. We must be concerned wid our people. (continuing applause)

Our young spend half their time in reform schools.
Our youth spend half their time sleeping on roof tops and then when they're finished they send them to Viet Nam. What kind of a life is that for a human being. What kind of a life is that. Get up black people. Get up. We will survive America. We will survive America. We have survived too much not to survive now. And if they waste Brother HUEY, you take it from me, Brother HUEY P. NEWTON will be freed or else. Thank you. (applause)

Brother STOKELY CARMICHAEL. I know everybody want to clap. This is tremendously important that everyone remain in their seat until our platform guests are out of the area.
Please have a seat. Please have a seat. Now it'll take them just a few minutes to get off the stage and while they're getting off the stage a few quick announcements.

Brother ERNIE THOMPSON, Deacons for Defense, Johnsburg, Louisiana. Here he is. Right here. Moving into L. A. (applause) Brother MELVIN NEWTON. I don't know if he's still sittin' here, but he and Sister NEWTON. I don't know where he is. Alright. There will be a soul session tonight. Strictly soul session at 7228 South Broadway. 9 o'clock PM. Donation $1.00. "Arambe" is on sale outside when you go out. That's the Black Congress Newspaper and it's important that you pick that up. It's important that we have our voice.

The Peace Action Council is circulating peace petitions so that we can get that on the ballot. That's also important that everybody signs that.

Just another few more minutes. I hope everybody has enjoyed themselves. If you have, let's, you know, let's clap for one another. (applause)

We got the word we're moving late. Pick up your literature and move out quickly and quietly and love black people. Thank you very much.

The audience was 65 percent Negro and 35 percent Mexican-Americans. Carmichael was the last speaker, and in his presentation, he indicated that the white man was the cause for all Negro problems. "The whites have robbed the Negro of his dignity". He indicated that the police were the force that maintained the white power structure. "It's time the Negroes stopped playing games, because the man (whitey) doesn't play games with you". Carmichael said an example of this was Detroit, Michigan, when the white man used bazookas, guns and canons against the Negro. "The Negroes must arm themselves, and they must use these weapons", he said. Carmichael was received with standing ovations, and great enthusiasm by the audience. No news media or police were permitted to enter and observe the rally. (X) u

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Boston, Massachusetts

March 6, 1968

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

On March 5, 1968, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that on February 22, 1968, [redacted] DC

[redacted] had made the statement that one of the principal things he wanted to accomplish was to remove the Negro prostitutes from Massachusetts and Columbus Avenues in Boston. It distresses him to see prostitutes selling themselves to "whitey." M 95
b7D

[redacted] claimed the prostitutes and their "pimps" are backed by mobsters. Stokely Carmichael proposed a plan which Carmichael claims has been working successfully in Washington, D. C. for some nine months and which was put in effect there by Carmichael. This is the creation of a black mafia. This group warns prostitutes to discontinue their activities. If they refuse, then the "muscle boys" step in and teach them a lesson. This may arouse the prostitute's "pimp" to action, in which case the "muscle boys" handle him. b7C
b7D

[redacted] said that Carmichael is so pleased with the success of this plan in Washington, D. C. and has found it so effective, he plans to start taking a cut of the local bookie profits. If this is effective and lucrative enough, a certain percentage of the take will be used to support some Black Power programs. b7C
b7D

[redacted] is considering trying to put this program into effect in Boston at least with respect to prostitution. b7C

[REDACTED] THREAT AGAINST THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] furnished the following information on February 27, 1968:

b7C

In about November or December, 1967, in the course of his employment, he observed a person he came to know as [REDACTED] commence to patronize the restaurant. He first noticed [REDACTED] as a member on two separate occasions of a party which included former Governor George Wallace of Alabama when Wallace was in California for the purpose of qualifying for the Presidential primary election.

b7C

He subsequently became well acquainted with [REDACTED] who visited the restaurant almost nightly. He formed the opinion that [REDACTED] was extremely "anti-Negro", "anti-left", and "anti-liberal." During the course of conversations covering a period of over 2 months, [REDACTED] named numerous persons whom [REDACTED] termed as "traitors", or some similar term, to the United States. [REDACTED] indicated that in his opinion, these persons should be disposed of, meaning to [REDACTED] that they should be killed. [REDACTED] did not mention any group such as the Minutemen or the Ku Klux Klan with which he might be affiliated but [REDACTED] is of the opinion that he has backing from some organization or group.

Subsequently, after further conversations, [REDACTED] mentioned that the President of the United States, Lyndon B. Johnson, was considered by him to be a traitor and that the President would be killed by shooting him. He revealed no definite plan and did not mention a specific time or place b7C for such action although he gained the impression that it may have been considered for the period during which the Democratic National Convention is held. [redacted] made no overtures to [redacted] to participate in any way in the mentioned assassination of the President.

b7C Subsequently, [redacted] talked against persons he considered subversive. He eventually revealed that he had compiled a list of 11 persons he considered should be eliminated in the best interests of the United States. [redacted] recalls that this list included Senator Robert Kennedy and 10 other persons all of whom he believed to be of the Negro race. The only names he could specifically recall were [redacted] Stokely Carmichael, and Martin Luther King. [redacted] alleges that he "played along" with the suggestions and, in fact, is in agreement with them generally with the exception that he has no intention of committing or being involved in any murder of such persons.

b7C [redacted] further alleges that sometime in the previous week, [redacted] proposed that [redacted] kill one or more of the list of 11, meaning Senator Robert Kennedy and the 10 Negroes. [redacted] proposed that he would furnish an airline ticket to the destination and would furnish an untraceable weapon, type not specified, but presumed to be explosives or rifle. [redacted] insisted that [redacted] also furnish an alibi for him to which [redacted] agreed but no specific plans relative to alibi were discussed.

b7C Since that time, [redacted] said he has had no contact with [redacted] and has, in fact, been avoiding contact. He agreed he will report any further contact or pertinent information to the FBI.

b7C [redacted] states that [redacted]
[redacted]
Alabama in his present campaign for the Presidential primary election in California. He is of the opinion that [redacted] came here from an unknown city in the state of Alabama and believes he arrived in the area approximately December 1, 1967.

Re: [redacted]

[redacted] described [redacted] as follows:

b7C

He considers [redacted] to be slightly unstable emotionally but states that in ordinary social contacts this would probably not be noticeable. However, he recalls that on one occasion,

b7C

[redacted] or perhaps other associates could direct to a particular spot where it would explode and in effect assassinate the persons against whom it was directed.

Records of the City Business License Bureau, San Leandro, Calif., reflect that an application for a business permit was made on December 4, 1967, in the name of [redacted]

San Leandro Police Department records reflect a temporary employee at the same company, position not listed, under date of December 4, 1967, was one [redacted] telephone [redacted]

b7C

He admits previous employment as [redacted]

[redacted] from which he admits he was released due to excessive drinking. Reliability of [redacted] is unknown.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY FOR SELF-DEFENSE (BPPSD)

A source advised that the Black Panther Party For Self-Defense (BPPSD) was formed by HUEY PERCY NEWTON, Minister of Defense, [REDACTED] in Oakland, California, in December, 1966, as a militant black nationalist political organization to combat "police brutality," to unite militant black youth, to determine the destiny of black communities, and to educate black people in African history. The political philosophy of the organization was taken from the writings of MAO TSE-TUNG of Communist China and black militant writers.

b7D

The official BPPSD publication "The Black Panther - Black Community News Service" indicates the leadership of the BPPSD advocates the use of guns and guerilla tactics in the violent revolutionary program to end oppression and to oppose the drafting of black men to fight in Vietnam.

A [REDACTED] advised that in early 1967, [REDACTED] NEWTON, and their associates carried carbine rifles and holstered pistols in plain view on the streets of Oakland and elsewhere while on "defense patrols."

[REDACTED]

A Grand Jury of Alameda County, California, Oakland, California, on November 13, 1967, indicted HUEY PERCY NEWTON on charge of murder of an Oakland, California police officer on October 28, 1967, in Oakland, California.

The [REDACTED] advised that the headquarters office of the BPPSD at 5624 Grove Street, Oakland, California, is closed and that no membership meetings have been held since August, 1967.

A source advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist -oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A [] has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention.

The [] advised in September, 1966, that [] stated that in Negro communities the Party still supported the plan to build "left" socialist centers and to solidify the Party base through the DCA. This source also advised in September, 1966 that [] stated the Party believes the DCA should have a working-class outlook and be a mass organization favorable to socialism, socialist countries and Marxism, and in April, 1967, advised GUS HALL, CPUSA General Secretary, had indicated the DCA primary emphasis should be on developing mass resistance to the draft.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

Atlanta tel dated 2/28/68 advised speech given by CARMICHAEL at Morehouse College on 2/28/68 had been taped by Atlanta PD. On 2/29/68, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Atlanta PD, advised that the men [REDACTED] who had been assigned to follow subject's activities while he was in Atlanta, had, on 2/28/68, attempted to record CARMICHAEL's speech at Morehouse by utilizing a portable recorder. On 2/29/68, when they attempted to play this tape back, they found that the background noise and acoustics in the gymnasium where the speech was made was such that the fidelity of the tape was extremely poor, preventing their securing a readable copy of CARMICHAEL's speech.

b7C

The Atlanta Office has learned that CARMICHAEL's speech was taped by a local Negro radio station (WAOK). Atlanta is currently in the process of developing a racial informant closely associated with this radio station whom, it is believed, will be in a position to secure a copy of this tape.

Upon development of this source, the securing of the tape and transcription of it, a letterhead memorandum will be prepared and forwarded to the Bureau and interested offices.

The Agent observing CARMICHAEL on 2/28/68 is identified as SA [REDACTED]

DETAILS:

b2
b7D

On February 27, 1968, [REDACTED] advised that he had heard that STOKELY CARMICHAEL had arrived in Atlanta sometime during the day but, at that time, he was unable to determine any specific details in this regard.

On February 28, 1968, [] advised that he had learned that CARMICHAEL had arrived in Atlanta from San Francisco, California at 5:35 a.m., February 27, 1968. Other information available to [] reflected that CARMICHAEL was scheduled to speak at Morehouse College at 2:00 p.m. on the afternoon of February 28, 1968. The source said that originally []

b2
b7D

[] of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), was supposed to address a group of students at the Atlanta University complex, but because of travel restrictions placed on [] CARMICHAEL would fulfill this speaking engagement. The invitation for CARMICHAEL to speak had been extended by the Black Student Alliance, an organization which was believed to have had its formation at a meeting held recently at the Mount Moriah Baptist Church, located at the corner of Ashby and Fair Streets, Atlanta.

[] advised later on February 28, 1968 that CARMICHAEL had spent considerable time on February 27-28, 1968 in the company of [] reportedly CARMICHAEL's [] in Atlanta, Georgia. A considerable amount of time was also spent at the apartment of [] who resides in []

b2
b7D

In regard to [] advises that she is the owner of a 1965 Ford Mustang fastback, winter green in color, bearing 1967 Georgia license []. According to [] who resided at [] Atlanta, until Thursday, February 29, 1968, [] Georgia. The source advises that [] is not SNCC indoctrinated, does not espouse the SNCC philosophy and her associations with CARMICHAEL stems from []

b2
b7C

AT 100-6812

At approximately 12:45 a.m., February 28, 1968, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed CARMICHAEL, [redacted] and two other unidentified individuals in a 1965 Ford Mustang at the intersection of Del Mar Lane and Linkwood Avenue, Southwest. Immediately after this observation, the automobile proceeded to the vicinity of a Negro community in Atlanta known as Vine City, where one of the occupants exited the automobile and CARMICHAEL, [redacted] and a third individual were last observed going west on Simpson Street in the vicinity of its intersection with Northside Drive.

b7C

[redacted] advised that about 12:40 p.m. February 28, 1968, a crowd of more than 200 Negro students gathered in a class room in Sage Hall, Morehouse College, for the purpose of hearing STOKELY CARMICHAEL. According to these sources, it was obvious that the limited space at Sage Hall would not accommodate the crowd that was gathering and [redacted] a known SNCC associate by [redacted] suggested that they all move to the gymnasium on the campus.

b2
b7C
b7D

[redacted] advised that the crowd moved to the gymnasium and that at about 2:00 p.m. CARMICHAEL appeared and addressed the approximate 2,000 students that had gathered in the gymnasium to hear his speech.

b7D

According to these sources, CARMICHAEL said that those in attendance must be aware of the beauty or blackness, as black is beautiful and we are a black people. He said that they must realize that they are Africans as their mother country is Africa and their heritage began there. CARMICHAEL said that they could not believe what the "Hunky" (white) tells you and that if you did you would look back at your beginning and realize that it started with slavery.

AT 100-6812

During his speech, CARMICHAEL said that the "Hunky" has many tricks to keep the Negroes under control and said that the poverty program is one of these favorite tricks. He said that the "Hunky" gives the Negro family problems as he will give the eighteen or nineteen year old kid in the family a good job and will make him the bread winner of the household, but that if he really wanted to help, he would get the fathers good jobs so that they would become the bread winners, as they should be. CARMICHAEL said that if a Negro is working on the poverty program and earned $24,000 a year, he should keep $10,000 to live on and give the other $14,000 for the purchase of guns. He did not say to use these guns but that they should be handy just in case the "Hunky" started something. He added that the "Hunky" has, for many years, been afraid of black and he has tried to make the black afraid of the gun, but they are not now afraid to fight or willing to die for the cause.

He stressed the necessity for black people to remember that the blacks should come first, then the individual. He claimed that America does not exist now and never did exist as far as the black masses are concerned as their mother country is Africa and the Negroes have been brought to America for one purpose and one purpose only, to build an empire. Now that the purpose has been fulfilled, the "Hunky" is getting rid of the Negro and for every Orangeburg, South Carolina incident there should be ten Detroit's, ten Watts (California) and ten Alabamas this summer. He urged those in attendance to unite and support the Arabs in their struggle with the Israelis, as the Arabs are our people.

CARMICHAEL made reference to the boycott by the Negroes of the Olympics pointing out that without the Negro the United States would lose, and a loss for the United States would be a victory for the Negro. He said that the Negroes are the warriors and when the Whites lose, the blacks can take pride in this fact and that if all the black men were to withdraw from Vietnam, the White society would collapse.

AT 100-6812

Information made available by [] reflected that at 11:30 a.m. on February 28, 1968, CARMICHAEL was at Paschel Brothers Restaurant located on Hunter Street, where he remained for a short time before going to the Morehouse gymnasium located at the Atlanta University complex.

[] said that at approximately 1:45 p.m. CARMICHAEL began his speech urging a uniting of the Negro in a consolidated effort to prevent being wiped out by the White race. During the speech by CARMICHAEL, [] said that CARMICHAEL accused the United States of having taken the gold and silver from Africa as well as other valuables from other countries, and that they had tried to run these countries with their ideas but the black people are just as superior as the Whites. CARMICHAEL urged the black people to stop fighting among themselves and destroying each other, but to unite and become individuals. CARMICHAEL urged that the black people eliminate undesirable associates and environments, as it is a plan of the White race to keep the Negroes in these environments which would prevent their possible improvement of their moral standards, which improvements in the long run would be to the benefit of the entire race. According to [] CARMICHAEL referred to the poverty program as nothing but a lot of "Hog Wash". He then related how the poverty program is catering to the young Negro element as opposed to the older "bread winner" of the family.

b2
b7D

According to [] the meeting was orderly and no incidents developed and at the end of the meeting CARMICHAEL went to the Robert Hall Building on Morehouse campus, for a [] meeting with members of the Black Student Alliance. Also in attendance at this [] meeting were several SNCC members. After this meeting broke up, CARMICHAEL went to [] the office of []

b2
b7D

[] CARMICHAEL was here for a short time where he was picked up by an automobile driven by an unidentified individual and driven to the Atlanta airport. CARMICHAEL, in company of one [] boarded Delta Flight Number 105, which was scheduled to depart Atlanta at 4:50 p.m. for Dulles Airport in Washington, D. C. CARMICHAEL was traveling under the name of A. KUTTATI with reservations to Washington, D. C. only and his companion, [REDACTED] had continuing reservations on Northeastern Airways Number 316Y, destined for Boston, Massachusetts.

AT 100-6812

b7C
b7D

[REDACTED] said that the plane left Atlanta at approximately 5:10 p.m.

b2
b7D

[REDACTED] advised that at the conclusion of CARMICHAEL's speech at Morehouse, he read a letter which had been written by H. RAP BROWN, the National Chairman of SNCC.

b2
b7D

[REDACTED] made available a copy of this letter which is set forth as follows:

A LETTER FROM PRISON FROM H. RAP BROWN

Parish Prison
New Orleans, La.
2/21/68

Being a man is the continuing battle of one's life and one loses a bit of manhood with every stale compromise to the authority of any power in which one does not believe.

No slave should die a natural death. There is a point where caution ends and cowardice begins.

For everyday I am imprisoned I will refuse both food and water. My hunger is for the liberation of my people. My thirst is for the ending of oppression.

I am a political prisoner, jailed for my beliefs -- that Black People must be free. The Government has taken a position true to its fascist nature: Those who we cannot convert, we must silence. This government has become the enemy of Mankind.

Death can no longer alter our path to Freedom. For our people, Death has been the only known exit from slavery and oppression. We must open others.

Our will to live must no longer supersede our will to fight, for our fighting will determine if our race shall live. To desire Freedom is not enough.

We must move from resistance to aggression, from revolt to revolution.

For every Orangeburg there must be 10 Detroites. For every Max Stanford and Huey Newton, there must be 10 dead racist cops. And for every Black Death there must be a Dien Bien Phu.

Brothers and Sisters, and all oppressed people, you must prepare yourself both mentally and physically, for the major confrontation is yet to come. You must fight. It is the people who in the final analysis make and determine history, not leaders or systems. The laws to govern you must be made by you.

May the deaths of '68 signal the beginning of the end of this country. I do what I must out of the love for my people. My will is to fight; resistance is not enough. Aggression is the order of the day.

NOTE TO AMERICA

America, if it takes my Death to organize my people to revolt against you, and to organize your jails to revolt against you, and to organize your troops to revolt against you, and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize Mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here is my life! But my soul belongs to MY PEOPLE.

Lasime Tushinde Mbilashaka. (We shall conquer without a doubt.)

Montréal-Matin, a French-language daily, printed the following story in its edition of February 28 stating that Vallières and Gagnon have received a telegram of support from Stokely Carmichael.

"Pierre Vallières, who is now standing trial before the Assizes Court, and Charles Gagnon, who will stand trial in the March session, are receiving support not only from a movement formed for their defense in Quebec, but also from abroad. The following telegram brings to Vallières and Gagnon, two presumed members of the neo-FLQ, the support and the good wishes of Stokely Carmichael, President [sic] of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee:

"'Courage brothers. Our group is also grappling daily with the dirty tricks of government [chinoiseries gouvernementales] and we are deceived every day. We refuse to disassociate ourselves from our brothers of the FLQ by uttering vicious lies. Accept our sympathy during the trial which you are now facing. STOKELY CARMICHAEL

According to a press release dated February 20, 1968, Stokely Carmichael was reported to be conducting a secret school for black militants in Washington, D.C.

[redacted]
Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), advised on March 4, 1968, that the MPD has followed the activities of Stokely Carmichael closely since his arrival in Washington, D.C. to take up residence on January 4, 1968. He advised the MPD has remained aware of his activities in establishing an organization called the Black United Front (BUF), and his affiliation with the Washington Office of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). [redacted] stated Carmichael has attended a number of organizational meetings of the BUF since his arrival and has also attended various meetings of the Steering Committee of that organization. Carmichael has visited several high schools in Washington, D.C. and on several occasions, has spoken before student groups at the schools. In addition, he has attended many parties since his arrival in Washington, D.C., many of which were held in private homes, where Carmichael was the guest of honor. In addition, Carmichael has been known to hold office staff meetings with the Washington Office SNCC personnel from time to time concerning administrative operating procedures.

b7C [redacted] advised that no information has come to the attention of the MPD that Carmichael is conducting a secret school in Washington, D.C. to train black militants from various cities in the United States, who then return to their own communities to conduct similar schools. He stated he feels sure no such school is being operated by Carmichael in Washington, D.C. because if he were, it would have in all probability been discovered by now by investigative action of the police. He added that he has not observed a large influx into Washington, D.C. of so-called black militants from other cities since Carmichael's arrival.

The following additional persons affiliated with law enforcement or intelligence agencies in the Washington, D.C. area were contacted on the dates indicated regarding the allegation contained in the above-mentioned press release:

The above individuals advised no information has come to their attention that Stokely Carmichael is operating a school in Washington, D.C. to train out-of-state militants.

b7C [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted] Washington, D.C., advised on March 13, 1968, he has been following Carmichael's activities since his arrival in Washington, D.C. on January 4, 1968, particularly regarding matters which might affect Selective Service or recruitment matters. He advised that no information has come to his attention that Carmichael is operating a school for racial militants in Washington, D.C. He advised that he was doubtful such a school was being operated because if it were being operated, it would have in all probability come to the attention of authorities by this time.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is in a position to be aware of Carmichael's activities, advised on March 12, 1968, that much of Carmichael's time since his arrival in Washington, D.C. has been directed toward the establishment of an organization called the Black United Front. Source advised that the BUF is an organization being created with the announced purpose of attempting to unify the black community of Washington, D.C. In this connection, source stated that Carmichael has held a number of general meetings of the organization, as well as various meetings with the Steering Committee. The general organization meetings have been held at the New School for Afro-American Thought, 2208 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. The meetings of the Steering Committee of the organization have been held in private residences of members or in a local church. Carmichael, according to the source, has used the Washington, D.C. Office of SNCC as his headquarters since his arrival in Washington, D.C. and has held several meetings with the staff personnel working in that office. Several of these staff meetings were held at Carmichael's residence. Source continued that Carmichael has attended a number of parties in private residences since his arrival in Washington, D.C., many of which were fund-raising parties sponsored by SNCC. He has also attended a number of parties of a public nature. Source advised that Carmichael has appeared at several of the public schools in the District of Columbia and has made talks to a few classes, apparently with the approval of the school administration. Carmichael has also attended conferences and meetings with other civil rights organizations, such as the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), sponsor of the Washington Spring Project. Source stated Carmichael has also met with Dr. Martin Luther King of SCLC. [REDACTED]

b7C

[REDACTED] in Washington, D.C.

Source advised there is no information available Carmichael is operating a school for out-of-town racial militants in Washington, D.C. On the contrary, according to source, Carmichael appears to be visiting so-called racial militants in the cities where they are located rather than having them come to Washington, D.C. Source stated Carmichael has visited the Roxbury, Boston area in Massachusetts, the Dayton, Cincinnati area in Ohio, and the San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles, California, areas since he took up residence in Washington, D.C. During each of these visits, he made speeches and held discussions of black power with leaders there. Source has noticed no large influx of out-of-town Negro militants in contact with Carmichael in Washington, D.C. Source was of the opinion Carmichael, if he were inclined toward establishing such a school to train racial militants, would not establish it in Washington for fear it would be discovered easily since it is the capitol of the country.

Other sources, who have furnished reliable information in the past and who have knowledge of Carmichael's activities, as well as knowledge of racial matters generally in the Washington, D.C. area, advised when contacted they have no information about Stokely Carmichael operating a school for training of out-of-town militants in Washington, D.C.

[redacted] advised that STOKELY CARMICHAEL may give a talk at the Presbyterian Church of the Redeemer, 15th and Girard Streets, N. W., WDC, on Sunday evening of 3/17/68. According to the source this activity is part of a regular Sunday night church service ~~forum~~ which is held each Sunday evening for Negro churchgoers.

A pretext telephone call to the church on 3/14/68 ascertained that if CARMICHAEL was in town he would attend the regular Sunday night church fellowship forum attended by the congregation. It was stated that CARMICHAEL's talk would include a question and answer period followed by a social hour.

MPD has advised that because of the religious connotation involved and the high risk potential for embarrassment, they will not attempt to record the program.

WFO will cover CARMICHAEL's activity through live sources; however, in view of the fact that the nature of Enrolled, An Act, To define and create the statutory offenses of inciting to felony and of inciting to misdemeanor; and to prescribe punishment therefor.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. (a) Inciting to a felony is the effort or endeavor by one person to induce, procure or cause another to commit a specific felony.

(b) Inciting to misdemeanor is the effort or endeavor of one person to procure or cause another to commit a specific misdemeanor.

Section 2. Any person who incites to a felony shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than ten years; provided, however, that, if such person incites to a felony under circumstances and with results which would render him an aider or abettor in the commission of such felony, he may be indicted, tried, and punished as a principal in the commission of such felony or, at the election and choice of the State, he may be proceeded against as a violator of this statute; but in no event may a person be convicted and punished, for the commission of the same criminal act or acts, both as a violator of this statute and as a principal in the commission of the felony to which he shall have incited.

Section 3. Any person who incites to misdemeanor must be fined not more than five hundred dollars, and may also be imprisoned in the county jail or sentenced to hard labor for the county for not more than six months.

Enrolled, An Act, To preserve law and order by proscribing, prohibiting and penalizing incitement to crime or to riotous conduct.
BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this Act, the following words and phrases shall have the respective meanings hereinafter in this section assigned to them:

(a) "Incite" means to urge, encourage, counsel, command, direct, enjoin, charm, beguile, inveigle, cajole, conjure, demand, summon, stimulate, threaten, arouse, stir, agitate, suggest, induce, provoke, exhort, beg, beseech, entreat, ask, tell, signal, call, motion, gesture or otherwise seek to move to concrete action either immediately or at the first opportune occasion. It does not include the advocacy or teaching of abstract doctrine unaccompanied by any effort to bring about concrete action.

(b) "Immediately" means either presently, or upon completion, or recess or adjournment of a meeting or program in progress; or upon the assembling or gathering of three or more persons pursuant to an act of incitement as hereinafter defined. For the purposes of this act, the taking of concrete action need not occur instantaneously in order to occur immediately.

(c) "Act of Incitement" means any conduct, whether entailing the use of words or otherwise, by which a person or persons incite any other person or persons.

(d) "Person" includes natural persons, corporations, associations and all other juristic entities.

Section 2. Creation and Gradation of Statutory Offenses.

(a) Any person who incites any other person or number of persons to do any of the following shall be guilty of a felony: (1) kill any human being or one or more human beings or group, body or class of human beings; or (2) with force and violence, to do bodily harm to, or inflict bodily injury upon, any human being; or (3) commit mayhem upon any human being or one or more human beings or any group, body or class of human beings; or (4) unlawfully or forcibly confine, inveigle or entice away any human being, with intent to cause him or her to be secretly confined or imprisoned against his or her will, or to be sent out of the state against his or her will; or (5) set fire to or burn a dwelling house, warehouse, store, or any other structure usually occupied or used by any human being or by one or more human beings or by any member or members of a group, body or class of human beings; or (6) assemble unlawfully with others and, being so assembled, demolish, pull down, destroy, or begin to demolish, pull down, or destroy, any dwelling house or other structure; or (7) sell, give or otherwise furnish arms, ammunition, weapons or explosives to any person participating or, to the knowledge of the seller or other furnisher of said items, being about to participate in any riot, tumult or other mob action; or (8) take away from any human being any of his or her money or goods of value by force or by putting such human being into fear, with the intent permanently to deprive such human being of his ownership or property rights in such money or goods of value; or (9) burglarize the dwelling house or other building occupied by or belonging to any human being or to any one or more human beings or to any group or class of people, or to any other juristic person; or (10) commit any felony against the person or property of any human being or against any group, body or class of human beings, or other juristic person, whether such felony be a statutory offense, a common law offense, or both; or (11) assemble with others, and being so assembled, engage in riotous conduct, disturbances of the peace and civil disturbances threatening or endangering life or property, after being warned to cease and desist inciting such conduct by any duly authorized law enforcement officer.

(b) Any person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor if he, she or it incites any other person or persons to commit a misdemeanor which, if committed, would inflict bodily harm or injury upon any human being or upon one or more human beings or upon any group, body or class of human beings. Actual commission of any misdemeanor so incited shall not be an element of the statutory misdemeanor hereby created.

Section 3. Punishment.

(a) Any person convicted of inciting any other person or persons to the commission of any of the acts enumerated in Sub-section (a) of Section (2) hereof shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than ten years.

(b) Any person convicted of the statutory misdemeanor created in and by Sub-section (b) of Section (2) hereof must be fined not more than five hundred dollars, and may also be imprisoned in the county jail or sentenced to hard labor for the county for not more than six months.

(c) If any person engages in an act of incitement under such circumstances and attended with such results as to constitute such person, under the law of Alabama as it exists prior to the passage of this Act, an aider and abettor in the commission of crime, then such person may be proceeded against as a principal in the commission of the crime to which he has incited; or, at the election of the State, such person may be proceeded against for violation of this Act; but in no event shall a person be convicted and punished, for the commission of the same criminal act or acts, both as a violator of this statute and as a principal in the commission of the crime to which he shall have incited another or others.

Section 4. Interpretation and Severability of Provisions.

(a) This Act is not to be interpreted as requiring that conduct include or involve verbal communication in order for such conduct to constitute an act of incitement. If conduct reasonably adapted to the purpose of incitement be employed for the accomplishment of that purpose, it shall be immaterial that neither spoken nor written words are so employed. Nothing herein provided, however, is to be deemed, construed or interpreted as limiting the acts of incitement here denounced to non-verbal acts. An act of incitement may or may not consist in whole or in part of the use of words, oral, written, printed, drawn or otherwise formulated. (b) The only intent requisite to the commission of the crimes in this Act denounced is the intent to do the act of incitement. (c) The crimes herein denounced shall be deemed to be completed upon completion of the act of incitement, whether the specific acts of wrongdoing sought to be incited be committed as a result or in consequence of the act of incitement or not; but the efficacy or inefficacy of an act of incitement may be considered in imposing punishment. (d) If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or in any particular circumstance, be held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of each provision to other persons or in other circumstances shall not be affected by such holding of invalidity.

Section 5. Effective Date. It is hereby specially provided that this Act shall become effective upon its passage and approval by the Governor, or upon its otherwise becoming a law.

Re: Visit of Stokley Carmichael to Eastern Michigan University

On March 8, 1968, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that the Eastern Michigan University (EMU), Ypsilanti, Michigan, Administration and Social Student Organizations, are sponsoring a symposium that is scheduled to be held on April 25, 26, and 27, 1968, on the EMU campus.

The source advised that the following speakers for this symposium were invited:

Stokley Carmichael

Ex-Governor George Wallace of Alabama

Senator Robert Kennedy

Vice President Hubert Humphrey

He also stated that other local state senators and congressmen, the names of which he did not know, were also invited.

The source stated that Carmichael and Senator Kennedy had accepted the invitation and were to appear and that Vice President Humphrey stated he either would accept the invitation, or send a representative to replace him.

The source further stated that the EMU Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) Chapter was not able to endorse this group officially because the SDS organization on the EMU campus had no funds available to share with the expenses involved.

Re: Visit of Stokley Carmichael

A characterization of the SDS will be found in the appendix pages attached hereto.

APPENDIX

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) as it is known today came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California on May 14, 1965 described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us". At the June, 1965 SDS National Convention, an anti-Communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966 issue of "New Left Notes", the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some Communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967 was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on February 29, 1968 advised as follows:

On February 28, 1968 three individuals from South Bend, Indiana, who were interested in civil rights, conferred with [redacted] at SCLC headquarters, 3543 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] advised one of the individuals from South Bend that he expected her to participate in the "first wave" of Reverend Martin Luther King's "Poor Peoples" Campaign, tentatively set for April 7, 1968. There will be around 3000 individuals in this first wave and 200 to 300 of this number will be from the Chicago area. The first wave will camp by the "cherry trees" in Washington and if necessary will cut down the trees for use in fuel for cooking meals. If members of the first wave are arrested, replacements will be available.

[redacted] stated that Stokely Carmichael, former head of Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), will publicly disavow this approach of SCLC to the problem of poverty but privately will give support. SCLC will publicly disavow violence but [redacted] stated "Many of us feel self-defense is essential" and "If someone is hit, there is no way of telling him not to defend himself". Also, [redacted] stated in effect that the official stances of SCLC is one of non-violence but "SCLC can't police everyone".

[redacted] related that the first stage will last up to three weeks followed by a second wave where those participating will be more from the middle class and will engage in more massive civil disobedience such as blocking the roads leading to Washington with their bodies and setting up large tent cities on government grounds.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~Date 2/28/68

On February 18, 1968, a rally sponsored by the Black Congress scheduled from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. was held at the Los Angeles Sports Arena at Santa Barbara and Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, California, to raise funds for the defense of HUEY P. NEWTON. There were 3,300 persons in attendance. The rally was delayed and did not commence until 4:22 p.m. because STOKELY CARMICHAEL refused to enter the arena unless all police officers were removed from the premises. A compromise was reached by the management of the arena and CARMICHAEL when Negro police officers were permitted to remain in the arena.

The purpose of the rally was to raise funds for the defense of HUEY P. NEWTON, Minister of Defense, Black Panther Party for Self-Defense (BPPSD) who is presently incarcerated in the Alameda County Jail, Oakland, California awaiting trial on charges of murdering an Oakland Police Officer in October, 1967 at Oakland, California.

H. RAP BROWN was first introduced to the audience at the beginning of the rally as he made his way to the speaker's platform with STOKELY CARMICHAEL and other black nationalist leaders. At this time, BROWN was mentioned as being a "representative from New York City." BROWN sat on the speaker's platform between STOKELY CARMICHAEL and RON KARENGA, who is Chairman of US, a militant black nationalist organization based in Los Angeles, California.

At approximately 6:30 p.m. H. RAP BROWN was introduced by WALTER BREMOND, Chairman of the Black Congress, as the Minister of Justice of the BPPSD and Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

During his speech, H. RAP BROWN referred to the audience as "chumps" because they believe any lies that the white people tell them, and he stated substantially the following:

He began his dissertation by asking the question, "What happens when there is no redress of grievances?" There will be a revolution of dispossessed people.

They used to call it Detroit, now they call it "Destroit".

Black people must understand you have to control everything or you don't control anything. You must control the economics, the education and the political situation.

America tells Negroes that everything white is good and everything black is bad.

We call ourselves revolutionaries, but how many white cops have died since NEWTON has been in jail? He killed the last honkie cop. "The only thing HUEY NEWTON is guilty of is that he didn't tell me he was going to get a honkie that day."

Everyone is born free and you must begin to exercise your rights because you are either free or slaves. Freedom is absolute.

MAO says, "Freedom comes from the barrel of a gun." Brothers should acquire guns because America only understands force.

Plainfield, New Jersey was a successful rebellion because they had guns. America only respects guns. "LYNDON JOHNSON is a two-gun outlaw from Texas." If you want to have a revolution you have to have something to fight with.

Black people have equated progress with concession, but we have made no progress. They took chains from our feet and put them on our minds.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

LA 100-70038

There is no difference between the Democrats or the Republicans or between GOLDWATER or JOHNSON. The only difference between GEORGE WALLACE and President JOHNSON is one of their wives has cancer. There are no classes of Negroes. They are just "niggers".

BROWN stated that he saw a sign that said, "I wonder what happened to LEE HARVEY OSWALD now that we need him." BROWN said that he wondered the same thing.

Negroes must go beyond "racist pig cops" because he is just a tool of the white power structure.

Black People cannot be capitalists because war is profitable to this country and it must fight to keep the economy up. America says it is fighting to stop communism and it lies because we only drop Napalm on communists of color.

Negroes are facing genocide and extermination in America.

They told us we are making progress when THURGOOD MARSHALL was appointed to the Supreme Court. Senator JAMES EASTLAND in no uncertain terms told MARSHALL he was "the top nigger. Is that progress?" Progress is determined by the amount of power you have.

American will send "niggers" to concentration camps, and you can ask the Indians and the Japanese Americans.

As far as America looks at it, they have a surplus of "niggers". America will exterminate people of color because they did it to the Japanese when they bombed Hiroshima. You must fight for survival.

America has given an ultimatum. Either live or die, and we say "freedom or death."

BROWN terminated his speech at approximately 6:48 p.m.

A recording of H. Rap Brown's presentation at the Black Congress rally, Los Angeles Sports Arena, on February 18, 1968 was made by a Special Agent of the FBI, and the following is a verbatim transcript of that speech:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WALTER BREMOND: Next man on the program, like the other brothers, really doesn't need an introduction. _____ that brother JAMES FOREMAN talked about. It's my pleasure to introduce to you the minister of justice for the Black Panther Party for Self Defense, the chairman of SNCC, Bro. RAP BROWN. (applause)

RAP BROWN: Solid brother. They tell me that we running overtime but I figure if they can give the Los Angeles Lakers overtime, and the Los Angeles Lakers ain't never burned nothing but cigarettes, they can give us overtime, we burned Watts. (applause)

I want to raise the question with black people here tonight. A question that's relevant to all black people and oppressed people across the world. The question is what happens when there is no redress of grievance. See, black people in America have never had a machinery that spoke adequately for the redress of grievances and to the lack of redress of grievances in this country. In other words justice has never been a reality for black people in this country. You've got to begin to look at America and its oppressor's nature and then you begin to understand the revolutionary struggle that oppressed people are engaged in throughout the world. The revolution that this country is facing will be a revolution of dispossessed people. That means

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mexican-Americans, Puerto Ricans, blacks, American-Indians and any dispossessed class in this country. (applause) Our _____ brother once eulogized Detroit. Perhaps it would be the eulogy for America. He says there was a town called _____ town, now it ain't no town. He said they used to call it Detroit, now they call it "destroyed." (laughter) America will fit in this same situation if she doesn't begin to address herself to the problems of black people in this country. (applause) Black people must begin to understand that if you don't control, everything that you don't control becomes a weapon against you. The educational system today is a weapon against black people. It expounds and teaches white nationalism. (applause) An example of white nationalism that's taught in the educational system of America which perputates this society is that COLUMBUS discovered America, a continent full of people. How can you discover a continent full of people. It tells you further that anything white in this country, anything white across the world is good. Everything black is bad. Black cows don't give good milk, black hens don't lay eggs. You wear black to funerals and white to weddings. Angel food cake is white, devils food cake is black. Even band-aid plastic strips flesh color are pink. (applause) But we go for it. We go for it because we're chumps. We're chumps of the highest order. HUEY P. NEWTON is now confined in jail because of our lack of action. We accuse ourselves of being revolutionaries.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

How many white cops have died since HUEY P. NEWTON has been in jail? One. He killed the last hunkie that died from a bullet from a black gun. (applause) The only thing that HUEY NEWTON is guilty of, perhaps, is that he didn't tell me he was going down on the hunkies that day. That's the only thing, (laughter) that's the only thing. But HUEY P. NEWTON's freedom depends upon what black people do. Nobody else. You see freedom is not a _____ commodity, you are born free. You must exercise your right to be free. The man cannot give you freedom. He can't pass it out. You can't run around _____ talking about we waiting to be free. You must begin to become free. Begin to exercise that right. There is no such thing as a second class citizen. You are either free or you are slave. Freedom is absolute. There is no in between. You have to stop thinking along those lines. (applause) To tell me that you are a second class citizen is like telling me that you will never get pregnant. You can't be a little bit pregnant. You're either pregnant or you're not. You're either lying or you're telling the truth. These are absolutes. Freedom is an absolutism. Black people if they're going to be free must begin to seize power. _____ says power comes from the barrel of a gun. (applause) You better get your gun brother. I don't care if it ain't nothing but a bebe gun with poisoned babes. (laughter) America has shown us that she does not respect anything but counter force. Plainfield,

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

New Jersey, one of the most successful examples of a rebellion this year was successful because the brothers had only recently stole some 46 automatic weapons, each one that would shoot 2000 times and throw bricks for a half hour. And the police refused to go down there and warned them shoot up Plainfield so they signed an armistice with the brothers and they say, well gee, you let us go look for the weapons so we can look good on the news. The brothers say "groovy" cause they hid the weapons. The National Guard went down there and begin to kick down doors and destroy property and the word went out "you kick down one more door we going to shoot your leg off." (laughter) They left playing field, that's counter force, the brothers were armed. America does not love China, she respects China. (applause) Force. America runs the game on _____ and tells you that you are being violent. This is the most violent country that has ever been conceived. LYNDON JOHNSON is a two-gun outlaw from Texas. (applause) He believes in the showdown concept. That's what's going on in Vietnam. That's what's going on in this country today. That's why white folks are arming themselves. JOHNSON has told them "You got to be the fastest draw.", But my advice and my news for the Minutemen is if you can't fight but a minute, don't come to my community. (laughter) You've got to arm yourself. That's the basic right. You can't talk about revolution if you don't have anything to fight with. You're caught up in a revolution era whether you approve of it or not. Black people for years have equated progress with concessions. We have made no progress from slavery. We are still slaves in this country. They took the chains off our feet and put it on our minds. (applause) There is no political structure in this country that's relevant to black people. The only politics we can be concerned with is the politics of revolution. (applause) There is no difference between the Democratic and Republican parties. What's the difference between GOLDWATER and JOHNSON? Yet black people run around the country talking about their Democrats and the Democrats have them thoroughly fooled because they tell them "We for the good of colored folks, but it ain't our fault it's the Dixiecrats;" there is no such animal as a Dixiecrat. The only difference between GEORGE WALLACE and President JOHNSON is that one of them's wife has got cancer. Nothing else. (laughter and applause) Two of the most potentially dangerous Negroes in this country are Democrats, HATCHER and STOKES. Now understand this. Their allegiance is not to the black community. It's to the Democratic Party whether by "lynch em" JOHNSON or racist, red neck, _____ honky from Texas. (applause) This is the same game that was run on the Jews in Germany. It was not the Germans who began to move Jews, it was other Jews. When JOHNSON tells STOKES to move out the agitators and the trouble makers, what you think he going to do? He's going to move them. When he tells STOKES to move out the trouble makers, he's going to move them. This is why black people must quit dividing themselves and talking about classes. We can ill afford the luxury of class structures in our community. There is no such thing as a black middle class. You don't believe it go to Detroit and ask the brothers who thought they were in the middle class. The cops whip middle class here with middle class sticks. No difference. (applause) If you think that you can divide yourselves into classes then you are lost already, because first of all they got to remove the troublemakers. Then they going to remove the athletes because they talking about boycotting the Olympics. And the entertainers going to sit back say "Well it ain't us", but ERTHA KITT got them so far in even they ain't going to get out of it, (applause) and it becomes a matter of time before they eliminate everybody. The resistance is weakened. Everytime they take off a different stratification of black people we cannot afford for HUEY NEWTON to sit in jail. We cannot afford for any black person to be political prisoners _____ in this country. This is our country. It was built on our backs by our labor. We've built the country up, we'll burn it down if they don't hurry up and come around. (applause) People are running around here scared of black power.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

What you going to do when you need black power. That's the thing you got to be talking about. That's what's going to defend you. We cannot run around and let the white man dictate and tell you who you should follow. The movement at this point seems to be a leaderless movement. We must begin to expouse an ideology that covers everybody in their black community. The brothers know that they are fighting, they have expressed the will to fight, but they only know they are supposed to fight the policeman. You see I saw a sign once that said "I wonder what happened to LEE HARVEY OSWALD now that we really need him?" (laughter) See, you're chumps. You believe the sign. ROCKEFELLER probably put that sign up. (laughter) You see, it's not only JOHNSON. It's not only those people in Washington. ROCKEFELLER has investments in S. Africa. These are the enemies. (applause) You must begin to broaden your concepts. You got to get beyond the racist pig cop, you see, because he is a tool of the man who really controls this system. We not only talking about destroying a power structure, we talking about ruination of a system. (applause) Black people cannot afford to become Capitalists. The military industrial complex that old _____ EISENHOWER even had sense enough to know about is real. It's very real. The military industrial complex means that over 70% of the people employed in this country has some dealings

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

to do with the military. In other words war is profitable in this country. We must fight war to keep the economy up. This is why we are in the war in Vietnam. It's not because we're trying to stop Communist aggression, that's the biggest lie ever told. If we was so interested in stopping Communist aggression why has America never moved to stop Communist aggression in white community countries with the use of napalm? They always use Radio Free Europe _____. (applause) Black people in this country face extermination. That's it, brother. You face extermination daily. We are facing genocide on about four different levels. The war is active genocide. It's no accident that 45% of the casualties in Vietnam are black. That's no accident. The courts of America, any black man who faces a court in America can expect a maximum sentence and a maximum fine.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Well then you said we were making progress.
Very good MARSHALL is a nigger and JAMES EASTLAND told him he was a nigger. (applause) Herefore good MARSHALL supposedly go on before the high extension of the country, was subjected to a type of hustling by a cracker whose old man was a lynchman of black people. In other words, what EASTLAND was telling IRVIN MARSHALL is that you the top nigger in the country but you still a nigger to me. (applause)

That's not progress. (applause)

They gave you an astronaut. I said they were going to lose the nigger in space, but they didn't let him get that high. (applause)

What you say we makin' progress. That's not progress. Progress is determined by the amount of power you possess in wheels.

See brothers, we must begin to prepare ourselves mentally and physically, for the battle is yet to come -- the battle is not descended down upon black people like it will in the next few years.

The concentration camps are real, and if you don't believe America is capable of sending niggers to concentration camps, or people of color to concentration camps, ask the Japanese American, ask the Indians. (applause)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

They don't need you any more. You are commodity in this country. A surplus. America got a surplus of niggers. (applause)

RAMSEY CLARK, Attorney General, got on T. V. a few months ago and said within the next 20 years, the entire population of this country will be a leisure class, with the exception of 20 percent of that population because of automation and sovereignization. And then you examine to see who they're training for automated and sovereignized jobs. They ain't training you, double ol' soul. (applause) They're training white people.

We were brought here to do work. There is no more work to do. They will exterminate you. Our history proves she is capable of extermination of people of color. She dropped the bomb on Hiroshima and not in Germany and not because she didn't have the bombs, but because the Japanese were yella'. (applause)

You must begin to understand that your fight is a fight of survival. People of color must be concerned. We must become allies. These are our allies: Mexican Americans. Puerto Ricans. American Indians. These are the people who we align with. (applause)

Yes brother, America has given us an ultimatum. She say you live or die. We say freedom or death. Fuck it. Black power, brother. (applause)

Stokely Urges Negroes Here to Take Arms

Black Power advocate Stokely Carmichael spoke here last night, said white men are arming themselves to kill Negroes, and urged his "African brothers" to unite, secure guns and revolt.

Referring to Carmichael's presence in Tuscaloosa, Congressman Armistead Selden, candidate for the United States Senate, described him as a national disgrace and a man who openly incites mob action.

Selden spoke at the state convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the Stafford Motor Hotel last night and called for the Justice Department to find laws to prosecute and jail Carmichael. Selden said he had introduced legislation in Congress that should be passed if no other laws can be found to do the job.

The Selden bill would provide up to five years imprisonment or fines of up to $10,000 for any person who crosses state borders or uses interstate facilities to institute or encourage riots. A similar fine of 10 years imprisonment could be meted out against anyone giving aid or comfort to any foreign country or armed group fighting against the United States or U.S. forces.

Speaking before an applauding crowd at Birthright Auditorium at Stillman College, Carmichael made a direct appeal to Negroes who he said had been robbed of a rich culture and heritage in Africa when their ancestors were stolen by white men from there at gunpoint.

H. Rap Brown, Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee chairman, was jailed not because he shot someone or burned a building, he said. Brown was placed in jail because of his political beliefs, Carmichael said.

Sprinkling his talk with several anti-Vietnam phrases, Carmichael boasted of the ease with which he was able to talk with Ho Chi Minh in North Vietnam at a time when American leaders were unable to get him to a conference table.

Newsmen were not allowed to take notes or shoot pictures during the two-hour speech of Carmichael. Several individuals were escorted from the building when they attempted to do so.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

b7C

On March 14, 1968, [redacted] Alabama State Department Of Public Safety, Selma, Alabama, advised that at 10:50 A.M., Central Standard Time, March 14, 1968, STOKELY CARMICHAEL arrived in Selma, Alabama, and his itinerary is unknown.

CARMICHAEL was observed at 11:15 A.M., March 14, 1968, in the downtown area of Selma, Alabama, accompanied by [redacted] previously reported as [redacted] of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), and three other unidentified young Negro males.

b7C

Established sources, which included law enforcement agencies and racial sources, stated that CARMICHAEL did not have any speaking engagement at Selma, Alabama.

CARMICHAEL departed Selma, Alabama at approximately 11:30 A.M., Central Standard Time, March 14, 1968.

During the course of the afternoon of March 14, 1968, CARMICHAEL and his associates were in the vicinity of the Whitehall Community in Lowndes County, Alabama. They were at a residence usually used by representatives of the SNCC when in Lowndes County, Alabama.

A confidential source, with whom contact has not been sufficient to establish his reliability, made available a throwaway pamphlet, which reflected that STOKELY CARMICHAEL would speak at the Beulah Baptist Church in Montgomery, Alabama at 8:00 P.M., Central Standard Time, on March 14, 1968. A [redacted] confidential source, with whom contact has not been sufficient to establish his reliability, verified this information, but stated the minister of the church involved had retracted the invitation to CARMICHAEL to speak at the church. He stated, however, if the church could not be used, CARMICHAEL would make an address on the churchgrounds.

CARMICHAEL arrived at the Beulah Baptist Church in Montgomery, Alabama between 8:00 and 8:15 P.M., Central Standard Time, March 14, 1968, accompanied by four other Negro males at the time church services were just ending, and there were some 50 Negroes on the churchgrounds at the time of CARMICHAEL's arrival. Most of them appeared to be students from Alabama State College, Montgomery, Alabama. CARMICHAEL briefly addressed the group. He made but a few remarks, such as telling the girls that "No one should tell you that black is not beautiful" and "Whitey, the FBI, followed me from Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and, because I was followed, I will have to change my plans in the future".

During this time, an unidentified associate of CARMICHAEL addressed the group, complaining about the fact that CARMICHAEL was denied the privilege of the facilities of the Alabama State College, an all-Negro school at Montgomery, Alabama.

b7C Shortly thereafter, CARMICHAEL came out of the church and had a [] meeting with approximately [] individuals. The meeting was of a short duration.

b7C CARMICHAEL and [] departed Montgomery, Alabama via Delta Air Lines Flight Number 356 for Atlanta, Georgia, leaving Montgomery at 12:00 P.M., Central Standard Time, March 14, 1968, arriving in Atlanta, Georgia at 10:46 P.M., Central Standard Time, March 14, 1968.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

The following pertinent activities of Stokely Carmichael from February 28 to March 10, 1968, are set forth as follows:

b7C
Man
On Wednesday, February 28, 1968, Stokely Carmichael, traveling under the name A. Kuttati, arrived at Dulles Airport, Washington, D. C. (WDC), via Delta Airlines Flight Number 106 at 6:24 p.m. from Atlanta, Georgia. He was accompanied by one [redacted] Vo. They were met by [redacted] and went to National Airport, WDC, where [redacted] boarded Eastern Airlines Flight Number 646 for Boston, scheduled to depart at 7:35 p.m. After the departure, Carmichael and [redacted] traveled to the headquarters of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 1234 U Street, N. W., WDC. Carmichael later went to his residence, 2200 12th Street, N. W., WDC. Subsequently he returned to SNCC Headquarters and later attended a movie at a local theater.

On Thursday, February 29, 1968, Carmichael spent the day at his residence and SNCC Headquarters. In the evening, he visited briefly the New School for Afro-American Thought, 2208 14th Street, N. W., WDC, with a female companion, where a social appeared to be in progress. Later than evening, they visited a night club.

On Friday, March 1, 1968, Carmichael departed his residence and went to SNCC Headquarters. In the evening he left SNCC Headquarters and went to the residence of [redacted] [redacted] WDC, accompanied by six other individuals. b7C

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

A source advised a SNCC fund raising party was held that evening at the [] residence with Carmichael being the guest of honor. b7C

On Saturday, March 2, 1968, Carmichael went to SNCC Headquarters where he remained into the afternoon. Later he went to the office of [] WDC. Subsequently he returned to SNCC Headquarters. In the evening he visited the newly established headquarters of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), 1401 U Street, N. W., WDC, headed by Dr. Martin Luther King, sponsor of the Washington Spring Project. b7C

On Sunday, March 3, 1968, Carmichael attended religious services at the New Bethel Baptist Church, WDC, [] He later went to Eddie Murphy's Supper Club, 2227 Georgia Avenue, N. W., WDC. Subsequently that afternoon he went to the residence of [] WDC, where a social was being held. b7C

A source advised a fund raising social for SNCC was held at the residence of [] mentioned above, during the afternoon and evening of March 3, 1968, and that [] was the guest of honor. After attending the above party, Carmichael went to [] held at [] WDC. b7C

On Monday, March 4, 1968, Carmichael returned to his residence late in the afternoon. Later he went to SNCC Headquarters.

A source advised that on the evening of March 4, 1968, Carmichael was scheduled to attend a meeting of the Board of Conveeners of the Black United Front (BUF). He went to the address where it was to be held, however, due to an apparent mix up in dates only a few members in addition to Carmichael appeared. For this reason the meeting was cancelled and re-scheduled for the evening of March 7, 1968, to be held at the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple, WDC.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Stokely Carmichael + Co. and SNCC
On Tuesday, March 5, 1968, a source advised that a SNCC meeting was held that date at the apartment of Stokely Carmichael. The source stated it appeared that friction had developed and a split between Carmichael and [redacted] of the WDC Office of SNCC, was evident. Carmichael confronted [redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] According to the source, it appeared that some SNCC workers seemed to be lined up against [redacted] in an effort to remove him [redacted]. The meeting was punctuated by arguments concerning the lack of efficient operation of the SNCC office. [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

b7C

Later that date Stokely Carmichael went to SNCC Headquarters. In the evening he returned to his residence.

On Wednesday, March 6, 1968, a source advised that another meeting of SNCC office workers was held that date at Carmichael's residence. At this meeting it was decided to make a press release containing excerpts from writings of H. Rap Brown since his confinement to jail. It was also decided to release a statement to the press concerning Dr. Martin Luther King's Washington Spring Project pointing out that SNCC had a program in WDC before King's project was contemplated and that SNCC would continue to implement this program after his departure. According to source the release would state in effect the press in WDC has used SNCC as a "whipping boy" claiming SNCC might cause violence, whereas the real problem in the city is over-reaction by the police to situations arising in the ghetto areas. Source advised the release would emphasize that the biggest problem connected with the proposed march of Dr. King will in all probability be the reaction of the police rather than any unlawful behavior on the part of SNCC members.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

In the afternoon Carmichael went to SNCC Headquarters where he remained into the evening hours.

On Thursday, March 7, 1968, Carmichael departed his residence and went to SNCC Headquarters. In the early afternoon he visited the office of the SCLC, Washington Spring Project, 1401 U Street, N. W., WDC. He subsequently returned to SNCC Headquarters, 1234 U Street, N. W., WDC. In the evening Carmichael went to the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple, 11th and R Street, N. W., WDC.

A source advised that a meeting of the BUF, Board of Conveeners, was held at the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple, WDC, on the evening of March 7, 1968. Stokely Carmichael was in attendance. The meeting centered around three main issues: membership, organizational procedure and meeting places. Regarding membership, the discussion primarily concerned whether a membership fee should be charged. It was decided over Carmichael's objection that an organization should pay $10 and a fee of $1 or $2 should be charged for individuals. Carmichael felt an organization should not have to pay a fee. Regarding the discussion on organizational procedures no decisions were made. This discussion was concerned with whether the BUF is actually an organization type of a group or whether or not it is a mass movement. Concerning organizational meetings to be held in the future it was decided that additional space would be needed. It was agreed that the next meeting would be held at the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple, WDC, rather than at the New School for Afro-American Thought. The next organizational meeting of the BUF was scheduled for March 19, 1968.

A source further advised that a SNCC meeting was held in another portion of the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple following the above mentioned meeting of the Board of Conveeners of the BUF. The purpose of the SNCC meeting was to express sympathy for the three Negro students killed recently during a racial incident at Orangeburg, South Carolina.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Cleveland Sellers, a SNCC representative who had been present in Orangeburg during the incident, addressed the meeting. He discussed the recent racial developments in Orangeburg and gave his view of what had taken place causing the death of three students. Sellers urged the audience to support and show sympathy for the persons who had been arrested in connection with racial problems such as Leroy Jones and H. Rap Brown. He maintained they had been jailed for fighting for the rights of black people.

On Friday, March 8, 1968, Carmichael visited the campus of Howard University, WDC, in the afternoon where he listened to a speech by Cleveland Sellers mentioned previously. Sellers spoke of the events which took place at the recent racial incident at South Carolina State College in Orangeburg. Subsequently Carmichael went to National Airport, WDC, where he saw [redacted] off on a flight to Binghamton, New York. b7C

On Saturday, March 9, 1968, Carmichael went to National Airport, WDC, where he inquired about travel arrangements to Montgomery, Alabama. In the afternoon he visited SNCC Headquarters prior to returning to his residence.

On Sunday, March 10, 1968, Carmichael accompanied by an individual believed to be [redacted] departed WDC at National Airport 8:50 a.m. via Eastern Airlines Flight Number 135 en route to Montgomery, Alabama. Carmichael traveled under name V. Walcher and his companion used the name [redacted] b7C

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"Good afternoon. I want to talk about a couple of things today and then we want to end by talking about Brother Rap Brown on the importance of the situation today for black people in the country. Now we started off at the McFall(phonetic) Chapel talking about where black people are in this country today, and it is crystal clear that we have to begin to talk about our survival and nothing else, just how we will survive because it is crystal clear that the hunkies are getting ready to wipe out everybody whether you are Bourgoise(phonetic), whether you are militants, whether you are revolutionary, whether you are college students, whether you Delta(phonetic), whether you this or whether you that. If you black you go vote.

"Now then, we want to talk about survival on three levels, but first we have to try and repeat what we said earlier about understanding the ingrained superiority of white people around the world where they are subconscious of their own superior attitude and subconscious of their own racism. Now we began by explaining the moods of the white Western World against the Colored World. They first began to expand in this country and in order to establish a country, they wiped out the Indians. They committed genocide against that race. They then moved to South America. They did the same thing to the Aztec Indians. They came to our motherland, Africa, and they stole us, they steal our gold, they steal our copper, they steal our uranium, they steal our cocoa. Today they still plunder and steal everything from our motherland. They went to Asia and they did the exact same thing in Asia. Wherever this white man has gone, he has felt the people who were not his color are supposed to serve him. It is time for us to tell him that junk is over.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"Now then, we have to develop three very important concepts as we move to organize our people today, and the first is very important. It is an undying love for our people, and we have to develop that concept more and more and understand what it means because we have our people turning against each other, fighting each other, destroying each other, only because of the system under which we live. An undying love for our people will begin to recognize that we can forgive the individuals who are black inside our community who commit crimes against us if we understand the system that aroused them to do those things. For example, I find a lot of people who say they are organizing but they don't want to organize prostitutes, or pimps, hustlers or ex-convicts, and there are approaches to take these people as individuals, to try to get a dope addict to stop using dope, But that's absolutely nonsensical. If you get a dope addict to stop using dope and you do not remove the pressures that caused him to use dope, it's really inevitable that he is going to go back to using dope anyhow. So there is no need to approach that individual. We have to approach the system that makes them use dope, that make our women become prostitutes, that make our men become pimps, that make everybody in this society become a hustler for each other to live. An understanding of the system will mean that we will be able to forgive our own people who are caught up in the system. There is one other thing I think we ought to understand about the hustlers and the ex-convicts. They are the most courageous people in our community without a doubt. In this society if you are black you make it two ways. Either you get an education, which is by definition a compromise of our manhood or dignity, or you go out with a gun and you face the man. The hustlers and the pimps face the guns. They face the man every day by themselves, single handedly. When they go out to hold up a store, rubbing the (unintelligible) hands up against the wall and (unintelligible) stick up enough taking it all, but they do that individually. They do that individually, where we have to understand this where we can collect all of the hustlers, all of the pimps, all of the ex-cons, everybody with a gun go (unintelligible) and that we want the government. That means that we could organize the people so they do not confront hunkies one at a time, where we confront them together, and we must move to a confrontation of this system, we must understand that in defense of ours one does not change the status quo. One just stays alive within the status quo. If you want to change the status quo, you got to move against it. Defense of ours does not change the status quo, it just protects your life. So it's very important, the undying love for our people. The first concept, then, is first our people, then and only then, meaning you.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"Following that comes the second issue that every Negro is a potential black man and that must be understood because too many of our black masters are alienating a majority of our people who they feel are not black enough. And we have to understand that it is our job to take time out with those who are still Negroes and make them black then, because if we believe the fight is going to be against the entire community, that every Negro is a potential ally and we never alienate our potential allies. Nobody who is fixing to have a confrontation ever alienates their potential allies. We must understand that concept and we must work at it consciously. Every Negro is a potential black man. Let's work with our people and bring them home. That is our desire and this is very important. (Applause)

"Now then, the third concept, which is a little bit more difficult to deal with, but which is fundamental to our movement is very simple. For black people, the question of community is not the question of geography, it is a question of color. I want to repeat that so we can expand on it. For black people, the question of community is not the question of geography, it is the question of color, it is simply wherever our people are, wherever our people are, we are at home because we do the same things, if it's in Watts, if you are in Los Angeles, you want to be with your people. You go to Watts, you feel at home. South side Chicago, Detroit, in Atlanta, Georgia, the Hunter Street District, it used to be on the bottom but they just renovated the place moving South. In San Francisco, it's the Filmore (phonetic) District, wherever you go, when we want to be in a community, we go where our people are. We must begin to understand that, because if we understand that concept then we understand that we are part and partial the same people. So that whatever happens in any one area effects us and if we really understand that, then we break down national geography and we recognize that there are now 100 million occupants in the world today and we are part of them, but we have to break down that concept. We have to. (Applause)

"And the only way we can conscientiously break down that concept is to stop talking this nonsense about America. We talk about our people, black people, Africans, that is all that is important to us. This country is nothing, this country never has been, this country never will be, and unless we come to that realization, we are going to be lost. But it is very important for us to view that concept in international relationships. There are 900 million Africans in the world today. Chairman Mao Tse Tung talks about 750 million Chinese, we have 900 million Africans in the world today. From South Africa to Novia Scotia, we have been scattered by the white man and he saw fit, not that we saw fit. We do not know who we are, where we came from, who our sisters are, who our brothers are. We know absolutely nothing about our peers, the flesh of our blood, and the (unintelligible) and unless we come to that realization we are going to be lost. The white man scattered us in the West Indies, he scattered us to Cuba, he scattered us in Brazil, in Panama, in Guatamala, in Santo Domingo, in Mexico, United States, and Canada. Wherever he wanted to be he scattered us and he put thousands of miles of water between us, but we have to tell them that blood is thicker than water. (Applause) If we begin to understand that concept then we will not allow them to divide us from our brothers in Africa. When you see an African student here on your campus who comes from Africa, the only reason he is here now is because of the Mayflower mission. That's the only reason. The only reason. (Applause) So that makes him no different than us, the only difference is that we were caught and his parents were not. For all we know he might be our brother because our parents might have been the brother they swapped, and he is the one that they left. We cannot allow them to divide us, they have decided to conquer us on power, they are afraid of blackness. They have tried to make us afraid of blackness. We must get up and tell them we are being black. It is the most beautiful thing in the world. (Applause)

"Now then, we have to begin talking about organizing techniques and all the programs that the hunkies run down that will save us and we must understand them very clearly. The first thing is that all of them are saying now today that Black Power represents the vote, and we find a lot of our people jumping up and saying Black Power is the vote. We ought to recognize as the people that the vote is now and always has been irrelevant to the survival of black people. Is now and always has been irrelevant to the survival of black people. We survived in Mississippi, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, Texas, North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, before they passed their jive voting rights act in 1965. We survived without it, we are surviving without it today and we are not voting in large numbers. When they took Julian Bond from his seat he was out of his seat for a year and one-half, we survived right here in this district without Julian Bond. They take Adam Clayton Powell, we are surviving without Adam Clayton Powell. We must recognize the vote is nothing but a trick beg by the white man. It is absolutely nothing, because they have the power to renew everybody we possess that is not ours, that is not ours. (Applause) And until we conscientiously begin to deal with it, we will be caught with everybody running around voting for somebody and when that person gets in there, if he is the slightest bit black, they will kick him out. And they can do it to everybody in the dark people elect in this country. Including the Stokes, the Clevelands, if they ever try to get a little bit black all they have to do is find a commissioner, find him guilty of fraud, kick him out of office, and we are going to stand there voting. The vote is irrelevant to black people. (Applause) Unless you have real power to back up the people you put in power, you have no power. Mao Tse Tung says political power goes out of the barrel of the gun. He is correct. (Applause) And we must begin to understand that's not it, because none of us here can do anything about Adam Clayton Powell if they took out Stokes and Hatchet (phonetic), we could do absolutely nothing.

"If we use the vote today it must be used only as an organizing tool for our people, for bringing us together, not as a solution to our problems. It will not solve any of our problems, only as an organizing tool to bring our people together do we use the vote. And as far as the 1968 election is concerned, we should forecast the whole damn thing. (Applause)

"now then, we have to move to the next thing, which is the poverty program. (Laughter) We must understand the poverty program and its concepts. The poverty program is the most sinister program the hunkies could have developed. It does two things. It strips the community and strips our families. Let us examine the poverty program. We need not, we all know what it does in the community, they organize this group, they organize that group, they organize about four groups and then they say they can only fund one group. And then these groups get to fight each other for the crumbs, for the bones. If these groups had any kind of sense, they would stop fighting for the bones, get together, and we could all get the meat, which belongs to us.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

But the poverty program is a clearance to visit our neighbors in the black community. No one can deny that. Watts, which was the first community to be funded by their jive poverty program system, is now completely divided. The black people voting white instead of for black people for a couple of hundred thousand dollars, and the white man sits back there laughing at all of us fighting each other. We must understand the poverty program in its correct prospective.

"Now, the way it divides the family, and this is important. At any rate, the most distinctive revolutionary people are the youth, that is a fact. In our race, the most revolutionary, vindictive revolutionary people are our youths. They will fight at the drop of a hat. They will do anything. The youths will fight at the drop of a hat. The poverty program is paid to stop the (unintelligible). It is right for our youths to get $50 to $75 to $150 a week for doing absolutely nothing but stopping the rebellion. That is all. But look what it brought to the fathers. Now the modern man preaches all this junk about the Negro father (unintelligible), but he talks about the need for bringing family together, you know he takes $150 and gives it to a youth, a young man 18 or 19. This young man 18 or 19 (unintelligible) at $150 a week and our fathers have to sit there and look at our children become the breadwinners of our family. If they cared about our families, they would give the money to our fathers, who must be the breadwinners in our structure. Must be the breadwinners. (Applause)

"It is because the poverty program is used once again as the division element of our community that we are caught up in it. If we use the poverty program today it must be used only to organize and bring our people together. Nothing else. If a man is making $2400 a year, $24,000 a year, on the poverty program, he should live on $10,000 and use $14,000 to buy guns. (Applause) I'm not saying we going to use the guns, but I said just in case he decided to come down on us, it would be good if we had them. (Laughter) Now if you had the stuff and they came down then we could meet them two for two and life for life. Won't be notrouble, cause if they come with the guns, we ought to know we are going, and since we are going, let us take a couple with us. And this must be preached to our people and don't tell me black people are frail because we are not afraid of guns. All our hustlers and pimps carry guns every day. (Laughter) All of you young men as soon as you get out of college, you will be carrying a gun in Viet Nam unless you have got the guts to die for your own principals and not his. (Applause)

"We are not now nor have we ever been afraid of a gun, the trouble is that we have been using the gun to (unintelligible) this country against our people. We have been using the gun for the white man but individually not selectively for our people today. If we are going to use the gun, it ought to be used for the benefit of the masses of our people. We are going to have to get a gun.

"Now then we want to talk about education. Last year when we spoke we talked about Franz (unintelligible) when he said that education is nothing but the re-establishment and re-enforcing of values and institutions of a given society. That is a fact. That is a fact. That's all education is. All you

you get in education is an ideology and a few technical skills, but the real messing up of the minds of our people, the ideology -- you know when you used to have reading comprehension tests. We had to memorize and answer back and see what range you were. I'll give you a little story about George Washington, a beautiful man who never lied, always told the truth, cut down the cherry tree and he came in and told his father and for that he became president of the United States. You had to remember it and you had to remember and jot down the answer. All they were doing was white washing us. That's all they were doing. And we thought we were trying to improve our reading skills. We were reading about George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, United States presidents. (Applause). And what we have begun to understand today, and must be clear about it, is that we need an ideology in this country that speaks for the benefit of black people. That means we must cut across the values system of this country. This country preaches the value system of the individual, the individual, that's the Horatio Alger nonsense that you read when you are in kindergarden. That if you are strong, if you are brave, if you are trustworthy, if you work hard, if you sweat, then by God, you'll make it if you believe in motherhood and the United States. But that is not true. It is not true, and we ought to know it as black people. It is not true. We need a new value system. First our people, then and only then, the individual. First our people, then and only then, the individual. If we could begin to get that ideology across then we could send any one of our children to Harvard and when they got through with their technical skills, they would come back and give it to their people. (Applause)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"First our people. In order to do that it means we must look and examine the schools in our community. An education is supposed to fit you to live into your community, to prepare you to live in your community. Let us examine our communities. Let us examine the big cities, and since we are in the South, the rural South. In the big cities. I live in Washington, D. C. I live at 14th and U. It is the hippies neighborhood north. I get home every morning about 3:00 or 4:00, when I pass there are five prostitutes, sometimes four, if one got lucky, there are pimps, there are hustlers, there are gangsters, there are racketeers, there are young teenage gangs, there are numbers men, there are runners, there are hookers, there are teachers, there are hippies, there are maids, there are porters, there are preachers, there are ditchdigger, and there are some factory workers. Our schools, if we sent our youth to them, should prepare our children how to be good prostitutes, good pimps, good maids (Laughter) -- You may laugh but it is a fact. If you are going to live in your community, then you need to know how to be a good pimp, a good prostitute, a good hustler, a good preacher, good teacher, good porter, good maid, good ditchdigger, good factory worker, if not, what are they preparing you for? If they cannot do that, then they ought to teach you how to change your community so you can live like a human being.

"But our schools do neither. Neither, that is why we have to take them over. We have to take them over because no race takes their youth and gives them to another race to train. No race does that. We take our children and kick them into the hunkie institutions and then our children, who are much more intelligent, drop out of school, and they dig, man, that junk ain't helping me. We kick them back. We point fingers at them, you drop out, get back in school. You do this, you do that, get back to what? To white washing institutions that destroy our people? Let's change the school system. Let's take them over. (Applause) Unless we take them over, we will never teach our children and I will tell you why. In order for you to want to learn you must know something about yourself, you must have dignity and pride in yourself, or else you will never learn anything. That's why we don't learn, because we have no pride and dignity in ourselves. What do we know about ourselves? We were slaves, happy and contented, a few of us, even though we were slaves, helped America oppress us some more. We need to know who we are. Africans, Africans, Africans. (Unintelligible). We need to know that we have a history 4,000 years old and we gave civilization to the hunkies, we gave civilization to the hunkies. We gave it to them.

"We need to know that the first university in the world was the University of Timbuck Two in Africa, in Africa. We need to know the sciences that he got, he got from us. We need to know about the mighty Hannibal, who marched over the Alps, and beat the Romans to death. We need to know that we are Africans and that we have ancestors. And unless we begin to understand Africans, as opposed to Negro, we are going to get wasted, because to begin Negro is to begin a history defined for you by your oppressors. You cannot define Africans because we rule the world, and all of its gold. We cannot define Africa because our ancestors would fight the sun before they would bow down to anyone. We need to know Africa is where we come from. And unless we understand that concept, we will never make it, because we were trying to be Negroes in a white man's country. We have to understand we are Africans.

"Now we want to talk about the concept of black united funds across the country. Now we don't understand very clearly what the fight is about, see. But hunkies got all kinds of games, I mean, they really got the games. After every rebellion they jump up and they gather what we call the Catechism of Rebellions and they recite the Catechism. They rebelled because there was no money and because of unemployment, because of poor housing, because of bad facilities, because of bad transportation, all of the reasons they are telling us we are rebelling is because we don't have money. And see everybody gets tired up on that and they talk about power, poverty program, we want money. They don't recognize that this is not a fight for money, it is a fight for our humanity. There are thousands of poor white people in this country, they don't fight. You think we are fighting because of money, we are fighting for our humanity. If you had a million dollars, you are still a Nigger, still a Nigger. (Applause)

"Unless we begin to understand what we are fighting for we are going to be caught up fighting for some jive poverty program, and some jive money when the system is going to fall in the next three years anyhow. Anyhow. And we know, we know it, cause the system is going to fall because they are trying to convert it. They're trying harder and harder. We cannot fight for money. There must be something above money. It must be love of our people. That is all. Don't talk about money.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

You are going to get wasted, cause it is the one thing they have used to divide us time and time again. Time and time again -- Money. No green power, black power is the only kind of power we can talk about.

"Now we want to understand those concepts in terms of dealing with oppression, exploitation, cause more and more you finally got a new game coming. They are talking about, well, they want to organize poor whites and poor blacks because they are both poor. We must understand that poor whites and poor blacks in this country do not have the same problems. They are entirely different. Let me explain this.

"There are two types of oppression in the world. There is exploitation and there is colonization. Poor whites are exploited. The black people of this country are colonized. Let me tell you the difference. When you are exploited, it is the same race of people taking advantage of each other, but they have the same values, the same culture, the same history, the same way of life, so the people are just poor. What they are fighting for is money. Right? When you are colonized, it is one race of people exploiting the entire race of another people and it's not just a question of being poor; our culture, our history, our language, our way of life, our everything is destroyed and we become further dehumanized that we respond to the every action of the master. There is a difference. It's a big difference. For the white people don't have to fight for their culture, for their history, for their values system, for their way of life. It has never been destroyed.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Ours has been destroyed. It has to be destroyed in order for the man to do what he has done to us. We are a colonized people.

"Now let me explain to you the difference. Poor white people hate. I mean they really hate. They hate everybody, and they hate us, and they hate rich white people. But black people don't hate. We have been so dehumanized that we do not hate. So dehumanized that we do not even feel we have the right to hate. Now what kind of a man are you when you are sitting in your house, a hunkie comes in, slaps your wife, rapes your daughter, slaps you, and walks out the door, and you say I still love him. (Laughter) There are ----- that even college teaching they give you cannot answer the question. You know you live in a world that revolves around dialectic philosophy, there are opposites for everything. For hot there is cold, for joy there is sorrow, for laughter there is crying, and for love there is hate. It is a real emotion. If you do not have hate you cannot differentiate love. But they tell us and we tell ourselves that we can't hate. You can't love if you can't hate, cause you don't know the difference. It is because we are so dehumanized, we are afraid to stand up and say, 'Yes, Daddy, we hate you for what you have done to our people and what you continue to do to our people. But we are afraid to say it, I know. (Applause)

"We have been so dehumanized we are like dogs. You kick, you spit on, you beat up, you push outside, and when you snap your finger, he comes running. We are not dogs, we are human beings. We have emotions, and we cannot allow ourselves to dehumanize to that level. We cannot.

"Now then, exploitation and colonization becomes very important for us to recognize where the world is moving. Communism and socialism is not an ideology suited for us. It is not an ideology suited for us because the doctrines of Communism and Socialism speaks to the problems of exploitation. They say we want the wealth divided up among all of the people. That's an expression of exploitation. Communism and Socialism does not speak to the problem of colonization. We just don't want the wealth divided up in the country. We just want to reclaim our dignity and our humanity, our culture, our history, and our way of life. Communism and Socialism does not see to that. We have to understand that as Negroes today. That is not assuming Communism is no good cause the hunkies says its not good. Later for the hunkie. If Communism was only right we would take it and tell them so and he couldn't do nothing about it. Nothing about it. And you ought to understand how they use this thing, Communism, to divide us. Like they are running this program down in SNCC saying it is infiltrated with Communists and the main hunkie, Ralph McGill, talking about we are having meetings with Communists. Lydon Baines Johnson had a three day meeting with the top Communist official in the whole world and they put it on television. And they put on television. The last meeting was a meeting where one hunkie had a meeting with another hunkie. One was Communist and one was Catholic, but they got together every news commentator praised it as a beautiful thing that the Communists are getting together. They are coming together so that we can have peace in the world. The Communists are getting together with the Capitalists. Yet when a black man is for a Communist he can't get together with his own people. We have to recognize those tools are used to divide us. We cannot have any respect for anything the hunkie says about any of our people. Let him talk about his own. And you have to recognize the importance of that drive on me. It is simply a question of the world colonizing on the question of color. Russia gives guns to North Viet Nam. How can Lyndon Johnson sit down with a man and be friends when he is giving guns to the man he is fighting. That don't make no kind of sense to the dumbest Nigger in the world. (Applause)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"We have to begin to understand it is just a question of color. Check this country out. They're not. They're the white man from South Africa, our country, the richest country in the world, with all the gold in the world, being ruined and run by these hunkies. They are white men over there with guns. Our people can't move in their own country unless they are cautious. (Unintelligible) a hunkie doctor to take the heart of a black man, move it into a white man, and then bring him over here and make him a national hero. It is a question of color. A question of color. They make him a national hero and then they say it is scientific development. It is the slow destruction of the most beautiful race of people on the face of this earth, Africans, and unless we become aware of it we are going to be wiped out. Check this country out. This was the country what voted for South Africa to participate in the Olympics. The United States of America voted for the South Africa, Union of South Africa, to participate in the Olympics, and they want to know why black people want to boycott the Olympics and they always say they can't find out what it is. I'll tell you what it is. Tell them that our brothers are going to boycott it and when they ask you what you hope to gain, say you are going to lose and that's enough, we want you to lose, without us. (Applause)

"We must understand that. If they lose without us, it's a victory because for us because it will demonstrate to our people that we are the warriors of this country. We are the warriors of this country. It is our flesh and our blood that represents the real warrior force in the United States. In the field of sports, they would not win one Olympic medal without black warriors. In the wars, they would not win one war without black warriors. We are the warriors of this country, we are the warriors of this country. We are. And unless we begin to understand that, we are the warriors, and stop waring for them, but make war for our people, we are going to be wiped out. We are going to be wiped out.

"Now as we go into our concept internationally, we must begin now to make hook ups with groups around the world and to make hook ups with people where there is going to be war. The next one is going to be the Middle East. Black people must be crystal clear on that position. We can be for no one but the Arabs. We can be for no one but the Arabs, we cannot be for the Zionists. We can have no relationship with any Jewish group in this country that support Israel. Because let me tell you about Israel. Do you know how it was created? In 1917, the British were controlling Palistine. A hunkie gave the land to the Zionists. Gave it to them. And then they decided to move the Arabs out.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

They didn't pay for it. They didn't have the Arabs where they wanted. They took Palistine and gave it to the Zionists. They went there and they started to blow up, and make terrorist gangs, and run the Arabs out, and then in 1948, they created what was called Israel. And notice how they created it. The justification was that the Jews were persecuted all over the world. They absolutely (unintelligible) the Jews had been persecuted all over the world, but they persecuted the Jews. Other hunkies persecuted the Jews, we never did. (Applause) Russia, England, France, Germany, the United States, Hungary, they are the ones who persecuted the Jews. Germany was the one who started to wipe them out. If they wanted peace over there, take it from Hitler. He lost the war. Don't come to us and take it from our country.

"Ours are the ones we have to support. But make it more clear for you why we must support the Arabs. Israel is a creation of 1948. You have young Jewish kids who will be ready to fight and go die for Israel today. In the last invasion they took over Northern Egypt. Do you not know that Egypt is in Africa and Africa is our motherland and we have (unintelligible), not since 1948, (unintelligible) 4,000 years ago. And here we are supporting Zionists to take over Egypt, our mother country. We are so confused. The arabs, the Arabs, the Arabs. And when they tell you about the Arab soldier people, ask them what did they give the Arabs. A very important question. This question about black people selling black people. What could a hunkie give a black man in Africa when we have everything they wanted. We have everything they wanted. They came to Africa to take it, what did they give us? Green dollars? Gold? We have the gold. Silver? We have the silver. Food? We have the food. Copper? We have the copper. Uranium? We have the uranium. What could they give us? What could they give us? Yeah, Jesus Christ. (Laughter)

"We must begin to clarify our minds. We must begin to understand very clearly all of the tricks, all of the lies that have been told to us. We must begin to understand today a number of things. Three things.

"Number one. Black people, our people, are willing to fight today. There is no question about that. No one will stop that. We are going to fight. Every time they get one of us, then all of us are going to have to go down, whether we like it or not. But we must begin to organize consciously, where that when they attack one of us, there is maximum damage to them and minimum risk to us. Understand that concept. Understand that concept. Maximum damage to them, minimum risk to us. If we do not, we will play into their hands. They are prepared to deal with major rebellion to some extent. They are prepared to some extent to deal with major rebellions. Let me tell you something. The people who want rebellions in our community is not really the cat on the street. The persons who wants it most is the middle class person cause he gets the poverty program after the rebellion. They are the ones you see talking about it on TV. If you don't give us the money, well, then, we are going to give the program to Stokely Carmichael or H. Rap Brown and you know what will happen. You better give us the money. Ain't no money going to buy us a rebellion, because there ain't going to be no rebellion. There's going to be organized retaliation against the hunkie white people.

(Applause)

"We must be conscious that our people are willing to fight. It is not a question of condemning our people when they want to fight. I will tell you why. To condemn one people, said Mao Eise Tung, is to take the side of the enemy. Understand that. To condemn ones' people is to take the side of the enemy. What if you had a rebellion in Atlanta tomorrow and hunkie got up there and started saying, 'You black people should rise (Unintelligible). You do it this way.' And a Negro comes behind him and says, 'You black people should rise.' He's saying the same thing the hunkie is saying. What good is it? You can't condemn your people. If the Negro had any sense he would say, 'Hunkie, you are to blame for what you have done to our people. You and your entire race of people have tried consciously to destroy us, and now you are moving physically to do it by selling white people guns for $1.00 in Atlanta.'

"Whether or not we want to fight is not the question today. It is solely a question of survival. We have to survive as a race of people. We must survive as a race of people if even we didn't want to. We owe it to our ancestors to survive. We owe it to our brothers and sisters in slavery, who took all of that to survive. We owe it to our brothers and sisters during the Reconstruction Period, during the rise of the Ku Klux Klan, during the depression, during World War II, during the Korean War. We owe it to our mothers who stuck to us for it. We have to survive as a people. We have to survive as a people, and that is the only question that we have to deal with today. The question of survival. And brothers and sisters, the (unintelligible) is right. When it is all over, all black people will survive, few Negroes will make it, and no hunkies at all. (Applause)

"It is simply a question of survival. We cannot make to convince people when they talk about pranks, when they talk about guns, when they talk about one arm shotguns, when they talk about Migs (phonetic), when they talk about chemical warfare, when they talk about Communists. Who do you think they are talking about? Us. Us. Us. It is we they are preparing to wipe out, because they no longer have need for us. We have done what we were brought here to do. Build this country to an empire. Now that it is done, we can be gotten rid of. Do not underestimate the hunkies. They have committed genocide and attempted to commit genocide every place they went to people of a different color. I would like to end by reading a statement from Brother Rap Brown, who is in jail now. Brother wrote the statement while he was in jail. Rap Brown is my leader. He speaks for me. I would like you to listen to the entire statement before you applaud. It ends with 'We shall conquer without a doubt.' But please listen to the entire statement, because I think that Brother Rap is saying the same thing. It is simply a question of survival.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

'Being a man is the continuing battle of one's life and one loses a bit of manhood with every stale compromise to the authority of any power in which one does not believe.

'No slave should die a natural death. There is a point where caution ends and cowardice begins.

'For everyday I am imprisoned I will refuse both food and water. My hunger is for the liberation of my people. My thirst is for the ending of oppression.

'I am a political prisoner, jailed for my beliefs -- that Black People must be free. The Government has taken a position true to its fascist nature: Those who we cannot convert, we must silence. This government has become the enemy of Mankind.

'Death can no longer alter our path to Freedom. For our people, Death has been the only known exit from slavery and oppression. We must open others.

'Our will to live must no longer supersede our fight, for our fighting will determine if our race shall live. To desire Freedom is not enough.

'We must move from resistance to aggression, from revolt to revolution.

'For every Orangeburg there must be 10 Detroit's. For every Max Stanford and Huey Newton, there must be 10 dead racist cops. And for every Black Death there must be a Dien Bien Phu.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

'Brothers and Sisters, and all oppressed people, you must prepare yourself both mentally and physically, for the major confrontation is yet to come. You must fight. It is the people who in the final analysis make and determine history, not leaders or systems. The laws to govern you must be made by you.

'May the deaths of '68 signal the beginning of the end of this country. I do what I must out of the love for my people. My will is to fight; resistance is not enough. Aggression is the order of the day.

NOTE TO AMERICA

'America, if it takes my Death to organize my people to revolt against you, and to organize your jails to revolt against you, and to organize your troops to revolt against you, and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize Mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here is my life! But my soul belongs to MY PEOPLE.

'(We shall conquer without a doubt.)' "

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

[redacted] Alabama State Troopers, Alabama Department Of Public Safety, Montgomery, Alabama, advised on March 11, 1968 there were no reported activities of STOKELY CARMICHAEL in Lowndes County, Alabama during the morning of March 11, 1968.

b7C

CARMICHAEL was observed at 12:15 P.M. on March 11, 1968 at the residence of [redacted] in Lowndes County, Alabama.

b7C

At 1:15 P.M., Central Standard Time, two cars departed the [redacted] residence. CARMICHAEL was a passenger in a 1966 Blue Pontiac, bearing 1968 Alabama License [redacted] which, according to the records of the Motor Vehicle Bureau, State Of Alabama, Montgomery, Alabama, is registered to [redacted] Camden, Alabama. The car was driven by [redacted] of Lowndes County, Alabama, and contained two other passengers, one of whom was believed to be [redacted] of Selma, Alabama. The occupants of the second car were unknown. This car was a 1967 Chevrolet, bearing 1968 Alabama License [redacted] registered to [redacted] of Camden, Alabama. The cars proceeded to Montgomery, Alabama and stopped at Radio Station WMRA for some five minutes. The 1966 Pontiac with CARMICHAEL as a passenger then proceeded to Interstate Highway 85 toward Tuskegee, Alabama, and arrived at Tuskegee, Alabama at 2:50 P.M., Central Standard Time.

b7C

[redacted] Tuskegee, Alabama, Police Department, advised on March 11, 1968 that, through his officers, he determined that CARMICHAEL, upon arrival at Tuskegee Institute, proceeded to the Student Union Hall on the campus. There was no mass welcome for him, and, during the course of the afternoon, he visited students on the campus. At approximately 7:00 P.M., he went to Logan Hall, Tuskegee Institute, where he was to give his speech.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

b7C [redacted] Montgomery, Alabama, advised on March 11, 1968 he attempted to gain entrance to the meeting, but he was told the press was barred. This was confirmed by [redacted] Montgomery, Alabama, who had entered the meeting but was asked to leave. [redacted] estimated that some 1500 to 2,000 persons were present.

b7C On March 11, 1968, [redacted] Alabama State Department Of Public Safety, Montgomery, Alabama, advised he attended the meeting held at Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama, on March 11, 1968, and he estimated the attendance at 2,000. The play, "Back To Black", dealt with African Culture, and the cast was dressed in African Costumes. He stated CARMICHAEL's speech lasted from 9:30 P.M., Central Standard Time, to approximately 10:50 P.M., Central Standard Time. There were no incidents.

b7D On March 11, 1968, [redacted] a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, who attended the meeting at Logan Hall, Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama, on March 11, 1968, described CARMICHAEL's speech as highly inflammatory and as repeatedly urging Negroes to arm themselves and to pursue violent action against white persons, characterized by him as "hunkies". This source informed CARMICHAEL attacked state and federal law enforcement officers in bitter, profane, and obscene language, stating that "for every black man that dies, ten cops should die". CARMICHAEL told the audience they should not go to Vietnam, but should die in the streets here. He stated he would not say whether he was a communist or not. "I am black. That's all I will say." He urged hearers to applaud the black man who broke a store window or robbed a store with a gun, saying "I want everything" as being brave enough to take that which belonged to him. Black men were told to go to the Capitol with guns and say "Hands up. This country is ours. But, you've got to get guns. Everybody get a gun." CARMICHAEL was critical of Tuskegee Institute, its policies, and the attitude of the black man who sought financial security in the form of "green power" (referring to money). "If we got it, the 'hunkies' would change it to blue. We are all slaves. No slave should die a natural death."

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

This source further informed that during CARMICHAEL's speech a few of his companions stood on the platform at parade rest closely observing the audience, and with little effort to conceal pistols which they were wearing.

On March 11, 1968, [redacted] Tuskegee, Alabama Police Department, advised after the meeting at Logan Hall, Tuskegee Institute, broke up on the night of March 11, 1968, CARMICHAEL and his party proceeded to a residence at [redacted] Tuskegee, Alabama, where they would be entertained. It was believed this was the residence of one [redacted] [redacted] Tuskegee, Alabama Police Department, advised on March 12, 1968 he learned through [redacted] who attached himself to CARMICHAEL's party, after speech and question and answer session at Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama, on the night of March 11, 1968, CARMICHAEL and close associates attended a party at the residence of [redacted] Tuskegee, Alabama.

During the early morning hours, CARMICHAEL left this party with [redacted] Also Known As [redacted] of Tuskegee, Alabama, who took him to the residence of [redacted] [redacted] in Tuskegee, Alabama, where CARMICHAEL reportedly spent the remainder of the night.

Later in the morning of March 12, 1968, [redacted] reported CARMICHAEL and [redacted] went to the College Union Building, Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama, attempting to organize a cast of drama entitled "Back To Black" to go to Stillman College, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, where CARMICHAEL has a speaking engagement on the night of March 12, 1968.

Sections 2383, 2384 and 2385, respectively, of Title 18, United States Code, proscribe the crimes of rebellion or insurrection, seditious conspiracy and advocating the violent overthrow of the United States Government or the government of any political subdivision thereof. On February 18, 1968, the above sources were present and observed the activities held at the Black Congress sponsored rally at the Los Angeles Sports Arena, Los Angeles, California, when 3500 people were present with approximately ten percent of the audience being Caucasian. Upon entering the Sports Arena, they were frisked by Negro males wearing black berets who acted as security guards for the rally. The rally, which was scheduled from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m. did not commence until approximately 4:30 p.m. The master of ceremonies was WALTER BREMOND, Chairman of the Black Congress.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 2/28/68

On February 18, 1968, a rally sponsored by the Black Congress, scheduled from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., was held at the Los Angeles Sports Arena at Santa Barbara and Figueroa Streets, Los Angeles, California, to raise funds for the defense of Huey P. Newton. There were 3,300 persons in attendance, with approximately 12 per cent being Caucasian. A majority of those present were between the ages of 18 and 25.

The rally was delayed and did not commence until 4:22 p.m. because Stokely Carmichael refused to enter the arena unless all police officers were removed from the premises. A compromise was reached between the management of the arena and Carmichael when only Negro police officers were permitted to remain in the arena.

The purpose of this rally was to raise funds for the defense of Huey P. Newton, Minister of Defense, Black Panther Party for Self-Defense (BPPSD), who is presently incarcerated in the Alameda City Jail, California, awaiting trial on charges of murdering an Oakland Police Officer in October, 1967 at Oakland, California.

Stokely Carmichael was first introduced to the audience at the beginning of the rally as he made his way to the speaker's platform with James Forman and H. Rap Brown, who are both associated with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), a militant, black nationalist organization.

At approximately 6:55 p.m., Carmichael was interviewed by Walter Bremond, Chairman of the Black Congress, as Prime Minister for the BPPSD.

During his speech, Stokely Carmichael emphasized the fact that Negroes should love one another. Carmichael related substantially the following:

Carmichael said that he's always gonna go where he wants to go and he'll talk to anyone he wants to talk to, and go to whatever country he wants to go to, and no white people will tell him where to go or what to do.

It is possible for the honkies to commit genocide against black people. They committed genocide against the Indian. The Indian showed him how to raise corn and survive and then he wiped them out. The white people enslaved the Negroes and brought us to America from our home in Africa. Our people are the African people. If this country burns to the ground, we will be happy. We don't care about the American people.

The Negro slogan should be, "One dying love for our people." Negroes must understand the concept of love for one's people. Our only enemy is the honkie. The Negroes must organize themselves or they will be exterminated. The Negroes should never forget they are Africans. This concept breaks down all geographical barriers because we are all black people from Africa even though we live in other parts of the world. The United States works in three m's. First the missionaries, then money, then the United States Marines, and that has been its pattern all over the world.

The Negroes must realize that the vote will do nothing for the black people. The Negroes have survived without the vote and we will have to continue to survive without it.

The Poverty Program is a payoff to stop rebellion. Negroes are fighting each other over crumbs from the Poverty Program which is keeping us from organizing in the ghettos. We must control the educational systems in our communities. The educational system now is teaching honkie philosophy and the honkie way of life. The white people have stripped the Negro of his culture.

LA 100-68783

The main concern of the Negro in America is survival. The whites are attempting to dehumanize the black man.

The Negro must be able to say, "We hate you white people for what you are. We hate white people for what they've done to our race".

He related that communism and socialism is not the ideology suited for the Negro. Communism and socialism deals with ways of exploiting a people in the same race.

We must be concerned over how black people are being treated throughout the world. We must be concerned because they are of our blood and are our people. That is why we must support our brother Huey P. Newton. We must become executioners within our own community, and if brother Huey Newton dies, we must kill 15 honkie copies, and if any person in the black community says anything about it, we should kill him too.

"We want the Vietnamese to win in Vietnam". The honkie is just killing yellow people in Vietnam. It is a racist war.

The Negro must organize into groups which will do the maximum damage against the whites with minimum risk to us. He recommended small groups so they will be scattered throughout the community. Carmichael was encouraged to see that the Vietnamese were whipping the Americans.

If Huey Newton is convicted, there will be retaliation. There must be retaliation because the white power structure is killing off our African leaders.

The cry of the Negro community should be to organize our people. If any black man talks to a honkie about what is going on in our community, he should be killed.

When the brothers in Vietnam take over the American Embassy, you should hollar for joy and encourage them to get whitey. He encouraged the black people to rise up in order that they might survive.

Stokely Carmichael terminated his presentation at approximately 7:40 p.m., and at approximately 7:42 p.m., departed the arena.

The following is a verbatim transcript of the speech of STOKELY CARMICHAEL at the Black Congress rally at the Los Angeles Sports Arena, Los Angeles, California, on February 18, 1968:

STOKELY CARMICHAEL: Brothers and sisters. Good evening. They tell us they gonna' put us out at seven o'clock, but I'm a talk pass seven o'clock tonight. (applause) I'm a do had 'cause we have to talk to each other. Got to do that, huh. Before we do, I just want to introduce some people....uh... Atlanta Communications Director Miss ETHEL MINER. (applause) A bad brother from Boston who was arrested for inciting to riot, when the little thing went down in Roxbury, just returned from across the waters, and incidentally, we are always gonna go where we wanna go, talk to whom we wanna talk to, go to what country we want to talk to....no honkie gonna tell us where to go, KEYTOE EDWARDS. (applause) As far as we're concerned, we born free. We go to China, we go to Cuba, we go to Africa. We'll go wherever we want to go and if the honkie don't like it, he can go to hell. He can go to hell. He can go to hell. (applause) Can't nobody tell you where to go, who to see, and who you talk to. You got to know so you can understand what this honkie is puttin' down. We have got to go across the waters to talk to our brothers. (applause) To our brothers. (applause)

Now then today we want to talk about one thing-- survival. That's all. How is this beautiful race of people, black people, gonna survive Babylon. That's all we have to talk about. Survival transcends economics. It transcends politics. It transcends the poverty program. We are talking about survival. About our people. Black people all over the world. That's all we are talking about. Survival. Survival. Now you have to understand survival because I have to repeat some of the things Brother RAP said.

It is possible for the honkies to commit genocide against black people. Now if you don't think it's possible, check out the history of this country. In order for this country to be born, they committed genocide against the red man. They can and will do it. They can and will do it. Not only have they committed genocide against the Indian, but what they have done is they romanticize that genocide. That's what they do when they put that cowboy and Indian junk on television for you to flap. That is nothing but romanticizing the genocide of a race of people. They are so unaware of their superiority complex, they do not know what they are doing. The fight is gonna be a fight of color. Nothing else. Nothing else. (applause) It is going to be a fight of color because wherever the honkie goes, he rules. Whether the majority or the minority, he rules wherever he goes.

He came to this country. The Indians showed him how to prepare corn. The Indians showed em how to hunt. After the Indian showed em that, after the first Thanksgiving, he wiped them out. (applause)

He went to Mexico. He went to South America. He found the Aztec Indians. They said to him this is our silver. This is our gold. We are relig-- we are a religious people. We build symbols, monuments. We make little jewelry. He took the jewelry and he wiped them out. He wiped them out. (applause)

He went to Africa. He saw the greatest people in the world alive. They thought he was a human being. They said come. This is our gold. This is our way of life. We dance, we sing, we get high. They showed him the gold. He took the gold. He enslaved us and he rules Africa today. Today. (applause) Today. Go get em.

No need to get excited today, baby, we gonna get em. We gonna get em. No need to get excited. We gonna get em. As sure as I'm standing here, black people gonna survive this country. We ain't got to worry. We just organize.

He went to China. The Chinese had gun powder. They said we use this for fire works. For our festivities. He took it. Make it a gun and enslaved the Chinese. Where has he gone that he has not enslaved people. Where has he gone. I ask you tell me one place that honkie has gone where he has acted as a human being. Not one place on this earth. (applause)

So that today when we talk about our survival, we do not talk about this country. Which is America. Which is white people. We talk about our people. Nothing else. Our people. That's all we care about. Our poeple. If this country burns down to the ground, we rejoice and we dance. We care about our people. Our people. (applause) Nothing else. Our people. Our people. (applause)

In organizing our concept this year, there are three. There are three slogans that we need to take with us. Number one is that we must develop consciously an undying love for our people. Undying love for our people. That means that our slogan becomes first. Our people. Then and only then, me and you. Our people come first. First. You must understand the concept of love for one's people because we're talking about HUEY P. NEWTON, who personifies love for his people. (applause)

Our second slogan--every Negro is a potential black man. Let's work with our people and bring them home. Bring them home. (applause) Bring them home. (continuing applause) Why do we say every Negro is a potential black man. Because 400 years ago, when that honkie stole us and brought us here, we were African or black people. Today we are Negroes. It took us 400 years to make us Negroes and we've been black for four thousand years. Four thousand years. Four thousand years.

To be a Negro means that you begin with your history 400 years ago and your history is defined by the honkie to be an African or a black man is to be a man who rules in his own land. We are black Africans. Black Africans. (applause) We must understand that concept fully. A lot of our peoples' minds are messed up. We will not fight with our people. We will sit down. We will talk. We will take time. We will use love and brotherhood and bring them home. Our major enemy is the honkie. That's where our energies go. Go. Go. Go. (applause)

You cannot fight inside the black communey and fight them at the same time. Also. If every Negro is a potential ally, you never alienate your ally. Everybody in our community comes organized from the bourgeoisie to the man in the street. Everybody is gonna be organized because they are black. Black. (applause) If you understand that concept, it means that when you sit down with one of your brothers, and their minds have been messed up by the honkies. And they start arguing when you say the word black. Don't get excited. If you do, the honkie has won. Don't get excited. Sit down. Take time with your brother. Use the example if I have got a brother and a white man came into my family and turned that brother against me, if I didn't have enough strenth to bring my brother home, the honkie was stronger than I am. They are not stronger than we are. We will dominate our people. Bring them home. Bring them home. Bring them home. Bring them home. (applause) That means that when we move against our people, we do not use force. We do not use force against our people. We use love, brotherhood, unity, and patience, and we take time. (applause) And we take time. (continuing applause)

The third concept that we talk about is that for black people, the question of community is not a question of geography, it is simply a question of color. Understand that? That means that if you live in Watts. If you live in Detroit, Southside Chicago, Washington, D. C. You are the same people belonging to the same community cause you are black. You are of African descent. You are an African people. Wherever you are. Wherever you are. (applause) We must begin to understand that concept. Because if we understand that concept, we break down the geographical barriers and we become part of black people in Africa, in Cuba, in Brazil, in Guatemala, in Santa Domingo, in the West Indies, in the United States, in Nova Scotia. We are one people nine hundred million strong. That's us. That's us. (applause) That's us.

Those are the three concepts we have to move with. Let me repeat them. One. Undying love for our people. First our people. Then and only then, you and me. Everything goes to our people. Everything including our life goes to our people. Our people. Our people. (applause) You've got to understand that that does not mean this country. Because this country has been and always will be against our people. So to help this country is to be against yourself. We must be for our people. Our people.

Secondly. Every Negro is a potential black man. Let's work with our people and bring them home. Understand that.

We need the people who we call the bourgeoisie. They have technical skills that we can use. Their minds are messed up. They're giving those technical skills to the honkies. Let's bring them home and let them give it to us. We must open up the channels for that. Let's bring our people home. (applause) Let's bring our people home. (continuing applause)

Thirdly. The question of community for black people is not a question of geography. It is a question of color. We do the same dances that people in Watts do yo do in New York. The Boogaloo gets transplanted so fast that without television, without radio, without any of their communications' systems, we do the same dances. Not only here, but in Africa. But in Africa. (applause)

Now then we want to talk about survival in a practical context. The United States works in the three M's. First the missionaries. Then the money. Then the Marines. That's its pattern all over the world. We have sent the missionaries out of our community. The money is going out because our brothers in Viet Nam is taking it and the Koreans gettin' ready to get it on again. So the money's going. Next comes the Marines. If we are going to survive as a people and we must survive if for no other reason than for what our ancestors has been through with this honkie. We have got to organize. Got to organize. That means that the question of the vote for black people be conked as a relevent issue unless to use it as a vehicle for organizing black people. Nothing else. Nothing else.

It is foolish to assume that the vote is gonna do anything for black people. It is always been irrelevant to our lives. We have survived without it. We survived in the deep south without the vote. In-- two years ago when JULIAN BOND was elected in Georgia, they took him out for two years. His people are still surviving. ADAM CLAYTON POWELL is outside of Harlem. Our people are still surviving. The vote is irrelevant. It's a trick-back the honkies put down on us. It don't mean a thing to black people. We can survive without it. We can survive without it. (applause)

That means that if we go into the vote, we use it only as a political vehicle for bringing more of our people together. That is all. We do not depend upon the vote. Do not depend upon the vote.

Secondly. The Poverty Program. We have to understand the concept of the Poverty Program and what it has done. The Poverty Program has been for one purpose and () pose only.

Stop the rebellion. Stop the rebellion. And they stopped the rebellion by dividing the black community. That is been their tactic and it has worked. It has worked.

Take a look at Watts. It was the first community be swamped with the Poverty Program and today we are fighting each other over the crumbs that we cannot even get together. They have succeeded in dividing us. And how have they done that.

The most instinctive revolutionary cadre of people in any race, except theirs today, is the youth. The youth will fight at the drop of a hat in any race. (applause) In any race. In any race. (continuing applause) The youth have always been the warriors. Except for their race where they becomin' hippies. But thas' good. We will develop the warriors. Let them develop the hippies. We'll get em. We'll get em. (applause)

They have given money to the youth to keep them quiet. And while they have done that, they have split the family which they talk about so much. How would you feel if you were a father, couldn't get a job and you son was coming home with $120.00 a week in his pocket for doing nothing. For doing nothing. What do you think they have done to our families but divide em on that simple concept of the Poverty Program. If they were concerned about us, they would see to it that our fathers got the job because they are the bread winners of the family. (applause) They are the bread winners of the family. (continuing applause)

We knock out the vote. We knock out the Poverty Program. Only as an organizing vehicle for our people can it be used. It does not, will not, and cannot solve our problems. We use it only as an organizing vehicle.

Thirdly. The question of education. Now Brother RAP ran it down very nicely. I'll just add to it. Education don't help us in this country. It cripples us. That is a fact. In our communities. Our communities are filled with hustlers, pimps, dope addicts, prostitutes, number men, racketeers, preachers, teachers, maids, porters, and some factory workers. Not one black school in the country has a curriculum here to teach us how to be a good pimp, good hustler, good preacher, good teacher, good anything. (applause) Not one. (applause) Not one. (continuing applause)

If the education is to teach us how to live in our community, then it must do one of two things: Prepare us to live in that community by teaching us how to be good prostitutes, good maids, good preachers, or by teaching us how to change our community so we can live like human beings. (applause)

Our school system does neither. And when our young people who are very intelligent drop out of school cause they recognize the game the honkie is running on em, they have us fighting them saying get back in school, get back to work.

White nationalism?

If we want our children to go, we have to educate them. (applause) We have to educate them. We have to educated them. (continuing applause) Nobody else.

There is no race in history that gives their young to another race to educate. No race at all No race at all. We are the only race that allow our enemy to educate our youth against us. We must educate our people. We must educate our people. In order to educate our people, it means that we must take over the schools. Nothing less. Take them over. By any means necessary. But we start by organizing our people. We start by organizing our students into black student unions. We break up the Parent Teachers Association because they're dominated by the teachers and by the union and those teacher unions don't speak to us. We form Parent Associations with parents alone and with African American teachers. We form African American Teachers Association. We bring the three groups together and we take the school by any means necessary. (applause) And we must understand that concept means that we have to get out and organize our people. We must organize our people. Now let us talk a little about the concept of a black united us. It is crystal clear that no matter what happens in the coming summer of this country, it is going to be black against white. If I go out today and I throw a brick, when they come down, anybody who's black is in trouble. Is in trouble. Not only that, the very fact that they give us money depends upon us being black. The brothers in the middle class may yell when Brother RAP BROWN yells burn the country down. But every time RAP yells burn the country down, they get five million dollars in Poverty Program. That is a fact. That is a fact. (applause) They need RAP BROWN and we need them. We are one people. An African people. We must get rid of these divisions in our community. We must come together for the survival of the greatest race on earth. African people. African people. African people. (applause)

Now we want to go into talking about alliances and coalition and why it is that the only people we can, in fact, ally ourselves with are the Mexican American the red man and the Puerto Ricans. We're gonna go into it now.

I do not deny the fact that there are poor people in this country who incidentally happen to be white. I do not deny that fact. There are a lot of poor white people in this country. But you are not just fighting money for----well---let me do it another way.

There are two types of oppression. There is exploitation and there is colonization. Exploitation deals with when you exploit somebody from your own race.

Colonization is when you exploit somebody from another race and colonization is more brutal than exploitation because when white people exploit other poor white people they do not dehumanize them. But when white people colonize people of other races, they dehumanize them. They strip them of their culture, their language, their history, their society, their values, (applause) There's a big difference (applause) There is a big difference. (applause) A big difference (continuing applause) There is a big difference between exploitation and colonization. Poor white people in this country who are exploited can always hope to reach the top. People who are colonized can never hope to reach the top until they overthrow their oppressor. (applause) Their oppressor. (continuing applause)

There is another reason. White people who are poor have the same values as LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON. The same institution and the same culture. We are a different people with different languages, different cultures, different history, different way of life. That is a fact.

We gonna keep on talkin'. They can't get us off. (applause) If everybody would just keep their seats we can get it together. We can get it together. We don't react to him. Let's carry on our program. (applause)

Now then we have to understand the concept of exploitation verses colonization because what is happened is that people of color around the world have been colonized and we also have been colonized inside this country. So our natural aliences is with people who have been colonized. Brother TIJERINA is colonized cause he can't say, "eldeberde todo revolucionario es hacer de revelucion." (applause) Yeah, Yeah, Yeah. (continuing applause)

His language has been taken from him. His culture has been striped from him. And it has been done consciously as it has been to us. But our people have always resisted. That's what we never understand. You can find a honkie from France, from Italy, from Poland, from Scandinavia. They come over here. In two generations they speak English perfectly. Our people refuse to speak it perfectly. We know it's not our language. We have resisted. (applause) We have resisted. (applause)

We must begin to understand the form of resistance in our community so we can grapple for the ideology we need for our survival. That means all other ideologies is irrelevant.

Now let us speak about dehumanizing, then Communism, and Socialism. We have been so dehumanized that we cannot even hate our enemy. That is to say that if we were sitting in a room. A honkie kicked in the door. Whipped our wife. Raped our daughter. Beat us up. Walked out. We would sit there and say we don't hate you. Just like a dog. If a man kicks em, spits on em, don't feed em, starves em, put em out in the rain. When he snaps his finger the dog comes running back. We are not dogs. We are human beings with emotions. (applause) With emotions. With emotions. (continuing applause)

And, therefore, everything in dis world there is an opposite. For hot there is cold. For joy there is sadness. For love there is hate. If you don't have hate, you don't know when you were in love. You move from one pole to the other and we are afraid to say, "Yes, God dammit! We hate you for what you did to our people. To our people. To our people." (applause)

We are afraid to express hatred. Yet, in this country is a fact that white people hate us more than we hate them. And we haven't done a damn thing to um. A damn thing to um. (applause)

We have been so dehumanized we cannot recognize our humanity and that's what this fight is all about. It is not a question of poor housing, poor jobs, unemployment, an' all that junk they run down. It is a question of our humanity. They're whole lot of poor white people in this country. They ain't rebelled yet. We are rebelling. It is a question of humanity. We are fighting for our humanity. Our humanity. That's what we're fighting for. And we are fighting against the destroyer of humanity in the world today. White western countries. They have destroyed humanity wherever they have gone. We are fighting for our humanity. Not for money. Not for jobs. Our humanity. That's very, very important. Very important.

Now let us talk about Communism and Socialism. You ready for me brother? Communism and Socialism is not an ideology suited for black people. I'm a tell you why. Communism and Socialism deals with the question of exploitation of people in the same race. We are dealing with the problem of racism which transcends exploitation. We need an ideology to talks to racism. Communism does not. It does not. Communism does not because for us if you rich, if you poor, you still black. You still black. Even if I were exploiting every black man in here today, thru' imperialistic structure. When I walked outside to face the honkie cops, he hit me up side the head cause I'm black. We need an ideology for us that deals with the problem of racism which is above exploitation.

I-Secondly--We do not have that many class structures in the society among us. Communism and Socialism speaks to classes. We are talking about races of people. There is a difference. That means to say that we read Chi-minh and MAO Tse-sung. We can read Chi-minh and MAO Tse-sung. Because he has a lot of good things to say. Chi-minh and MAO Tse-sung is a great Chinese leader. The greatest Chinese leader there is. But we need African leaders. That's who we must follow. African leaders. We are Africans. We are Africans. We are not Chinese. The Chinese don't go around and bow down to an African. They bow down to someone in their own image. We have to find people in our own image who we will bow down to. African leaders. African ideology. Straight down the middle. Straight down the middle. We're comin straight from a black thing. No right, left, -- none of that junk, straight up black. That's where we're comin from.

Now let us move on. It is a fact see a lot a people might of got upset when Brother TIJERINA said that the man 'daddy' is the devil but the man's got to be the devil. Read your Bible. You see what they're doing. The honkies are stealing our hearts in South Africa to put it into their hearts and that's not enough. When they finish do that, they bring that honkie witch doctor and put him on television across the nation so we should bow down to him after he's taken the heart of our brother. The Bible says 'beware, the devil will come to you and way to you that he can restore life after death.'

(applause)

We must begin to understand our concept. We are bounded to people of color wherever they are. We have been strewn across the western hemisphere by the white man. Look at us. We don't know who we are. Where we came from.

Are we Goosa (phonetic), are we Zoolu (phonetic), are we Malicali (phonetic), are we Baila (phonetic), are we Zuboo (phonetic), where have our ancestors come from. Where have our ancestors come from. Where have they come from.
It is a question of fighting to regain our humanity, our culture, our history, and our particular way of life which is different from theirs. We are talking about humanity.
Not money. Not dream power. That's their game. Money has never been something that interested us. We survive with or without it. With or without it.

Now then it is important to understand how the honkie are moving to organize. When they brought that honkie from South Africa, they tried to give South Africa a respectable image. So respectable an image that the United States voted to let South Africa come into the Olympics.
And if any black athlete from this country goes to that Olympic, that nigger ought to stay there. Stay there.
(applause) Stay there. Stay there. Stay there. Stay there.
(continuing applause)

It is no longer a question of how we are treated in this country. It is a question of our flesh is our flesh, and blood of our blood is treated in South Africa, in Mosambee (phonetic), in Zimbwadee (phonetic), in Portuguese Guinea, Everywhere on this earth they control us. We are like a race of dogs. We can't go anywhere without asking um,

'Master, can we move?' We are a mighty race of people.
We have got to get up and devise. We have got to get up and devise. Our fathers were warriors. Our fathers ruled the world. Our ancestors are great people. We have to pay them the respect. We must get up. We must get up. (applause)
We must get up. We must get up. We must get up. We must get up. (continuing applause)

Now then we have to understand that as we tied into the concept of Brother HUEY P. NEWTON. He is flesh of our flesh. And blood of our blood. We cannot hold any mock trials unless we are the executioners. We must become the executioners inside our community. That says very clearly
if you off Brother HUEY, we off 15 hunkie cops. Fifteen. (applause) Right out. Right out. (continuing applause) And we off them and if anybody in the black community says anything about it, we off him too. (applause) We off him too. We off him too.
(continuing applause)

And we off him because as MAO Tse-sung says, "To condemn ones people, is to take the stand of the enemy."
(applause) Of the enemy. (continuing applause) You cannot condemn your people. You cannot condemn your people. Undying love for our people.

As we understand that, then our mind moves internationally to the most important issue that gonna affect this country. The question of the Middle East. And we have to make it clear. We can have no relations with any Jewish group that support what they call Isreal. Which is occupied Palestine.

And I will tell you why we cannot support what they call Isreal. They got that state in 1917. The British was ruling Palestine. The British gave it to them. They didn't consult the Arabs. They didn't say to our brothers, "You know, do you want to sell it?" They just took it. And the scientists went to Isreal and started to use terrorist bombs to run our brothers out. And when we talk about being brothers with the Arabs, they say, "Well, don't you forget the Arabs told you sell them. We sold their momma's and let it go at that." The Arabs are our brothers. Our brothers. We have to understand that because they have developed the concept of love for a state developed in 1948 and they're moving into Egypt. Egypt is in Africa. Africa is in our mother land. We owned it for four thousand years. (applause) For four thousand years. (applause) And here we are who should have a love for our mother land for four thousand years gonna let some simple scientists run a game down on us. Send his young children to Isreal which he sold and made Isreal in 1948.

They're willing to die for it. And we sit 'chere while they invade Egypt. Egypt, the country that gave civilization to mankind. Our country. Our ancestors. Our mother land. We are opposed to the creation of the state called Isreal. The Arabs are our brothers. We stand united. Let's run it down. Run it down. (applause)

Let us not get afraid to tell them outright, "Yes, we want the Vietamese to win in Viet Nam." (applause) Yes, we do. (continuing applause)

So get caught up in the honkie's silly games. He gets up and says, "Well, Well. We're wrong but we have commitments and before we get out, we have to save face." And while that honkie is saving face, he's killing millions of yellow people who are our brothers. Don't worry about his face. Wipe his face out. Let the Vietamese take their country. Let em take their country. (applause)

We don't have to be afraid of them any more. Our time is coming brothers and sisters. We winners and we movin' on up. (applause) We movin' on up. We movin' on up. (continuing applause)

Now then. The concept of becoming executious is one we have to talk about because if we are going to move to build and understand we're not moving against the honkies. We don't give a damn about 'em. We're moving to build a concept of peoplehood to move to a concept of nationhood inside this country that attack and talks to the nine hundred million Africans in the world today. If that honkie tries to stop us, we off him. (applause) We off him. (continuing applause)

We're not talking about destroying their system. We're talking about building our system. Regaining our humanity. If they don't mess wid us we won't mess with them. But God knows, if they mess wid us, then everyone of us going to the streets. Going to the streets. (applause)

We are concerned with building a concept of peoplehood where we will have undying love for our people. Where we will be willing and happy and glad to die for our people. (applause) For our people. And in building that concept, we must organize groups which will when they come down against us have the maximum damage against them and the minimum risk to us. That means we organize little groups. When they off us, that group offs a number of them. If they get caught, it's a small group. The community keeps moving. They must be consciously willing to do that for their people. Everybody else has done it. Everybody else has done it. To talk about rebellions today without being organized is to give them the chance to come down. They have tanks. They have sonar rifles. They have machine guns. They have got one armed shotguns. They got everything they wanna get but they forget one thing. A war is never decided by technology. It is decided by the will of the people to fight for what belongs to them. (applause) What belongs to them.

A war is not just decided by numbers. It is decided by the determination, the dedication, the love of the people who are fighting. The Vietnamese show us that every day. They're whippin' um to death. (applause) Their whippin' um to death. (continuing applause)

But if we move the concept of a community as to wherever people are, we outnumber them. General MAO Tse-sung says seven hundred and fifty million Chinese. We have nine hundred million Africans in the world today. (applause) In the world today. (continuing applause) And we have all been colonized and we have been colonized by the same man. The honkie. The honkie has colonized us all. Our major enemy is the honkie. We move to build in our community. Our people have to survive. We have to survive. Our ancestors went through too much not to survive. Not to survive. Not to survive. (applause)

If we did not survive we should bury ourselves alive after what our parents went through in slavery. After what they went through the reconstruction. After what they went through in World War I. What they went through through the depression. What they went through World War II, the Korean War, and the Vietnamese War. We have a responsibility to our people to survive. (applause) To survive. (continuing applause)

We are the most beautiful people in this country.
We are. (applause)

We are not a war-like people. We have warriors but we are not a war-like people. We are a peace-loving people. But there comes a time in order to insure your peace you must pick up your spear and fight. (applause) And fight. (continuing applause) If we do not do that, brothers and sisters, we will be exterminated. Not only for our ancestors do we have to wage a battle but for our beautiful young children coming up today who are digging what it is to be black. We have a responsibility to them to survive. (applause) To them to survive. (applause)

When Brother HUEY gets messed around, if they try it. There will be some retaliation. (applause) There has to be a retaliation for many reasons. Brother HUEY represents progress in our race. They wasted our saint Brother MALCOM X for what he was saying. For what he was saying. (applause) For what he was saying. (continuing applause) Understand Brother MALCOM X did not do anything. He was just talking. And they wasted him cause he was waking us up they wasted him. Now they got Brother HUEY in jail at least for getting two of them. That's progress. That's progress. We've moved from talking to doing. Now we have the responsibility to Brother HUEY NEWTON. Cause

when Brother MALCOLM got ace--- wasted, we was so confused, we didn't retaliate but we got to retaliate if they get Brother HUEY NEWTON. Got to retaliate. (applause)

We have got to retaliate because we are the only people where they wipe out our leaders and we do nothing. In the last five years we have lost the BUCA (phonetic) from South Africa. We have lost BATRICE LA MUMBA (phonetic) from the Congo, and we have lost MALCOM X. And now we gonna lose HUEY NEWTON.

We must protect the people who care about us. We have got to retaliate brothers and sisters. Got to retaliate brothers and sisters. (applause)

We must cut down the in-fighting in our group. These brothers are the Evondon (phonetic). They're already to carry on a struggle. Whether or not we agree or disagree with their ideology. They think they're doing a educational job for the black community to teach them how to organize. We have to recognize that. We have to appreciate that. Because they have not been too many black people who have been willing to fight for their people. We have them now. We have a generation of warriors now. (applause) We have a generation of warriors now. (applause) We have a generation of warriors now. (continuing applause)

Our people have resisted. Our ancestors have resisted for this generation to wait the final struggle so our people can regain their humanity. We must organize our people. We must organize our people. We must organize our people. We must organize our people. If we do not, we will perish. We must organize our people and when groups are organizing in our community, you see nothing, you hear nothing, you know nothing. (applause)

Because on this new level of organization there are no Uncle Tom's because we're bringing people together. There are just traitors. And you off traitors. (applause) Off traitors. (continuing applause)

You just off traitors. Every black man in this country. Every black man around the world is flesh of my flesh, and blood of my blood. But if he gets in the way of my people. I'm gonna off him sure as I'm sittin' here. Sure as I'm sittin' here. (applause)

We have people today who are willing to off. We do not want to off our own people. Because all of them are potential allies. But if any black man talks to any honkie about what we do in our community. We are gonna kill him. (applause)

Now then brothers and sisters, we have to go. The three concepts. First. Our people. Then and only then me-

me and you. Undying love for our people. Every Negro must become a potential black man. Do not discourage our people. Let's work with them. Bring them home. For black people, the question of community is not one of geography but one of color. That means that the brothers of color all --- will everyone please stay seated. Because of security. I'm told. Just please stay seated. We'll be off in two minutes.---- The brothers of color around the world are our comrades in arms.

When the students in Santa Domingo rebel. You jump up and yell, "Hallelujah. They gettin' in one more place." They gettin' in one more place. (applause)

When the brothers in Viet Nam take the embassies, you holler, "Hallelujah. They gettin' em good. They gettin' em good. They gettin' em good." (applause)

And when our brothers in Africa take em in Portuguese New Guinea, take em in Zambezi (phonetic), take em in Mozambique, take em in South Africa, you holler, "Hold it, baby! I am comin to help you too." (applause) I'm comin to help you too. I'm comin to help you too. (continuing applause)

We are a beautiful race of people. Our forefathers would rather fight the sun than bow down to anyone. But look at us. Just look at us. We are like dogs living in this place. Our people are drinking wine. They taking dope.

They're fighting each other. They're cutting each other.

We must be concerned with our people. The hell with this

God damn country. Let's be concerned with our people.

(applause) Our people. Our people. Our people. We must be concerned wid our people. We must be concerned wid our people. (continuing applause)

Our young spend half their time in reform schools.

Our youth spend half their time sleeping on roof tops and then when they're finished they send them to Viet Nam. What kind of a life is that for a human being. What kind of a life is that. Get up black people. Get up. We will survive

America. We will survive America. We have survived too much not to survive now. And if they waste Brother HUEY, you take it from me, Brother HUEY P. NEWTON will be freed or else. Thank you. (applause)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL RALLY
SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH
2412 GRIFFTH
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA
FEBRUARY 19, 1968

b7D

On February 19, 1968 at 8:00 p.m., a rally featuring STOKELY CARMICHAEL was held at the Second Baptist Church, Los Angeles, California, where approximately 300 persons were in attendance with a majority being young Negroes between 18 and 25 years of age. REYES TIJERINA of the AFDM spoke prior to CARMICHAEL's presentation.

CARMICHAEL, who was the last speaker on the program, stated that the white man was the cause of all Negro problems. "The whites have robbed the Negro of his dignity." He indicated that the police were the force that maintained the white power structure.

CARMICHAEL indicated, "It's time the Negroes stop playing games, because the man (whitey) doesn't play games with you." CARMICHAEL related that an example of this was Detroit, Michigan, when the white man used bazookas, guns and camms against the Negro. The Negroes were urged to arm themselves and to use these weapons.

CARMICHAEL received a standing ovation and great enthusiasm for CARMICHAEL was expressed by the audience.

No news media or police were permitted to enter and observe the rally. All persons entering the church were searched and only persons known to the Negro Security Detail were permitted to enter the building.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on March 19, 1968, that Stokely Carmichael reportedly had [redacted] of Peoples Drug Store, 14th and U Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C., on March 16, 1968, over the arrest of a Negro woman caught shoplifting in the store the previous day. Carmichael allegedly came into the store during the morning of March 16, 1968 and asked for "Honky", apparently referring to [redacted] a white person. Carmichael was told by [redacted] was not in and Carmichael stated he would return later. Source stated Carmichael reportedly returned to the store at a later time and told [redacted] he did not want to hear about any more of "his people" being arrested and locked up. Source advised that some reference was apparently made about picketing the store but he did not know if Carmichael had made this statement or any other direct threats. Source advised that the impression was left with persons familiar with the incident that Carmichael was trying to have stealing and shoplifting condoned in the area. Source noted the drug store is located near the Washington Office of the Student Nonviolent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC), 1234 U Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., where Carmichael "hangs out" a lot of the time. Source stated officials of Peoples Drug Stores had reportedly become quite concerned about the incident.

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE
MAJOR URBAN AREAS
WASHINGTON, D. C.

This current document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The information set forth is based on the comments and views of the individuals mentioned herein. These pertained to the racial situation as it existed at the time the comments and views were expressed. The possibility exists that the racial situation in any particular area in Washington, D. C., may change suddenly. Due consideration must be given this fact.

II. GENERAL RACIAL SITUATION

The individuals familiar with conditions existing in the ghetto areas in Washington, D. C., have advised as follows:

The racial situation is very uncertain. People are apprehensive about Dr. Martin Luther King's "poor people's campaign" which he plans to bring to Washington, D. C. (WDC) in April, 1968. Some believe the demonstration will be beneficial and will show the underprivileged that efforts are being expended in their behalf. A riot could happen over some unexpected incident as has happened in other large cities. Stokely Carmichael urged a gathering of people in WDC, on March 17, 1968, to arm themselves and that every black man in the United States should get a gun. Some people in WDC are not in sympathy with Dr. King's demonstration plans. WDC leaders are attempting to evaluate the potential of Dr. King's impact on WDC, in April. Howard University students began a sit-in at Howard University on March 19, 1968, protesting possible disciplinary actions against students involved in previous disruptive action on the campus.

III. CURRENT EVALUATION OF VIOLENCE POTENTIAL

[redacted] who lives in the [redacted] and works in the [redacted] sections of WDC, advised as follows on March 11, 1968:

b2

The racial situation in WDC appears to be very uncertain. Nobody knows what is going to happen in WDC and many people are scared. They are not sure what will happen when Dr. Martin Luther King's "poor people's campaign" begins in April. Even though Dr. King has asked the militants to stay out of the activities, there is no assurance the request will be honored.

The March 11, 1968, issue of the "Newsweek" magazine, page 45 contained a paragraph captioned "Washington". It stated Washington had never been considered to be a major racial tinderbox as much of its Negro population works for the Federal government and is insulated by civil service security from the worst chills of black despair. It stated Washington was facing the summer with nervous uncertainty, and Dr. King was bringing 3000 demonstrators to Washington to begin a summer-long campaign of picketing and marching for jobs and income.

The March 12, 1968 issue of "The Evening Star", a daily WDC newspaper, page B-1 reported that District Safety Director Patrick V. Murphy had said the Washington police hoped to train as many as 2,800 volunteers for emergency duty this summer in an enlarged "Police Reserver Corps". Most of them would be used for station duty and thus free additional policemen during emergencies.

The March 12, 1968 issue of "Washington Afro-American", a Washington, D. C. newspaper, page 12, reported that The National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders had said that "Abrasive relationships between police and non-whites have been a major source of rioting in the racial ghettos of American cities".

On March 14, 1968, [] who works in the ghettos of WDC and is acquainted with many of the under privileged advised as follows:

b7D

The "poor people's campaign" which is a demonstration being planned by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. has been given the support of a number of the larger religious groups in WDC. The demonstration will show the underprivileged that much effort is being expended in efforts to improve their life. It is believed the demonstration will be beneficial. Plans are being made to have volunteers from among the demonstrators, who will agree to be arrested if necessary. It is not believed that any racial trouble will result from the demonstration.

[] further advised as follows:

Stokely Carmichael is in Washington, D. C. and has organized the Black United Front, (BUF), but it is not believed that Carmichael will have much support from BUF members if Carmichael decides to create violence in WDC. The majority of the BUF members are not expected to support any plans for racial violence.

b2

On March 14, 1968, [] who resides in the [] section of WDC advised as follows:

It is his belief that a riot could take place in WDC over some unexpected incident such as the arrest of a Negro. This has happened in the past in other large cities. Other than the above situation, the conditions are such that the source is optimistic about a riot-free summer in WDC.

[redacted] who resides and works in the ghetto areas of Northwest WDC, advised as follows on March 18, 1968:

On March 17, 1968, Stokely Carmichael gave a talk at The Church of The Redeemer, 15th and Girard Streets, N. E., WDC at the invitation of the Fellowship Forum of the church. Among other things, Carmichael said the black people in the United States must connect with the 900 million black people of the "third world" to liberate themselves from the control of the white man. He described the "third world" as including the black people of Cuba, West Indies, Haiti, South America and Africa. He said the United States is planning genocide against the Negroes and for this reason Negroes should arm themselves. He said he did not mean a .22 caliber either. He advocated that every black man in the United States get a gun. He stated that if Negroes obtained an arsenal, relations between whites and blacks would be equal.

b2

[redacted] further stated as follows:

Carmichael said he realized many black people do not agree with his ideology and that there are many "Uncle Toms" in the community. Carmichael said his group proposes that if they develop information about a person "being that way", someone will talk to that person and attempt to change his mind and "if he does not change his ways, he will be considered a traitor to his community and all traitors die". Carmichael said black people should support the Arabs in any conflict between the Arabs and the Israelis. He said the WDC Public School System is 93% Negro and the curriculum must be changed to be more relative to the Negro community.

The March 18, 1968, issue of "The Washington Post and Times Herald", newspaper on page B-3 reported that Stokely Carmichael had spoken to a racially mixed audience on March 17, 1968 at The Church of The Redeemer, WDC. Among Carmichael's comments to the group were "We are advocating simply that every black man in this country should get a gun. The only reason the honkie (white man) is able to rule is because he has a gun".

The March 18, 1968 issue of "The Evening Star", a daily WDC newspaper on page B-3, reported that the District chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People had voted to support the goals of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King's "Poor People's Campaign".

[redacted] who lives and works in the Northwest section of WDC, on March 18, 1968, advised as follows:

b7D

It is believed there are some individuals in WDC who may be inclined toward the creation of racial trouble in WDC, but these are not likely to initiate any actions toward the starting of trouble. The feeling among many in the Northwest ghetto is that in order for the "poor people's campaign" to be successful, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. will have to bring in outsiders for his reported "civil disobedience" in WDC. In the event large numbers of outsiders are brought in, their behavior will be very difficult to control. Therefore anything may happen.

[redacted] further advised as follows on March 18, 1968:

In the Northeast area near the source's residence, there has been a lack of enthusiasm by the WDC citizens for Dr. King's "poor people's campaign". These people are not in sympathy with Dr. King's plans as they fail to see that any benefits may result from any demonstration involving civil disobedience.

[redacted] who resides in Northwest WDC and is employed in a Northwest ghetto area, advised as follows on March 18, 1968:

The foremost concern of people in WDC is the unknown potential for racial trouble which could take place when Dr. Martin Luther King and his "poor people's campaign" begins in WDC in April 1968. Many leaders of organizations in WDC are attempting to evaluate the current and future potential of Dr. King's impact on the racial scene of WDC. These leaders are very concerned and are trying to determine what response WDC citizens may give Dr. King.

b7C On March 19, 1968, [redacted] Intelligence Division, Metropolitan Police Department, advised that at about 4:45 PM, on March 19, 1968, approximately one hundred and fifty students were engaging in a sit-in in the Administration Building, Howard University and planned to remain all night. Birmingham Confidential Informant [] furnished the following information:

On March 13, 1968, Stokely Carmichael, a Black Power advocate, spoke at Miles College, Fairfield, Alabama, on this date. Carmichael inferred that [] [] whom he considers an "Uncle Tom", should be killed if he and others like him cannot be won over to the Black Power cause. He called upon students to get guns and protect their "fellow black loved ones". In closing, his speech to a packed lecture room of excited students and some instructors, he read what he called a letter written by his counterpart, Rap Brown, from jail where he is confined for violating a court order. The letter stated the following:

b7C
b7D

1. That he is a political prisoner.
2. The Negro must move from resistance to revolution.
3. From resistance that's not enough, to aggression.
4. 1968 must signal the beginning of the end for this country.

The after effects of the speech left the students with gossip and mixed emotions. Carmichael came to the Miles campus without the sanction of the school administration. []

b7C
b7D

[] spearheaded the effort to get Carmichael on the campus and had charge of a large delegation of Mileans who went to Tuscaloosa, Alabama, on the night of March 12, 1968, to hear his speech at Stillman College.

On the morning of March 13th, petitions were circulated throughout the student body getting signatures asking that Carmichael be permitted to speak on the Miles campus. []

by the presence of Fairfield and county police officers who kept watch from the street at the school's main entrances several hours after Carmichael left the campus. During the meeting the notes taken by a white reporter of the "Southern Courier" newspaper were torn up by one of Carmichael's aides, and he was put out of the room. No other incidents occurred.

Some "Black Power" advocates on the Miles College campus claim to be disappointed at what they call the mildness of Carmichael's speech.

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Stokely Carmichael determined to have traveled from Birmingham, Alabama, to Eutaw, Alabama, arriving at the First African Baptist Church at approximately 8:05 P.M. on the evening of March 13, 1968. Carmichael and associates traveled in the following vehicles:

Late model yellow Ford Mustang bearing 1968 Alabama License [redacted] a 1966 Volkswagen sedan Fastback, gray in color, bearing 1968 Alabama License [redacted] determined to be registered to [redacted] Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and a 1968 gray Plymouth, bearing 1968 Alabama License [redacted] determined to be registered to [redacted] Selma, Alabama.

Birmingham confidential source [redacted] advised that approximately 300 to 400 persons were gathered at the church to greet Carmichael, all of whom were Negro. [redacted] advised that this meeting lasted approximately two hours, and that Carmichael spoke for about one hour to one hour and twenty minutes, the other time being taken up by speeches from local civil rights leaders. [redacted] advised that Carmichael spoke about American involvement in Vietnam and how, in his talks with the leader of North Vietnam, Ho Chi Minh, he (Carmichael) learned that the people of North Vietnam did not want to fight the Negro, only the white man. Carmichael also spoke about the draft and how it would be better for the Negro, if he had to fight, to fight in America protecting his family, rather than fighting in Asia against other colored people. [redacted] also advised that Carmichael spoke about the history of the Negro people of America and how the Negro had been used by the white man to build America, but was not allowed to participate in American society. [redacted] stated that Carmichael spoke about all the beatings, lynchings and other violence used by the white man against the Negro, and that now it was time for the Negro to fight back, using violence if necessary. [redacted] stated that Carmichael told how non-violence had not worked for the Negro, and now was the time for the Negro to arm himself in order to protect his family and his future. [] advised that Carmichael did not make any specific comments concerning draft evasion or the war in Vietnam, but confined his comments to generalities about Negro-white relations in America today. [] advised that a collection was taken at the end of the meeting, and approximately $84.00 was taken in.

b7D

Birmingham confidential source [] advised that a meeting at the First African Baptist Church, Eutaw, Alabama, held March 13, 1968, was attended by approximately 350 persons, and that before Stokely Carmichael, who was the featured speaker, made his talk, local Negro candidates and civil rights workers, including William Branch, who is running for Congress for the Fifth District of Alabama, spoke about their campaign and solicited the support of the audience. [] advised that the audience at the First African Baptist Church was composed entirely of Negroes. [] advised that Carmichael's speech was anti-white in nature and that he used Biblical quotations as an outline for his talk. [] advised that Carmichael criticized the white man, saying that he had persecuted the Negroes for over 400 years, that the Negro had never done anything to the white man, but that the white man had always hurt the Negro. [] advised that Carmichael mentioned that the Negro had built America and that the white man was not going to put him out of America or to whip him any further. [] further stated that Carmichael spoke about the war in Vietnam and how the Vietnamese people did not want to fight the colored person in America, and that the colored person, if he had to fight, should take up arms in America in order to protect his family and his own rights.

Birmingham confidential source [] furnished virtually the same information as furnished by Birmingham confidential sources []. Birmingham confidential source [] further stated that he learned that Stokely Carmichael would spend the evening of March 13, 1968, at Eutaw, Alabama, and then sometime during the day of March 14, 1968, he would travel to Selma, Alabama, where he would make another speech.

b2

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

[redacted] Greene County, Eutaw, Alabama, advised that local, county and state officers were in Eutaw, Alabama, during the visit by Stokely Carmichael on March 14, 1968. [redacted] advised that there were no reported incidents except that no white persons were allowed in the First African Baptist Church, and that two UPI reporters had been turned away from this church.

According to a press release dated February 20, 1968, Stokely Carmichael was reported to have been conducting a secret school for black militants in Washington, D. C.

[redacted] a native Washingtonian, advised on March 14, 1968 that although the Washington Office of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) is not active, he is regarded as [redacted] advised he is generally aware of current racial problems in the District of Columbia and the organizing efforts of Stokely Carmichael to unify the Negro community through the establishment of the Black United Front (BUF). In this connection he stated it is a known fact Carmichael is meeting with various individuals in Washington, D.C. but these contacts are not for the purpose of organizing secret groups to rebel against the community. He stated he knows of no secret school having been established by Carmichael to train out-of-town racial militants in how to promote violence.

[redacted] of the Washington, D.C. branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) advised on March 15, 1968 that he is aware of the racial conditions prevalent in the Washington, D. has organized a secret school in Washington, D.C. for the purpose of training out-of-town racial militants in violent tactics.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 20, 1968, he has scrutinized the activities of Stokely Carmichael carefully since his arrival in Washington, D.C. on January 4, 1968. He stated Carmichael has participated in many meetings, discussions and social functions concerning the establishment of the Black United Front and the activities of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). Source stated no information has come to his attention that Carmichael or SNCC has established any secret schools in Washington, D.C. for training out-of-town racial militants. We want to talk tonight about survival - whether or not the black people are going to survive in America. It's important today that we talk about survival because it's crystal clear in the minds of many of us that the white people are getting ready to commit genocide against black people. While that concept may sound strange and impossible to many black people, it is important that we examine our history and begin to understand whether or not it is possible for white people to consider committing genocide against us.

Now we can ...(inaudible) very simply. Now, genocide means very simply the advent to wipe us out physically - that is, kill everybody, that's what we mean when we say genocide.

I'd swear that in the new- ...(inaudible) emphasis they are burying their own people for a physical showdown with black people. They do that every day when they talk about their tanks - they do that every day when they talk about their stolen guns - they do that every day when they talk about their mace - they do that every day when they talk about their chemicals - they do that every day when they talk about their concentration camps. They do everything and they bury their own people for eventual showdown with black people.

It is very simple that we black people must prepare for this showdown so that we will survive, and that is all that we need to talk about...(inaudible)...(applause)...(inaudible)

We're not talking about politics - we're not talking about economics. We're talking about a certain type of ingrained superiority to be found in all white people when it comes to dealing with Negro color.

Let's examine the (inaudible) history of Europeans as they moved around the world. They came to this country - the Indians took them in - they showed them how to plant - how to fish - how to adapt to this country. After the Indians did that, they systematically wiped them out. They committed genocide against the Indians, and they do not even feel sorry about committing genocide. As a matter of fact, they laugh about it every day. They put it on TV - the cowboys and Indians, and they laugh about it when the cowboys shoot the Indians, and they have everybody else laughing at it so that people will begin to accept it as a way of life. They have completely committed genocide against the Indians.

They went to South America. They found the Aztec Indians. The Aztec Indians had a civilization. They had a lot of silver and they built a lot of monuments, religious monuments. They showed them to the white man. When he saw the silver, he stole it and tried to commit genocide against them. They went into the entire land and subjugated them to their way of life.

They went to Africa. The colored showed them gold and diamonds and all the minerals that we had. He stole the gold - he stole the diamonds - and he wasn't satisfied, and he stole us. (applause)

He went to China, and the Chinese had gun powder because they used gun powder to shoot fireworks...The Chinese showed him the gun powder. He took it and developed the gun, came back and conquered all of Asia.

We're talking about a type of superiority among the white people that makes them think that because they are white they're better than everybody else - and their entire system, not only in this country but around the world,...to show them favor today. Wherever the white man is today - whether he is the majority or the minority - he rules - he rules. He rules America - he says he's the majority. He rules South Africa - he is the minority. He's trying to rule in Vietnam - but the Vietnamese (inaudible) (applause).

Is it possible, then, to recognize what he's done to people's color around the world? Is it possible for him to develop genocide against us? We were brought to this country for one purpose - to build - and we did that ... (inaudible) Black people will decide. We were brought to this country to pick cotton. When we were brought to this country, the United States was an agricultural country. The cash crop on the market was cotton. Who picked cotton? ... (applause) ... We picked the cotton - and since we picked the cotton, we built the economy of this country.

After the Civil War...we all read about whether this country would be agricultural or industrial (partially inaudible); and at least once when this country became industrial, it was we who was used once again to develop industry in this country. We built the railroads, the ... (inaudible) - we did it - all the menial tasks to develop the country...

...(inaudible)...We have done what we were brought here to do - build this country - and today it's the most powerful country in the world...

...(inaudible)...The first thing - what they have been able to do to us as a people - is to destroy the love that we have for each other. They have been able to make us see ourselves as individuals rather than as a people. We must begin prompt action. We must see ourselves as a people. We must understand that our people come first - that we as individuals are not important - only our people is important. We must preach that concept more and more to our people. We must begin to develop an undying love for our people - the type of love where you are willing to die for your people - not for yourself, but for your people. So that our slogan must become: First, our people - then, and only then - you and me as individuals - but our people must come first. And in order to do that, we must develop an undying love for our people, an undying love for black people.

The second thing we say - today, while some of us have become very black, while some of us are still in the dark, we must be able to stand willing for the dark are still our people, and we cannot alienate them. So, our second slogan must be: Every Negro is a potential black man, and we can never alienate our sisters who are still wearing wigs (applause) and those who are so concerned that the only thing they can go out with is a high, light, bright man who...(inaudible). They need help, and the only people who are capable of helping them are their own brothers and sisters. Our second slogan must be very, very helpful - Every Negro is a potential black man...(inaudible). That means that we have in our race Uncle Toms. We do not begin to crush the Uncle Toms nor do we turn our backs on the Uncle Toms. We need to sit down, explain and talk with them and show them why they do something against the Negro, and show to them love, understanding, and patience - because we know Uncle Toms...because white people make them Uncle Toms. So there is no need to fight with the Uncle Toms, but our real fight is with the white man - not with our people - so we sit down and try with the Uncle Toms - we try him and we try him and we try him - if he doesn't come home, we classify him as a traitor. And you don't talk to traitors - you kill them. (applause)

But we must understand the concept of every Negro being a potential black man - because you never alienate from potential allies - you never do that, you should not do that... (inaudible)...

The third concept has more force and is more difficult to understand - for us, for black people - the question of community is not a question of geography. It is simply a question of color and where our people are. I will repeat that - for us, the question of community is not a question of geography - it is simply a question of color, where our people are - we are at home. That means, for example, if we went to Detroit, we would not be at home until we got to where our people were - east side, west side, and so on. If you went to Los Angeles, or until you got to Watts, you would not be at home - New York, Harlem; Washington, D. C., the entire city. (applause).

And if we understand this concept, that the question of geography is relative to us for a community, that will break down barriers of national geography so that not only are we at home in Harlem, in Watts, in Southside Chicago, Westside Queens, and Washington, D. C. - but we're also at home in Cuba, where 65 percent of the population is black. We're also at home in (inaudible), which is in Africa. We're also at home in (inaudible), which is in Africa. We would be at home in Brazil where 45 percent of the population is black. We would be at home in Panama where 40 percent of the population is black. We would be at home in Nova Scotia where 55 percent of the population is black.

So we break down the national barriers the white man has pulled around us, telling us that you are the Negro people. We are not Negroes - we are Africans. The blood of Africa runs in our veins, and this is what we must talk about. Let me explain to you the difference between a Negro and African.

A Negro begins in America. If you are a Negro and you began in America, you began in slavery. Is that not correct? Yes. When they sold us from Africa and they brought us here, they sold us like we were Africans - but when they put us here, we became Negroes, and Negroes...(inaudible)...

If you say that you are a Negro, or your history begins with a Negro, your history begins in slavery - and if your history begins in slavery, you can never aspire to be something more than a slave. The best thing you could want to be is a good slave. (applause)

...(inaudible)...Everything leads back to slavery. What we're saying is that we are a people born out of slavery. You cannot admit that your people were born out of slavery. If your people were born out of slavery, you can never jump over them.

Why is it that you're called Africans? Because that's where we came from. Not only that - if we say we're Africans, we recognize the history of a culture that is rich. We're African people - the world calls us so. Yes, we're Africans! We produced the first university of the world - the University of Timbuktu, in Africa. Yes, we're Africans! We gave some riches to the orphans (?). Yes, we're Africans! Unless you understand that concept, we're going to fall. We can never have any more riches - because no people can have more riches unless they feel that they are somebody - and if you are a slave, you have no riches. Yes, we are Africans! And that's what we're saying...(inaudible)...

Do you know where you come from? You might say your grandmother might have come from Alabama, or your great grandmother might have come from Alabama, your great-great-grandmother might have come from Alabama - but somewhere back there, somebody had to come from Africa. Don't you be ashamed of this - we came from Africa!

...Black people...now, we must understand concept number four (?) ..(inaudible)... Now, I know that this is going to be difficult to see...(inaudible)...but there may be some of you who will believe and there are some who don't - because everything the white man says is a lie - that we know. But there are white people reasons why we cannot believe it. The white man came to Africa. He came to Africa to steal us. That's why he came - he came to steal. What did he buy us with? Gold? We had our gold. We still have it. Regardless of what it might be worth, South Africa is still stealing it... (applause)

What did he buy us with? Diamonds? - the largest deposits in the world were found in Africa. What did he buy us with? Copper? Uranium? Zinc? ...(inaudible). Everything you want you find in Africa - it is the richest continent in the world's history.

What would he have bought us with? A green dollar bill? The dollar bill wouldn't be any good to you in Africa... (inaudible)...The green dollar bill that you have is backed by gold. If you have the gold, why do you need the dollar bill? (applause)

So you have to understand that when he says that our people sold our people out, he is doing two things. The first thing he's doing is getting divided, but you do not want to hear that our people sold you out. They sold me out...in Cuba ...(inaudible)... Once, you say, our people sold us out - what you're saying is that if they did it once, they can do it again - and once you have that idea in the back of your mind, you don't want to come close to somebody so troublesome. It's due to the ridiculous price.

The second reason is that he's got to admit that he sold us himself, so he's got to share some of the blame... (inaudible)... He did it - he sold it and he proved a point - so all we can say is Crackers, stand by us.

We have cotton in Africa - and tobacco - the best... (inaudible) comes from Africa - and the best "pot" in the world comes from Africa.

...(inaudible)...so that if we go we must go for tobacco ...We have the real...(inaudible)...there was something that was saved for us to do. That's what we...(inaudible) It was sheer robbery - he stole us from Africa. He did not buy us...(inaudible)... What else did he buy us with? ...(inaudible) ..but he did not buy us - he stole us.

Nobody sold our people out. We must understand that concept...(inaudible)...Now we must understand a number of things. The world today is divided on the question of color - nothing else - on the question of color - nothing else - I'm not advocating that it should divide on the question of color; I'm telling you that the world is divided on the question of color. We have always been divided on the question of color. But today it's coming to an end...(inaudible)...You think that because they tell you...(inaudible)...that the world is being divided by communists and capitalists, and all of that nonsense, that is totally correct - but let me give you an example.

In Washington, D. C., ...(inaudible)....We see all black people - from the Urban League and the NAACP to the revolutionaries who want to blow up Washington, D. C. - have come together and sat down under one roof and one color, and polled the black united vote, which means that all of these organizations (inaudible) and talk about how we can work for the benefit of the masses of our people. Well, do you know what the white man did the next day? Through the newspaper and TV argued that we rejoiced during the conference with LEROY WILKINS and MARTIN LUTHER KING sit down with communists like STOKELY CARMICHAEL. I've never said I am a communist, but they say I am - but that's not important - because I'm not going to tell them because they don't have no business knowing no how! (laughter ... inaudible).

Do you know what they're trying to do? ...(inaudible) that of our light-dark Negroes...(inaudible)... LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON...(inaudible)...a man by the name of KOSYGIN. KOSYGIN happens to be the leader of the communist world. They had meetings for three days in Glassboro, New Jersey, and they flashed that all over the nation...They said how good, how great, how wonderful that the communists and capitalists are coming together - but when a black communist sits down with a black capitalist, it is no good. What they're saying is that it's great and it's good that white people are coming together, but it's not great and not good when black people come together because they want to wipe us out - that's what they want; and if we recognize that they are going to stop, they can never wipe us out. If we think they're not going to wipe us out, they will wipe us out. I'm going to say it again - if we do not think they're going to wipe us out, then they will wipe us out - but if we know that they are going to wipe us out, they can never wipe us out. Are we saying that?

So you say the problem is communists - and you try to answer the problem. Russia did (inaudible) and (inaudible) every to North Vietnam...North Vietnam is an enemy of the United States, or is it that the United States is an enemy of the Viet Cong?... (inaudible)...Yet the United States can sit down with Russia and talk about joining hands. Don't you think that it is true that I am fighting with...(inaudible) ...There are yellow people over there and white people. We are not white people - some of us like to think that we are!

And so we must understand the concept that the world is divided on color - for if we begin to understand that, then we know how we have to move. But if we continue this nonsense about we are all one people, we are all defending our country, we're goin' to wake up in hell (?). We're goin' to wake up in two vallies - ...(inaudible). When the young people start telling the old people what's happening, we're through. (laughter - inaudible).

...(inaudible)...A few years ago when we were talking about black power, everybody was talking and said, No, we can't have it - or, This is not what we should have - blah, blah, blah, blah - If you get it, you will not be satisfied - so, we talked about black power - but because they didn't stop black power, they have not accepted black power, now they want to define black power. Then how do you define black power?

Well, first of all...(inaudible)...education... (inaudible)...Everybody has it. I didn't tell you ... (inaudible)...but that's not black power! (laughter - inaudible)...Education and money is not now and never will be black power. (end of tape)

SEDITION

ReATsirtel dated 3/5/68 with a copy of a booklet entitled "Ndugu Stokely From Africa."

Atlanta advised it appeared that two pages had been left out of this booklet; however, a review of the booklet indicates that the pages were stapled improperly and if the four pages starting with the word "Secondly" are placed inside the other four pages bearing the caption "Ndugu Stokely From Africa," the pages of the booklet will be in order.

By return mail Atlanta should submit 11 copies of a letterhead memorandum (LHM) in a form suitable for dissemination setting forth pertinent information as to how this booklet was obtained. The LHMs should include as an enclosure a Xerox copy of the above referred to booklet.

Inasmuch as WFO is office of origin concerning captioned subject, you should make certain that a copy of your communication is designated for WFO and that in the future information obtained by your office concerning Carmichael is promptly furnished to the office of origin.

NOTE:

Atlanta in referenced communication advised they obtained the above mentioned booklet from a racial probationary ghetto informant. Atlanta noted the contents of this booklet are a very succinct outline of revolution. It was suggested that the Central Research Desk consider dissemination of this booklet to Agent personnel particularly in areas where black nationalist activities are prevalent. In order that information concerning the booklet can be promptly disseminated to the Department and other interested agencies, AT is being requested to resubmit the information in a form suitable for dissemination. Instead of dissemination of pamphlet to Agents, consideration is being given through counterintelligence program to disseminate to the public. This is being handled separately.

Enclosed for the information of the Bureau is one copy of a booklet entitled, "NDUGU STOKELY FROM AFRICA."

This booklet was furnished to the Atlanta Office by [redacted] who attended a gathering at the Atlanta University Center on 2/28/68 at which STOKELY CARMICHAEL was the featured speaker. Atlanta has only two copies of this item and it is suggested if additional copies are needed that it be reproduced by the Bureau.

It is noted that the booklet has two places where there appeared to have been a page left out and these are obvious by the reading.

It is noted that the contents of this booklet are a very succinct outline of revolution. CARMICHAEL's remarks seem subdued compared to press reports of fiery speeches prior to his world travel. However, CARMICHAEL's remarks indicate that considerable thought, planning, analysis and study of revolutionary methods went into this particular work.

Agents working closely with the militant Black Nationalist in Atlanta have noted a distinct lack of understanding on the part of the white citizenry, as expressed in casual remarks in day to day contact.

While it is fully understood that most Agents not connected with this type of investigation are more fully aware of the problem than the general public, it is felt that the full value of Agent's contact throughout the county might be enhanced if the contents of this document were made available for reading and the seriousness of the situation underscored.

It is suggested that the Central Research Desk consider dissemination of this booklet to Agent personnel particularly in areas where Black Nationalist activity is prevalent.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL'S MESSAGE TO BLACK YOUTH FROM OUR MOTHERLAND — AFRICA!

Today is November 13, 1967. We are sitting in the Motherland, Africa, Tanzania . . . On this trip we have seen a lot of things and we have come to know a lot of important things and we think that now is the time for us to begin to move as a coordinated unit.

We face a lot of problems today, especially the African-American, but the first thing that we all must begin to understand is that we are not isolated. First, we are Africans, living in the United States, but we are first Africans. Our ancestry and our roots are in Africa. The African has been scattered all over the Western World. We are to be found from South Africa to Nova Scotia and we must begin to recognize this fact—this is the first thing we must understand. It must be crystal clear in our minds that today the African represents 900 million people in the world today. We can be found all over Africa. We can be found all over the West Indies. We can be found all over the Antilles. We can be found in Cuba, where we are 60 per cent. We can be found in Bolivia where we are thirty-five to forty per cent. We can be found in Panama, in Colombia, in Venezuela, in Guyana, in Nicaragua, in Guatemala—all the way up into the United States and into Nova Scotia. Today in Nova Scotia the African-American represents the majority of the people. Once we begin to understand as Brother Marcus Garvey tried time and time again to explain to us and as Brother Marcus himself understood when he took his trips through South and Central America, how strong we are, then we will begin to stop feeling that we cannot do anything. That is first and foremost!

Secondly, we must begin to understand that wherever the African is oppressed, be it in the United States, be it in Nova Scotia, be it in Puerto Rico, or be it in Africa, WE are oppressed. That's first and foremost in our minds and it must ALWAYS be in our minds and we MUST be crystal clear about that.

Now then, we have to talk about the problems that the African faces in the world today. We must talk about the problems the 900 million Africans face in the world today. The first problem is that we are oppressed wherever we are because of our color. We are oppressed because of our color and we must begin to understand that it is this that we are going to use to unite us and bring us together. We must begin to talk about this and not make apologies to anybody—anybody at all for what we have to do.

Number One: We begin to decide inside the United States to form what is called a United Front. That is to say, we will form a United Front with all groups from the N.A.A.C.P. to the Muslims. And this United Front will say very clearly that all of us are the same people and we are fighting for the same things and that publicly we will never attack each other. We will never publicly attack each other because the masses of our people need to see us united.

Secondly, whenever the white man comes down on any one group, ALL of us will rally to the support of that group. Our differences will be settled in the backrooms; never publicly. Brother Malcolm tried time and time again to emphasize this, but since this trip we have come to understand how very important it is because the honkies played that up outside—especially in Africa—where it seems as if we are divided and we don't know where we are going.

The second thing is that we must remember that whenever we talk we must be concerned with our Motherland, Africa. Africa is our Motherland. That is where we were raped from. That is where our ancestors are. That is where the blood of our blood and the flesh of our flesh is. We must always talk about Africa because United Africa today can become the power in the world that will serve as protection for the Africans; especially the Africans inside the United States, but also other African's outside of Africa. We must revive the concept of Marcus Garvey and understand what he was talking about when he said "Africa is our Motherland." If our blood is to be shed today we must make it clear it will be shed for three reasons and these three reasons only: Number one, for Black people wherever they are; Number two, for the Motherland, Africa; or Number three, for the oppressed people of the world. Our blood will never be shed for the white man. We have shed our blood too long for the white man with nothing for it. Our people, Our Motherland, and the oppressed people of the world.

Now then, since this is addressed to a youth conference, we ought to talk about the role of the youth in our movement. The first thing is that it is very important for the youth of our race to have a meeting by themselves. But it is also important that they do not use age as a criteria to eliminate many of our people, because many of our people who are older are very, very clear and know precisely what must be done and have the experience that we need in order to help us map out a program for our future strategy and to help us form an ideology. I do not need to mention Brother Malcolm X who was over 30 nor do I need to mention Dr.

DuBois who was in his nineties nor do I need to mention Marcus Garvey or many of the other brothers today who are over 30 and are fighting. So we cannot let age be a criteria to separate us. The youth need to have a meeting. They must begin to plan and to find out ways in which they can support and supplement the struggle. But they cannot isolate themselves from people over 30. There are too many people today over 30 who can really help us and really move.

The first role, then, of the youth in our race today is, Number One, to begin to organize themselves first. In our countries today our youth are divided by gang structures which fight and murder and plunder and kill each other. The first role of our youth if they're going to be serious is to contact all of these gang leaders and to begin to bring them together and to explain to them that we will not fight each other any more, nor will we wage gang wars among our Puerto Rican brothers because many of them are from Africa and the blood of Africa flows through the veins of Puerto Ricans. Nor will we wage war on our Mexican brothers. We will not wage war on them. That is the first thing that you as youth are supposed to do and if you are to be serious you must, when you leave this conference, go back and contact those gang leaders and begin to bring them together to the first thing to map out a peace strategy where we will not fight each other.

Number Two: Many of our people today need a pride in themselves so they can begin to feel that they are men, so they can begin to feel they are women, so they will not feel degraded and dehumanized. The job of the youth is to begin to give pride to our older generation. The way they can do that is to set an example of unity and love among our people, outside of words. Those must begin to come about and to begin to show a great deal of respect for our race.

Number Three: Fortunately many of the youth of today in our race are literate. Many of our people are illiterate. We must begin to render services to our people. This is very, very important. Our people will back us and will fight. But they will only fight if they can see that they are getting something concrete from the fight. If the fights are just being wasted in frustration they will refuse to fight. We must begin to get our people to fight but we must give them something concrete in that fight so they can see that they're gaining things so they will continue to fight. The role of the youth then is to begin to set up organizations inside our communities that will love Number One, begin to teach our people who cannot read and write TO read and write. We must first begin to talk about wiping out illiteracy in our community.

Next, the youth must begin to show to the older generation the mistakes that they have made and that we must explain to them carefully so that we do not alienate them from our ranks. We cannot alienate them from our ranks. We must begin to show them the mistakes they made and show them that we are willing to move to correct those mistakes and to find the path that is going to lead us to our liberation. The first way, of course, is to show them the mistakes they made in fighting for the wars of the white man. That is a slow and tedious job. But we must slowly begin to explain to them that we cannot fight in this war and why it is important for them to back us in a resistance movement to the war in Viet Nam.

Next, the youth of our country must begin to prepare themselves for paramilitary training. That is clear. There is no need for us to dodge the issue any more. We prepare ourselves for military training and we make it clear we recognize that they are going to move to commit genocide against us and we must be prepared. We are not going to let them provoke us into a mass war now because we are not prepared to wage that war. But we make it clear that every time they touch one of us all of us will fight whether we are prepared or not. Any time they touch one of us all of us must fight and the reason is so that we let them know that when they come to get us they must be prepared to lose some of their people! That is to say we are always prepared to fight, but we will decide when to fight.

There are many of us who frown on the question of reading books and understanding what is going on, but in your cadre you should select a number of people whose job it is to read everything that comes out in the newspaper and begin to analyze those things and to produce solutions for the benefit of the masses of our people. Never for a few intellectuals or the few bourgeois in our people but for the masses of our people. A clear understanding of the political situation of the United States is necessary before we move.

There are a number of youth in our community today who run around shooting off their mouths about Black Nationalism, etc., etc. Our job is to begin to corral those youths who have the energy and begin to give them precise things to do. I do not want to outline for you your specific program. That is your job. It is your organization. But it is clear that talk is no longer going to fill a program for us—for our people. You must begin to organize precisely and give people things to do; no matter how little those things are. This leads us to the question of organization.

We have to begin concretely and seriously to organize our people in everything they do. We will organize everybody and everything and the simplest thing, from sewing clubs to political organizations. But the question is organize. Organize our people, organize our mothers, organize our teenage girls, organize our teenage boys, organize our fathers, organize our poor people, organize our babies, organize, organize, organize! And those organizations must be sound. We cannot just talk about organizing. You must have a conference. Your job is to begin to find out what organizations are viable, how they can continue and how they can all hookup into a national structure for our youth. I have many suggestions, but again, I think it is important for you to begin to try and map these out for yourselves.

You must begin to find new ways to try to finance our movement. Our movement is going to be financed by us, Black people. You must concretely work out ways to finance that movement.

The federal government today is pumping a lot of money into our communities. The reason this money is coming in is not to help us. The reason is to divide once again and to conquer us. You should begin to map out a strategy for the youth with whom the poverty program is concerned, because you represent the force that they are unable to deal with. You represent the force that is ready to fight for our people anytime, anyplace and anywhere. And so it is you they are going to seek to try and divide and delude and and whitewash. Therefore you should begin to see how in our community we can control the poverty program and use it for our benefit. If we cannot control it you should seek ways to disrupt and destroy it.

The question of culture is very, very important. It is very closely hooked to the question of history. We must begin to reclaim our history and our culture. We must begin to push to our people the need for them to stop imitating the standard of beauty of white society. The wearing of "natural" is a very important political weapon. We must try to convince our people to stop frying their hair. The youth can do this because you represent the beauty of our race. If we are going to participate in the nonsense of beauty queens, etc., etc., we should begin to find people who are black and who represent us from the sense of blackness. That is to say, regardless of the shade of their skins people who appreciate themselves and do not wear a lot of nonsensical makeup and fry their hair. That you can begin to do.

The youth must begin to create an atmosphere of self-sufficiency in our communities. That is to say that we depend upon ourselves; on no one else. And unless the youth in our community is willing to demonstrate that they do not depend on any white people we will not be able to encourage our older generations or our generations to come. Self-sufficiency should be your law number one. We depend on ourselves, Black people, all 900 millions of us wherever we are, we depend on ourselves.

We begin to read books published by black people, written by black people. We can read other books by other revolutionaries, but our first task is to begin to create heroes among ourselves whom we can admire and who can inspire us. Your job is to begin to read Franz Fanon. Your job is to begin to read Marcus Garvey, Richard Wright, LeRoi Jones. We must begin to read to analyze those people. Then we can read other revolutionaries like Che Guevara. We must begin to understand that to get an analysis of our problem we read our people and we draw from other revolutionaries around the world. Your slogan should be: "THE BLACK YOUTH IS A REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH BY NATURE." We are revolutionaries, nothing less.

You should establish a cultural department in your conference whose job it is to further Black Culture across the country. You must begin to consciously organize a program to further Black Culture. To talk about furthering it without organizing to do it is going to be our downfall. You must organize a cultural department.

You cannot be isolated. We cannot be isolated. You should seek then to move to build a national youth organization. A national youth organization, which receives its programs from the bottom, never from the top. That is to say the president or vice-president of the organizations do not decide the programs. The programs will be decided by the local chapters who are working with the masses of our people then carried out and articulated by the leaders of that national organization.

In our organization we cannot eliminate ANYBODY! We must organize everybody; the drunks, the prostitutes, the pimps, the gangsters, the hustlers, the preachers, the sisters in the church, the welfare mothers—we must seek to organize EVERYBODY!

We must begin to learn Swahili. We must begin to learn Swahili. We must spread it all over the country.

In summing up: The youth should try and subjugate itself to a national organization which must be created among our elders, supporting the political ideology where we can agree with it. If there are to be disagreements, then we meet and try to work out those disagreements behind closed doors and we will try and support those programs to begin to give some continuity to our struggle. We must recognize that our struggle did not start in 1960 nor did it start in 1954. Our struggle started four hundred years ago when the first white man came to Africa and tried to rape us. We have a continual struggle. Our struggle does not end in 1970 or 1972. We must be prepared to wage a long struggle and we must recognize that our fight will not even begin to show any sort of solutions for at least ten to twenty years and we must be willing to commit and dedicate ourselves to these years of struggle. We must be willing to say that if this entire generation of black youth must fight and be wiped out so that our generation that comes behind us can live like human beings we are willing to commit this generation to that fight.

Finally, the most important thing for the youth is to begin to show love for our people; undying love for our people which we have never been able to find. Love. Love, love, love and we do not and NEVER apologize for hate. If we hate white people we tell them we hate them because we love our people so much and because they try to hurt our people we are willing to die fighting with guns in our hands. Let us not be discouraged. There are going to be many of us who are going to die. But let us tell them it is from the blood of Patrice Lumumba, it is from the blood of Huey Newton, it is from the blood of a hundred and thirty brothers and sisters who have died in the last three years of rebellion, it is from the sweat of twenty-eight thousands of our brothers and sisters who are in jail all over the United States today because of rebellions, it is from THEIR blood that we will continue to fight. And if Rap Brown dies it is from his blood that will spread millions more ready to die! Blood and death will not stop us! We must march on! We must move on!

This is the generation of Africans that is going to reclaim the humanity of our people. This is the generation of Africans that is going to reclaim our Motherland. We cannot lose once we begin to struggle. It is a question of liberation or death, that is all. But we make it crystal clear to the world that this generation of Africans are going to have Black Power in the world one way or the other.

Thank you brothers and sisters. Keep on fighting. I'll be home within a month. BLACK POWER!! And no matter what, we got to T C B.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS
SEDITION

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on March 18, 1968, that Stokely Carmichael appeared at The Church of The Redeemer, 15th and Girard Streets, N. E., Washington, D. C. at 6:00 p.m. on March 17, 1968, where he gave a talk at the invitation of the Fellowship Forum of the church. Source advised that approximately 350 persons were present which consisted of both Negroes and whites. The audience was composed primarily of adults, with some teenagers present.

Source advised the Pastor of the Church, Reverend Jefferson Rogers, gave the invocation opening the program. Carmichael was then introduced by James Robinson who presided. Carmichael introduced his wife to be, Miriam Makeba, who accompanied him and sat in the audience. He also introduced William (Bill) Hall whom he described as working with the Black United Front (BUF) to organize the school system in the District of Columbia.

Carmichael introduced his remarks by stating that what he had to say related to Black unity, black power and the survival of the black man. He commented the remarks that he would make he has made many times before and will make them many times in the future. He stated the white man and primarily white western civilization has historically and systematically "colonized" the Negro, the white man has also attempted to "dehumanize" him. He stated that the white man has always had an evil motive in dealing with black people.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

He stated the black people in the United States must connect up with the other 900 million black people of the "Third World" in order to liberate themselves from the control of the white man. He described the "Third World" as including black people in Cuba, West Indies, Haiti, South America and Africa. He emphasized the survival of the Negro is at stake in America as the United States is planning genocide against them and for this reason Negroes should arm themselves. He commented he did not mean a .22 caliber either. He stated he was advocating simply that every black man in the U. S. get a gun and that the only reason the "honkie" is able to rule is because he has "the gun". He stated that if Negroes obtained an arsenal, relations between whites and blacks would be equal. He commented that this is "why the brothers on the block call the gun an equalizer".

Carmichael stated he realizes many black people do not agree with his ideology and that there are a lot of "Uncle Toms" in the Negro community. He disclosed his group proposes that when they develop information about a person "being that way" that someone sit down and talk with them in an attempt to get them to change their minds. After, "they call him in and talk to him, if he does not change his ways, he will be considered a traitor to his community and all traitors die".

Carmichael emphasized black people must develop an undying love for their race, not their country. Further that they must be willing to die for their race and if they must die, they should die in the streets of the United States, not in Vietnam. He commented he was willing to die for his people.

Carmichael further stated that the right to vote in the United States means nothing to black people and that they would not be able to develop any power through bloc voting.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

He stated that if "you're white, the vote means you can play games with Kennedy, Mc Carthy, Johnson and Wallace. But they're all the same when it comes to us". He quoted from Mao Tse Tung, Chairman of the Chinese Communist Party that "Political power comes out of the barrel of a gun".

Carmichael also advised that black people should support the Arabs in any conflict that might develop between them and the Israelis. He stated that this stand has caused many Jewish people to call him anti-semitic but that this is not true because the Arabs are also a semitic people according to racial origins. Carmichael continued that while the Negro has many problems, Communism is not the answer to solve these problems because of the fact that his problem is more racial than political. Carmichael stated that a lot of people questioned the need for a Black United Front (BUF) but that the need for this type of an organization was necessary regardless of ideology so that black people could sit down and talk together and reach an understanding as to their problems. He commented that the only reason the press had been barred from the past meetings was because of the fact the press has a tendency to distort the truth concerning efforts for the Negro to unify himself. He commented that the D. C. Public School System is 93 percent Negro and that the curriculum must be changed to be made more relative to the Negro community. He stated that "we must take over the school system", as it is not teaching what should be taught to black people.

Carmichael read a statement from H. Rap Brown written by him in jail. Brown spoke of fasting because he had done nothing wrong but had been merely attempting to liberate his people. Brown wrote that he was being held a political prisoner. Carmichael stated that Brown is willing to die for his people.

Carmichael also stated that on March 20, 1968, there would be an "International Rap Brown Day" and at that time money would be solicited for Brown's legal defense.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Regarding Adam Clayton Powell, Carmichael stated that when Powell made a mistake he was "choked out" by the white man but when Senator Dodd, a white man made a mistake, he was merely censured.

During an answer and question period that followed the talk, Carmichael stated the United States can never win in Vietnam unless it uses the atomic bomb because of the determination of the North Vietnamese. Even if the atomic bomb were used the United States would face a more formidable foe in Red China because of its many people.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Previous memorandum was forwarded concerning the fact that STOKELY CARMICHAEL spoke at a mass meeting of the Lowndes County Christian Movement For Human Rights at Mt. Miriah Church, Beechwood, Alabama, on March 10, 1968, and at the Beulah Baptist Church, Montgomery, Alabama, on March 14, 1968.

ALA
MISS. A confidential source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that CARMICHAEL arrived at the Mt. Miriah Church, Beechwood, Alabama, at approximately 5:00 P.M., and the duration of his speech was about forty-five minutes. There were some 250 Negroes in attendance at the meeting, which was held commemorating the third anniversary of the organization. Reverend SOLOMON GRANT, from the Delta Ministers Association Of Mississippi, was the invited guest speaker. CARMICHAEL was not specifically invited to attend this meeting, and no invitation was openly sent to him. CARMICHAEL, however, has an open invitation to attend and speak at any type of function, due to his popularity with the Negroes.

CARMICHAEL used three scriptural references from the Bible to emphasize his talk and ~~how~~ it related to the Negro and to the injustice of the present. He compared the coming of Christ and his followers to the present day Negro revolution. CARMICHAEL said he was speaking in behalf of the Mexican Americans, American Indians, and the Negroes, who have been dealt a gross injustice by the white man. He advised those present to learn and know their background, which is of African Heritage, and they should be proud to identify themselves as such. He told the audience they should prepare themselves the same as the white man is preparing himself in the use of firearms, as evidenced by the white citizens of St. Louis, Missouri being instructed by the police in the use of guns. He advised those present that the protection of the Negroes is the responsibility of the Negroes, and Negroes should stop killing each other and learn who their enemies are. CARMICHAEL alleged he was not preaching hatred of the white man, but telling the Negroes to look at the record and realize the plight of the Negroes, and who is responsible if not the white man. This source continued that CARMICHAEL did not mention the Vietnam War in particular. CARMICHAEL advised that in all wars the people should learn who they are fighting, and who is friend and who is not. He stated the power of the black man can be used to good advantage, as evidenced by the fact that they placed ADAM CLAYTON POWELL in a position of power and then took it away from him, because they did not lend their support to him in time of need. He stated that GEORGE WALLACE can travel in every state in the country speaking his racist program, but RAP BROWN and he do not have the same privileges. CARMICHAEL stated that when WALLACE speaks and a riot or disturbance occurs, it is blamed on the demonstrating group, but if CARMICHAEL or BROWN speaks and a demonstration breaks out, it has been caused by the direct action of BROWN or CARMICHAEL, and they are threatened with lawsuits and jail. CARMICHAEL did not mention the term "Black Power" at any time, but he showed how black power could be used to further the Negro revolution and place it on the right road.

[redacted] with whom sufficient contact has not been had to establish his reliability, advised that STOKELY CARMICHAEL arrived at the Beulah Baptist Church, Montgomery, Alabama, between 8:00 and 8:15 P.M. on March 14, 1968. There were five occupants of the car in which he was riding. One of the Negroes with CARMICHAEL was carrying a light brown plastic-type briefcase, which had two latches on the cover and a strap which came over the top opening. CARMICHAEL greeted all of those present, made a few remarks, and then entered the church, where he remained a few minutes. When he came out, [redacted] together with CARMICHAEL and two unidentified Negro males, went to a room on the side of the church, where all five entered.

CARMICHAEL made the comment that [REDACTED] here, and, further, he did not want any informants in his organization, and if his words got out, the person would be "missed like dead, Baby", and to emphasize his remarks he had one of the unknown Negro males open the briefcase, previously described, and display a machine gun, which had been broken into two parts. There were also three clips in the briefcase. CARMICHAEL indicated they could get more where this gun came from. He stated that WALLACE is speaking all over the United States, telling people how he handles demonstrations, and it will be seen how he handles the next riot, stating "We are going to burn this honky town down", and "The National Guard and whites are getting ready, but we are going to strike quick and fast. We will leave and be like NERO, off fiddling somewhere while the city burns". CARMICHAEL indicated there will be riots in every Southern State. CARMICHAEL further stated Berkley, California and Chicago, Illinois are "in for a hot spell, but Montgomery, Alabama is in for a long hot summer". He indicated he intended to use students to start the riots. He further indicated that he intends to organize in Montgomery, Alabama and move an office to Montgomery, using a club name to throw "whitey" off guard.

CARMICHAEL stated he would like to talk longer, but he had to catch a plane to Atlanta, Georgia, where he plans to raise $10,000.00 for RAP BROWN. He said he then was going to proceed to Washington, D. C.

[REDACTED]

While the premises were being decorated on March 18, 1968, Stokely Carmichael and three other male individuals arrived at the residence and announced to the painter "they were taking over." [REDACTED] stated that this was about the same time that Carmichael's [REDACTED] had been announced in the press. Carmichael and his companions insisted the painter give them the key which he did reluctantly but felt necessary to do so under the circumstances due to apparent pressure from the group. Carmichael reportedly "stalked" indicating displeasure with the facilities. Subsequently, Carmichael and his companions appeared at the office of [REDACTED]. They demanded to see [REDACTED] immediately who was busy with another customer at the time. Carmichael and his companions were invited to have seats for a moment. Instead, they began hissing and clapping their hands while insisting on seeing [REDACTED] immediately. [REDACTED] met with them as soon as possible. Carmichael indicated that he was not pleased with the condition of the premises [REDACTED].

b7C

[REDACTED] He wanted additional decorations made and insisted on a new stove being installed. [REDACTED] told Carmichael that he would not make the additional repairs to the premises that he demanded and told him that he had not dealt with him [REDACTED].

He told Carmichael that he did not know who he was and did not desire to deal with him about matters concerning [redacted]

[redacted] Carmichael indignantly replied that he was Stokely Carmichael and "we're taking over honky." [redacted] reiterated to Carmichael that he felt he should deal with [redacted] directly about the matter, but this did not satisfy Carmichael, and he demanded in [redacted] [redacted] be returned as well as [redacted]

[redacted] told him that they could cancel [redacted] if they desired to do so, but [redacted] would have to visit the office. Carmichael insisted that [redacted] deal with him, and [redacted] told him to bring in the receipts he had given to [redacted] and the money would be refunded. This did not appear to please Carmichael as he wanted the money then in cash. [redacted] then became afraid violence might develop and attempted to call the police; however, one of Carmichael's companions took custody of the telephone and prevented [redacted] from getting the call through. The switchboard operator was able to get a call through to the police. Carmichael then engaged in further harangue using abusive language about the matter. He left, however, soon thereafter before the police arrived.

[redacted] stated that the incident terrified his office employees as they are for the most part older people and inclined to be frightened easily. He pointed out that he has been in the [redacted] business at that address for over forty years and never had any similar problems. He stated he was intimidated and threatened by Carmichael. In addition, he discovered a "parrot" knife missing from his desk which he had used to open mail and believes one of Carmichael's companions took this during the incident.

On March 20, 1968, Carmichael returned with three of his male companions to [redacted] office. [redacted] advised that he had hired a guard in the meantime to sit in the office, and they had kept the outside door to the office locked. The guard had been directed to permit only persons into the office previously recognized by office workers through the glass door. When Carmichael arrived, he found the door locked and began rapping loudly on the glass. He shouted

"hey honky, I've got the receipt, I want my money." The office staff was afraid of him, and they refused to let him inside the office. He then became boisterous and profane. They summoned the police who arrived shortly thereafter. Carmichael was not permitted to enter, and he was invited to push the receipt under the door. He refused to do this. Carmichael persisted in demanding a return of the money in cash. To prevent further trouble, [redacted] relented and agreed to give Carmichael a check for the [redacted]

Carmichael refused to accept this and demanded cash and said he also wanted the [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] In the meantime, a check was prepared and pushed under the door which Carmichael finally accepted. He then insisted that the [redacted] be returned to him also.

[redacted] explained that it was written on a New York bank and had not cleared yet. Carmichael appeared not to accept this reasoning and said he was going to get that money or else he was going to [redacted] asked him to repeat what he had said, and he repeated that if he did not get the money he was going to tear up [redacted] told him that he was threatening him. [redacted] then told Carmichael that if he would bring in a receipt for the [redacted] that had been given to [redacted] they would return the money to him. [redacted] stated he did not feel he was obligated to deal with Carmichael since he had made all his previous arrangements about [redacted] however, he acceded to Carmichael's demands under the circumstances.

[redacted] felt he did not have to legally return the [redacted]

[redacted] however, he advised that he planned to do this in order to prevent further trouble.

STOKELY CALLS STRIKE TO PROTEST KING'S DEATH

Havana in Spanish to the Americas 1200 GMT 5 Apr 68 C

[Excerpt] The North American Negro leader, Stokely Carmichael, last night called upon the U.S. Negro population to stage a nationwide general strike today, Friday, to repudiate the vile assassination of Rev Martin Luther King. Carmichael made the declaration by phone to the PRENSA LATINA Press Agency in New York from the offices of the Student Nonviolent Coordination Committee in Washington.

The youthful Negro leader's appeal stated that with the general strike the North American Negro population will bring home to the white racists that they have the necessary strength to pay back for the outrages that have been committed against the Afro-Americans.

On March 14, 1968, an Agent of the FBI observed Stokely Carmichael and another Negro male arrive at the Municipal Airport in Atlanta, via Delta Airlines Flight 365, at 10:52 p.m. Carmichael subsequently made several telephone calls, went to the pick-up baggage area, secured his luggage, and went to the cab stand area, where at 11:44 p.m. he was picked up by two Negro females driving a 1961 four-door Pontiac bearing 1968 Georgia license [redacted] b7C

According to the records of the Motor Vehicle Unit, Georgia State Department of Revenue, this license was issued to [redacted] Atlanta, Georgia. [redacted] according to [redacted]

[redacted] for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). [redacted] advised that Carmichael and his traveling companion spent the rest of the night and early morning hours of March 15, 1968 at the apartment of [redacted] Atlanta. [redacted]

On March 15, 1968, [redacted] advised that Carmichael visited the local SNCC Office at 360 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, late in the afternoon of March 15, and apparently had just left the offices of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) located at 234 Auburn Avenue, N.E., Atlanta. [redacted] advised on March 19, 1968, he had been unable to develop the identity of individuals visited by Carmichael at the offices of the SCLC, but believes that this visit had something to do with SNCC's support of Dr. Martin Luther King's forthcoming Washington Spring Project.

[redacted] has advised in the past that the policy of Carmichael is that SNCC will not openly and physically support Dr. King's efforts in Washington during the month

[redacted] advised that when Carmichael returned to the SNCC Office late in the afternoon of March 15, 1968, and immediately prior to his departure from Atlanta for Washington, D.C., he had met with three Mexican-appearing individuals at SNCC. The source was unable to determine complete details of this meeting, but it was learned that this group asked Carmichael what he would do about the racial situation in Albuquerque, and also how he was able to get around so easily. They also mentioned that they had recently come into possession of a large sum of money and desired to know how Carmichael would put this money to use in regard to the civil rights movement. The source was unable to learn in detail Carmichael's observation or answer to questions put to him by this source, but did learn that he explained his ease of getting around to the number of friends that he has. On March 16, 1968, [redacted] advised immediately after Carmichael's departure from Atlanta, [redacted] [redacted] of SNCC, issued the following directive to all members of the SNCC staff:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

During the past week, the Atlanta Communications office has been bombarded with press calls from Washington, D.C. and all parts of the country. Reporters constantly seek to verify: (1) when and where the staff meeting will be held, (2) Stokely's schedule and (3) rumors circulating concerning the possibility of Stokely going to organize in Wash. D.C. NOW---we all know that as long as we use the U.S. Post Office to send staff correspondence and use tapped, bugged phone lines to discuss organizational business and details of staff meetings, that organizational business is bound to "leak" to the press and other interested parties. Also, as long as we openly talk to "friends" and others outside of staff, such leaks are bound to occur. However, we feel that such leaks can be controlled somewhat if we follow the policy outlined below:

1. All calls from reporters and others not in our strictest confidence concerning organizational business should be handled by saying that "we have no information or no knowledge" of whatever it is they are calling about. In fact, we do not need to speak to the press or respond to their questions. You can always say you have "nothing to say to the press."
2. Under No circumstances should information concerning Stokely's schedule be given to the press or to anyone not in strict confidence. This is absolutely necessary if we are to maintain some semblance of security and for Stokely's physical protection. Reports from the SNCC folk who went on the campus tour emphasize the need for keeping Stokely's schedule, or anyone elses in the organization for that matter, a secret---thereby keeping reporters, cops, and other unnecessary persons out of his way and off of his trail.
3. Business such as whether or not Carmichael is to go to D.C., or any other internal business does not belong in the press and should not be circulated outside of SNCC. We are not obligated to answer questions of other people who think they are entitled to know SNCC's internal business. When and if it is desirable or necessary to publicly circulate SNCC plans, it could be done through a press conference or statement. Then and only then, should we have any dialogue with the press.
4. All questions and calls from the press concerning any public SNCC statements should be referred to the Atlanta Communications office, unless such statements originate locally in your office or project. Copies os statements issued locally should be sent to the Atlanta communications office.

The only exception to this policy should be to confirm a SNCC statement which you have read and know, in fact, was issued to the public; or to deny mis-information and distortions of public statements which you know, in fact, are incorrect.

5. PLEASE DO NOT GIVE OUT INFORMATION CONCERNING SNCC STAFF MEETINGS TO ANYONE OUTSIDE OF STAFF OR NOT SPECIFICALLY INVITED TO ATTEND. The press has shown great interest in the coming meeting, and we do not wish to be surrounded by reporters and others hanging around the site of our meeting. To all reporters who have called to get information on our meeting, we respond that we "have no knowledge of any impending staff meeting, nor do we know if, when or where any such meeting will be held."

WE HOPE THAT ALL STAFF MEMBERS WILL COOPERATE AND FOLLOW THE GUIDE-LINES ABOVE. IF WE DO, THEN WE MAY REDUCE THE AMOUNT OF INFORMATION WHICH LEAKS TO THE PRESS AND OTHER INDIVIDUALS ANXIOUS TO KNOW OUR BUSINESS FOR OTHER REASONS.

Carmichael spoke for approximately one hour on the themes of Negro segregation from the white race and the history of the Negroes. He also commented on how to achieve "black power" in Maywood, Illinois. He recommended that the immediate objective should be total boycott of white merchants in Maywood, who after they are forced out of business should be taken over and operated by Negroes. A tentative target then set for inciting the boycott was May 20 or 21, 1968, which would coincide with the death of a martyred Negro leader. On March 26, 1968, [] advised that a fund raising rally was held at the Afro Arts Theatre, 3947 South Drexel Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, beginning at 9:15 p.m. and ending at 11:05 p.m., Monday evening, March 25, 1968. This rally was held for the benefit of H. Rap Brown, National Director, SNCC, who is currently in jail in New Orleans, Louisiana. There were approximately 700 people in attendance and the Theatre was filled to capacity. Among the speakers recognized by the source at the rally were Stokely Carmichael, Robert Brown, Robert Lucas and Edward "Fats" Crawford. (M)

Several white males were observed waiting outside the Theatre prior to the affair, but these individuals were told to leave the area. Various news men attempted to attend the rally but were refused admission.

Robert Brown, Robert Lucas and Edward "Fats" Crawford spoke briefly and only by way of introduction to the featured speaker, Stokely Carmichael.

Stokely Carmichael spoke for approximately an hour and a half, frequently repeating himself and giving the impression of disinterest. Among the often repeated remarks by Carmichael were, "Blacks must love blacks", "The black man must know that the honkey is his enemy", "Blacks must unite".

Carmichael stated, "The white man has done nothing for the blacks except cheat them, as is evident from the days of slavery." "When the white man first came to this country he learned from the Indian and then he killed him." "It is not going to be a long hot summer but it is going to be a long hot year."

Carmichael stated he did not want the various Negro teenagers fighting and killing each other, but rather that they should unite and fight their common enemy. He stated that H. Rap Brown was in jail because he "rapped too much" pointing out the truth. Carmichael read the audience a letter he had received from Brown which commented in the same manner as he had been talking.

Source said students were able to attend the meeting for a cost of $1.00, while adults had to pay $2.00 admission fee. During the affair a collection was taken up for H. Rap Brown. There was no announcement made as to how much money had been collected.

The source stated there were no disturbances during the rally. order was kept reasonably well, there were no incidents and no arrests by the Chicago Police Department.

On March 26, 1968, [] advised that on Monday evening, March 25, 1968, between 7:00 and 12:00 p.m. a fund raising rally was held at the Afro Arts Theatre, 3947 South Drexel Boulevard, Chicago. The feature speaker of the evening was Stokely Carmichael who addressed approximately 700 people of which 50 were representatives of black power organizations in the Chicago area. AM

Carmichael stated that the black people need black supremacy. The black man must have guns not votes and that votes are useless, guns should be used in place of votes. Carmichael protested America's Education System for the Negroes. Carmichael said every black man should get a gun to defend himself and that the Blackstone Rangers should not destroy each other but rather go after the white man. Carmichael took a collection for H. On March 26, 1968, [] advised that on Monday evening, March 25, 1968, Stokely Carmichael spoke for approximately one hour at a fund raising rally held at the Afro Arts Theatre, 3947 South Drexel Boulevard, Chicago. Carmichael's speech was lack luster and obviously off the cuff. Carmichael seemed bored with the meeting and the crowd and quite disinterested. The crowd was extremely enthusiastic at first but sensed his disinterest and responded accordingly. blm

Carmichael commented that this summer will undoubtedly see "whitey" out to get the Negro. He counselled the audience to become armed and be prepared to defend themselves and their community. He said they should learn black brotherly love and stop fighting each other, stop gang fighting and tearing up their own property. He said there is strength and power in black unity. Black youths need to study their own history and get a good black education. They cannot do this under the inadequate educational facilities available to the Negroes under today's conditions.

Carmichael made mention of H. Rap Brown on only one occasion and then later to a collection in his behalf.

Carmichael repeated himself constantly and spent alot of time preaching the necessity of all factions within the black power movement to unify. Carmichael's comments concerning Negroes arming themselves was limited to defensive purposes and not of the usual inflammatory nature.

The source advised that the speeches were poorly organized and Carmichael was introduced by Robert Brown who made only brief remarks not nearly as violent as is his usual manner. Robert Brown urged Negro unity of themselves and their neighborhoods

The Urban Training Center is sponsored by several religious groups primarily for the training of ministers for the urban and ghetto areas, however, a sizeable percentage of students are members of the Black Power Community Organizations. The source stated Carmichael made a brief speech to this group and commented mainly on the theme of black unity and black brotherly love. APPENDIX

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on ~~a nationwide basis~~ as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 5, 1967, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 2, 1966, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

Source further advised that one [redacted] age about 25, spoke out at the meeting against disruptive tactics and advocated working for goals in an orderly manner, but he was booed and jeered. [redacted] also spoke of the possibility of obtaining firearms to protect themselves in the event of police brutality. ~~C~~-(U)

Also in attendance at this meeting were two individuals known to be students presently attending Proviso East High School and according to source, these two are probably the individuals who carry out the disruptive tactics at the school planned by [redacted]. They are [redacted].

[redacted] Source further stated that all of the individuals in attendance have paid $5 to join the NAACP Youth Council. According to reports at the meeting, money seems to be no problem with the Youth Council as they are making money selling various goods at the Cultural Center. ~~C~~-(U)

Discussion in this private group has reached the point where [redacted]

In addition, [redacted] wants to personally own Tasty Freez, referred to above, because it is a lucrative business. Another target which they spoke of at the pool hall was the O.K. Food Market, 11th and Madison, Maywood. This is a personal grudge because a Negro had been discharged by this store. He called for boycotts to achieve goals, whether aimed at merchants, schools, or any other area. He stated that while King talks non-violence, he is getting together guns. In answer to a question from the audience, he stated that to get guns all the people have to do is raid the Police Department and take them. Carmichael arrived in a Cadillac accompanied by six of his aides and left the same way. [REDACTED] During such visit she overheard a partial conversation between [REDACTED] both active members of the Dominican Communist Party (PCD).

According to the source, the above female advised that [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that since possible peace in Vietnam was weakening communist actions, an "event strong enough to shake the U.S. to its foundations was needed to create a national atmosphere of war which would lead to the overthrow of the present Government" in the United States. [REDACTED] noted that for more than fifteen days Carmichael and [REDACTED] have been advocating the death of Martin Luther King. King was described by [REDACTED] as a person who favored the men of the right of the "pseudo-Democrats" with his politics of nonviolence and

On April 6, 1968, an article appeared in "The Washington Post" newspaper under the byline of Phil Casey, Staff Writer, which included the statement "Later, at the Howard University rally, Carmichael rose and chanted over and over, his voice rising, 'Stay off the streets tonight, if you don't have a gun because there's going to be shooting.' Then he held a revolver over his head."

Relative to the above quote, the following investigation was conducted on April 6, 1968:

[redacted]
[redacted] Washington, D.C., advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation he was not personally at Howard University on April 5, 1968, when Stokely Carmichael talked to a crowd assembled there. [redacted] stated that [redacted] was there at the time.

b7C

[redacted] advised that he was at Howard University on April 5, 1968, but was not familiar with the circumstances concerning the Carmichael article. [redacted] stated that [redacted] was present at Howard University and could possibly furnish information concerning the article.

b7C

[redacted] stated that he had arrived at Howard University at approximately 1:30 p.m., April 5, 1968, and was on the fringe of the crowd when Stokely Carmichael spoke. He advised the contents of the article were accurate and he could add nothing to supplement it. He heard Carmichael speak

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - RACIAL MATTER

b7C

With reference to Stokely Carmichael's press conference this morning, Mr. J. Walter Yeagley of the Internal Security Division, called me and asked if we had or could acquire a verbatim transcript of Carmichael's remarks. He said, according to the press release, Carmichael had used "inciting" language and he was anxious to have a verbatim copy, if possible.

I checked with the Washington Field Office (WFO) and was advised by SAC Purvis that an Agent carrying identification as a reporter attempted to enter the room where the press release was to be made. He and several other reporters were rejected, but one reporter was permitted to enter. After the press statement this reporter came out and said that in essence Carmichael's statement was:

"Martin Luther King is the last of his generation. He represented nonviolence. White America has declared war on the Negroes and now it is Black America's turn to declare war on the whites. There is going to be fighting in the streets and it will have to be done with guns. It will not be done with rocks and bottles as it was last night. War cannot start until Negroes get guns."

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

The following pertinent activities of Stokely Carmichael, from March 15, 1968 to March 22, 1968, are set forth as follows:

On Friday, March 15, 1968, Carmichael returned to Washington, D. C., from a visit to Atlanta and several cities in Alabama. He arrived at National Airport, Washington, D. C., on Eastern Airlines Flight Number 136 from Atlanta at approximately 7:40 PM. He traveled under the name J. Walsher and was accompanied by three other male individuals with names [redacted] b7C

[redacted] is believed to be [redacted] the same individual using name [redacted] who departed Washington, D. C. on March 10, 1968 with Carmichael. They went to the Washington headquarters of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 1234 U Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., via taxi, where they entered. The individuals using the names [redacted] later left SNCC headquarters and departed the area via taxi. Carmichael and the person believed to be [redacted] subsequently went to Carmichael's residence, 2200 12th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

On March 15, 1968, the Evening Star, a Washington, D. C., daily newspaper, contained an article stating as follows:

"Black power advocate Stokely Carmichael and South African singing star Miriam Makeba are engaged to be married."

"A spokesman for Miss Makeba, 35, said no date has been set for the wedding. The songstress is currently in Nassau, the Bahamas, and will open at a club in Chicago Monday.

"Carmichael, 27, former chairman and now Washington-based field secretary of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, has not been married previously.

"Miss Makeba's marriage to Hugh Masakela, a South African recording star, terminated in divorce. She has a daughter, Bongi, 17.

"Miss Makeba came to the United States in 1959 as a protege of Singer Harry Belafonte. Besides singing, she designs African-styled fashions."

b7C On Saturday, March 16, 1968, Carmichael departed his residence in the early afternoon and went to SNCC headquarters, after having stopped at a restaurant in the area. He subsequently departed SNCC headquarters with two other individuals and drove in a late model Volkswagen to Carmichael's residence. Subsequently they departed Carmichael's residence and drove to [redacted] Washington, D. C., believed to be the residence of [redacted] where they remained into the evening hours.

A source advised that a social was believed to have been held at the above residence during the evening of March 16, 1968, with Carmichael in attendance.

On Sunday, March 17, 1968, Carmichael departed his residence and entered a late model blue Plymouth sedan bearing New York license [redacted] which contained two unidentified females. It was determined that this vehicle is registered to [redacted] b7C [redacted] New York. With Carmichael as an occupant, the car departed the area of his residence. Carmichael subsequently appeared at the New School of Afro-American Thought, 2208 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., where a social appeared to be in progress. He left the above address accompanied by [redacted] and was driven to his residence by [redacted] where he and [redacted] entered his residence. In the evening, Carmichael, accompanied by [] went to the Church of the Redeemer, 15th and Gerard Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., where Carmichael was scheduled to give a talk sponsored by the Church Fellowship Forum. Carmichael introduced Makeba to the audience of about 350 persons, as well as William (Bill) Hall, whom he described as working with the Black United Front (BUF) to organize the school system in the District of Columbia. Carmichael spoke of black unity, black power, and the "survival of the black man." He stated white western civilization has historically and systematically "colonized the Negro" and attempted to "dehumanize" him. He stated the black people in the United States must connect up with the other 900 million black people of the "Third World" in order to liberate themselves from the control of the white man. He described the "Third World" as including black people in Cuba, West Indies, Haiti, South America, and Africa. He emphasized the survival of the Negro is at stake in America as the United States is planning genocide against them and for this reason Negroes should arm themselves. He commented he did not mean a .22 caliber either. He stated he was simply advocating that every black man in the United States get a gun and that the only reason the "honkie" is able to rule is because he has "the gun." He stated that if Negroes obtained an arsenal, relations between whites and blacks would be equal. He commented that this is "why the brothers on the block called the gun an equalizer." He stated Negroes must be willing to die for their race and if they must die they should die on the streets of the United States, not in Vietnam. He commented that he was willing to die for his people. He quoted from Mao Tse Tung, Chairman of the Chinese Communist Party, that "political power comes out of the barrel of a gun."

Carmichael continued that the District of Columbia Public School System is 93% Negro and that the curriculum must be changed to be made more relevant to the Negro community. He stated "we must take over the school system" as it is not teaching what should be taught to black people. Carmichael also stated that black people should support the Arabs in any conflict that might develop between the Arabs and the Israelis.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Carmichael, near the conclusion of his talk, read a statement reportedly written by H. Rap Brown from jail. Brown spoke of fasting and claimed that he had done nothing wrong. He stated he was being held a political prisoner. Carmichael commented that Brown is willing to die for his people and urged support for his cause.

On Monday, March 18, 1968, Carmichael was at his residence in the morning. In the early afternoon, [redacted] visited Carmichael's residence. Subsequently, they went to the Windsor Park Hotel, Washington, D. C. where they reportedly met [redacted] b7C [redacted] who was in Washington, D. C. for a visit from Los Angeles, California. The nature of their meeting was not disclosed.

In the evening of March 18, 1968, Carmichael traveled to Baltimore where he attended a speech by Negro playwright Leroy Jones, held before an audience of about 350 at the Harlem Park Unity Methodist Church. Near the end of the program, Carmichael spoke briefly about the racial issue. M D

On Tuesday, March 19, 1968, Carmichael left his residence in the morning and went to SNCC headquarters. He remained at SNCC headquarters until mid-afternoon. He then visited the campus of Howard University (HU) where a student sit-in had gotten under way. Subsequently that afternoon he returned to SNCC headquarters. In the evening, Carmichael went to the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple, 11th and R Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., where a meeting of the BUF was to be held.

A source advised that a meeting of the BUF was held at the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple on the evening of March 19, 1968. According to source, registration for new BUF members was held from 6 PM to 8 PM. The BUF meeting which was opened by Carmichael, got under way about 8 PM with approximately 120 people reported to have been in attendance. The main topic of business was a proposal that a Board of Arbitrators be established within the BUF.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

to settle disputes between blacks in the Negro community. Carmichael reportedly stated he believed that in order to be effective and carry out its mission, those who served on the Board of Arbitrators would have to have some kind of power to enforce its decisions. A suggestion was then made from the floor that a police committee be formed and that members of the committee carry guns since force would be needed to carry out the decisions of the Board of Arbitrators. The general feeling of those present seemed to be that it was unnecessary to carry guns and that a "police committee" should be part of the Arbitration Committee and assist that committee in carrying out decisions.

Source advised a motion was made and adopted to appoint a 16 man committee to study the situation further and bring a report to the next general meeting of the BUF to be held on April 22, 1968 at the New School for Afro-American Thought.

Source continued a motion was approved stating the BUF believed it was the right of [redacted] to retain membership in the Steering Committee of the BUF and also serve on the District of Columbia Council, however, this right was not to be construed as approval or support of actions of the D. C. Government or [redacted] action as an official of the D. C. Government. b7C

Source continued [redacted] a student at HU, announced at the meeting that approximately 500 students at HU were staging a sit-in demonstration on the campus and had taken over the first floor of the Administration Building to protest hearings scheduled for 40 students for their participation in the disruption of the Founder's Day exercises. Source stated that after listening to [redacted] a collection was taken up and $41.25 was raised for food for the students. The membership of the BUF then voted to approve the action taken by HU students and instructed [redacted] to convey the BUF's support to the students engaged in the demonstration. b7C

The incarceration of H. Rap Brown was discussed at the BUF meeting and the question of raising bail for his release. A collection was taken but it was reported to be only $5 or less.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

After the BUF meeting, mentioned above, Carmichael went to HU campus where the student sit-in continued to be in progress. He announced to the participants that BUF had unanimously adopted a resolution supporting the student sit-in.

On Wednesday, March 20, 1968, Carmichael departed his residence in the morning and went to SNCC headquarters. In the afternoon he visited the office of [redacted]

Washington, D. C., where a controversy about [redacted] of a residence in Washington, D. C. [redacted] Source advised that [redacted]

On the evening of March 20, 1968, Carmichael appeared on the television panel program "Controversy Fourteen" broadcast by WFAN (UHF) and moderated by John Hightower. A review was held in the form of a discussion about the stand that Carmichael has taken concerning the racial question. Carmichael reiterated on the program that Negroes should arm themselves. He reportedly stated that white people have guns, police have guns, so it is necessary that black people get guns.

On Thursday, March 21, 1968, Carmichael departed his residence in the morning and went to SNCC headquarters. In the afternoon he visited a People's Drug Store in the area of SNCC and spoke with a store official. According to a source, Carmichael had appeared at the store prior to March 21, 1968, after a young woman had been arrested at the store on the previous day for shoplifting, and questioned a store official about the policy of keeping a special uniformed policeman on the premises. Carmichael reportedly asked "why do you have the special policeman in the store?" The official replied it was necessary because of stealing that went on in the store. Carmichael said something about there not being special policemen in People's Drug Stores in white neighborhoods. The official replied that there should be because thefts occur in both white and Negro neighborhoods. Carmichael then turned to leave stating "honkie, the special policeman goes or else." The store official asked Carmichael what he meant by that statement and Carmichael replied "the policeman goes or else." Carmichael then stated he would return later, probably that night.

Upon returning to the store on March 21, 1968, according to source, Carmichael further questioned the official about having the special policeman on the premises. Carmichael reportedly asked upon entering, "is that policeman still here?" He was informed in the affirmative. Carmichael stated "is it the policy of the store to have one?" He was informed that this was the store's policy. Carmichael then left the store without further discussion concerning the matter.

On Friday, March 22, 1968, Carmichael departed his residence in the morning accompanied by another male individual carrying a suitcase. They traveled to National Airport, Washington, D. C., where they boarded Allegheny Airlines Flight 926, bound for Boston, Massachusetts. In purchasing tickets for the flight, Carmichael used his true name and his companion used the name [REDACTED] Subsequently that afternoon, Carmichael and his companion arrived at Logan Airport, Boston, Massachusetts on the above mentioned flight. b7C

In connection with local WSP efforts, [REDACTED] above has advised that there has been no material change in the progress of local organizing efforts. Low key efforts are being made by the staff, who in many instances appear to be simply going through the motions. The source advises that it is through his efforts that many people affiliated with the West Side Organization (WSO) have committed themselves tentatively to travel to Washington in connection with the WSP, however, this is in many cases because the WSO has obligated these people, through intercession for them with the Cook County Welfare Department and the like. The source, as well as others on the WSP staff, considers it very questionable whether many of these persons will, in fact, go to Washington when the time comes and feels that many have agreed simply in order not to alienate WSO personnel. WSP staff meetings are poorly attended and there is little or no publicity given to the WSP other than on an occasional basis and there is no real enthusiasm or support for it on the part of local people who have been contacted. The source advises that it appears the principal reason for this is due to the feeling of most individuals that the project is a waste of time and will not in the final analysis be productive of any positive results. The wide publicity given to remarks which have been made by MARTIN LUTHER KING and others, reflecting that most people who go will be arrested, or should be prepared to be arrested, has served to discourage participation, with many people feeling that if they are going to be arrested, they can do this in Chicago just as well as in Washington.

The source stated that he feels that it will be possible to get approximately 200 people to participate in the WSP from Chicago, but emphasized that until the morning of the day in which these people will leave Chicago, it will not be possible to make other than an educated guess as to the number of those who will be willing to actually participate.

Chicago is following this matter closely on a continuing basis and the Bureau and all interested offices will be advised of any information developed, in accordance withstanding Bureau instructions.

In connection with remarks attributed to STOKELY CARMICHAEL at the Urban Training Center, 40 North Ashland Avenue, Chicago, on March 25, 1968, Chicago is opening a new case on the Black United Front.

WASHINGTON SPRING PROJECT (WSP)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) has publicly announced that he will conduct a massive civil disobedience campaign in Washington, D. C. during the latter part of April, 1968, in an effort to pressure Congress into passing legislation favorable to the Negro and the poor people in this country. This campaign has been given the name Washington Spring Project (WSP).

In connection with the WSP, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past has recently advised as follows:

In conversation with individuals involved with local WSP organizing efforts it has been learned that there has arisen a serious disagreement between the forces in Washington, D. C. working for the WSP. American Friends Service Committee and SCLC personnel there are each accusing the other of not working hard enough for the WSP and the program has come to an almost complete breakdown. No further details concerning this particular matter, however, were available to the source.

A WSP meeting is to be held at the Atlanta, Georgia headquarters of SCLC commencing on or about March 27, 1968, to last for several days, for the purpose of discussing and finalizing certain WSP organizing details. Presumably the Washington, D. C. problem referred to previously will also be subject for discussion at this meeting.

The source continued that it has been learned that Stokely Carmichael, in Chicago for the past several days, was present at headquarters of the West Side Organization on March 25, 1968, and urged those present at this meeting to support the WSP and if at all possible, to participate in it. Carmichael also reportedly preached hatred of whites during his remarks here and stated that the black revolution is coming. No specific details of his remarks were made available to this source.

It is known, however, that the WSO is a small West Side Chicago civil rights group and that it has been a concentration point for local WSP efforts. During this appearance Carmichael had also indicated that he would be present at the Atlanta, Georgia WSP affair which is to commence March 27, 1968.

In connection with local Chicago WSP efforts, the staff has remained unchanged within recent weeks.

[REDACTED] WSP
[REDACTED] staff meetings are held regularly, on a weekly basis, however, they are somewhat poorly attended and it appears that many people working locally on behalf of the WSP are simply "going through the motions," and have aroused little local enthusiasm and support for the effort. Funds for transportation of those individuals who have expressed a willingness to participate in the WSP are available and will be utilized to rent Greyhound buses which will transport them to Washington. The details of this transportation, however, are currently awaiting some final estimate of the number of individuals who appear to have made a serious commitment to participate. The staff has indicated that some 200 participants are expected to go to Washington from Chicago, most of whom will be welfare recipients and youth gang members from Chicago's near West Side, principally near the headquarters and influence of the WSO. The staff is aware, however, that many of these individuals have made commitments to go only because they feel an obligation to WSO or to the WSP staff, and it is general agreement that in the final analysis many of these individuals who have stated a willingness to participate will not actually show up when the time comes to travel to Washington.

Attached to this memorandum for information are copies of an article in the "Daily Defender," a South Side Chicago newspaper, the article relating to the remarks made by Stokely Carmichael on Monday, March 25, 1968, in Chicago. The article appeared in the March 26, 1968, edition.

Concerning Carmichael, [redacted] an agency which conducts intelligence type investigations locally, advised in January, 1968, that he has publicly espoused the use of violence to achieve Negro equality and has used the phrase "Hell no, I won't go", in reference to Negroes being drafted. Carmichael is former Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, the Chief exponent of the militant "Black Power" philosophy, and continues at present as a leading Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee spokesman.

In connection with remarks made by Carmichael, as set forth in the attached newspaper article, [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on March 26, 1968, that these remarks were made at a meeting at the Urban Training Center (UTC), 40 North Ashland Avenue, Chicago, in connection with regular meetings which are held there on the problems of ghetto dwellers in urban areas. These classes and the UTC are operated under the general auspices of the Chicago City Missionary Society and the UTC primarily serves as a training ground for members of the clergy who will work in so-called inner-city missions.

Carmichael, Local Black Groups Meet

He Details United Front Operations

By BETTY WASHINGTON
Daily Defender Associate Editor

Stokely Carmichael met here Monday with about 50 representatives of black organizations from across the city and discussed in detail the umbrella rights organization, the Black United Front.

Sitting in were spokesmen representing CORE, SNCC, ACT, the Deacons for Defense and Justice, SCLC, and members of several teen gangs, along with other community-based rights groups.

Carmichael was brought here by the black rights organizations "in order that we could all hear more about the Black United Front, how it is organized, how it works," a spokesman said, adding that there has been some interest in establishing a similar organization in Chicago.

Carmichael set forth the three following "basic ideologies" which he said characterize the nature of BUF:

— "Undying love for our people," which he said necessitates commitment to the welfare of all black people.

— Recognition that every "Negro" is a potential black man.

— Realization that for black people the question of "community" is not a question of land but of the degree of unity.

BUF was organized by Carmichael and other members of SNCC in Washington, D.C. But the membership has now been broadened to include conservative Negro organizations, of varying degrees of militancy.

The black rights leader said that BUF membership is open to all black groups and to racially integrated organizations that have a black membership of at least 50 per cent and are headed by a black person.

BUF is not now concerned with developing programs, and recognizes that organization must take place before programming, said Carmichael. He described BUF as a loose organization, where there is room for "God, Allah, radicals, militants, conservative, Uncle Toms, non-violent and violent philosophies."

BUF is still in the organizing stage, and the "ground rules" are currently being drawn up by 17 people who may not necessarily serve in leadership capacities once the organization gets rolling, he said.

He revealed that the organization in Washington is made up of 100 groups and includes followers of Elijah Muhammad as well as high ranking NAACP officials.

The Washington group, which could become a model for similar umbrella set-ups across the country, is to be directed by Council of Elders, an arbitrary council which will have as one function the settling of differences that develop between groups of differing ideologies.

One essential ground rule is that organizations belonging to BUF may not attack any other black organization. For teen gang members, this means an absolute end to hostilities vented by black youths against other blacks youths.

"Nothing is more important in Chicago, now, than to stop these gang fights," said Carmichael. He said he and several members of local rights groups "spent five hours Sunday night breaking up a gang fight" that was brewing in one ghetto community.

Carmichael told the group that he has no belief in the vote as a tool for developing black power. He said, "We can use the vote, but only as a means to bring black people together."

He said he also rejects the value of green power, "which is a materialistic concept and does not speak to the issue of black power". Carmichael described the war on poverty as "the most divisive program we have," and said it is geared to pit segments of the black community against one another, and ultimately slows down the "rebellion."

Reference is made to your letter dated April 6, 1968, wherein you requested an investigation of the incidents in Washington, D. C., involving Stokely Carmichael on April 4, 5, and 6, 1968.

In line with your request, a preliminary report dated April 8, 1968, has been received from our Washington Field Office. A copy of this report is being furnished to Assistant Attorneys General J. Walter Yeagley and Fred M. Vinson, Jr. Included in the report is a signed statement from a witness who observed Carmichael during the evening of April 4, 1968, lead a group of 15 to 20 young Negroes from the area of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee Headquarters at 2208 14th Street, Northwest, to the vicinity of 14th and U streets, Northwest, Washington, D. C. Carmichael and members of this group requested store managers in the vicinity to close their stores in respect for the death of Martin Luther King, Jr. Carmichael told the group, "If you don't have a gun, go home and get one." He thereafter exhibited a small caliber handgun to the crowd.

The report also contains a transcript of a tape recording of remarks made by Stokely Carmichael at a press conference on April 5, 1968. It is noted that during this press conference, Carmichael stated, "We led all of those youngsters up and down the streets to close every store." He said, "Now some of them kicked glass store windows in. We are not stopping them from kicking in the store windows; we are stopping them from coming out on the streets without guns."

When they come out on the streets, we want them with guns." Carmichael also said, "The rebellions that have been occurring around the cities of this country is just light stuff to what is about to happen. We have to retaliate for the death of our leaders. The execution of those deaths will not be in the courtrooms--they are going to be on the streets of the United States of America."

On the afternoon of April 5, 1968, the above-mentioned witness observed Carmichael address a group at Howard University, Washington, D. C., where Carmichael stated, "Do not be out on the streets for looting tonight; we mean business. If you don't come out tonight with your gun, stay home." While making these remarks, Carmichael waved a small caliber gun.

With respect to your request in the last paragraph of your letter for a continuing investigation and surveillance of Carmichael, we wish to again point out that a full-time physical surveillance of Carmichael is both impractical and impossible. We are, however, continuing to press this investigation to determine the identities of additional potential witnesses and to interview them.

RACIAL MATTER - STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE; SEDITION

Synopsis:

STOKELY CARMICHAEL came to Boston, Mass., on the evening of 1/25/68 and spoke at the YMCA, Roxbury, Mass., at a gathering of representatives of local Negro organizations in an effort to convince them of the need of establishing a "united front." CARMICHAEL again appeared at Boston on 3/22/68 and made a scheduled speaking appearance at Boston Technical High School, Roxbury, Mass., before an audience of approximately 1,200 persons. Caucasians and news media were excluded. CARMICHAEL attended a meeting at the Boston office of CORE on 3/23/68.

- RUC -

Details:

On January 25, 1968, the Washington Field Office of the FBI advised that STOKELY CARMICHAEL had departed from the National Airport, Alexandria, Virginia, aboard Eastern Airlines flight 646 at 7:35 p.m. on that date. CARMICHAEL was traveling to Boston, Massachusetts, under the name of V. WELCH.

BS 157-437

Flight 646 of Eastern Airlines was observed to arrive at Logan International Airport, East Boston, Massachusetts, at 7:03 p.m., January 25, 1968, although blizzard conditions prevailed.

CARMICHAEL was met by an unidentified young Negress and both entered an ITOA cab driven by a young male Negro. The cab bore Massachusetts registration [redacted] CARMICHAEL was driven to the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) at 401 Warren Street, Roxbury, Massachusetts. The young girl accompanying him entered the YMCA and returned with two unidentified male Negroes who conversed at the cab for a couple of minutes, when they re-entered the YMCA and the cab continued on its way. The cab drove down Townsend Street, Roxbury, and as it crossed the intersection of Walnut Avenue, a panel truck pulled out of Walnut Avenue, blocking the intersection so that no traffic could follow the cab.

b7C

On January 25, 1968, [redacted] advised that a meeting was held at the YMCA, Warren Street, Roxbury, Massachusetts, on that evening, at which representatives of various Negro organizations in the greater Boston area were present. The meeting was organized by [redacted] a member of the local Boston office of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

b2
b7D

[redacted] advised that the representatives of the various organizations present had been invited there for the purpose of discussing the formation of a "united front." [redacted] stated that this was the second of [redacted] meetings held at the YMCA for that same purpose and that on previous occasions the representatives had been advised that the formation of a united front was the brain child of STOKELY CARMICHAEL. It was explained that CARMICHAEL believes that if a united front is formed in each major city and the representatives from the various united fronts form a national united front, the Negro people would have a coalition which would give them tremendous black power. [redacted] stated that at the previous meetings the representatives of local organizations had for the most part rejected the idea principally because it was proposed by CARMICHAEL and they feared that CARMICHAEL would control such an organization.

BS 100-157-437

[] stated that because of the blizzard conditions, people were late in arriving and the meeting was started by [] at approximately 9:30 p.m. At approximately 10:00 p.m., STOKELY CARMICHAEL, whom [] identified as one of the national officers of SNCC, entered the meeting and was introduced and addressed the meeting. CARMICHAEL spoke in favor of a united front and told the group that the plan would not cause any of the organizations to lose their identity or purpose and he stressed the power which a united front would give to the black man. Source stated in spite of the fact that CARMICHAEL made a personal appearance to push this plan, the plan was still not favorably received by the majority of those present. [] advised that CARMICHAEL left the YMCA at approximately 10:30 p.m.

OCHIENG announced that the Honorable OGINGA ODINGA would not appear since the government of Kenya had refused to allow him to leave the country. MASS.

b7D

[] advised that the auditorium at Boston Technical High School seats approximately 1,200 persons and was practically filled. STOKELY CARMICHAEL spoke for about an hour, during which he discussed the history of slavery in America, oppression of the black people by the white race, the poverty and inequality under which black people live and on several occasions stated, in substance, that the white people must be killed or the blacks will die. [] stated that the audience for the most part was between the ages of sixteen and twenty-five and received CARMICHAEL's talk with enthusiasm although less response was given by the audience when CARMICHAEL mentioned killing whites.

b2

[] stated that six guards were stationed at the entrance to the auditorium and prohibited members of the press and members of the white race from entering the hall.

b2

The Boston Globe, a daily newspaper published at Boston, Massachusetts, in its edition of March 23, 1968, carried an article showing that STOKELY CARMICHAEL had spoken at a "Black Revolution Forum" at Boston Technical High School on the evening of March 22, 1968. The article stated that six husky Negro guards kept all white persons, including the press and two nuns, from entering. According to the article, CARMICHAEL reportedly told the crowd that all Negroes must love one another; that every Negro has a potential identity as a black man; and that the black community is the result of color rather than geography.

The March 28, 1968 edition of the Bay State Banner, a weekly Negro newspaper published at Roxbury, Massachusetts, carried an article concerning CARMICHAEL's appearance at Boston Technical High School. CARMICHAEL is quoted as saying, "Every Negro is a potential black man," and, "We must begin to have undying love for our people or face genocide from the whites." The article stated that CARMICHAEL, two other speakers from SNCC and JOHN WILSON, Chairman and founder of the National Black Anti-War Anti-Draft Union, addressed the crowd with a real sense of urgency about the plight of the black man in the United States.

MASS.

CARMICHAEL criticized the system of education in the United States, saying, "For black people, it is just a reinforcement of the values of the white society which teaches our children to be ashamed of themselves," and, "White Americans think that the only way to solve our problems is with money. To destroy racism would be to destroy themselves."

b2
b7D On March 28, 1968, [] advised that CARMICHAEL during his speech at Boston Technical High School on March 22, 1968, read verbatim a letter which [] understood CARMICHAEL to say he had received from H. RAY BROWN of SNCC. CARMICHAEL told the audience that the letter had been written from BROWN's prison cell. [] advised that the letter is identical to the one appearing in the March 22, 1968 edition of Muhammad Speaks. [] identified Muhammad Speaks as the official news organ of the NOI.

VA.

A characterization of the NOI appears in the appendix.

b2
b7D [] made available a copy of Muhammad Speaks and the letter appearing on page ~~twenty~~-seven, in substance, states that no slave should die a natural death; there is a point where caution ends and cowardice begins. BROWN states that everyday he is in prison, he will refuse both food and water. His hunger is for the liberation of his people and his thirst is for the ending of oppression. He claims to be a political prisoner jailed for his belief that the black people must be free. The Government believes that those whom they cannot convert, they must silence and the United States Government has become the enemy of mankind.

BS 157-437

BROWN tells the black people their will to live must no longer supersede their will to fight. For their fighting will determine if the black race shall live. The desire for freedom is not enough. Black people must move from resistance to aggression and from revolt to revolution. For every black death, there must be ten dead racist cops. He states that the black people must prepare itself mentally and physically for the major confrontation is yet to come. They must fight. Laws to govern black people must be made by black people. The letter is ended by the statement, "We shall conquer without a doubt."

On March 23, 1968, [] advised that STOKELY CARMICHAEL had spoken at Boston Technical High School on the evening of March 22, 1968. [] stated, in substance, concerning CARMICHAEL's talk the same as set out under [] above.

[] stated on March 24, 1968, that STOKELY CARMICHAEL had stayed overnight on Friday and Saturday, March 22-23, 1968, at the residence of [] Roxbury. On the afternoon of March 23, 1968, CARMICHAEL attended a meeting at the Boston office of the Congress Of Racial Equality (CORE), 373 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury. According to [] at the CORE meeting a sit-in was planned for March 27, 1968, to take place at a welfare office. [] believed that the welfare office in question would probably be located in Roxbury.

b2
b7D

[] stated that two unidentified Negroes from the Bedford-Styvesant area of New York City, New York, were present and deplored the scarcity of guns in the Roxbury area. It was their suggestion that the possibility of stealing guns from the nearby Boston Army Base be explored. They also discussed a method used by them to obtain money from New York businessmen. They stated that either by letter or in person these businessmen were told that donations by them to assist the rehabilitation of the Negro could prevent possible civil disorders in their areas. [] stated it was decided to explore this method in the Roxbury area.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as
THE MUSLIM CULT OF ISLAM, also known
as MUHAMMAD'S TEMPLES OF ISLAM

In January, 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 5, 1967, a second source advised Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 2, 1966, a third source advised Muhammad had, in early July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

SUBJECT: STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS
SEDITION

Past experience has indicated that many offices receive reports to the effect that Stokely Carmichael, former Chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, has been seen in their territory. In practically all instances these reports are subsequently determined to be inaccurate.

The proposed attached letter to Albany, copies to all continental offices, points out that Washington Field Office is office of origin in the Carmichael case and is responsible for knowing his whereabouts at all times and that in the event an office receives an allegation that Carmichael has been seen in its territory, Washington Field Office should be immediately contacted to resolve the allegation.

ACTION:

If you agree, there is attached a proposed letter to Albany, copies to all continental offices.

By teletype dated April 5, 1968, the San Francisco Office advised that according to a San Francisco Police Department informant, the Black Student Union, San Francisco, California, reportedly received a telegram April 5, 1968, from Stokely Carmichael instructing all black people to "hit the streets tonight." The informant did not see the telegram and investigation at San Francisco has been unable to verify that, in fact, such a telegram was received by the Black Student Union. The above information was furnished to the Department.

b7C
This afternoon Henry Peterson, Departmental Attorney in the Attorney General's office, telephonically requested that a review be made of Western Union records, Washington, D. C., since the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr., to determine if any inflammatory telegrams had been sent by Stokely Carmichael, [redacted] of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), Washington, D. C., [redacted] SNCC official, and [redacted] believed to be connected with SNCC, Washington, D. C. R

Peterson stated in order to make the review of Western Union legal, he had instructed Assistant United States Attorney Strazella, Washington, D. C., to draw up a subpoena to be used by our Agents.

WFO was instructed to expeditiously review Western Union records as requested.

On March 31, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the following comments, in substance, were made by Stokely Carmichael during Carmichael's speech on the evening of March 30, 1968, at the University Auditorium, WMU, Kalamazoo, Michigan, at the Midwestern Regional Conference on Black Power:

"They" talk about the confrontation between the western world and the Communist world. That's not the real confrontation - that's between blacks and whites.

"We'll" tell that honkie you took it with a gun and we'll take it back with a gun. We must organize our people with guns since it's clear to us that white people intend to commit genocide upon us. We've got to have guns just in case they are getting ready to play cowboys and Negroes.

Mao Tse Tung says political power grows out of the barrel of a gun and he is right.

"I" am not too impressed with Negroes at colleges. They come out of college like a whitewash. You can't even get a college student to pack a gun.

We have to talk this year about survival. That's all.

Negroes have to get out in the street.

We must have an undying love for our people. "I" mean that you must be prepared to die for our people not for the white man.

Re: Stokely Carmichael

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

If you go to school, go to school for your people. Negroes who go to college to become professional men contribute only to their own welfare.

We have a lot of Uncle Toms. They are traitors and you kill traitors, but we should emphasize saving our brothers. It will tear us up inside, but we will have to kill them. We have to kill anyone who is against the masses of the people.

This generation is the one which has got to start doing retaliation. The fires in Chicago were just the beginning.

If "Niggers" can't do nothing, then "obscene" they are going to have to stand up and die like men. They have been living on their stomachs too "obscene" long.

Why go to Vietnam? Die right here. We're the warriors. The honkies are not.

Kennedy is trying to put us to sleep. That's right. The Kennedys try to put us to sleep.

In answer to a question from the floor as to what Carmichael would suggest the ROTC cadets and academy cadets do when they get into the Army, Carmichael said:

"Now there are two things they can do. Number one, if they really have an undying love for their people, they can take their training and use their training for their people. Number two, they can take their training and use it for their people, if they can't do that, they should get out. Get out. Tell the honkie, No. Stand up and say no for once. Just tell them no, it makes you feel good."

Carmichael also said that "you" must take five years in jail or death. At least you're on your feet. That's important, man, because if a "Nigger" can be a man once in his life, he should die for that.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

The source stated that Carmichael spoke for approximately an hour before an audience of approximately 1,200 persons. The audience was predominantly between the ages of sixteen and twenty-five. Carmichael discussed the history of slavery in America, oppression of the black people by the white, the poverty and inequality under which black people must live and several times stated in substance that the whites must be killed or the black people will die. This source stated that Carmichael's talk was received with enthusiasm although less response was given when he made reference to killing white people.

The source stated that half a dozen Negro males were stationed at the entrance of the hall to prevent white people from entering. All members of the news media were also excluded.

No incident occurred either during the program or after its conclusion.

A [redacted] with whom sufficient contact has not been had to determine his reliability advised on March 23, 1968, that Stokely Carmichael had appeared as scheduled at Boston Technical High School on the evening of March 22, 1968. This source stated in substance the information previously set out above.

On March 24, 1968, the [redacted] mentioned advised that Stokely Carmichael stayed overnight on March 22 and 23, 1968, at the residence of [redacted]

On the afternoon of March 23, 1968, Carmichael was present at a meeting held at the Boston Chapter of the Congress Of Racial Equality (CORE), 373 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury, Massachusetts. The source advised that he learned that at the CORE meeting, a sit-in was planned for March 27, 1968, at one of the welfare offices in Boston, Massachusetts. The source could not learn where the sit-in was to be held but believed it would be at a Roxbury office, possibly the one at Grove Hall.

The source also advised that two unidentified male Negroes from the Bedford-Styvesant area of New York City were present at the CORE office. They deplored the lack of available guns in Boston and suggested that since the Boston Army Base was adjacent to the Roxbury area, the possibility of stealing guns from the Army Base should be explored. They pointed out that this was one of the methods by which guns were obtained in New York City. The source stated that both of these men appeared to be braggarts and whether or not this information has any basis in fact could not be determined. Source stated as far as he could find out, it could possibly have been said in jest.

These two men explained that money was obtained in New York from New York businessmen by implied threats. Businessmen are contacted sometimes in person and sometimes by letter and it is pointed out to them that by supporting Negro programs, they could possibly insure themselves against civil disorder and consequent property loss. Donators are given a CORE sticker to place on their window. Source stated that the Boston group decided that some sort of effort would be made to do this in the Boston area.

Source advised on the evening of March 23, 1968, Carmichael attended a meeting at the Union Methodist Church, 485 Columbus Avenue, Roxbury, where Ron Karenga of US spoke.

Subsequent to this affair, Carmichael went to a party at the home of [redacted] Massachusetts. Source advised that [redacted]

SUBJECT: STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS; SEDITION

This morning a brief press conference was held at the Headquarters of the Washington, D. C., chapter of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). Stokely Carmichael, former Chairman of SNCC, stated that the press conference had been scheduled before Martin Luther King, Jr., was assassinated and had originally been called to protest the jailing of H. Rap Brown, Chairman of SNCC who is presently incarcerated, Orleans Parish Jail, New Orleans, Louisiana. Carmichael declared that a hearing for Brown is scheduled to be held in Richmond, Virginia, next week and the SNCC organization wants to see him released from jail at that time. The purpose of this hearing is to determine whether or not Brown should be extradited from Virginia to the State of Maryland where he has been charged with inciting to commit riot and inciting to commit arson at Cambridge, Maryland.

Carmichael stated that white America made its biggest mistake when she killed Martin Luther King as he was the one man of the Negro race who was trying to teach love, compassion, and mercy for what the white man had done. Carmichael stated that the rebellions around the United States cities "is light stuff" compared to what is about to happen. He said they would retaliate for the death of their leaders. The execution of those deaths would not be in the court room but would be on the streets of the United States of America and black people know they have to get guns.

In answer to a question as to what action SNCC intends to take in getting H. Rap Brown out of jail, Carmichael replied that the Central Committee of SNCC has decided that if the State of Maryland persists in charging H. Rap Brown for the Cambridge incident, Governor Spiro Agnew of Maryland "has not seen anything yet." He said that they would turn that state inside out and upside down. He further indicated they were going to get Louisiana and that they have some brothers working in Florida, Ohio, and are going to get Richmond, Virginia. He did not further explain this statement. A transcript of this press conference prepared by the National Broadcasting Company and the Columbia Broadcasting Company was obtained by our Washington Field Office through contact arranged by Mr. Bishop's Division and furnished to the Criminal Division of the Department. The Department is presently reviewing the transcript to determine if a warrant can be obtained charging Carmichael with inciting to riot in Washington, D. C.

At 5:30 p.m., 4/6/68, SAC Purvis, Washington Field Office, called to advise of the following request received from U.S. Attorney David Bress, District of Columbia, concerning Stokely Carmichael, a member of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

Mr. Purvis advised that he and Supervisor [Redacted] had been requested by Mr. Bress to attend a conference at which two Assistant U.S. Attorneys were present, as well as [Redacted] [Redacted] Metropolitan Police Department (MPD). Mr. Bress said that he wanted an investigation conducted concerning Carmichael in order to make a charge of inciting to riot under the D. C. Code. He is anxious to make a charge that would stand up in the District.

Mr. Bress asked for three specific investigations and the one he would like the FBI to conduct concerns the march on the evening of 4/4/68 where Carmichael called on merchants to close their doors in honor of Martin Luther King. Mr. Bress wants the FBI to interview store owners, employees, customers, and anyone else who can be identified as present to determine Carmichael's statements and actions. Supposedly, during this march, two white men were pulled out of a Volkswagen and it is desired that our investigation cover this incident. The MPD had an undercover man present during this march, but his evidence is not sufficient. Mr. Bress advised that the Attorney General has specifically asked that he make the request to the FBI to investigate this incident.

Mr. Bress advised that he wanted the MPD to investigate the press conference of Carmichael held on 4/5/68 and also Carmichael's appearance at Howard University this same date.

Memo to Mr. Sullivan
RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

After checking, SAC Purvis was advised that he could inform Mr. Bress that we would conduct the requested investigation, but would not interview the store owners in their homes and would conduct the investigation starting Monday.

Subsequently, SAC Purvis called back to advise that the MPD had informed U.S. Attorney's Office that in view of current conditions, it was impossible for them to conduct the investigation requested of them at this time. He, therefore, asked if the Bureau would conduct the investigation concerning the press conference of Carmichael on 4/5/68 and his appearance at Howard University.

It is noted that we have already conducted considerable investigation concerning both of these incidents and have furnished considerable details to the Department. In view of this fact, SAC Purvis was advised to go ahead and conduct this additional investigation and to so inform U.S. Attorney Bress.

ACTION:

For information. This investigation will be closely followed and we will furnish the results to the Department and U.S. Attorney promptly.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated March 27, 1968.

On March 29, 1968, a confidential source, who has not been contacted sufficiently to determine reliability, advised that source was among an audience of approximately 130 people at St. Margaret's Episcopal Church Hall, 2555 East 73rd Street, Chicago, Illinois, on Sunday evening, March 24, 1968. The St. Margaret's Episcopal Church membership consists of approximately 300 members composed of about 10% Negro membership. The Episcopal youth organization is composed of about 40 high school teen-agers with the same racial balance which is [redacted]

b7C
b7D

ILL [redacted] Source learned on Sunday evening, March 24, 1968, that Stokely Carmichael, former National Director of the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC), had been invited to speak before the Episcopal youth group [redacted]. The audience, which numbered approximately 130, was composed of 20 to 30 Episcopal youths, seven adult parishioners, and 100 Negroes, none of which were parishioners. Many of the Negroes wore beatnik and African style hair and attire.

Stokely Carmichael and about 100 Negroes arrived approximately 45 minutes late. He apologized for the delay stating he had spent the past five hours arbitrating a Negro youth gang dispute between the Blackstone Rangers and another south side Chicago gang. He then retired to a room to the rear of the speaker's platform with a few of his accomplices.

[redacted] then had a collection taken to be presented to Stokely Carmichael as a honorarium.

[redacted] then introduced a colleague of Stokely Carmichael by the name of Cleveland Brown. Brown is described as a Negro male, 30 years old, 5'8" tall, 140 pounds, medium complexion, brown hair cut normal, clean shaven, neat appearing, slender build, and a soft speaker. Cleveland Brown spoke for about 15 minutes on the theme of police brutality against Negroes. He told of a recent experience he had with police when he tried to lead a peaceful demonstration at Orangeburg, South Carolina, at a Negro college. He was badly beaten by the Orangeburg Police, then hauled off to a hospital and placed in an isolation ward for 21 days. Brown said he is now considered a fugitive by police because he has been charged with seven local violations in Orangeburg, South Carolina, and Atlanta, Georgia. ILL

Brown then introduced Stokely Carmichael who spoke for approximately 30 minutes, principally on the theme that Negroes must arm themselves and unify. Carmichael appeared surprised to see white people in the audience and explained that he thought he would be talking to an all Negro audience so would have to change the nature of his speech. He said his main reason for coming to Chicago was to create peace between Negro groups. Carmichael through his speech would state a point and then repeat himself at least three times which source thought was disconcerting, dull, and repetitious. Carmichael made the following comments: "If any white men touch our black brothers we'll kill them"; "Black people must learn to stop fighting with each other"; "Organize and carry the fight to the streets"; "Black people must get guns and ammunition to defend themselves"; "To hell with the United States. To hell with Vietnam. The black people of the United States have always had to do the lowest and dirtiest jobs. Why should they go over and fight the white man's war?"

The source stated the meeting broke up without any incidents. The neighborhood remained calm and there were no arrests by the Chicago Police Department.

Attached to this memorandum are the following articles concerning Carmichael's visit to Chicago and speech at St. Margaret's Episcopalian Church taken from local newspapers:

"Bishop Aide, Warden View Stokely".

On March 28, 1968, a [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Fred Hampton, President, The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Youth Council, Maywood, Illinois, recently commented that when Stokely Carmichael was in Maywood, Illinois, on Sunday, March 24, 1968, that he promised Hampton he would return to Maywood in the future. Source said that one of the reasons why Carmichael came to Chicago was to talk to leaders of the Blackstone Rangers and other Chicago Negro youth gangs to stop their intergang fighting and attempt to have them unite with the Black Power Movement sponsored by Carmichael. The source did not know if Carmichael was able to contact the Blackstone Rangers or other youth gang leaders.

On March 30, 1968, Friendship Airport Police at Baltimore, Maryland, advised that Stokely Carmichael, using the name S. Leigh, accompanied by a Negro male using the name [redacted] departed there on United Airlines Flight 147 at 11:15 AM, Saturday, March 30, 1968, with destination Chicago.

Carmichael, Local Black Groups

Meet

He Details United Front Operations

By BETTY WASHINGTON
Daily Defender Associate Editor

Stokely Carmichael met here Monday with about 50 representatives of black organizations from across the city and discussed in detail the umbrella rights organization, the Black United Front.

Sitting in were spokesmen representing CORE, SNCC, ACT, the Deacons for Defense and Justice, SCLC, and members of several teen gangs, along with other community-based rights groups.

Carmichael was brought here by the black rights organizations "in order that we could all hear more about the Black United Front, how it is organized, how it works," a spokesman said, adding that there has been some interest in establishing a similar organization in Chicago.

Carmichael set forth the three following "basic ideologies" which he said characterize the nature of BUF:

— "Undying love for our people," which he said necessitates commitment to the welfare of all black people.

— Recognition that every "Negro" is a potential black man.

— Realization that for black people the question of "community" is not a question of land but of the degree of unity.

BUF was organized by Carmichael and other members of SNCC in Washington, D.C. But the membership has now been broadened to include conservative Negro organizations, of varying degrees of militancy.

The black rights leader said that BUF membership is open to all black groups and to racially integrated organizations that have a black membership of at least 50 per cent and are headed by a black person.

BUF is not now concerned with developing programs, and recognizes that organization must take place before programming, said Carmichael. He described BUF as a loose organization, where there is room for "God, Allah, radicals, militants, conservative, Uncle Toins, non-violent and violent philosophies."

BUF is still in the organizing stage, and the "ground rules" are currently being drawn up by 17 people who may not necessarily serve in leadership capacities once the organization gets rolling, he said.

He revealed that the organization in Washington is made up of 100 groups and includes followers of Elijah Muhammad as well as high ranking NAACP officials.

The Washington group, which could become a model for similar umbrella set-ups across the country, is to be directed by Council of Elders, an arbitrary council which will have as one function the settling of differences that develop between groups of differing ideologies.

One essential ground rule is that organizations belonging to BUF may not attack any other black organization. For teen gang members, this means an absolute end to hostilities vented by black youths against other blacks youths.

"Nothing is more important in Chicago, now, than to stop these gang fights," said Carmichael. He said he and several members of local rights groups "spent five hours Sunday night breaking up a gang fight" that was brewing in one ghetto community.

Carmichael told the group that he has no belief in the vote as a tool for developing black power. He said, "We can use the vote, but only as a means to bring black people together."

He said he also rejects the value of green power, "which is a materialistic concept and does not speak to the issue of black power". Carmichael described the war on poverty as "the most divisive program we have," and said it is geared to pit segments of the black community against one another, and ultimately slows down the "rebellion."

rights groups who invited the black power advocate to come to Chicago to discuss the Black United Front. (Daily Defender Photo by John Gunn.)

Preaches At 73rd & Coles Church

'ELIMINATE' THE OPPOSITION: STOKELY

(By The Daily Calumet Staff)

Stokely Carmichael, militant black power leader, preached a gospel of Negro armament for the summer ahead in St. Margaret's Episcopal Church hall, 2535 E. 73rd St., Sunday night.

"If someone touches any of our black brothers, we'll kill him," Carmichael declared to an audience of teenagers, hippies, parishioners and spectators.

Carmichael charged his black brothers to arm themselves with guns and bullets under his leadership. He said black or whites who resist or oppose would "have to be eliminated." He said Negroes should spend their time "fighting in the streets," not in Viet Nam.

The meeting was apparently arranged for the benefit of the church's youth group by Father William Wetzel, St. Margaret curate.

meeting were Fr. Wetzel, Carmichael, a man introduced as Cleveland Brown, and another speaker who was not identified.

Persons who knew of the gathering in the church hall were told to be present by 7:15 p.m., when the doors to the basement meeting room would be closed. They were greeted by a rock-an-roll three-piece musical group named The Soul Power.

The trio entertained until Brown took the rostrum at 7:30 p.m. He looked out at an audience which included a half-dozen white teenagers, about 20 hippies of both races, nearly 100 Negro adults and a handful of white adults.

Details of the meeting were revealed to The Daily Calumet yesterday by two parishioners who attended. They said they found out about the meeting almost by accident through members of the teen group. The parishioners fear of reprisals.

St. Margaret's pastor, Father Albert Peters, who was not at the meeting was not available for comment yesterday. Neither were Fr.

Wetzel or Edward B. Stasiak, senior warden of the church vestry, the church's lay advisory board.

Carmichael and Brown were introduced by Fr. Wetzel, a Negro curate who has served at the church for about a year.

Brown was the first to speak, and according to the information, laid the groundwork for Carmichael.

He reported on militant activities on a college campus in South Carolina, and said white authorities "just wanted injured Negroes to die" after they were shot.

He counseled blacks to "arm for self-protection."

"We must always be ready to kill to protect ourselves," he is reported to have said.

Carmichael arrived at about 8:15. When introduced, he received a standing ovation.

To audience amens, yehs and applause, Carmichael asserted Negroes needed guns and ammunition "so they (whites) don't kill us."

He declared "to hell" with the United States, the war in Viet Nam and white persons "who are responsible" for Negro problems. "They don't mean a thing," he is reported to have said.

Carmichael apologized for being late. He said he was on the city's west side "making peace" between two rival gangs. He referred to a gang leader who had been shot over the weekend. He claimed authorities made "no attempt" to provide swift medical aid to the youth, who he said was shot in the face. He claimed authorities "wanted him to die" and went on to preach black unity and death to those in either race who would oppose his movement.

A third speaker reportedly was to follow Carmichael. When Carmichael concluded, there was a brief question and answer period in which a man asked what was to follow the "blood and killing." Fr. Wetzel reportedly cut the questioner off after Carmichael said, "If someone touches any of our black brothers, we'll kill him."

Before Brown spoke, a collection was taken.

The persons who reported the meeting to The Daily Calmet said they had "never seen the hall so packed." They pointed out they could identify only two or three persons as St. Margaret parishioners. They noted that Brown prefaced his comments with, "I'll have to speak a little differently" because white persons were present. Brown said he thought he would be addressing an all Negro audience.

Church Sanctions Militant Black Power Speeches

By JOSEPH SEVICK

(Of The Daily Calumet Staff)

A Sunday evening Black Power speech by militant Stokely Carmichael at St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, 2555 E. 73rd St., yesterday was sanctioned by the church's diocesan office.

Fr. William Wetzel, St. Margaret's curate and apparently the middle-man who arranged Carmichael's appearance, revealed yesterday that he has been banned from commenting on the appearance.

Reaction came from members of the church's vestry (lay advisory board), but Fr. Albert Peters, pastor, could not be contacted.

Cannon Paul Kyger, an Episcopal priest and assistant to Bishop Gerald Durrill, said yesterday the bishop in a letter to diocesan parish churches "encourages the use of pulpits as forums" so that "all points of view can be disseminated in the community."

The bishop's freedom of expression directives in the letter pertained only to the diocesan cathedral. However, Fr. Kyger said, based on a previous incident where the Students for a Democratic Society were allowed to conduct "a huge" rally at an Episcopal church, he believed Carmichael's appearance would not be banned.

He noted that, in fact, the bishop could only indicate displeasure, but could not stop an activity in a parish church. Fr. Kyger said the diocesan office was not aware of the Carmichael's appearance in advance, though.

The priest said his office had prepared no statement to explain Carmichael's appearance.

In his talk before 135 persons Sunday night, Carmichael said Negroes should arm themselves with guns and ammunition and be prepared to fight in the streets to defend themselves.

A full report of the meeting, at which a man identified as Cleveland Brown also expressed views similar to Carmichael's, was given to The Daily Calumet by two parishioners who attended.

Though the parishioners said there were only about 25 youths present, Fr. Kyger said yesterday Carmichael's appearance was for the benefit of the church's youth group.

He said the Episcopal Youth Organization conducted a dance at the church Saturday night. The invitation to attend Carmichael's speech was issued at that dance.

When asked why the announcement of Carmichael's appearance was not made in the church bulletin or during services Sunday, Fr. Kyger replied, "We weren't trying to make a big blast. This was just an opportunity for the youth to have the opportunity to be exposed" to Carmichael's views "so when they grow up they will be prepared to deal with the world as they find it."

The audience for the Carmichael-Black Power speech consisted of about 100 Negro adults, parishioners attending said. They noted about 20 hippies on hand, and a few white teenagers and adults.

Fr. Kyger indicated Carmichael's appearance was arranged "through contacts." He contended the appearance was "a legitimate use of the church and church building." The meeting was conducted in a basement meeting hall. He noted the existing church policy is to "preclude no point of view whatsoever from being kept out."

According to parishioners who attended, Fr. Wetzel, St. Margaret's curate, apparently had a major role in arranging the appearance.

When contacted yesterday, Fr. Wetzel said, "I am not allowed to make any statement by order of my boss." He explained that his boss is Fr. Albert Peters, St. Margaret's pastor. He stated, "He (Fr. Peters) told me yesterday evening (Monday) he would appreciate me not making any statements."

Fr. Wetzel was ordained in June of last year and was appointed to St. Margaret's in his first assignment in July, 1967.

Fr. Peters was not available for comment yesterday. Fr. Wetzel said he was on the north side of the city conducting a retreat for a group of Episcopal women.

Clarence C. Curtis, 2860 E. 76th St., junior warden of St. Margaret's vestry, when told of Carmichael's speech, said there were no announcements of the appearance at Sunday's services or in the church bulletin. He said he

Curtis indicated he felt the appearance "should have been taken up by the vestry. I don't think it was. This is a very peculiar sort of deal."

He said a number of persons had called him to object to the appearance.

"The man's (Carmichael's) reputation is such that I think it would be very foolish to invite him into the church. What he has to say has no religious bearing," Curtis said.

Bishop Aide, Warden View Stokely

By JOSEPH SEVICK

(Of The Daily Calumet Staff)

New developments emerged yesterday on all fronts but one in the wake of a Sunday evening appearance by black power militant Stokely Carmichael at St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, 2555 E. 73rd St.

Rev. Albert Peters, church pastor, yesterday continued to be unavailable for comment. A designated spokesman was also not able to be reached.

New disclosures came, however, from an assistant to the Episcopal archbishop of the Chicago diocese and the senior warden of St. Margaret's vestry, a lay advisory board.

Charges of a "hatch-job" in reporting Carmichael's appearance were made, and it was disclosed the church's vestry will conduct a special meeting within a week to consider the appearance.

It was also learned that Fr. Peters was not told of Carmichael's appearance before hand.

Carmichael told an audience of about 125 persons Sunday night in the church hall that Negroes should arm themselves. Carmichael derided the United States, the war in Viet Nam and the white race, according to two parishioners who attended the meeting.

The parishioners reported the session to The Daily Calumet Monday. They said the audience was consisted mostly of Negro adults and teenage hippies who they could not identify as church members.

Cannon Paul Kyger, assistant to the Episcopal archbishop of the Chicago diocese, and other persons interviewed in the past three days had stated the meeting was held as a function of the church's youth group.

Fr. Kyger acknowledged Tuesday that Fr. William Wetzel, St. Margaret curate since July, was apparently the middle-man who arranged Carmichael's appearance.

Fr. Wetzel has stated he is under orders of Fr. Peters to make no statements about the appearance.

Since Monday when the meeting was reported to The Daily Calumet, Fr. Peters has received daily phone messages asking that he speak with The Daily Calumet, his secretary, Mrs. F.A. Duplissles, said yesterday.

Mrs. Duplissles said yesterday Jack Hizer, a former vestry member, had been authorized to make a statement. When contacted, Mrs. Hizer said her husband would not be available for comment until last evening. She stated she and her husband attended the meeting, but that only Mr. Hizer would comment.

Cannon Kyger, when asked for comment yesterday, said he received a report of The Daily Calumet news story reporting Carmichael's appearance. He termed his source "trusted" and claimed the article was "a hatch-job." He asserted the account was slanted, and declared, "I want this thing to die out." Tuesday Fr. Kyger said he interprets past statements and actions by Episcopal Bishop Gerald Durrill as favoring freedom of expression in churches, including presentation of extreme points of view.

He said had the diocesan office known of the appearance in advance, Carmichael's appearance would probably not have been discouraged.

Yesterday, senior St. Margaret vestry warden Edward B. Stasiak expressed a middle of the road and opposing view.

"My feeling is that more preparatory work than was done" was in order, said Stasiak. He said he was aware of Bishop Durrill's policy of unrestricted use of the diocesan cathedral. He noted "it (the policy) could probably be extended" to include neighborhood parish churches.

Stasiak contrasted "preparation" to "surprise." He said there was no general announcement of the appearance to parishioners. There were no announcements at Sunday services or in the church bulletin, he said.

"I do not condone or condemn" Carmichael's appearance, Stasiak said, but noted, "It could have been handled better."

Stasiak observed that reaction to the appearance has been that parishioners "don't believe in extremism" and are against Carmichael's use of the church hall, and "would feel the same way if it were Governor (George) Wallace."

Stasiak also said he had spoken with Fr. Peters Tuesday night. "He (Fr. Peters) tells me he wasn't informed" of Carmichael's appearance before hand, Stasiak said.

Fr. Peters "assured me that all future actions of Fr. Wetzel would be gone over and approved before they happen," Stasiak stated.

He said Fr. Wetzel "has been doing a wonderful job with the youth group and everything else. It's been entirely satisfactory, so far."

Stasiak said also that if Carmichael's appearance had been generally known in advance, "It probably never would have occurred." He declined to say why Carmichael would not have appeared.

Fr. Kyger said earlier this week the only announcement of the appearance that he knew of was made at a youth group dance Saturday night. The youth group moderator is Fr. Wetzel.

Stasiak, who is head of the church vestry which has the power to "hire and fire" religious personnel with the approval of the Episcopal bishop, disclosed the vestry will meet in a special session within a week to discuss Carmichael's appearance and decide if action is necessary.

April 11, 1968

b7C-

Dear

Your letter of April 5th has been received and I appreciate the interest which prompted you to write.

In response to your inquiry, Stokely Carmichael was born on June 29, 1941, at Trinidad, West Indies, and is a citizen of the United States by derivation. He is, therefore, not subject to exclusion from the United States as an alien. In addition, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and, as such, does not determine whether prosecution will be undertaken in any situation. Such decisions concerning violations of Federal law are within the province of the Attorney General.

I can assure you, however, the FBI is aware of the activities of the individual you mentioned and voluminous data regarding him has been furnished to the Department of Justice for its consideration.

Sincerely yours,
J. Edgar Hoover

[redacted] who is under consideration for development as a PRI, advised on the late evening of 4/4/68, he was at 2208 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., where a group of individuals affiliated with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) were present. Included in this group were STOKELY CARMICHAEL and [redacted]. They were discussing the shooting of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., with specific reference to what action they should take here in Washington, D.C.

[redacted] said CARMICHAEL was receiving numerous telephone calls from unknown individuals that evening, and when he had completed his conversation in one instance, he turned to the group and said that the business establishments were closed when (President JOHN F.) KENNEDY was assassinated and they should close now. He suggested that they visit the business establishments in the area for the purpose of requesting that these establishments close. [redacted] said CARMICHAEL then departed there with a group of individuals, including [redacted] and visited several business establishments in the area requesting that they close as a tribute to Dr. KING. He said CARMICHAEL told those accompanying him to be polite in their requests to have the businesses close. [redacted] added that in some instances CARMICHAEL did not enter the business establishments but sent other individuals in to make the request. [redacted] said that when CARMICHAEL first suggested visiting these establishments, [redacted] requested [redacted] to prevail upon CARMICHAEL to not make these requests. [redacted] that it would not do any good for him to make this suggestion to CARMICHAEL.

[redacted] stated that until a group of young people broke away from CARMICHAEL, the affair seemed to be very well disciplined. But, when this group broke away, they commenced breaking windows in the business establishments, looting in some instances, and harassing the white motorists who were passing through the area. In one instance he personally saw a young Negro male, identity unknown, strike the window of a passing auto making a fist and smashing the car window. This resulted in the fact that his fist was badly cut. [redacted]

[redacted] said it was agreed a meeting would be held at Howard University sometime during the afternoon of 4/5/68 in memory of Dr. KING.

[redacted] advised on 4/6/68, he cannot testify to the above information in open court because it would ruin him in the Negro community, both politically and economically. He pointed out that if there was some way this could be done without divulging his identity to the public, he would be most happy to give such testimony.

[redacted] advised on 4/5/68, that STOKELY CARMICHAEL and [redacted] in the company of three or four other individuals, appeared on the Howard University campus at approximately 1:45 p.m., 4/5/68.

Source continued that CARMICHAEL addressed a crowd of approximately 300 persons at the conclusion of a memorial program for Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING and advised the crowd that "tonight bring your gun; don't loot, shoot." Source continued that CARMICHAEL stated that the individuals in the crowd should tell their "little brothers" to stay off the streets tonight because there would definitely be trouble. Source continued that CARMICHAEL pulled a gun from his pocket, held it up before the crowd, and indicated that he had his gun and everyone else should get guns. CARMICHAEL also stated, according to the source, that the white man killed Dr. KING who was the one man who could keep Negroes on a non-violent path. The white man would have done better to kill him (CARMICHAEL).

PRI was asked if he would be willing to testify to the above information in court. PRI responded by saying he definitely did not wish to testify and reminded SA [redacted] that at the outset of his relationship with the FBI and SA [redacted] he was assured his identity would be kept confidential and should he ever have to testify, his family and friends would never be able to understand why he was furnishing information. PRI reiterated that he would not testify under any circumstances.

[redacted] and a member of SCLC, is out of the city and will not return until the evening of April 9, 1968, at the earliest. [redacted] will be interviewed promptly on his return.

Copies of NBC and CBS prepared tapes of the comments of STOKELY CARMICHAEL at the press conference held 10 a.m. on 4/5/68, at SNCC headquarters, were hand carried to the FBI Laboratory on that date. Copies have been previously furnished to Division 5. Copies are also being retained by WFO.

[redacted] advised SA [redacted] on 4/8/68 that they are currently in the process of estimating the property damage done during the civil disturbance in WDC. He said that this is being done for the Mayor and will be the official estimate of damages. [redacted] advised that the estimate would not be ready until a later date.

STOKELY CARMICHAELINCITING TO RIOT - MISCELLANEOUS

Synopsis:

STOKELY CARMICHAEL, age 26, former National Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), on the evening of 4/4/68, after the assassination of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., led a group of some 15 - 20 young Negroes from the area of SNCC headquarters, 2208 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., to the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C. CARMICHAEL and this group requested store managers in the vicinity to close their stores in respect for KING's death. This group swelled in number as it moved north on 14th St. Upon reaching the vicinity of 14th and Chapin Sts., N.W., CARMICHAEL told the group, "If you don't have a gun, go home and get one," and thereafter exhibited a small caliber handgun to the crowd. One of the members of this group then fired two shots from a handgun into the air, at which time CARMICHAEL rebuked this individual by saying, "This is not the time." The mood of the people reportedly became increasingly hostile and subsequently the crowd fragmented and moved in different directions, breaking store windows and causing other damage. During the night, fires, looting and other damage occurred in Washington, D.C. CARMICHAEL, at SNCC press conference of 4/5/68, stated "We led all of those young people up and down the streets to close every store." He said, "Now, some of them kicked glass store windows." He added, "But when they get guns, we'll be on the streets." On the afternoon of 4/5/68, CARMICHAEL told a large group on campus at Howard University, after a KING memorial service, that they should not be out on the street for looting that night since, "We mean business. If you don't come out tonight with your gun, stay home." CARMICHAEL, while making these remarks, was waving a small caliber gun in the air. On 4/7/68, he stated, "Too many niggers were calling for peace," and that he wanted no part of any peace movement. Eight deaths and property damage estimated over 10 million dollars attributed to rioting. CARMICHAEL's identification record set forth with FBI Number 853 121-D.

I know that this statement may be used in a court of law. I have been on [REDACTED] and I was on an undercover assignment on the evening of April 4, 1968, in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., WDC.

During my undercover assignment, I was in the headquarters of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) located on the corner of 14th and U Streets, N.W., WDC. Shortly after 8 p.m., approximately fifteen to twenty persons were present in the headquarters of SCLC inasmuch as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., had been shot in Memphis, Tennessee. At this time I observed Stokely Carmichael sitting quietly in a chair also awaiting the outcome of Dr. King's condition. I can positively identify this individual as Stokely Carmichael because in the past I have had occasion to see and listen to him when he was making speeches throughout the WDC area. In addition to Carmichael, also present at SCLC headquarters were an elderly white couple and a young white male and female and other Negro males and females, both adults and juveniles, whom I cannot identify by name.

Prior to the announcement on the radio that Dr. King was dead, Carmichael appeared to become impatient, got up from his seat, and said something to the effect, "I'm not going to wait for a final verdict. I'm going to get my guys." After Carmichael's departure, the elderly white couple in SCLC headquarters appeared to be frightened and made attempts to leave when a Negro male, whom I could not identify, advised them not to leave inasmuch as they were more welcome at SCLC than was Stokely Carmichael. The couple remained.

Sometime after Carmichael's departure, I departed SCLC and entered the People's Drug Store located next door on 14th Street. In the People's Drug Store there were approximately twenty people listening to a radio news broadcast about Dr. King.

Almost immediately after the announcement that Dr. King had died, Carmichael, accompanied by ten to fifteen young Negro males, entered the People's Drug Store. Carmichael, within earshot of an employee near the front of the store, asked "Where's the manager? We're going to close this store because when Kennedy was shot the businesses were closed and they are going to be closed now that King's dead." Carmichael and the individuals following him then proceeded to the back of the store and after a few seconds returned and walked outside. b7D Carmichael left People's Drug Store and [] and the young Negro males to the southeast corner of 14th and U Streets. They proceeded south and some of the group entered various business establishments, requesting them to close, and continued to Wallach Place, N.W. At this time, they crossed to the west side of 14th Street and proceeded north, again entering business establishments for the same purpose. At the intersection of 14th and U Streets, Carmichael and his followers crossed over to the northeast corner and proceeded in an easterly direction on the north side of U Street. Carmichael then entered a theater in the 1300 block of U Street, N.W. Upon re-appearing, his group was interspersed by a number of people who were coming out of the theater at this time. Due to this, it was impossible to estimate the size of the crowd. While the crowd was gathered in the vicinity of the theater, a plate glass door was broken; but I did not observe who had broken it or how it had been broken. Carmichael stopped and said, "We don't want any damaging. We just want the stores to close." He then continued east towards 13th Street and I remained in the vicinity of the theater. Shortly thereafter, Carmichael returned and then proceeded in a westerly direction on the north side of U Street, and when he and his group arrived at the intersection of 14th and U Streets, they proceeded to the side where People's Drug Store is located (west side of 14th Street) and walked north.

At this time I observed no other destruction of property or any looting in the general area of 14th and U Streets.

I then left Carmichael and the group with him and made a phone call to the 13th Precinct, MPD. When I returned, the group and Carmichael were at the intersection of 14th and W Streets, N.W. As they went north on 14th Street, the crowd appeared to be approximately 200 in number and as they passed business establishments, I was at the rear of the crowd and noticed windows broken at a television and radio store along the route. Carmichael at this time was at the front of the crowd. They then proceeded to the 2400 block of 14th Street, which is located between Belmont and Chapin Streets, N.W. At the corner of 14th and Chapin, Carmichael stopped and the crowd stopped behind him. As he faced the gathering, a Negro male described as five feet ten inches, 180 to 195 pounds, approximately thirty years of age, heavy set, and wearing his hair in natural bush style, approached Carmichael and said something to the effect that he was wrong in what he was doing. Carmichael turned to this individual and asked him, "Do you have your gun?" The individual replied, "No," and Carmichael then said, "Well, I have mine." At this time Carmichael removed a small caliber handgun which appeared to be a .32 caliber from inside his waistband and held this weapon above his head. After this, Carmichael turned and began walking south on 14th Street, on the west side, and the group, which had been with him, began going in different directions. It appeared he had no control of them. At this time I heard two shots fired, and I then observed windows being broken in a Safeway store located on the east side of 14th Street in the 2400 block. I also observed that windows of Eddie Leonard's Sandwich Shop and the Belmont Radio and Television Shop, both located on the west side of 14th Street within the 2400 block, were broken. During this period I noticed that two white males in a blue Volkswagen, who were parked in an alleyway behind Eddie Leonard's, were attacked by stones and other flying objects which hit the car as they attempted to leave the area. I further saw a Negro couple sitting in a car on the ^{EAST SIDE OF} ~~corner of Chapin and~~ 14th Streets, when someone hit the windshield with a rake, smashing it and causing the Negro female to fall on the seat for protection.

On April 5, 1968, I was on the campus of Howard University, WDC, at approximately 1:30 p.m. A group of students numbering between 500 - 700 were gathered near the steps of Douglas Hall, where they were being addressed by a small group of young people concerning the death of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Stokely Carmichael appeared through the crowd and walked to the steps of Douglas Hall. He then addressed the crowd by saying, "They should not have killed Dr. King. They have killed the wrong man, they should have killed me." He further stated, "Do not be out on the streets for looting tonight. We mean business. If you don't come out tonight with your gun, stay home." While making these remarks, Carmichael waved a small caliber gun. His appearance before the group was very short in duration and at the conclusion of the above remarks, he was observed leaving the campus.

Prior to Carmichael's appearance the mood of the crowd appeared very hostile, and when he (Carmichael) left, I heard voices in the crowd saying in effect, "Do you have your gun?" "I have mine or I wish I had mine."

During the time Carmichael made his statement I could not identify any person within the crowd, however, on the steps of Douglas Hall from which he spoke, I recognized (First Name Unknown) [redacted] both Negro males. DC

I then left the area and returned to the 13th Precinct, prior to departing I observed no fires in the immediate area where Carmichael had traveled.

Following the news of the assassination of Dr.
MARTIN LUTHER KING on the early evening of April 4, 1968, he went out to the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, NW. At approximately 9:20 p.m., he observed STOKELY CARMICHAEL, whom he knows by sight, in the vicinity of 2208 14th Street, N.W., which is the current office of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

CARMICHAEL began walking south on the west side of 14th Street and a group of male Negro teen-agers, estimated by [redacted] as being 15 - 20 in number, followed CARMICHAEL. The mood of the people on the street was militant as exemplified by common expressions overheard, such as "Kill Whitey," "Get the Honky," "Whitey Killed KING," and "The Honky killed KING."

[redacted] joined the group which followed CARMICHAEL south on 14th Street. As he caught up with the group, he noted CARMICHAEL entering the business establishments along 14th Street and emerging a few seconds later. He reached CARMICHAEL's immediate proximity as CARMICHAEL entered a beauty salon near the Safeway food store at the corner of 14th and U Streets, N.W. [redacted] heard CARMICHAEL say to the shop manager, "KING is dead." He asked the manager to close the shop. [redacted] noted at this point that CARMICHAEL appeared to be highly emotional, maintaining a constant frown on his face, and tears appeared from time to time in his eyes.

b7C
b7D

In the middle of the intersection at 14th and U Streets, N.W., CARMICHAEL encountered [redacted] who appeared to be in a state of shock, and who held CARMICHAEL by the arm and said, "Look what they have done to Dr. KING." CARMICHAEL, in his state of emotionalism, raised his hands with bowed head in complete disgust. [redacted] separated from CARMICHAEL.

By this time the crowd had swelled to several hundred people, consisting of both juveniles and adults, males and females, most of whom appeared to be discussing and mourning the assassination of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING.

[redacted] stated that CARMICHAEL then proceeded west on the north side of U Street requesting people to close their businesses out of respect for the death of Dr. KING. He went as far as the Lincoln Theater located in the 1300 block of U Street, N.W. At this point a group of teen-agers at that location approximated 40 in number. A portion of the teen-agers continued east on U Street as far as the Republic Theater, which is in the 1200 block of U Street. As they proceeded along, they too were entering businesses, and it was [redacted] opinion that they were asking proprietors to close their businesses out of respect for the death of Dr. KING.

b7C
b7D

[redacted] temporarily lost sight of CARMICHAEL, and a few minutes later he again observed him at 14th and U Streets, N.W. At this time CARMICHAEL and a group of approximately 25 teen-agers, whose ages [redacted] estimated at 13 to 17 years of age, proceeded north on the west side of 14th Street. After crossing the intersection at 14th and Florida, N.W., CARMICHAEL again began entering business establishments on the west side of 14th Street asking proprietors to close.

In the 2400 block of 14th Street (between Belmont and Chapin Streets, N.W.), CARMICHAEL stopped and addressed the teen-agers who still numbered approximately 25. [] recalls CARMICHAEL saying, "The white man is coming to kill you, so if you don't have a gun, go home and get one. I Don't want any blk blood in the street."

Someone in the crowd asked CARMICHAEL if he had his (CARMICHAEL's) gun and CARMICHAEL replied by displaying a small caliber weapon which he had been carrying.

[] stated that [] account of these statements which were made by CARMICHAEL reflected that the crowd at that point numbered approximately 400. He stated that he had not reported to [] that any crowd numbered 400 until some time after he had first reported CARMICHAEL's statements to the crowd of 25; and that when the crowd had swelled to 400, CARMICHAEL had not assumed any position of leadership.

b7C
b7D

[] advised that when CARMICHAEL made the statements concerning the guns to the teen-agers, he [] observed two individuals with CARMICHAEL whom he interpreted to be "aides." He gave the following description of these two individuals:

1. A Negro male, approximately 6'2" tall, weighing approximately 200 pounds, 25 years of age, brown complexion, wearing blue jeans and a short-waisted blue jacket. His hair was long and worn in a natural bush style, with receding hairline and slightly balding.
2. A Negro male, approximately 25 years of age, weighing 170 pounds, short and stocky in build, 5'5" - 5'7" tall. He wore a green military jacket with dark pants. His hair was extremely long and worn in a natural bush style.

b7C
b7D

After speaking to this group, CARMICHAEL proceeded south on 14th Street. As the group followed, [] overheard two Negro teen-agers, between 15 and 17 years of age, ask one another if the other had a gun. One replied that he did, and he drew a handgun from under his jacket, and fired two shots into the air.

When CARMICHAEL heard the shots, he immediately stopped and told the youngster to put the gun away, because "This is not the time."

WFO 100-43503

CARMICHAEL returned to the 2100 block of 14th Street and remained there with his two "aides."

The mood of the people in the area had become increasingly hostile and [] heard glass breaking and commotion in the vicinity of the Peoples Drug at 14th and U Streets, N.W. (2000 block of 14th Street, N.W.) Inasmuch as his assignment was to cover the racial disturbances, he shifted his attention from CARMICHAEL to the outburst.

[] stated that he then telephoned [] the activities surrounding CARMICHAEL and that when he returned to the intersection of 14th and U Streets, N.W., he noted that the crowd had swelled to approximately 400 in number.

When the edition of "The New York Times" of April 5, 1968, came out, with the account of the activities in Washington, D.C., it was noted that the Times account which was based on the facts that [] had telephoned in were somewhat dissimilar with the account of that evening's events that appeared in the "Washington Post." In response to a specific question, [] emphatically stated that he would not testify concerning this matter.

LOOTING ERUPTS IN WASHINGTON

Looting in Washington

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, April 4—Vandalism and looting, led openly by Stokely Carmichael, the militant black nationalist, erupted tonight in a small area of Washington's Negro section within hours after the death of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Carmichael, the former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, rejected pleas to avoid trouble by the Rev. Walter E. Fauntroy, vice chairman of the District of Columbia's City Council and a close associate of Dr. King's.

[Clashes between groups of Negroes and the police were reported in scattered sections of the country after the assassination of Dr. King.]

Carmichael told about 400 Negroes to "go home and get your guns."

There were reports of looting.

ing, and some shouting in the air but the police said no one had been shot. Traffic was diverted from the troubled area.

There were apparently no immediate attempts to arrest Carmichael or anyone else in the unruly group. At 11 P.M., however, the police were forming a cordon to make sweep of the area. They had orders to arrest anyone who failed to move on.

"If you don't have a gun, go home," Carmichael shouted to a group of Negro youths at 14th and U Streets, N.W., in the heart of the commercial section of Washington's Negro slum.

"When the white man comes, he is coming to kill you," Carmichael yelled. "I don't want any black blood in the street. Go home and get you a gun and then come back because I got mea gun."

He then brandished what appeared to be a small pistol.

As he did so, a slight Negro youth, perhaps 15 years old, fired two shots into the air from a pearl-handled pistol. The reports startled the crowd into silence. But Carmichael quickly added:

"Don't shoot unless everybody's got their gun."

In the crowd there were cries of "I got my gun—you got your gun?"

At one point, three special policemen, all Negroes, pulled up in a car in front of the crowd and jumped to the curb with drawn guns. With his hands raised, Carmichael approached them and remonstrated with them. As a crowd gathered, the special policemen returned to their car and drove away.

Trouble Began at 9 P.M.

The trouble on 14th Street started at about 9 P.M., as President Johnson was making his televised address from the White House. Carmichael led a group of Negroes—no more than 50 at first—south on 14th Street shouting, "Close the stores—Martin Luther King is dead."

The group, gathering manpower as it moved, entered two motion picture theaters, the Lincoln and the Republic, on U Street N.W. Mr. Carmichael demanded that they close immediately. The startled patrons apparently did not know that Dr. King was dead.

As the crowd—now about 200 persons—moved south from U Street, about a mile north of the White House, Negro beauty shops, drug and liquor stores and pool halls along rain-drenched 14th Street closed their doors.

The looting, confined to a two-block area north and south of 14th and U Streets—Washington's equivalent of 125th Street and Amsterdam Avenue—broke out about an hour after the march began.

A reporter on the scene saw Negro youths smash the windows of a Peoples Drug Store, a pawnshop, a liquor store and two electrical appliance stores, enter the stores and run off with piles of merchandise, including at least 25 television sets.

Uniformed city policemen were ordered to stay clear of the area but plainclothes officers began moving in as the looters fled.

400 in the Area

Perhaps 400 persons filled the two-block section of 14th Street while the looting went on. As they ran, they shouted "Baep. Baep. black power" and "Go home and get a gun."

The confrontation between Carmichael and Mr. Fauntroy, pastor of the New Bethel Church who is director of the Washington Bureau of Dr. King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was dramatic.

Mr. Fauntroy, a slightly built moredate who has been severely criticised in Congress for maintaining close contact with Carmichael during the planning for Dr. King's Poor People's Campaign in Washington, approached the youthful Negro militant as he led about 100 marchers.

"Please don't make any trouble," Mr. Fauntroy said, seeking to grasp Carmichael's arm. Throwing both of his arms into the air, Carmichael symbolically rejected the clergyman's plea by shouting "They killed King."

The marchers moved on. Mr. Fauntroy, apparently near tears, later appeared on local television stations appealing to citizens to stay at home.

Brief clashes between Negroes and the police broke out in scattered sections of the country last after the assassination of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

In Raleigh, N. C., the police clashed with a group of about 75 young Negro students from Shaw University, a Negro school, who invaded the city's main business street and overturned automobiles and smashed store windows.

A similar incident was reported in Boston. In Memphis, where the Negro leader was slain, Police Chief Frank Holloman went on television to report that rioting has broken out in parts of the city and looting was taking place. "Looting is rampant," he said. The National Guard is coming back.

Tense Crowd of Hundreds Smashes Inner-City Stores Here

14th St. Area Is Sealed Off

Tense, milling crowds of Negroes—angered by the slaying of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King—swarmed along 14th Street's inner-city strip last night and early today, wrecking and looting stores and heckling policemen.

Hundreds of people in clusters, at first embittered, moved haphazardly through the area and baited police into the use of tear gas at one major fire. It started as a parade that Stokely Carmichael and others began and later could not control.

At 12:30 a.m. four to five hours after it began, Public Director Patrick V. Murphy reported "some success in urging people to go home . . . the officers are talking to as many people as possible telling them to go home."

Murphy said the cautious pullback of police during the scattered disturbances was planned to avoid direct confrontations and to await the arrival of "sufficient men to move."

By 12:45 a.m. police had closed 14th Street from Spring Road to N Street.

A major confrontation between police and a crowd developed shortly before 1 a.m., when a large fire broke out at Steelman's Liquors, 2746 14th st. nw.—one of five "sizable fires" reported.

A fresh wave of heckling people pelted firefighters, and gas-masked police released tear gas and pulled out their night sticks and pistols to move the crowd down the block away from the flames.

After midnight, reporters noted carloads of youths roaming outside the sealed-off 14th street strip area. Window breakage occurred at such widely scattered spots as Georgia Avenue and Princeton Street, Georgia Avenue and Irving Street, Florida Avenue and 7th Street, Florida and 9th, and Mount Pleasant and Lamont Streets. A window was broken at Hecht's at 7th and F Street and at D. J. Kauffman's, in the 1000 block of D Street. Looting occurred in some cases.

Shortly after 1 a.m. today, the 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. shift of policemen was called to duty, putting all three shifts on the street.

Three policemen and one fireman were reported to have suffered minor injuries during the course of the night.

The night's raucous activity—neither under control nor completely out of hand—was contained largely by police in a 19-block narrow strip along 14th Street.

Police worked to seal off the area from Park Road to R Street and from 14th to 18th Streets nw.

But before it was over, a large number of stores had been ravaged by bands of people—a great number of them youths—and occasional arrests had been made. By midnight, police had arrested 30 persons.

An informal command post was set up at the 13th Precinct station house, with Mayor Walter E. Washington, Licenses and Inspections Chief Julian R. Dugas, Police Chief John B. Layton, the Rev. Walter E. Fauntroy, vice chairman of the City Council, and Clinton Mitchell of the city's Human Relations Council in constant conference.

Walter E. Washington, Public Safety Director Patrick V. Murphy, Licenses and Inspections Chief Julian R. Dugas, Police Chief John B. Layton, the Rev. Walter E. Fauntroy, vice chairman of the City Council, and Clinton Mitchell of the city's Human Relations Council in constant conference.

The incidents began to erupt shortly after the news of Dr. King's assassination spread through the streets, by radio and word of mouth. A group of about 15 people gathered at Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee headquarters, 2208 14th st. nw.

At first there were tears, and Lester McKinnie, local SNNC leader called quickly for "a period to react to this great tragedy."

Carmichael burst in to suggest that the group close down the area's stores out of respect for Dr. King. "If Kennedy had died, all these stores would have closed," he said. "Martin Luther King is our leader and we are going to show him some respect."

As the small band began shouting its request to store owners along the way—and many answered them quickly by turning off lights and closing doors—the number of people began to swell.

As it did, quiet respect and polite requests turned to angry shouts, broken windows, more looting and calls for extra policemen to handle an uglier mood that began to overtake the impromptu march.

As windows of stores cracked and TV sets and other appliances were yanked out of stores, Carmichael shouted, "No, no! Not now, not now!" He ordered the looters he saw to "Go home, go home."

Near 14th and W Streets, Mr. Fauntroy appeared and attempted to persuade the people to break it up. "This is not the way to do it, Stokely, this is not the way," he said, gently holding Carmichael's arm.

April 5, 1968 The Washington Post

But Carmichael pulled away and continued the zig-zagging parade, yelling at more store owners to close down.

As the group moved down from 14th and Clifton Streets back toward SNCC, two gunshots were fired, and Carmichael grabbed one gun from a man, saying, "None of this, none of this."

At one point, he pulled out a gun himself, waved it, told people he was ready but they were not and not to do anything until they were, to wait through the night, to go home.

Someone in the cluster yelled back, "We don't have no leader. We lost our leader."

"You won't get one like this," Carmichael yelled back. "You'll just get shot."

Among stores in the 2000 block of 14th Street that were damaged were a carryout, a TV repair shop, a hardware store, and a dress shop.

Police initially stayed clear of the immediate area, following Public Safety Director Patrick V. Murphy's on-the-street order to "keep cool" and pull away from any imminent confrontation.

At 10:40 p.m., police moved to detour northbound traffic around the area where the crowd had gathered, sending cars west on R Street. Sporadically, windows of cars were cracked by flying debris.

At about 11:10 p.m. police, including the Civil Disturbance Unit, were ordered to begin moving in and disperse the crowd and make arrests, if necessary. The command came as a steady rain began.

By then, about 40 stores had been reported looted, ranging from the 1900 block to the 2400 block of 14th Street, and some side streets.

A car in a lot at 14th and Chapin Streets nw., was set afire.

As the milling continued in the rain, Mr. Fauntroy traveled from one television station to another, appealing for calm, asking "black brothers and sisters" to "handle our grief in the spirit of nonviolence."

He implored people to stay home and pray.

McKinnie issued a call for a general strike today "of all black people."

In this way, he declared, "we can all begin to analyse what this racist, imperialist country is doing to us."

"We are urging all SNCC offices throughout the country to encourage general strikes in their areas that we may grieve the tragedy of Dr. King's death, because he is flesh of our flesh and blood of our blood."

By 11:15, Layton advised Mayor Washington that the incidents had localized in the hub of 14th and U Streets and he felt the situation was coming under control.

He gave this report as eight squad cars and two buses of tactical squad members moved in to the area.

At 11 p.m., Mayor Washington issued a statement on the disturbances, which he said were "localized in the area of 14th Street nw." He added: "There has been some property damage. The situation appears under control and it is expected that police on hand will retain control of the situation."

"I have been in continuous touch with the situation and I urge the citizens of the District to pull together during these tragic times."

Detectives on the midnight-to-8 a.m. shift, called in an hour early to help clear the area, were instructed to disperse the crowd. About 40 footmen joined in the patrol.

A small outbreak of window-breaking occurred around 7th Street and Florida Avenue nw. The disturbance was quickly quieted by police who came in four cruisers and a patrol wagon.

Windows were broken at Manhattan Auto, 7th and R Street nw., Quality Music Store, at 1836 7th st. nw., and a shoe store nearby.

A midnight memorial service was called at St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church, 16th and Newton Streets nw., with Episcopal Suffragan Bishop Paul Moore officiating.

Meanwhile, other community leaders were hastily gathered to plan still other memorial services and statements to the community.

Mayor Washington called Dr. King's death "a grievous loss to the entire Nation and all humanity."

The Interreligious Committee on Race Relations, headed by Methodist Bishop John Wesley Lord, and the Washington Cathedral set a special, "simple interreligious memorial service" for noon today at the Cathedral, for all residents.

Bishop Lord said his Committee was "stunned by the mad act of violence" that brought Dr. King's life to an end "we must now enter more completely into his labors."

Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle, archbishop of Washington, called, too, for renewed efforts at understanding among peoples.

Terming Dr. King "an apostle of nonviolence" who "advanced the cause of justice for millions," the Cardinal said, "We shall honor his memory by striving constantly to achieve the goals for which he gave his life."

[] stated CARMICHAEL first eulogized Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and commented that they shouldn't have killed him as Dr. KING was the only non-violent person left in the movement. CARMICHAEL related it would have been better if it had been RAP BROWN or STOKELY CARMICHAEL killed instead of KING. [] recalled CARMICHAEL went on to tell the people he did not want people coming out on the streets just to ramble around and that it would be better for them to stay inside but if the people did come out of the house, they should come out with guns.

b7C

[] also recalled CARMICHAEL mentioned he had told some of the kids on the streets to go home on Thursday night (April 4, 1968) as the kids were just roaming around the streets and looting the stores.

A press conference was called for 10:00 a.m., April 5, 1968, by the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) to be held at SNCC Headquarters, 2208 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

The following is a transcript of a tape recording of remarks made at the press conference prepared by [redacted] at the above time and location:

b7C

Commentator: I want you people to listen clearly. This press conference will be only five minutes. And...as soon as the press conference is over, you gentlemen will not leave anything in here that you didn't bring in here. Your films, your cigarette butts, you take them with you. If you waste any water you have to clean it up. Ah...we will have a few questions...of two minutes questions. To my right, extreme right, is Mr. CLEVELAND SELLERS, Director of the Orangeburg, South Carolina, project of SNCC. To my right here, immediate right, is STOKELY CARMICHAEL, who is on staff here in Washington, D.C. And to my left is Mr. WILLIAM HALL, who is also a member of the staff in Washington. And LESTER MC KINNIE, Director of the Washington SNCC office. Mr. CARMICHAEL will speak to you for five minutes.

CARMICHAEL: As you may or may not know, this press conference was called before Dr. KING was murdered. We called it then to deal with our Brother RAP BROWN because we were very upset that Brother BROWN had been in jail for 41 days and Governor AGNEW of Maryland still seems to persist with his nonsensical charge and so the Brother can't get out of jail. Now we want the Brother out of jail..ah..next week when he comes to trial. Now, as to Dr. KING's murder, I think white America made its biggest mistake when she killed Dr. KING last night because when she killed Dr. KING last night, she killed all reasonable hope. When she killed Dr. KING last night, she killed the one man of our race in this country, in the older generation, which the militants and also the revolutionaries and the masses of black people, would still listen to, even though sometimes he did not disagree..ah..(interrupts and says)..agree with them they would still listen to him. When - When white America killed Dr. KING last night, she opened the eyes for every black man in this country. When white America got rid of MARCUS GARVEY (phonetic), she did it and she said he was an extremist, he was crazy. When they got rid of Brother MALCOLM X, they said he was preaching hate, he deserved what he got. But when they got rid of Brother MARTIN LUTHER KING, they had absolutely no reason to do so. He was the one man in our race who was trying to teach our people to have love, compassion, and mercy for what white people have done. When white America killed Dr. KING last night, she declared war on us. There will be no crying, there will be no funerals. The rebellions that have been occurring around the cities of this country is just light stuff to what is about to happen. We have to retaliate for the death of our leaders. The execution of those deaths will not be in the courtrooms...they are going to be on the streets of the United States of America. When white America killed Dr. KING last night, she made a whole lot easier for a whole lot of black people today. They no longer needs to be intellectual discussions...black people know that they have to get guns. White America will live to cry that she killed Dr. KING last night. It would have been better if she had killed RAP BROWN and/or STOKELY CARMICHAEL. But when she killed Dr. KING, she lost. That's it.

CARMICHAEL:

Unidentified: Before any question, I would like to give one statement from the organization. We the students of the Non-Violent Coordinate Committee wish to extend our condolences to the family of the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., who was brutally murdered today in Memphis, Tennessee. In his death there is a lesson which white America has taught us many times before. This lesson was clear in the murder of our four brothers in Orangeburg. This lesson was clear in the murder

Unidentified: of a 16-year-old, LARRY PAYNE (phonetic) in (cont'd) Memphis. This lesson is clear in the day-to-day torture of black people by white people in America and throughout the world. It was to end this torture that Dr. KING bravely faced death many times, non-violently. Dr. KING was a brother who dedicated his life to liberate his peoples through non-violence. Dr. KING was a symbol of non-violence and white America shot him down.

CARMICHAEL: There is one last comment about these new things - about last night. We will tell you where we were last night. Last night, we led all of those youngsters up and down the streets to close every store in this area because Dr. KING was shot and they should have closed those stores. Now, some of them kicked glass store windows in. We are not stopping them from kicking in the store windows. We are stopping them from coming out on the streets without guns. When they come out on the streets, we want them with guns. If they don't have guns, we're not gonna let 'em throw bricks and bottles at guns. But when they get guns, we'll be on the streets.

Unidentified: Question (me) if you have any questions.

Unidentified Reporter: Mr. CARMICHAEL, don't you believe the vast majority of Americans feel just as badly as you do about what happened in Memphis?

CARMICHAEL: The white press and that's from "honkey" LYNDON JOHNSON to "honkey" BOBBY KENNEDY will not co-opt (phonetic) Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING. Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING fought for his people. It was not but four weeks ago when JOHNSON told KING that if he came marching into the District, he would meet a force because he should bring his troubles to him. And now tonight he is trying to make as if Dr. KING was his hero. He fools no one. BOBBY KENNEDY pulled that trigger just as well as anybody else. Because when Dr. KING was down in the South and BOBBY KENNEDY was Attorney General, every time a black person got killed, KENNEDY would not move because he wanted votes so he is just as guilty...all of white America killed Dr. KING. And those who feel sorry ought to feel sorry.

CARMICHAEL:
(cont'd)

Unidentified
Reporter:

Mr. CARMICHAEL, what do you intend to do... what action do you intend to take relative to RAP BROWN and your intent to get him out of jail.

CARMICHAEL:

We decided at our central committee meeting that if Maryland persists with this (nonsensical) charge, even though the reports said that RAP did not incite any riot in Cambridge. Well then Governor AGNEW, he ain't seen nothing if he thinks he saw something on that Bowie State thing. We will take our troops back into Maryland and all of us are veterans from Cambridge, Maryland, and from Baltimore, Maryland, and we will turn that State inside out and upside down. And we've got Louisiana to get. We've got some brothers working in Florida. We've got some brothers working in Ohio and we are gonna get Richmond, Virginia.

Unidentified
Reporter:

Mr. CARMICHAEL, what do you think will happen to the poor people's campaign now?

CARMICHAEL:

I understand that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference will carry it on and as we said before we will be glad to give them any support. Whatever Southern Christian Leadership Conference asks for today, we will give to them. Except our tears. We will give no more tears for any black man killed in this country.

Unidentified
Reporter:

Mr. CARMICHAEL, do you see anybody replacing Dr. KING as a non-violent leader?

CARMICHAEL: No, that's why America lost when she shot him down last night.

Unidentified
Reporter:
(Woman)

Mr. CARMICHAEL, is there any truth to the rumor that you are going to call a general strike here in town?

CARMICHAEL: We are waiting for what the Southern Christian Leadership Conference wants us to do.

Unidentified
Reporter:

What you say the execution of those deaths will be, not in the courtroom, but in the streets, can you be a little more specific about the course of action you expect?

CARMICHAEL: I think that is quite explicit.

Unidentified
Reporter:

Do you expect an organized rebellion?

CARMICHAEL: I think it is quite explicit.

Unidentified
Reporter:

Mr. CARMICHAEL, suppose a lot of black people have to die...(garbled). (What would it do to please you--This is thought what the reporter said.)

CARMICHAEL: That they take as many white people with them as they can.

Unidentified
Reporter:

Yes, but what about the black people who have to die?

CARMICHAEL:

Ah...we die every day. We die in Vietnam for the "honkeys", why don't we come home and die in the streets for our people. We die everyday. We die cutting and fighting each other inside our own communities. Why cut and fight each other and kill each other off? Let's kill off the real enemy. Black people are not afraid to die. We die all the time. We die in your jails, we die in your ghettos, we die in your rat infested homes. We die a thousand deaths every day. So we are not afraid to die. Today we are going to die for our people.

Unidentified
Commentator:

I would like to say this before we have any more questions, that on Monday our Chairman, H. RAP BROWN, will be in Richmond, Virginia, according to "honkey", Federal Government, and there will be a car caravan from all directions leading to Richmond, Virginia, on Monday morning. We are urging all our black brothers and sisters to come to Richmond.

Unidentified
Reporter:

Mr. CARMICHAEL, what is the alternative to the kind of retribution in the streets that you are talking about? Is there any way to stop it?

CARMICHAEL:

I don't think so. I do not think so. I think white America is incapable of dealing with the problem.

Unidentified
Reporter:

How will Dr. KING's death affect your leadership as you see it, Mr. CARMICHAEL?

CARMICHAEL:

Well, Dr. KING's death will not affect my leadership or affect me as a black man. Because he was my brother, flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood. You see, the mistake they made when they shot Dr. KING was even though Dr. KING talked about non-violence he was always in the streets. Ready to lead a demonstration. All of the other so-called leaders who are...talk about non-violence are not on the streets with their people. Many people respected Dr. KING even though they didn't agree with his philosophy cause at least he was in the streets. So now there is really no one else to respect who talks about non-violence because the people who talk about non-violence are not in the streets.

Unidentified
Reporter:

Mr. CARMICHAEL, are you declaring war on White America?

CARMICHAEL: White America has declared war on black people. She did so when she sold the first black man from Africa. The black man has been sufficient, has been patient, has been resisting and today the final showdown is coming. That is clear. That is crystal clear. And that black people are going to have to find ways to survive. The only way to survive is to get some guns. Cause that is the only way white America keeps us in check is because she's got the guns.

Unidentified Reporter: STOKELY, What do you see this ultimately leading to? A blood bath in which nobody wins?

CARMICHAEL: First, my name is Mr. CARMICHAEL, and secondly, black people will survive America.

Unidentified Commentator: Last question.

Unidentified Reporter: What accomplishment or objectives do you visualize from the retaliation that you speak? What do you think you will accomplish?

CARMICHAEL: If black man can't do nothing in this country then we gonna stand up on our feet and die like men. If that is our only act of manhood then GOD DAMMIT we gonna die. We're tired of living on our stomachs.

Unidentified Reporter: Do you fear for your life?

CARMICHAEL: Hell with my life. You should fear for yours. I know I am gonna die. I know I am gonna die. (Applause)

Unidentified Commentator: There is still a possibility that there will be a general strike throughout the United States. So that our black brothers and sisters can take off that day from their slavery and working for the master and to think about and to re-analyze what the "honkeys" are doing to the black people in this country and me. And perhaps then something can be done. That is the end of the press conference.

Carmichael Warns of 'Retaliation'

By Phil Casey

Washington Post Staff Writer

Black power spokesman Stokely Carmichael said yesterday "white America is incapable of dealing with the (race) problem" and warned of increasing violence in the streets.

He spoke first at a news conference in the headquarters of the New School of Afro-American Thought at 2208 14th st. nw. and appeared later at a Howard University rally.

Speaking softly at his news conference, Carmichael told the newsmen, "When white America killed Dr. King last night she declared war on us . . . We have to retaliate for the deaths of our leaders. The executions of those deaths will not be in the courtrooms. They're going to be in the streets of the United States of America . . ."

He went on to say: "The kind of man that killed Dr. King last night made it a whole lot easier for a whole lot of black people today. There no longer needs to be intellectual discussions. Black people know that they have to get guns. White America will live to cry since she killed Dr. King last night. It would have been better if she had killed Rap Brown and/or Stokely Carmichael. But when she killed Dr. King, she lost it."

Carmichael termed Dr. King's murder America's "biggest mistake" and added: "When white America killed Dr. King, she opened the eyes of every black man in this country . . . He was the one man in our race who was trying to reach our people to have love, compassion and mercy for what white people had done. When white America killed Dr. King last night, she declared war on us . . ."

It was a strange, and hostile, news conference. Reporters and photographers were searched by two solemn-faced Negroes.

Lester McKinnie, Washington head of SNCC, was stern: "You gentlemen will not leave anything here . . . Your films, cigarette butts, you take them with you."

Carmichael received the press in a small, cluttered rear office.

He spoke always in his usual soft voice and raised it only once, when he was asked if he feared for his life.

"The hell with my life!" he snapped. "You should fear for yours. I know I'm going to die. I know I'm leaving." There was loud applause from his followers.

At one point, in response to a question about Rap Brown, he said that if Maryland persists in its charges against Brown, "we will turn that State inside out and upside down."

The Negroes who die in street violence should "take as many white people with them as then can," he said. "We die every day. We die in Vietnam for the honkies. Why don't we come home and die in the streets for our people? We die every day. We die cutting and fighting each other inside our own communities. We cut and fight and kill each other off. Let's kill off the real enemies. Black people are not afraid to die. We die all the time. We die in your jails. We die in your ghettos. We die in your rat-infested homes.

"We die a thousand deaths every day. We're not afraid to die, because now we're going to die for our people."

The conflict between the Negroes and whites is the white man's fault, he insisted. "White America has declared war on black people. She did so when she stole the first black man from Africa . . . and today the final showdown is coming . . . That is crystal clear. And black people are going to have to find ways to survive. The only way to survive is to get some guns, because that's the only way white America keeps us in check, because she's got the guns."

His voice rose slightly and there was a note of anguish when he told a reporter what Negroes could accomplish with violence: "The black man can't do nothing in this country, then we're going to stand up on our feet and die like men. If that's our only act of manhood, then, God damn it, we're going to die. We're tired of living on our stomachs."

(Later, at the Howard University rally, Carmichael rose and chanted over and over, his voice rising, "Stay off the streets tonight, if you don't have a gun because there's going to be shooting." Then he held a revolver over his head.)

At the news conference, he implied that violence is inevitable, when he was asked if there was any way to stop it. "I don't think so," he said. I do not think so. I think white America is incapable of dealing with the problem."

And his voice seemed suddenly firm and suddenly sad, when he was asked whether anyone would replace Dr. King.

"No!" he exclaimed. "That's why America lost when she shot him down last night."

It has been noticed that many offices receive reports from varying sources that Stokely Carmichael, former Chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, has been seen in their territory. As the summer season approaches when disturbances and riots most frequently occur, increased allegations of Carmichael's appearance may be expected.

Washington Field Office is the office of origin in the Carmichael case and is responsible for knowing his whereabouts at all times. In the event an office receives an allegation that Carmichael has been seen in its territory, contact with the Washington Field Office should be the first step taken to resolve the allegation.

LR ROY ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, commonly known as ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, is publicly known as the Minister of Information of the Black Panther Party for Self Defense (BPPSD).

✓ A characterization of the BPPSD is contained in the appendix.

On February 16, 1968, at the University of California, Berkeley, STOKELY CARMICHAEL failed to appear as a speaker for a previously announced noon rally under the sponsorship of the Campus W.E.B. Du Bois Club (see appendix). Following the rally and shortly after 1:00 p.m. on February 16, 1968, STOKELY CARMICHAEL in company with eight to ten members of the BPPSD arrived at Sproul Plaza, University of California, Berkeley (UCB). The CARMICHAEL group encountered REIES TIJERINA who had appeared as a speaker at the rally. CARMICHAEL and TIJERINA embraced each other in a spirit of solidarity and expressed mutual desire to meet and confer in the near future.

b2

REIES TIJERINA is publicly known as leader of the Alianza Federal De Mercedes, an organization which demands that lands in New Mexico be returned to the descendants of the original owners.

In company with members of the BPPSD, STOKELY CARMICHAEL appeared at the Alameda County Court House, Oakland, California, at approximately 1:45 p.m., February 16, 1968. CARMICHAEL visited HUEY P. NEWTON in the Alameda County Jail. CARMICHAEL declined to hold a press conference and ignored questions of newsmen. Just before leaving the Court House, STOKELY CARMICHAEL stated loudly, "Brother HUEY P. NEWTON will be freed or else". CARMICHAEL departed from the Alameda County Court House at approximately 2:15 p.m.

ELDRIDGE CLEAVER
(Unknown Male-Introducing STOKELY CARMICHAEL)

We have a candidate tonight for prime minister of Afro-America. The Black Panther Party for Self Defense says that STOKELY CARMICHAEL is the prime minister of Afro-America. (Applause) We want to know how you feel about that? Is STOKELY okay with you black people? Can he speak for you? (Roar of "Yes" from audience.) Well, all right, come on STOKELY and speak. (Applause)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL:

Good evening. It's getting late, but we have a lot to talk about tonight because we have to be serious. Before I begin, I want to introduce just two people, one is our communications director who came out from Atlanta to spend birthday with brother HUEY NEWTON, Miss ~~ETHEL MINER~~ ^{GA} ~~ETHEL~~, ^{CR} where are you? (Applause) The next person is one of our young warriors who was involved in the Roxbury (ph) rebellion where he was charged with a number of charges. He's out of jail and he's just returned from a trip across the waters. He went to revolutionary countries where hunkies can't go, ~~CHICO WEBLETT~~ (ph). (Applause)

Now then, tonight we have to talk about several things. We're here to celebrate brother HUEY P. NEWTON's birthday. We're not here to celebrate it as HUEY NEWTON, the individual, but as HUEY NEWTON, part and parcel of black people, wherever we are on the world today. And, so in talking about brother HUEY NEWTON tonight, we have to talk about the struggle of black people, not only in the United States, but in the world today, and how he become part and parcel of that struggle, how we move on so that our people will survive America. Therefore, we are not talking about politics tonight. We're not talking about economics tonight. We are talking about the survival of a race of people. That is all that is at stake. We are talking about the survival of black people. Nothing else. And, you must understand that.

Now, why is it necessary for us to talk about the survival of our people? Many of us feel, many of our generation feel, that they're getting ready to commit genocide against us. Now, many people say that's a horrible thing to say about anybody. But, if it is a horrible thing to say, then we should do as brother MALCOLM said, we should examine history. The birth of this nation was conceived in the genocide of the red man. In order for this country to come about, the hunk had to completely exterminate the red man, and he did it. And, he did it where he does not even feel sorry, but he romanticizes it by putting it on television with cowboy and Indian. And, the question we must ask ourselves is if he's capable of doing it to the red man, can he also do it to us? Let us examine history some more. People say that it's a horrible thing to say that white people would really think about committing genocide against black people. Let us check our history out. It is a fact that we built this country, nobody else.

I'll explain that to you. When this country started, economically it was an agricultural country. The cash crop on the world market was cotton. We picked the cotton. So, it is we who build this country. It is we who have fought in the wars of this country. This country is becoming more and more technological so that the need for black people is fastly disappearing. When the need for black people disappears, so will we, and he will consciously wipe us out.

Let us check World War II. He will not do it unto his own. Notice who he dropped an atomic bomb on, some helpless yellow people in Hiroshima. If you do not think he's capable of committing genocide against us, check out what he's doing to our brothers in Vietnam. Check out what he's doing in Vietnam. We have to understand that we're talking about our survival and nothing else, whether or not this beautiful race of people is going to survive on the earth, that's what we are talking about, nothing else. If you do not think he's capable of wiping us out, check out the white race. Wherever they have gone they ruled, conquered and murdered and plagued. Whether they are the majority or the minority, they always rule, always rule. And, check out the pattern in which they move. They came to this country. They didn't know a damn thing about this country. The red man showed them how to adapt to this country. He showed them how to grow corn. He showed them how to hunt. And, when the Indians finished showing it, he wiped them out.

He was not satisfied. He went to South America. The Aztec Indians said this is our silver, this is our copper, these are our medals, these are our statues, we build them for the beauty of our people. After the Indians showed it to them, he took it and he wiped them out.

He went to Africa. Our ancestors said dig, this is our way of life. We beat drums, we enjoy ourselves, we have gold, we make diamonds and stuff for our women. He took the gold, he made us slaves, and today he runs Africa.

He went to Asia. The Chinese showed them everything they had. They showed him gunpowder. They said we use this for fireworks on our anniversaries, on our days of festivities. He took it, he made it a gun, and he conquered China.

We are talking about a certain type of superiority complex that exists in the white man wherever he is. And, that's what we have to understand today, so that everything goes out the window, we talk about survival, that's all. They can cut all that junk about poverty programs, education, housing, welfare. We are talking about survival, and brothers and sisters, we going to survive America. Now then, we have to understand what is going on, not only in this country, but in the world, especially in Africa, because we are an African people, nothing else. We have always been an African people, we have always maintained our own value system, and I will prove that to you. As much as he has tried, our people have resisted for 413 years in this wilderness, and they resisted for this generation to carry out what must be done. We cannot fail our ancestors.

We resisted in every way you can point to. Take the English language. There are cats who come here from Italy, from Germany, from Poland, from France, in two generations they speak English perfectly. We have never spoken English perfectly. (Applause) And, that is because our people consciously resisted a language that did not belong to us. Never did, never will. Anyhow they try to run it down our throats; we ain't gonna have it. You must understand that as a level of resistance. Anyone can speak that simple hunky's language correctly, anybody can do it. We have not done it because we have resisted. Check out our way of life. No matter how hard he's tried, we still maintain a communal way of life in our communities. We do not send old people to old people's homes, that's junk. (Applause)

We do not call children illegitimate in our community, we take care of any child in our community. (Applause) It is the level of resistance that we must begin to look for among our people, pick up their threads, and do what has to be done so that our people will survive.

Three things. First and foremost. He has been able to make us hate each other. He has transplanted that hate and the love for each other for the love of his country. His country. We must begin to develop number one, and this is the most important thing we can do as a people. We must first develop an undying love for our people. (Applause) We must develop an undying love as is personified in brother HUEY P. NEWTON, undying love for our people. If we do not do that, we will be wiped out. We must develop an undying love for our people. Our slogan will become, "First our people, then, and only then, you and me as individuals, our people first." (Applause)

Following from that comes secondly the slogan, "Every Negro is a potential black man," we will not alienate them. (Applause) And, we must understand the concept of Negro, and the concept of black man. We came to this country as black men and as Africans. It took us 400 years to become Negroes. Understand that. That means that the concept of a black man is one who recognizes his cultural, his historical, and the root of his great ancestors, who were the greatest warriors on the face of this earth, Africans. (Applause)

Many of our peoples minds have been white-washed. If a Negro comes up to you and you turn your back on him, he's got to run to the hunky. We're going to take time and patience with our people because they're ours. All of the "Uncle Toms," we're going to sit down and we're going to talk. And, when they slap, we're going to bow, and when they slap, we're going to bow, and we're going to try and bring them home. And if they don't come home, we going to off them, that's all. (Applause)

We have to recognize who our major enemy is. The major enemy is not your brother, flesh of your flesh, and blood of your blood. The major enemy is the hunky and his institutions of racism, that's the major enemy. And, whenever anybody prepares for revolutionary warfare, you concentrate on the major enemy. We're not strong enough to fight each other and also fight him. We will not fight each other today, we will not fight each other. There will be no fights in the black community among black people. There will just be people who will be offed. There will be no fights, there will be no disruptions. We are going to be united.

Thirdly, and most importantly, we must understand that for black people, the question of community is not a question of geography, it is a question of color. If you live in Watts, if you live in Harlem, South side Chicago, Detroit, West Philadelphia, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, wherever you go, the first place you go is to your people, not to the land, to your people. For us the question of community is a question of color and our people, not geography, not land, not land, not geography. That is to say that we break down the concept that black people living inside the United States are black Americans, that's nonsense. We got brothers in Africa, we got brothers in Cuba, we got brothers in Brazil, we got brothers in Latin America, we got brothers all over the world, all over the world. (Applause) And, once we begin to understand that the concept of community is simply one of our people, it don't make a difference where we are, we are with our people, and therefore we are home.

Now then, in speaking of survival it is necessary to understand the moves of one's enemy. The United States works on what we call the three Ms. The missionaries, the money, and the Marines. That is precisely the way it's moved all over the world. It is the way it moves against us. They have sent the missionaries in. We send them out. They have sent the money in with the poverty program, the Vietnamese and the Koreans are pulling the money out. The next thing comes the Marines. And, if we're talking seriously, we get prepared for the Marines. (Applause)

Now if some black people do not think that the white man is going to wipe us out completely, then it won't be no harm being prepared, just in case he decides to do it. So there'll be no harm in us preparing ourselves for the Marines. There's a lot of tactics we can learn. The VC are showing us the best way to get it done. And, don't be afraid to say and tell them, yeah you want the Vietnamese to defeat them 'cause they're wrong from the jump, they wrong from the jump. (Applause) Don't get up there and play games with them. You ever see them on TV? Well, actually we were wrong going into Vietnam, but we can't get out unless we save face. To save that hunky's face, million of Vietnamese got to die. That's a lot of junk. If you're wrong, say you're wrong and get out. (Applause)

We have to then go down the programs that they run through our throats and see how they relate to us. The first one is the vote. They got a new thing now. Black power is the vote. The vote in this country is, has been, and always will be, irrelevant to the lives of black people. That is a fact.

We've survived in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, and Washington, D. C. without the vote. Two years ago when JULIAN BOND was elected by black people in Georgia, they took him off the seat, there was no representation, the black people of Georgia are surviving today. They took ADAM CLAYTON POWELL out of office, they've had him out of office for a year and a half, black people in Harlem are still surviving, that should teach you, the vote ain't nothing but a hunky's trick. If we talk about the vote today, we talk about it as one thing, an organizing tool to bring our people together, nothing else. It becomes a vehicle for organization, it cannot be any thing else. To believe the vote is going to save you is to believe the way brother ADAM CLAYTON POWELL did. He's in Bimini now. That's what we have to understand.

The second thing they ran down our throat is this poverty program, and you have to understand the poverty program. It is designed to number one, split the black community, and number two, split the black family. There is no doubt about it splitting the black community. We know all those people who started fighting over crumbs, for that's all the poverty program is, the crumbs. If you leave the crumbs alone and organize, we can take the whole loaf because it belongs to us. (Applause)

So, what happens, is that the poverty program sends a couple of hundred thousand dollars into the community and goofs start setting up to fight over that money, so, automatically, you've got splits in the community. Watts is the best example that we have today. It was the first one to get the poverty program after the rebellion and today, it is the most divided black community in the country. The second thing we have to recognize is what the poverty program does. In any race of people, the most instinctively revolutionary people are the youth, because the youth is always willing to fight at the drop of a hat. In anybody's race. And, the poverty program is geared right at our youth, to stop them from fighting. That's all the poverty program is, stop the rebellion, not take care of black people, stop the rebellion. How is it, that you felt if you were a father, and your son, who you're supposed to be providing for comes home with $90.00 a week, and you're still unemployed. What is the poverty program doing to our fathers? What is it doing to our fathers?

If they were concerned about the black community, if they believed the garbage they run down about the black families, they would give the jobs to our fathers, the bread-winners of the family, so we could have some respect for him. But it is precisely because the poverty program is aimed at quelling our youth that they do that. And, all of the people that administer the poverty program won't even put their children in those programs that are supposed to be so good for us.

Let us move on to education. And, we must talk very clearly about this concept of education. ~~FRANZ FANON~~ ^{USA} says very clearly, education is nothing but the re-establishment and reinforcement of values and institutions of a given society. All the brother is saying is that, whatever this society says is right, when you go to school they tell you it's right, and you got to run on down. If you run it on down, you get an A. If I say to you Columbus discovered America in 1492. If I was your teacher and you said, no Columbus didn't discover America in 1492, there were Indians here, I'd tell you you flunked the course. So, education doesn't mean what they say it means. So, now we must use education for our people and we must understand our communities.

In our communities there are dope addicts, there are pimps, there are prostitutes, there's hustlers, there are teachers, there are maids, there are porters, there are preachers, there are gangsters. If I go to high school, I want to learn how to be a good maid, a good porter, a good hustler, a good pimp, a good prostitute, a good teacher, or a good porter. An education is supposed to prepare you to live in your community, that's what our community is like. If the educational system cannot do that, it must teach us how to change our community. It must do one or the other. The schools that we send our children to do not do one or the other. They do neither, they do something absolutely opposite. And when our youth, who are more intelligent than all those hunkies on those boards, drop out of those schools 'cause they recognize it's not going to help them, then we turn around and yell at them, dividing our community again.

We have to understand that unless we control the education system where it begins to teach us how to change our community where we live like human beings, no need to send anybody to school, that's just a natural fact. We have no alternative but to fight, whether we like it or not. On every level in this country black people have got to fight, got to fight. (Applause)

Now then, let us move down and talk about organizing in a concept. We have in our community, black people, the masses and the bourgeoisie. That's about the level of breakdown. The bourgeoisie is very, very minute inside our community. We have to bring them home. We have to bring them home for many reasons. We have to bring them home because they have technical skills which must be put for the benefit of their people, not for the benefit of this country, which is against their people, we've got to bring them home. (Applause)

One of the ways of bringing our people home is by using patience, love, brotherhood, and unity, not force. Love, patience, brotherhood, and unity. We try, and we try, and we try. If they become a threat, we off them. (Applause) But we must begin to understand that in a concept of forming inside our community a united front, a black united front, which engulfs every sector, every facet, and every person inside our community working for the benefit of black people. And, that is for each other's survival. A lot of people in the bourgeoisie tell me that they don't like RAP BROWN when he says "I'm going to burn the country down," but every time RAP BROWN says "I'm going to burn the country down," they get a poverty program. A lot of people say to me, we don't like the Black Panthers for Self Defense walking around with guns. I'll tell you now, if the hunkies in San Francisco take off the fighters who happen to represent the Black Panthers for Self Defense, ain't nobody in this community prepared to fight right now.

Everybody gets offed, everybody gets offed. We need each other, we have to have each other for our survival, we have to have each other. From the revolutionaries to the conservatives, a black united front is what we're about. (Applause)

Now, there's some people may now understand brother RAP when he talks about who to ally with. He said we have to ally with Mexican-Americans, the Puerto Ricans, and the dispossessed people of the earth. He did not mention poor whites.

We must understand that. I will not deny that poor whites in this country are oppressed, but there are two types of oppression, one is exploitation, the other is colonization, and we have to understand the difference between both of them.

Exploitation is when you exploit somebody of your own race. Colonization is when you exploit somebody of a different race. We are colonized, they are exploited. (Applause)

Now let us explain how the process of exploitation and colonization works. If I am black and I am exploiting you who are also black, we have the same values, the same culture, the same language, the same society, the same institutions, so I do not have to destroy those institutions for you. But, if you are of another race, if you have a different culture, different language, different values, I have to destroy all of those to make you bow to me, and that is the difference between poor whites and poor blacks. Poor whites have their culture, have their values, have their institutions. Ours have been completely destroyed. (Applause) So, when you talk about alliances, you recognize you form alliances with people who are trying to rebuild their culture, trying to rebuild their history, trying to rebuild their dignity, people who are fighting for their humanity.

Poor white people are not fighting for their humanity, they're fighting for more money. There are a lot of poor white people in this country, you ain't seen none of them rebel yet, have you? Why is it that black people are rebelling? Do you think it's because it's just poor jobs? Don't believe that junk the hunky is running down. It's not poor jobs. It's a question of a people finding their culture, their nature, and fighting for their humanity, for their humanity. (Applause)

We have been so colonized, that we are ashamed to say we hate, and that is the best example of a person who's colonized. You sit in your house, a hunky walks in your house, beats you up, rapes your wife, beats up your child, and you don't have the humanity to say, I hate you. You don't have it. That is how dehumanized we are. We are so dehumanized we cannot say, yes, we hate you for what you have done to us. Can't say it, can't say it. And, we are afraid to think beyond that point. Who do you think has more hatred pent up in them, white people for black people, or black people for white people? White people for black people obviously. The hatred has been more. What have we done to them for them to build up this hatred? Absolutely nothing. Yet, we don't even want to have the chance to hate them for what they have done to us. And, if hate should be justified, we have the best justification in the world for hating hunkies.

But, we have been so dehumanized, we're like a dog, which the master can kick, which the master can throw out of the house, which the master can spit on, and whenever he calls, the dog comes running back. We are human beings and we have emotions, we're fighting for our humanity, we're fighting for our humanity. And, in regaining our humanity, we recognize all the emotions that are in us. If you have love, you got to have hate. You don't have one-sided emotion. There's a lot of junk. You always have two sides, hot, cold, white, black. Everything going, love, hate, cause if you don't have hate, you cannot differentiate love. You cannot do it.

Now, that brings us to the point of this thing about communism and socialism. Let's get to that, once and for all.

Communism is not an ideology suited for black people, period. Socialism is not an ideology fitted for black people, period. And, I will tell you why, and it must become crystal clear in our minds. Now, we don't say that because the hunkies call it communist, we don't care what they call it; it don't make a difference. The ideologies of communism and socialism speak to class structures. They speak to people who oppress people from the top down to the bottom. We are not just facing exploitation, we are facing something much more important. We are facing, because we are the victims of racism. Communism or socialism does not speak to the problem of racism. And, racism for black people in this country is far more important than exploitation, 'cause no matter how much money you make in the black community, when you go into the white world you are still a nigger. (Applause) So, that for us the question of racism becomes uppermost in our minds.

How do we destroy those institutions that seek to keep us dehumanized? That is all we're talking about. On the question of exploitation, it comes second. Now, for white people who are communist, the question of communist comes first, because they're exploited by their own people. If we were exploited by other black people, then it would be a question of how we divide the profits. It is a question of how we regain our humanity and begin to live as a people, and we do not do that because of the effects of racism in this country. We must, therefore, consciously strive for an ideology which deals with racism first, and if we do that we recognize the necessity of hooking up with the 900 million black people in the world today, that's what we recognize. (Applause) And, if we recognize that, then it means that our political situation must become international. It cannot be national, it cannot be national, it must be international, must be international. (Applause) It must be international, because if we know anything, we would recognize that the hunkies just don't exploit us, they exploit the whole "third world," Asia, Africa, Latin America. They take advantage of Europe, but they don't colonize Europe. They colonize Asia, Africa, and Latin America. Understand that. If we begin to understand, then the problems that America is heading for becomes uppermost in our minds.

And, the first one they're heading for is the conflict in the Middle East. We must declare on whose side we stand. We can be for no one but the Arabs. There can be no doubt in our minds, no doubt in our minds. (Applause) We can be for no one but the Arabs because Israel belonged to the Arabs in 1917. The British gave it to a group of Zionists who went to Israel, ran the Palestinian Arabs out with terrorist groups, and organized the state, and did not get anywhere until Hitler came along and they swelled (ph) the state in 1948. That country belongs to the Palestinians. Not only that, they are moving to take over Egypt. Egypt is our motherland, it's in Africa. (Applause)

We do not understand the concept of love. Here are a group of Zionists who come anyway they want to and organize and feeling for a place called Israel, which was created in 1948, where their youth are willing to and fight for Israel. Egypt belonged to us 4000 years ago and we We got to be for the Arabs, period. (Applause) That means that we also moved the rest of the "third world" and understand precisely what is going on.

It is no coincidence that the hunky who stole the heart out of our brother and put it into another devil was brought here on nation-wide TV. There's no coincidence. (Applause)

Now, for those of the older generation who said I may be harsh because I said the devil, let me give you a Biblical quotation. It says, beware that they will come, the devil will come telling you that he can give you back life after death. If that's not what they're doing, I don't know what it is. (Applause)

We have to understand that just today, the United States voted for South Africa to come into the Olympics, and black people here are debating whether or not black athletes should be part of the Olympics. That is not a debate. The question is final. There can be no black athletes with any dignity participating in that white nonsense. (Applause)

Now then, we have to understand more and more as our people talk about survival. It means that when we talk about survival we organize politically, we organize consciously, that's what they call education, we call it black consciousness, 'cause that speaks to us, education speaks to them, we organize economically and we organize militarily. (Applause) Because if we don't do that, if you don't have a gun in your hand, they can snatch the ballot from you, but if you got a gun, it's either them or us. (Applause) And, the preparation of that fight on all struggles must become conscious among our people. We are ahead of the Jews, we know what they are getting ready to do. They tell us every day in their "Esquire" magazine, they tell us on their television, they tell us with their 15,000 soldiers they're putting in the cities, they tell us with their tanks, they tell us with their sonar (ph) guns, they tell us. We got to wake up and tell them, we are going to get you back. (Applause)

Wipe out of your minds the question of minority, wipe out of your minds the questions of technology, technology never decides a war. It is the will of a people that decides a war. It is the will of a people. (Applause) Wipe out of your mind the fact that we do not have guns. The Vietnamese didn't have it when they started, now they got American guns, American tanks, American everything. (Applause)

If they come to get us they got to bring some to get some, we gonna take it and the guns, and the guns, and the guns. (Applause)

And, unless we raise our minds to the level of consciousness where we have an undying love for our people, where we're willing to shed our blood like HUEY NEWTON did for our people, we will not survive. Now, there are many people who know that. All of the brothers sitting on the stage, all of the brothers around here. We all know that when something goes down, we are the first ones on. There's no question in any of our minds, only things gonna stop us today is a bullet, and we're spitting them back.

But, the question is not whether or not we can move, how this entire black community moves for survival in a world that's clearly heading for a color clash. That is what we must ask ourselves. That is the only question. We can only do that by organizing our people, and orienting them toward an African ideology which speaks to our blackness. Nothing else. It's not a question right or left. It's a question black. You dig where we coming colored from, we coming from a black thing, that's where we're coming from. Because we can begin to pick up the threads of resistance that our ancestors laid down for us. And, unless we begin to understand our people as a people, we will not do that, because they will split us and divide us. That means consciously we have to begin to organize our people, organize our people, organize our people, organize our people, nothing else, organize our people. (Applause)

We have no time for them, all our sweat, all our blood, even our life must go to our people. (Applause) We have to understand this consciously. Our youth must be organized with a revolutionary perspective.

A revolutionary perspective says that we're fighting a war of liberation. In order to fight a war of liberation, you need an ideology of nationalism. We do not have this country. The nationalism can be nothing but black nationalism. It is insane to think of anything else. Black nationalism has to begin to be our ideology. While blackness is necessary, it is not sufficient, so we have to move on. We move on then to consciously organize in our community. And; we recognize today why we are organizing. We do not have the money to feed our people, so there's no use to say organize, we can get you a job. We can't get them. They control them. That is a fact. That isn't a reason for you to sit down, it is only more of a reason for you to fight, to think that you can't give your people a job. That's more than inspiration to fight, so can give them a job, rather than to sit down and say the hunkies got us on every end. They are not God. We are a beautiful race of people, we can do any thing we want to do, all we got to do is get up, get up, get up. (Applause)

Now then, we have to discuss very cold, the question of rebellion. It is a fact that they're prepared to meet rebellions anywhere in the cities. Now what is going to happen if one of our brothers get offed? What happens if they go ahead and off HUEY NEWTON? We must develop tactics where we do the maximum damage to them with minor damage to us. (Applause) And, when we move into that arena that means that this black community must be organized. So, if HUEY NEWTON goes and ten hunky cops goes, won't a black man in this community get up and open his mouth, 'cause if he does, he goes too. (Applause) That means that in organizing for the maximum damage against them, and the minor damage against us, we must be consciously aware of the fact that there will be people in our community that will be going around doing just that. In our community we see nothing, we hear nothing, we know nothing.

Now, the question of agents is becoming a question where it's making us paranoid. We cannot become paranoid because what they can do is make you so afraid you won't move. So, we're not going to do that. We're going to plan what we're going to do. Little groups are going to plan theirs, big groups are going to plan theirs. If an agent is found, there is no question. He is going to be offed in such a manner that any other black man who dares talk to the hunky will have three thoughts before he even talks to a white man about reporting an _____ . (Applause)

Our people have demonstrated a willingness to fight. Our people have demonstrated the courage of our ancestors, to face tanks, guns, police dogs, with bricks and bottles. That is a courageous act. We must understand that. And, since our people have demonstrated a willingness to fight, the question is how can we organize that fight so we become the winners. If a major rebellion were to break out, our people may or may not become the losers, but if a small group was doing maximum damage, we remain on top. (Applause) That is what we must understand. Consciously understand it. It is not a question of what they might do, it is a question of how and when they're going to do it. That is all that's in their minds. That is all.

For us the question is not going to Vietnam anymore, the question is how can we protect brothers who do not go to Vietnam from going to jail. That's the only question we have to face in our community today. So, that when one brother says, hell no, there are enough people in that community around him that if they dare come in they're going to face maximum damage in their community. (Applause) We are talking about survival. We are talking about a people whose entire culture, whose entire history, whose entire way of life has been destroyed. We're talking about a people who have produced in this year a warrior, a generation of warriors who are going to restore to our people the humanity and the love that we have for each other. That's what we're talking about today. (Applause) We are talking about becoming the executioners of our executioners. For example, you should give a lot of money to their defense fund, because while some of that money going to go for court scene, the rest of the money gonna go for the executioners, so that if they execute HUEY, the final execution rests in our hands. (Applause)

It is simply the question of a people, they control everything, they make us fight, they make us steal, they judge us, they put us in prison, they parole us, they send us out, they pick us up again. Where in God's name do we exercise any sense of dignity in this country, where, where, where? (Applause)

What in God's name do we control except the church, whose ideology is based to be compatible with this system which is against us. Where in God's name do we exercise any control as a people whose ancestors were the proudest people who walked the fact of this earth, where? (Applause) Where, do I ask you, where. Everywhere he's gone, he's controlled our people. In South Africa he steals the gold from our people. In the West Indies he steals the materials from our people. In South America, where he scattered our people, he's raping us blind. In America he rapes us. In Nova Scotia he rapes us. Where in God's name are we going to find a piece of earth that belongs to us, so we can restore our humanity. Where are we going to find it unless this generation organize to fight for it, fight for it, fight for it? (Applause)

And, if this generation begins to fight, there can be no disruptive elements in our community. There can be none, we will tolerate none. There will be no disruptions. Anyone who fights for their people, we put our lives on the line for them.

HUEY NEWTON fought for our people. Whether or not HUEY NEWTON becomes freed depends upon black people, nobody else. Other people may help, but the final decision of brother HUEY depends upon us. He didn't lay down his life for other people, he laid it down for us, for us. (Applause) And, if he did that, we must be willing to do the same, not only for him, but for the generation that's going to follow us. (Applause)

Consciously we must understand about organizing every element of our community. That work must begin. That means that people must be willing to give money to an organizer who is willing to spend 24 hours a day organizing. He cannot organize from the poverty program because they tell him what to do, but if black people are giving him the money, he can do anything for the benefit of black people. (Applause)

It means that people have to consciously give money for their people. Must. We have to run all of the exploiters out of our community, by any means necessary. (Applause) You ask yourself, if you were white, why would you want to be a cop in a black ghetto today when you know they looking for you. Why, if you weren't sick in the mind, and thought you were so superior that you had the right to rule them? Why would you want a lousy $5,000.00 a year job when you white, and you can make it in this society? Why would you want the job as a cop if you weren't sick? Tell me. Would you want to be in their community if they were ready to off you, for $4000, $5000, $6000 dollars a year?

We have to understand the politics of those hunkies in our community. They are there to patrol and to control it, that is all. We are going to do the patrolling, we are going to do the controlling. We are building a concept of peoplehood. We do not care about hunkies, but if in building that concept of peoplehood, the hunkies get in our way, they got to go, there is no question about it, no question about it. (Applause)

We are not concerned with their way of life, we are concerned with our people. We want to give our people the dignity and humanity that we know as our people. And, if they get in our way, they going to get offed. We're not concerned with their system. Let them have it. We want our way of life, and we're going to get it. We're going to get it or no body's going to have any peace on this earth. (Applause)

Now then, finally before I sit down, let me say two things. I want to read a statement that brother HUEY P. NEWTON wrote yesterday when I saw him in jail. We have to understand this statement. He said, as the racist police escalate the war in our community against black people, we reserve the right to self-defense and maximum retaliation. (Applause)

All of the things we spoke about tonight centered around brother HUEY P. NEWTON because all of the things we spoke about tonight exemplifies what he was trying to do. Now, we have to understand something. There is no need for us to go to jail today for what we say. They did that to brother MALCOLM X. They just offed him for what he was saying. We have to progress as a race. Brother HUEY may or may not have wiped out that hunky, but at least it shows a progression, at least we're not getting offed for what we say, we're to get offed for what we do. Understand this concept. When they offed brother MALCOLM we did nothing. If they off brother HUEY, we get to retaliate, we get to retaliate. (Applause) Do you think that any other race of people will let them off somebody and the rest of them sit there? Where in God's name would you find a race of people like that?

We have lost in the last five years some of our best leaders, LANUNBA, MALCOLM X, they offed brother IKRUMAH, and we do nothing, we do nothing. Now they offing our leaders, they take our youth and send them to Vietnam, send them to Korea, we are slowly getting wiped out. We must retaliate, we must fight for our humanity. It is our humanity that is at stake. It is not a question of dollars and cents. We are going to survive because we have survived what they couldn't survive through, that's a natural-born fact. We have survived through slavery, we survived through their jive reconstruction, we survived through World War I, we survived through the depression, we survived through World War II, we survived after World War II when they threw us out of the jobs in the North, we survived the Korean War. We going to survive. There ain't no doubt about that in my mind, no doubt at all. (Applause) We will survive.

Our problem is to develop an undying love for our people, an undying love for our people. We must be willing to give our talent, our sweat, our blood, even our life, for our people, nothing else, not this country, our people, our people. We must develop the concept that every Negro is a potential black man. You do not alienate your potential allies. Let's bring our people home, let's bring our people home. (Applause)

We must understand the concept that for us, the question of community is not geography, it is a question of us, black people wherever we are, so we have to consciously become a part of the 900 million black people that are separated over this world. We were separated by them. We are blood of the same blood and flesh of the same flesh. We do not know who is our sister, who is brother, or where we came from. They took us from Africa and they put thousands of miles of water between us, but they forget, blood is thicker than water, we coming together, we coming together. (Applause) We are an African people with an African ideology. We are wandering in the United States. We are going to build a concept of peoplehood in this country or there will be no country, or there will be no country. (Applause)

As I end brothers and sisters, brother HUEY P. NEWTON belongs to us. He is flesh of our flesh, he is blood of our blood. He may be Mrs. NEWTON's baby, he's our brother. (Applause) We do not have to talk about what we're going to do, if we're consciously preparing and consciously willing to back those who prepare. All we say, brother HUEY will be set free, or else. (Applause)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL addressed approximately 400 persons on the afternoon of February 21, 1968, at Sokol Hall, 739 Page Street, San Francisco. The theme of CARMICHAEL's speech was: All black people must unite to stamp out the "honkey" (white man).

At the gymnasium, Merritt College, Oakland, California, 8:10 p.m., on February 21, 1968, entrance was blocked by two Negroes who stated that no white persons were permitted entrance without permission of [redacted]

At the auditorium, all persons were admitted. There was an admission charge of fifty cents and all persons were thoroughly frisked for weapons of any kind. Until the arrival of STOKELY CARMICHAEL, a small group of musicians, all Negroes, entertained the crowd. The auditorium was said to hold 900 persons and at the time of CARMICHAEL's arrival, all seats were taken with approximately 100 standees.

The un-named Negro who introduced CARMICHAEL at 3:55 p.m. announced that "STOKELY's" rules call for no unauthorized tape recorders and no unauthorized photographers. He indicated that these rules would be enforced by men patrolling in the aisles.

CARMICHAEL received a standing ovation. He spoke from about 3:55 p.m. to 4:15 p.m., at which time he answered questions from the audience. The theme of his speech was "love" for fellow Africans.

CARMICHAEL claimed that the white man wants to wipe us out and the only way "we" can combat this effort is to organize and fight back. He said it is white against all other races all over the world and the white man insists on ruling even in countries where he is in the minority. To make his point he cited the large percentage of communists in Italy and France, countries the white man considers his allies; he then cited relations with Russia which he indicated was a shame because President JOHNSON can often be seen shaking hands with their leaders. He said "we" are against everything American and if anyone should ask us who we are, we should respond that we are Africans.

From the floor, the question was asked if there was a rift between he and MARTIN LUTHER KING. He replied that we have the same skin and the same blood and the same purpose and indicated there was love of one African for another between them.

From the floor a young Negro woman who could not be clearly heard appeared to castigate CARMICHAEL. She continued on to the stage where CARMICHAEL listened to her and then gave her the microphone. She stated, in effect, that the way to lick the white man was with our minds. She was applauded quite well by the audience. CARMICHAEL responded, vehemently, that the white man gained his superiority with guns, with ropes, and with every means at his disposal except his mind to gain superiority over the blacks. He received a standing ovation and much cheering but it is estimated that about 40 per cent of the crowd did not rise and did not cheer.

To a question about organizing he urged the crowd to join the Black Students Union, then urge their parents to organize a Black Parents Union, not a Parent-Teachers Association, and then organize all the teachers into an Afro-American Teachers Union--then "we" will have complete control of the schools.

It was the opinion of the agents that though CARMICHAEL was received very well by the crowd, there were many who were not in whole-hearted agreement with him.

Date

At approximately 10:00 p.m., STOKELY CARMICHAEL was observed entering the stage at Merritt College auditorium, 57th and Grove Streets, Oakland, California. CARMICHAEL was present to address the evening session of an all-day rally, held to commemorate the death of MALCOLM X. This rally was sponsored by the Black Student Union at Merritt College.

There were approximately 1000 individuals gathered in the auditorium, and it was noted that approximately 95% of these individuals were Negroes. A "donation" of $1.00 was collected at the door.

During the entire period of CARMICHAEL's speech, ten Negroes were noted standing on the stage near CARMICHAEL. It was apparent that these individuals were ostensibly placed on the stage to act as a guard for CARMICHAEL.

CARMICHAEL spoke for approximately thirty minutes and his speech was followed by a question and answer period. His principal theme was that the survival of the Negro race depended mainly on all Negroes having love for the Negro race. CARMICHAEL reiterated this theme over and over again during his speech, indicating that Negroes must band together in order to survive the hostility of the whites. He stated that MALCOLM X had attempted to alert the Negro race to the real struggle going on in the United States, that of whites against non-whites. Until the Negro race recognized the fact that Negroes have to unite together against white hostility, all Negroes will be at the mercy of the "fascist pig cops."

On February 20, 1968, information was received revealing that a cross section of the leadership of the San Francisco Bay Area Negro community was being invited by letter invitation in the name of STOKELY CARMICHAEL to attend a meeting at a Downs Memorial Methodist Church, 61st and Idaho Streets, Oakland, on February 22, 1968, at 11:00 a.m. The meeting was to be held for the purpose of exploring ways and means of eliminating existing antagonisms within the Negro community.

On February 22, 1968, from noon to 4:00 p.m., STOKELY CARMICHAEL attended and was in charge of a unity meeting at Downs Memorial Methodist Church, 61st and Idaho Streets, Oakland. Approximately 225 persons, all Negroes, were present by invitation only. Those present represented a cross section of the leadership of the Negro community of the entire San Francisco Bay Area. The purpose of the meeting was to promote unity and understanding among all members of the black community. In order to help unite middle and upper class Negroes with young black militants, a Black United Front organization was proposed by STOKELY CARMICHAEL.

proposal was the reason for calling the [] meeting and avoiding publicity and avoiding any possibility of federal or local law intervention. It was also to prevent any newspaper leaks from getting his story to the public before his plan could get off the ground. CARMICHAEL's plan is that all black groups and organizations band together to form a Black United Front. CARMICHAEL stated that all blacks would be invited whether they were involved in political activity or not, regardless of the political organization, whether NAACP, Urban League or even CP, USA. CARMICHAEL reportedly stated that every Negro person is a potential black and if one falls, all fall until blacks unite now before it is too late. CARMICHAEL reportedly asserted that all blacks should make plans for self protection and that all blacks upon entering the Black United Front should be prepared to defend themselves at any cost using knives, guns or sticks.

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette", a newspaper of general circulation published at Berkeley, California, carried articles on pages 1 and 2 in the issue of February 27, 1968. These articles reveal that STOKELY CARMICHAEL was present among a crowd of approximately 300 persons who gathered at the Berkeley Civic Center area to protest the arrest and prosecution of BOBBY SEALE, his wife and others on charges of possessing illegal weapons.

BOBBY GEORGE SEALE is publicly known as the Chairman of the BPPSD.

The newspaper account reflects that CARMICHAEL read from what he said was a letter from H. RAPP BROWN. This letter stated in part, "It is time to move from resistance to aggression, from revolt to revolution. I am a political prisoner jailed for my beliefs. This government is the enemy of mankind. For our people, death has been the only end to slavery and oppression. We must fight. It is the people who determine history, not the leaders. If it takes my death (to bring about the end of this country) then here is my life, but my soul belongs to my people."

BLACK PANTHER PARTY FOR SELF-DEFENSE (BPPSD)

A source advised that the Black Panther Party For Self-Defense (BPPSD) was formed by HUEY PERCY NEWTON, Minister of Defense, [redacted] in Oakland, California, in December, 1966, as a militant black nationalist political organization to combat "police brutality," to unite militant black youth, to determine the destiny of black communities, and to educate black people in African history. The political philosophy of the organization was taken from the writings of MAO TSE-TUNG of Communist China and black militant writers.

b7C
b7D

The official BPPSD publication "The Black Panther - Black Community News Service" indicates the leadership of the BPPSD advocates the use of guns and guerilla tactics in the violent revolutionary program to end oppression and to oppose the drafting of black men to fight in Vietnam.

A second source advised that in early 1967, [redacted] NEWTON, and their associates carried carbine rifles and holstered pistols in plain view on the streets of Oakland and elsewhere while on "defense patrols."

b7C
b7D

[redacted] was one of the persons arrested by the Sacramento, California Police Department on May 2, 1967, when members of the BPPSD invaded the California State Legislative Assembly in Sacramento while in session, carrying loaded guns to protest restrictions on the carrying of guns.

A Grand Jury of Alameda County, California, Oakland, California, on November 13, 1967, indicted HUEY PERCY NEWTON on charge of murder of an Oakland, California police officer on October 28, 1967, in Oakland, California.

The [redacted] advised that the headquarters office of the BPPSD at 5624 Grove Street, Oakland, California, is closed and that no membership meetings have been held since August, 1967.

b2
b7D

The November 4, 1967, issue of "The Sun Reporter," a San Francisco, California Negro community newspaper, states that a HUEY PERCY NEWTON defense fund has been established and that the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) through the national offices have pledged their complete and continuous support to the defense of HUEY PERCY NEWTON.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist -oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A [] has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention.

MINUTEMEN

The following information was received from a source who claims to be familiar with activities and plans of the Minutemen:

The Minutemen had a general plan to foment civil strife by killing Negro Leaders, Martin Luther King, [redacted] and Stokely Carmichael and, therefore, seize power in the confusion. No specific time table set and Carmichael had least priority because he was already fomenting civil strife himself.

b7C
b7D
The Minutemen also planned to kill [redacted] and to kidnap and kill the United States Attorney in Kansas City, Missouri, for prosecution against the Minutemen and [redacted] and Alcohol, Tobacco and Tax Unit Agents [redacted] of Kansas City, Missouri, and FBI Investigator of the Minutemen in Kansas City whom they described as elderly, short and with gray hair.

They planned to place a bomb at the door of the FBI Office in New Haven, Connecticut, after working hours, not to injure people but to cause confusion.

b7C
b7D
From time to time, the Minutemen have conducted surveillances of individuals in their offices concerning these plans. The Minutemen members in Connecticut are identified as [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted] The meetings are held on [redacted] Connecticut. [redacted] to blow up the courtroom or court house rather than let himself be tried and convicted.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

"MINUTEMEN"

b7C
b7D

The "Minutemen" was organized in June, 1960. Its present headquarters are Norborne, Missouri. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has stated the membership of the "Minutemen" to be in excess of 35,000 members, however, confidential sources state this figure is greatly exaggerated and that a more true estimate would be between 800 and 2,000 members. Statements by [REDACTED] and literature distributed by the organization indicate its purpose to be the resistance to, and exposure of, the spread of Communist influence within the United States; for the formation of a guerrilla or underground organization to combat the troops of any foreign powers which might eventually occupy this country; and resist passage of laws which would regulate private ownership of firearms.

b7D

The Kansas City Star newspaper has on numerous occasions contained articles concerning the "Minutemen", wherein it was stated that members of the organization participate in maneuvers utilizing guerrilla tactics with machine guns, mortars, grenades, and other firearms. [REDACTED] has publicly stated the "Minutemen" as an organization does not buy or store arms or ammunition; however, individual members are urged to maintain arms and ammunition, which is their constitutional right. "Minutemen" has given instructions in the use of explosive compounds from such readily accessible ingredients as common fertilizer, ammonium nitrate. [REDACTED] along with his close associate [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] were convicted in U. S. District Court of violation of the Federal Firearms Act. All were sentenced to prison and all are free on bond pending their appeals to the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals, St. Louis, Missouri.

On October 30, 1966, the New York City Police Department arrested 19 members of the "Minutemen", charging them with "conspiracy to commit arson", and "illegal possession of firearms". An inventory of firearms seized as a result of these arrests included 115 rifles, 26 handguns, 8 automatic weapons, 3 bazookas, 2 mortars, 1 anti-tank gun and an unknown quantity of ammunition.

In April, 1966, [] stated the "Minutemen" organization was then dividing itself into two bodies: one group to be members who have been able to maintain their identity in complete secrecy from the public and government investigative agencies, and the other group to be made up of members who have been publicly identified and who will become active in the Patriotic Party. The first group will go completely underground and will continue to emphasize intelligence activities and resistance warfare training programs. The first national convention of the Patriotic Party was held July 3 and 4, 1966, at Kansas City, Missouri, [] About 300 individuals attended this convention. The second annual convention of the Patriotic Party was held July 2, 3, & 4, 1967, Kansas City, Kansas, with approximately 240 persons attending. []

I. EVENTS INVOLVING STOKELY CARMICHAEL
ON EVENING OF APRIL 4, 1968

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 4/12/68

b7C

[redacted] of the "Washington Post" was contacted at his office, 1515 L Street, N.W. for information concerning the article which appeared in the "Washington Post" on April 5, 1968 regarding civil disturbance in the District of Columbia on the preceding evening. At the request of [redacted] [redacted] joined the interview.

b7C

[redacted] was questioned as to the source of the article. He advised there were three reporters in the immediate vicinity of STOKELY CARMICHAEL on the night of April 4, 1968 and the story was based on their account. After publication of the article in the "New York Times" quoting CARMICHAEL as telling the crowd, "Go home and get your guns," the almost simultaneous reports of these three reporters were reviewed and they were personally questioned about the matter. No reporter recorded CARMICHAEL making such a statement, and each definitely stated such a statement was not made by CARMICHAEL. [redacted] said that all three reporters were experienced and reliable. He was of the definite belief that the Washington Post article was correct and the New York Times article in error. He furnished the names of these reporters [redacted] [redacted] all Negroes. All three had been dispatched at the time the bulletin was received as to the death of KING, and prior to news of any disturbance.

In addition to these reporters, the "Washington Post" had six other reporters and four photographers covering the happenings of the night of April 4, 1968. However, none of the others observed the activities of CARMICHAEL. No photograph was obtained of CARMICHAEL with a weapon.

[redacted] stated it was the desire of his office to cooperate with the various law enforcement agencies; however, some reporters felt if informants and sources of information became aware of their (reporters') cooperation these sources would cease to furnish information, and their livelihood or possibly lives would be jeopardized. He also said that he did not like to have his reporters tied up for long intervals in Court. [redacted] informed Agents they were at liberty to contact the above-mentioned reporters and photographers to ascertain if they would be willing to furnish facts concerning their observations of CARMICHAEL and others on the evening of April 4, 1968. He said that

[redacted] who did not desire to be interviewed by Agents, had been present, along with CARMICHAEL, at the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee headquarters shortly after news was received of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING's death and had observed CARMICHAEL's march on 14th and U Streets, N.W.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 4/12/681

After Agents had contacted [redacted] of the "Washington Post" in his office, 1515 L Street, N.W., for information concerning an article which appeared in the Washington Post on April 5, 1968, regarding civil disturbances in the District of Columbia on the preceding evening he requested [redacted] join the interview. b7C

[redacted] reiterated [redacted] statement that three experienced, reliable, reporters had been present and observed CARMICHAEL's activities as reported in the Post article. He stated that the "New York Time's" article quoting CARMICHAEL as telling the crowd to go home and get their guns was in error. When this incident was supposed to have occurred, one Post reporter was in the crowd, another in a car, and the third in a phone booth. Each independently reported approximately the same information. CARMICHAEL was reported as telling the crowd when it began to get unruly, "This isn't the way to do it"; and he kept repeating, "Go home, Go home, Go home." And CARMICHAEL made a statement to the effect that they were not going to "do it tonight." CARMICHAEL also was quoted as making a statement to the effect that he had a gun and inquired if the members of the crowd had theirs, but at no time did he tell the crowd to go home and get theirs. b7C

[redacted] advised that [redacted] told him that he would not consent to an interview by Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents "under any circumstances." b7C

On the evening of April 4, 1968, after a bulletin had come over the news service of the death of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., [redacted] left the "Post" newsroom at about 8:00 p.m. and was driven to New Bethel Baptist Church in an endeavor to contact [redacted]. He was advised by [redacted] was distraught and had left his church to go to 14th and "U" Streets, N.W., to calm down the crowd. He later learned that [redacted] had gone to the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) Headquarters. [redacted] wife drove him to 14th and "U" Streets, N.W., where he arrived at about 9:00 p.m. [redacted] explained that his sense of time might be off since things were happening so fast.

b7C

Upon arrival at 14th and "U" Streets, N.W., [redacted] observed a crowd of about 100 people north of "U" Street on 14th Street, led by STOKELY CARMICHAEL, proceeding south. He recognized others in the crowd as being SNCC members whom he had seen in the past but whose names he did not know.

The crowd came south on the west side of 14th Street. He observed CARMICHAEL talking with a person whom he believed to be the manager of Peoples Drug Store, at 14th and "U" Streets, N.W., and he noted that this person nodded his head as if in agreement with CARMICHAEL. As b7C CARMICHAEL was leaving the store, [] heard CARMICHAEL tell people that the store was being closed in respect to the memory of Dr. KING. The crowd crossed to the east side of 14th Street at "U" Street, where a liquor store was asked to close. [] remained at 14th and "U" Streets and made a call to his office. Upon completion of the call, the crowd apparently had gone south of "U" Street on 14th Street for only a short distance as it returned quickly to 14th and "U" Streets and turned east on "U" Street, going as far as the Republic Theater, telling the various business establishments which were open that they should close in respect to KING. He observed that some of the members of the crowd were endeavoring to restrain others who were trying to destroy property, and recalled that earlier some of the individuals had been restrained from breaking a window in the Safeway store on 14th Street. The crowd, CARMICHAEL in the lead, proceeded to 12th Street and turned back toward 14th Street. [] again called his office from 12th and "U" Streets. He next observed the crowd at 14th Street as it turned north and crossed over to the west side, about one-fourth block north of "U" Street, at which time someone broke a window at Peoples Drug Store. Members of the crowd admonished others to be "cool" and not lose their heads. [] followed the crowd as far as 14th and "W" Streets, N.W. He believed the crowd went as far north as Clifton Street. The crowd returned south on 14th Street, again on the west side, and other windows were broken. Several persons tried to get in front of the crowd to the store fronts, trying to prevent looting. [] again called his office from 14th and "V" Streets.

b7C When [] rejoined his observation at 14th and "U" Streets, he observed that a person was brandishing a hand weapon on the steps of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. [] said that he did not know b7C whether the weapon was a pistol or a revolver. CARMICHAEL "snatched" the weapon from this individual and told him to go home. [] said that as far as he could remember CARMICHAEL kept this weapon in his hand. He never saw him put it away, and saw it in his hands as long as 30 minutes later. [] observed the breaking of windows of business establishments, including a dress shop and a television repair shop. Persons in the crowd again tried to protect the stores from looting. However, he had noticed that looting was beginning as he had called his office from 14th and "V" Streets.

b7C The crowd which had been led by CARMICHAEL had moved somewhat as a unit, but as the looting began the crowd scattered and broke up into groups or mobs, which had no cohesiveness. Some people went north on 14th Street, others went south. Another window was broken at Peoples Drug Store and at two pawnshops on the west side of 14th Street between "T" and "U" Streets. Looting broke out in several areas. [] tried to get into the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People office to make a phone call. From this point on, there was just a general melee and there were no cohesive units.

b7C [] said at no time did he actually hear STOKELY CARMICHAEL tell any storekeeper to close his business but it was clear that while the crowd was moving about in the general area of 14th and "U" Streets telling the stores to close in respect to Dr. KING, CARMICHAEL was leading the group and was their spokesman. The only store [] actually entered was the Peoples Drug Store, previously referred to. As the crowd became unruly, CARMICHAEL and others tried to calm them. He did not recall the exact words of CARMICHAEL, but in effect, CARMICHAEL wanted to close the stores but not to cause trouble. However, people in the crowd yelled such things as: "Go get guns," "Let's kill," or "Let's take something." [] recalls specifically two points where CARMICHAEL b7C tried to cool tempers and argued with persons who were apparently getting out of hand -- once just north of the Peoples Drug Store and the second time, a few feet south of the Zanzibar Restaurant on 14th Street. At the latter place, CARMICHAEL said, "Let's cool it. We're not ready. If you don't have your gun, go home." He did not recall that CARMICHAEL had brandished a gun at this time. [] reiterated he had never seen CARMICHAEL put away the gun which he had taken from the person on the steps of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference earlier, and that he assumed the gun he saw on these various occasions was the same gun.

b7C [] estimated he was in the 14th and "U" Streets, N.W. area for about two hours, commencing at 8:30 or 9:00 p.m. to about 10:30 - 11:00 p.m. He lost contact with CARMICHAEL shortly after the crowd split up into groups. He last observed CARMICHAEL talking to some people at 14th and "U" Streets.

b7C [] advised that he was hesitant to take notes during the foregoing activities. He advised that he had noticed early the anger of the crowd because of Dr. KING's murder. The closing of the stores seemed to add to the excitement of the crowd, and the crowd's temper was stimulated by some in the crowd who wanted to exploit the situation. [] said he was struck by the fury of some people who were bent on destruction but not looting. At no time Thursday night or later has he observed anyone trying to incite or lead others in destruction or looting. People seemed to be acting individually. He commented that on one occasion he observed a man ignite an awning; others advised this person that people resided in the building and the man then unsuccessfully tried to put out the fire he had lit. At one time, [] observed an individual exhorting the crowd not to loot, and an hour later he saw this same individual himself looting.

Other than the weapon [] saw in the hands of CARMICHAEL, the only other weapon he saw was what appeared to be a sawed-off shotgun extending below the jacket of an unknown male he observed walking north between "W" and Clifton Streets on 14th Street.

b7C

[] said the only other comments he heard CARMICHAEL say was, "Get off the street," "They have tanks," "We are not ready yet," "We are here to close stores," "Let's be cool. Let's not have violence." [] did not recall seeing CARMICHAEL brandish a gun and say "Go home if you don't have a gun as I have mine."

[] said the only direct action he observed CARMICHAEL to take was in leading the crowd in the closing of the stores.

b7C

[] has not seen CARMICHAEL since the evening of April 4, 1968.

[redacted] for WTOP news, home address, [redacted] advised that in connection with his employment [redacted] he arrived at the corner of 14th Street, N. W. and U Streets, N. W. at approximately 10:00 p.m. on April 4, 1968. He heard trouble had developed in the area.

He said when he arrived in the area he noticed groups of people gathered on all four corners and nearby with maybe 50 people in one group, 75 in another and maybe 100 in another apparently just standing around. He said he went near the group of maybe 100 people who were on the northwest corner partly in front of Peoples Drug Store which was then closed and the headquarters of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC).

b7C

Shortly after arriving there he noticed STOKELY CARMICHAEL, [redacted] and several others whom he knows to be members of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) in the group and heard CARMICHAEL say "Go Home, Go Home, this is not the way, this is not the time." He said he also heard CARMICHAEL say "Go Home and get your guns", but said it was his impression that CARMICHAEL's pleas to "Go Home" actually was an attempt by him to disperse the crowd and he did not interpret CARMICHAEL's saying "Go Home and get your guns" to mean come back that evening with guns, but rather to arm themselves for some future action, the time not being specified.

Right after CARMICHAEL made the statement about getting guns, a drunken Negro male in the crowd hollered "I got a gun", and held it high over his head to display it to the crowd. There was a brief scuffle in the crowd and after it was over CARMICHAEL appeared with the gun which he had apparently taken from the drunken Negro male and was holding it over his head.

About that time, two, three or four Special Police guards, all Negroes, drove up in a yellow convertible who were apparently hired by the Peoples Drug Store to guard their store. The crowd moved menacingly toward them and CARMICHAEL still holding the gun high moved between the crowd and the guards and held the crowd back and said to the guards "Now, get the hell out of here" and the Special Police left immediately.

b7C

[] said the appearance of the guards, did not arouse CARMICHAEL's anger, but he apparently acted in this way to prevent further trouble.

b7C

He related that to the best of his memory, he was aware of CARMICHAEL being in the area for twenty to twenty five minutes after his arrival there. He said he last remembered seeing him across the street from Peoples while he [] was still in front of Peoples. His attention was then diverted to some other area and he does not recall seeing CARMICHAEL again. He said he [] was in the general area until about 4:00 a.m. or so the next morning.

b7C

He said sometime which he believed was before he [] arrived a window had been broken in Peoples Drug Store, but during the time CARMICHAEL was there, he did not recall any looting except possibly a few small children may have taken some candy from Peoples.

He said the breaking of windows and looting which later ensued was sporadic and disorganized.

b7C

[] said it was his impression that the activities of CARMICHAEL which he witnessed, did not precipitate the disturbances, and in fact, his actions may have stalled somewhat the activity which followed.

[] said when he first arrived in the area he also noticed [] in the crowd.

WFO 62-9737

said he would be willing to testify to the above.

Street and 14th Street, N.W.; this area between Pennsylvania Avenue and as far north as Upshur Street; in addition he also traversed Georgia Avenue and repeatedly traveled on these three main thoroughfares, observing fires burning, business houses being looted and other destruction being committed. He said he specifically was looking for CARMICHAEL or some of the other well-known leaders of SNCC, but throughout that evening did not encounter any of them.

[] said he resumed coverage on the streets on Friday evening and remained on the streets, covering the same areas, until about 5:00 a.m., Saturday, April 6, 1968. He said during the course of these travels and observations he did not see CARMICHAEL nor any other SNCC leaders.

b7C

Concerning the violence in Washington as a whole, [] expressed the opinion that on Thursday night and on Friday night, previously indicated, he concluded the mood of the people was not violence based on anger, but was more in the spirit of a lark or within a carnival atmosphere. He said as the violence reached the height of its pitch and ebbed by reason of the presence of military personnel as well as police officers, he felt the mood of the protesters turned more to anger because of the imposition of the curfew and the ever presence of an armed soldier standing in readiness to restrict the crowd or any individual.

[] said it was his personal opinion, based upon his association in the black community, that WDC, as well as other major cities, would see greater examples of violence and protest from members of the black community. [] attributed this to inaction and lack of attention on the part of Congress and others presently in power.

He said he parked on the northwest corner of 14th and U Streets and went across the street to a Peoples Drug Store located on 14th Street near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. The store was still closed since it was early in the morning but by showing his press card he was able to gain admittance.

b7C According to [] no one present at the drug store would identify themselves but a man, who from his appearance was the manager, advised [] that he was present the evening of April 4, 1968, when CARMICHAEL first appeared at the drug store. This individual advised [] that CARMICHAEL and about fifteen other men appeared at his store around 9:05 or 9:10 p.m. and CARMICHAEL announced he wanted the store closed in honor of Dr. KING. [] questioned the store manager as to whether or not CARMICHAEL had a gun at this time. The manager said, "No, I did not see a gun in CARMICHAEL's possession at that time."

b7C The manager said, according to [] that he had turned and walked to the back of the store and upon arriving at the rear of the drug store was surprised to note that CARMICHAEL had followed him. The store manager said he turned and told CARMICHAEL, "Look, I heard you. I'm going to close the store." CARMICHAEL then turned around and said, "Everybody out! Everybody out!"

b7C The store manager related, according to [] that CARMICHAEL then departed from the store and walked across the street to a Safeway store. [] said that upon receiving this information he attempted to retrace CARMICHAEL's steps and walked across the street to the Safeway store and asked an employee if he had been on duty the evening before when CARMICHAEL appeared. This employee advised that he had been on duty and that the store had already closed; however, CARMICHAEL rapped on the window and said in a loud voice, "Look, we want this store closed." The store employee told [] that he had informed CARMICHAEL that the store had already closed, whereupon CARMICHAEL departed.

b7C [] said that at this point he could no longer retrace CARMICHAEL's steps because the people he talked to at the Safeway store did not know where CARMICHAEL had gone from that store, but being somewhat familiar with the neighborhood, he walked south on 14th Street for several blocks to the Unique Barber Shop, which he sometimes patronizes.

[] asked the barber if he had seen CARMICHAEL the evening before and the barber said, "No, I was home. I close at 8:00."

b7C [] related that an old gentleman, whose name he does not know but who frequents this barber shop, was in the barber shop at this time and [] asked him if he had seen what happened the previous evening. The old man said, "Yes," whereupon [] asked him if he had seen STOKELY CARMICHAEL and the old gentleman said, "Yes, he's got nothing but nerve." [] then inquired where CARMICHAEL had been and the old gentleman said, "Up on the corner," and by this [] believed that he meant on the corner of 14th and U Streets near Peoples Drug Store.

b7C [] said upon questioning, this elderly Negro stated "I saw him up on the corner waving a gun and saying 'Go home. The only thing you can do with whitey is get killed.'" b7C [] advised that he had then returned to the newspaper office and had written the story based on the above information. He remarked he was disappointed to learn that his newspaper had not used this story but had run an account of the above incidents which had been printed by the "New York Times." [] advised he believes the "New York Times" account to be in error and stated he based his belief on the fact that [] for the "Washington Post" stated he had been present when the incident concerning CARMICHAEL waving a gun in the air had taken place. [redacted] Peoples Drug Store Number 3, 2002 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., furnished the following information concerning the activities of STOKELY CARMICHAEL at that store on Thursday, April 4, 1968:

b7C

At about 9:05-9:10 p.m., Thursday, April 4, 1968, CARMICHAEL reappeared at that store with a following of from 15-20 Negro male individuals whose identities and general age group were not known to [redacted] CARMICHAEL and his associates entered via the front door and proceeded through the store to the rear where [redacted] was then located in the pharmacy area thereof.

b7C

Immediately upon entering the store and also while proceeding through the store to the pharmacy area, CARMICHAEL demanded in a loud voice that the store be closed in memory of Doctor MARTIN LUTHER KING who had just died. CARMICHAEL was more arrogant and demanding than on the occasions of his previous visits to the store, so [redacted] the store closed in deference to the demands of CARMICHAEL. Ten or fifteen customers were in the store at the time and CARMICHAEL ordered them out with statements to the effect that, "The store is closing!" The customers were ushered out by CARMICHAEL and his associates and the front door to the store was closed as CARMICHAEL and his associates departed. The employees on duty were then dismissed for the evening and individual areas of the store were secured.

Peoples Drug Store Number 3, 2002 14th Street, Washington, D. C., furnished the following information concerning the activities of STOKELY CARMICHAEL at that store during the period of Tuesday, April 2, 1968, and Thursday, April 4, 1968, as well as other activities deemed pertinent to this investigation:

After 8 p.m., Tuesday, April 2, 1968, a Peoples Drug Store guard, then on duty at that store, caused an incident by grabbing a young Negro boy who had caused a commotion in front of the store. The guard brought the boy to the rear of the store and then the guard's attention was immediately called to the front of the store where a large group had congregated in protest of the guard's treatment of the boy. A fracas resulted during which the guard sustained a cut on his lip allegedly made by a razor. In the interim, the young boy disappeared from the store unnoticed. The turmoil which erupted was quieted by the local police on two occasions, and more guards of the Peoples Drug Stores were summoned to the scene. During this turmoil, [redacted] also heard an explosion sounding like a firecracker explosion. [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted] who was present at the time, described the noise as being similar to the discharge of a .22 caliber pistol. Both [redacted] were in the rear of the store behind the prescription counter during the described activity. Toward the end of the turmoil when the police had arrived for the second time, STOKELY CARMICHAEL also appeared on the scene and instructed the crowd to clean up the mess and leave the area. The crowd followed the directions of CARMICHAEL.

[redacted] was on the store premises between 3:30 and 4 p.m., Thursday, April 4, 1968, when STOKELY CARMICHAEL allegedly reappeared at the store, but she did not see CARMICHAEL at that time nor heard any portion of the remarks he allegedly made to the other store employees.

b7C Between 9:05 and 9:15 p.m., Thursday, April 4, 1968, while [redacted] was on duty [redacted] at the rear of the store, STOKELY CARMICHAEL entered the store followed by "about a dozen" Negro male associates ranging in ages from about twelve years to their early twenties. CARMICHAEL and his associates proceeded to the rear of the store via the aisle along the north side of the store and they then turned to the center aisle where CARMICHAEL stopped in front of the prescription counter. During this activity, [redacted] was attempting to telephone the local police precinct to report the appearance of CARMICHAEL and his group on the premises but he was not successful in reaching the police. As CARMICHAEL walked to the rear of the store the customers were leaving the store hurriedly, giving the impression to [redacted] that CARMICHAEL was ordering them to leave.

b7C When CARMICHAEL came within earshot of [redacted] [redacted] he was stating words to the effect of "Let's close the store! Let's close the store! Everybody out in respect for Dr. KING. Close the store!" He might also have referred to Dr. KING by his full name of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING at sometime during these demands. In any event, [redacted] clearly understood that CARMICHAEL was referring to the death of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING which had occurred that same evening.

Immediately thereafter, the manager of the store hung up the phone and agreed to close the store in deference to the demands made by CARMICHAEL. CARMICHAEL then turned around and walked out of the store via the center aisle.

b7C

As his group followed him, the younger boys in the rear of the group pilfered soft goods from a nearby counter. [redacted] [redacted] did not believe CARMICHAEL had become aware of this pilferage.

As soon as CARMICHAEL and his group left the store and the last customer departed, the manager closed the store, and he locked the front door. The employees closed down their individual operations and left the store, presumably for home.

b7C

[redacted] left for home at 9:35 p.m., at which time [redacted] [redacted] were still on the premises. [redacted] returned to the store on the following morning and noticed the store had been forcibly entered and looted during the night.

When CARMICHAEL ordered the store closed on the night of April 4, 1968, he was forceful and aggressive in his demand and arrogant in his demeanor. He made no display of any firearms or other dangerous weapons and he made no statements concerning them.
